The Daily Sentinel.

A LOVE STORY.

A correspondent of the Jewish Messenger gives a new explanation of the reason why the late Washington Irving always remained a bachelor. Speaking of Miss Rebecca Gratz, a Jewess of Philadelphia, distinguished for her zeal in works of charity, who had just died at the ripe age of 88, he says:

"Twenty years ago I heard the story—a story that has long been current in Philadelphia, in Jewish circles, among her friends and acquaintances, and which has again been revived here since her death. It runs thus: Many years ago, when Miss Gratz was a young girl, Washington Irving, then already risen to literary reputation, came to Philadelphia and became a visitor at the house of her family. It is said that in youth she was very beautiful and very good; and as her acquaintance with Irving increased, the beauty of both her character and her features, together with the fact that she was a living representative of that native whose whole history is romance, so wrought upon his heart that he became deeply enamored with her. It is needless to say that had his attachment been ever so strong, with her strength in her faith, it would have been wasted. As it was, it was wasted. Irving left the city, but did not forget the lady of his love.

The writer adds that Irving subsequently mentioned to Sir Walter Scott his intimate acquaintance with the beautiful Rebecca, of Philadelphia. Scott, it appears, was visiting, at the time he wrote, "Ivanhoe," and upon the strength of Irving's description of the lovely Jewess, as firm to her faith, named his heroine Rebecca."

A PHYSICIAN'S CURSORY.—An eminent physician, in Hearth and Home, tells the following excellent story for the benefit of young mothers. He says:

"An intelligent young mother inquired some days since how she could best preserve her child's linen clean and sweet when changed frequently during the day. I directed her never to dry it by the fire, but in the sun and open air, if the weather permits to. You thus not only avoid saturating the air of your room with the volatile and poisonous gases driven out of the linen, but the sun's rays have powers of cleansing and disinfecting which artificial heat has not and will purify and preserve the linen. She followed my directions; but as is too often the practice, dried and aired it in the nursery window. Her assiduous husband remonstrated in vain against this necessary exposure. Believing that if she saw her practice as others saw it, she would desist, he so directed their afternoon walk as to bring the nursery window into full view from a central part of the town. Stopping abruptly, he pointed to the offending linen flapping a requiem to the breeze, and asked, sarcastically: 'My dear, what is that displayed from our windows?' 'Why,' she proudly replied, 'that is the flag of our union!' Conquered by this pungent retort, he saluted the flag with a swing of his hat, and pressing his wife's arm closer with in his own, said, as they walked homeward, 'And long may it wave.'"

ADMIRATION AND LOVE.

Though there are few instances in which a man falls in love at first sight, most men who marry imagine that such was their own case. Some gay young bachelor, happy as a lark, and independent of anybody's will but his own, sees a pretty face somewhere at a party or a dance. It provokes his admiration, installs him slightly, and when he goes home, he finds that he is troubled, he scarcely knows why. Next morning, he experiences a faint echo of the same pang; but, during the day the impression vanishes for good. He is as merry as ever, as careless, as self-reliant. But it happens that he is again and again thrown into contact with that too charming creature who owns the pretty face. His troubles increase; he scarcely knows whether to fear most the terrible, tantalizing joy of seeing her, or the weight of depression that falls upon him when he leaves the house and is shut out into the cold, dark air. Of course, he knows that he is in love. If the consciousness is any comfort to him, he has it.—But now he resumes backward, and recalls the first evening on which he met her. He exaggerates the very slight impression she then made upon him; he looked upon her as she now appears to him, and fancies that he must always so have regarded her; and then he makes up his mind (or that portion of it which she has left him) that he fell in love with her the very first moment he saw her face. He argues—not unfoolishly, either—that he must have been in love ever since that time, because ever since the time he has been disquieted and troubled—a misery to himself, and a nuisance to his friends. In brief, he regards falling in love as a single act, inevitable in its occurrence, and irremediable in its consequences; whereas it is a long process, which may be interrupted at any moment.

Koskoo!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of the Country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE

has induced Dr. Lawrence to enlarge his laboratory and facilities for manufacturing, so as to be enabled to supply the extraordinary demand for it.

THE LARGE NUMBER OF TESTIMONIALS which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who HAVE BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

As a BLOOD PURIFIER, it HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY THE

Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative

YET DISCOVERED!

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people lack of rad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth. To say nothing of those humors that are hereditary, we can easily see how the Blood may become bad from imperfect Digestion or failure of excretions, and how this may influence the process of Nutrition, and thus influence all the functional activities of the body.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues are slow to form and unhealthy, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white co t. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are afflicted with scrofula in some form.

Persons suffering from any bad humor are very liable to have it settle on the Lungs or some other vital organ. The only safe rule is to remove the Blood poison at once, before it settles itself upon some vital point.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the system, get rich and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO!

AS A

LIVER INVIGORATOR!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

BEING THE ONLY KNOWN MEDICINE that SUCCESSFULLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, without debilitating the system. While it acts FREELY upon the Liver instead of DRYING it, gradually changes the discharges to a PERFECTLY NATURAL STATE.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth; internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the sides, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, &c.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of WONDERFUL EFFICACY in the cure of diseases of the KIDNEYS and BLADDER. In these affections it is as near A SPECIFIC as any remedy can be. It does its WORK SURELY, SPEEDILY, and SURELY. The RELIEF which it affords is both CERTAIN and PERCEPTIBLE.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys cannot estimate the importance of their healthy action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding, with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the urine being imperfectly secreted in kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicines never reach the Kidneys except through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

HAS WITH GREAT SUCCESS IN THE CURE OF Diseases of the Nervous System.

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to an concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work, [mental and physical] are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows: A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes a one or two severe pain or headache; Nervous and headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary loss of a memory; Dejection of spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in answering questions; Dulness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, &c., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, &c., &c.

CONCLUSION.

Suffering reader, do not think that because you have tried other remedies, you cannot be cured, but recollect that God, in His Providence, has afflicted His children with pain and disease, and without at the same time giving them something in the Great Garden of Nature that will cure them.

Have no hesitation in writing to me, and stating your case in full, and I will answer you promptly.

THE EXCHANGE HOTEL,

[FORMERLY MOODY HOUSE,]

CHARLOTTE, N. C.,

HAS BEEN RE-OPENED for the accommodation of the traveling public by Mr. and Mrs. BOWE, formerly of Company Shops Hotel. Terms moderate. Transient custom solicited.

As "THE EXCHANGE" is under the direction of the skill and unsurpassed experience of one of the most accomplished caterers now to be found in the South, it is reasonable to ask for it a share of the public patronage. Call and test the declaration.

The Best Guano in the World.

THE SUBSCRIBER will furnish the best pure BLUE MARL destroyed in Raleigh or points on the Railroad between Raleigh and Goldsboro, at $15 per ton, including bags.

This marl is now being dug out of the richest Marl bed in Eastern Virginia ever discovered, and is supposed to be equal to four times the quantity of Shell Lime improving the land every year, for ten years.

A sample of this marl can be seen, in a few days, at Wm. H. Jones & Son's Store, where all are invited to examine it.
