MILL WRIGHT.

AFTER AN EXPERIENCE OF TWENTY years in my business, I offer my services to the public, to build Mills, and set in running order Circular Saw Mills now in use, both double and single; simultaneous and Independent setting Screw Headblocks, two or more combined and the best friction feed in use. It is operated with a single lever, in front of the saw on the outside the carriage, thus saving one hand in the Mill. The double mill requires about one half the power to cut the same amount of Lumber, as the single Mill requires.
I will also put up Cotton Gins, Corn and Flour Mills.

MONDAY, JULY 26, 1869.

From the La Crosse Democrat.

RADICAL BLESSINGS!

The above heading is written facetiously, for really there isn't any such thing, but there are things which the Radical party call such, and they try to make the laboring men of the country think that they are. And for that reason we want the attention of the laboring men of the country for just a few moments; especially those who for some cause have heretofore voted the Radical ticket, and those who to-night will take their week's earnings and go to the store and pay double what they should for every article of clothing which they buy.

A vivid idea of one of the great blessings which is granted us by the party now in power, can be gathered from the fact that for the year 1868 our imported goods amounted in value to about $440,000,000. On this amount $20,000,000 were paid in the shape of custom house duties. This, of course, raised the price of goods, imported, just one half; or, to make it still plainer, all imported goods, to the value of one dollar, costs the laboring men who buys them, two dollars. But, says the Radical, the poor man should not wear imported goods. Exactly so, he shouldn't, and so he would'nt, were not these duties imposed on foreign goods expressly for the benefit of New England manufacturers, who can thus take the advantage of the laboring classes which the Radical party gives them. Manufacturers, of course, will run their own goods up in the market so as to reach, or nearly reach, the price of imported goods.

This is a part of the immense taxation which the poor people of the country have to pay—for every dollars worth of goods they have to pay two dollars.

Now, the Radical will tell you that this high tariff becomes necessary that the duties paid our government may be large. If the duties were but one-quarter as much as they now are, four times as many goods would be brought to this country, and our government would receive as much money as it now does, and the laboring man, instead of paying ten dollars for the cloth to make him a pair of pants and a vest, would have to pay but four or five, as he did in the Democratic days before the war, when tariffs were light, and manufacturers had to take their chances with other institutions of labor, and had no license to rob poor people of just one half they earn.

It is all nonsense for any one to claim that this heavy tax increases the government revenue, for it does not. It kills, to a great extent, foreign commerce. It keeps from our shores foreign ships, which would come hither loaded with the products of the country from which they sail, which they would be glad to exchange for our corn, wheat and other grains, which now bring so low a price in the market, in comparison to those things the farmers are obliged to buy—tea, coffee, sugar, spices and almost all articles of clothing.

Is it any wonder, then, that the question of free trade or low tariff, is being agitated, by most of the leading journals all over the country? Is it any wonder that we hear of free trade leagues springing up all over the country, to co operate with the Democratic party in demanding that this protection for the rich against the poor, be broken down, and that labor have an equal chance with capital to enjoy the blessings of a free country.

About the most important and urgent of all political questions, especially for those who labor, is the reduction of tariff. On the present amount of imports, instead of collecting $20,000,000, we should collect but about $10,000,000, and the extra amount which is collected is actually robbed from the poor men of the country, to increase the wealth of Eastern manufacturers.

This is one of the great blessings of Radicalism, and one which Democracy desires to remove from the shoulders of the taxpayers who have to carry it. If it is necessary that the poor should thus be robbed to sustain the government, it would seem but fair that the rich should contribute their share; but they do not. Search the country far and wide and it will be impossible to find one single Radical who considers it necessary to tax the rich bond holder, that he may contribute a little to the support of the government. No, the government must be supported, and those who labor must do it, and at the same time pay an interest on the bonded investments of the rich, who in their turn are exempt from taxation.

This is but a tithe of the blessings which the party in power are heaping upon the laboring people and the country. Aristocracy has its foot upon the neck of the poor, and do we wonder that they croak of imperialism that they may have the power to keep it there. Every poor man who enjoys the right of franchise should ponder well this matter ere he again visits the ballot box.

CHLOROFORM—THE THING "LADIES" GET TIGHT ON.

[From the New York World.]

The extent to which the habit of the secret use of chloroform prevails to day among all classes of women, from the inmates of the shameful haunts of Greene street to the belles of the Fifth avenue and the pupils of fashionable boarding-schools, is known to few except the apothecaries who supply the deadly drug. For deadly it is; and, though its poison is sometimes as swift as the cobra's, it is at others slow in its vengeance, reaching through years of misery, but always sure and inevitable.—We hear, with terrible frequency of sudden deaths from chloroform, "taken only to allay a headache;" but we do not hear of the wreck of the brain and the ruin of the nervous system which its habitual use surely brings about. The swiftness with which it produces its dreamy intoxication, and the few apparent traces which it leaves behind, make it a favorite with women who know nothing of its ungovernable force, of its cumulative effects, and of its terribly dangerous nature. Its use is far more to be deprecated than that of alcohol or opium, the effects of which can easily be foretold. Chloroform, on the contrary, is as subtle and sudden in its WAYWARD vengeance as the most treacherous and dangerous of the women who use it. The dose that was seemingly innocuous yesterday, may, if repeated, bring swift and relentless death to day, and, though the penalty should be delayed, it is certain to be inflicted sooner or later. When, a year or two ago, a writer charged American women with drunkenness, the charge was easily repelled; for the delicate organization of the refined lady instinctively and notoriously shuns the rude grasp of alcohol. The charge that chloroform is largely used by women, is however, lamentably true. It is generally used in ignorance of its nature and ultimate effects, but the sad and disgraceful fact that it is habitually employed to an alarming extent, as an aid to female drunkenness, cannot be gainsaid.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

THE HON. ASA PACKER.

SKETCH OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The Hon. Asa Packer was born in 1806, in Groton, New Lisbon county, Conn., and in 1822, with his outfit strapped in a knapsack on his back, removed to Springfield, Susquehanna county, Pa., and apprenticed himself to a carpenter of that village. On arriving at the age of 21, with his scanty savings he purchased a small lot of land upon the upper waters of the Susquehanna, and settled down as farmer. In 1833 he removed to the Lehigh valley, and, as master of his own boat, engaged in the transportation of coal from Mauch Chunk to Philadelphia. The managers of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, attracted by the energy and industry of Asa Packer, secured his services for the corporation at a liberal compensation, and in 1855, Asa and his brother, R. W. Packer, aided by an uncle, established themselves at Mauch Chunk in the general merchandise business. The cash capital of the firm was only $5,000, but in a short time their business became widely extended, and embraced not only the ordinary transactions of a country store but the erection of locks and dams for the canal, the working of coal veins leased from the Lehigh Company, and at last the working of the Hazelton mines, owned by the Packers. The firm shipped coal to New York and Philadelphia, not only by the Lehigh, but also by the Schuylkill river. In 1850, Asa Packer entered on the work of building the Lehigh Valley railroad, having become the owner of a controlling portion of the stock of a company chartered in 1846, but not a foot of the line of which had been built; in fact, only 17 days of the limit for commencing the road yet remained. Packer, in October, 1851, submitted a proposition to build 46 miles of the road from Mauch Chunk to Easton, and receive his pay in stock and bonds.—This proposition was accepted, and the work, under pressing financial embarrassments, was vigorously pressed to completion, and the entire line was delivered in September, 1855. The success attending upon Packer's exertions to build the Lehigh Valley railroad laid the foundations of his fortunes as a coal and railroad operator, and he is now worth, it is estimated, between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000. In 1865, Packer founded at South Bethlehem a scientific school, called the Lehigh University, and endowed it with a tract of land, 50 acres in extent, and with $500,000 in money, and it is believed he intends giving an additional $500,000, making $1,000,000.

Asa Packer, through his entire career, has been widely known as an earnest, thorough going, consistent Democrat, of the old school. He has been a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, his term in that body ending in 1843, and a member of the house of Representatives in Congress for the Thirteenth district from 1853 to 1857. At the Democratic national Convention, held in 1868, in New York, he received the entire vote of Pennsylvania as candidate for the Presidency, for fourteen ballots, and was only withdrawn in favor of Gen. W. S. Hancock. The nomination of Judge Packer as candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania is a becoming compliment to a life spent in honest industry, and to a character of blameless purity and unspotted integrity.

NORTH CAROLINA.

IN INVITING THE MERCHANTS OF NORTH Carolina to an examination of our SPRING STOCK,
we desire to inform them that, owing to the rapid increase of our
WHOLESALE BUSINESS, we shall be prepared to offer them, this season, a stock of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods
AND YANKEE NOTIONS
not equaled in the State of Virginia, embracing every article needed by Virginia and North Carolina Merchants, all of which we intend to sell at GUARANTEED BALTIMORE PRICES

We ask of our friends, and the WHOLESALE TRADE, generally, an examination of our stock and prices. We are confident we can save time and expense to merchants by buying of us this season.
One of our first will remain in New York during the entire season, and we will therefore be in constant receipt of new goods bought at auction, of Manufacturers and Importers.

Copartnership.

I HAVE, THIS DAY, associated with me my son, JOHN S. PESCUD, and the firm business hereafter will be conducted under the firm of
P. F. PESCUD & SON.
The CASH PLAN will BE STRICTLY OBSERVED. We must have the cash or an equivalent, on delivery of goods.
The Senior partner returns his thanks to his friends, and the public generally, for their generous support for the past 25 years, and hopes it will be continued to the new firm, who will use their utmost exertions to merit and share increased patronage.
All indebted will please pay up this month, as my old business must be closed speedily.
