JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1869.

MEETING IN FRANKLIN.

We have had on hand for several days, the proceedings of a public meeting, held in the county of Franklin. We deem the proceedings of that meeting of more importance than all the proceedings of the Legislature, and we have made the proceedings of that body give way for the meeting of the people of Franklin.

This effort to perpetuate the Legislature for four years and four months, and the Governor's term for six years and four months, and the terms of the Judges for ten years instead of eight may be traced mainly to the two sneaks, Pool and Tourgee. Governor Holden, Judge Settle, Victor Barringer and the carpet bag family, may be put down as favoring it. It is an attempt by deceit, stratagem and fraud, to rob the people at once of their liberty and their property. The last word Littlefield said to a member of the Legislature was "the party were ruined if they did not hold for four years". This he said as he was flying from the city. Laflin is reported to have said, that the "Convention did not, in framing the constitution, contemplate such a thing, as for himself he never thought of it, or heard of it until after the Convention adjourned, and now that his attention was called to the subject, as a Republican he could see that he had a right to hold over, but if he were a Democrat, he could not see it that way."

When Governor Holden and Judge Rodman advocated secession, we told them, and we told the people, the result would be war: the people would not harken to us, they would not believe. Holden signed the ordinance, we seceded, the war came, Rodman donned out as quarter master, then as a Military Judge, to try, condemn and shoot those who, tired of the fight, resolved to quit. Holden tornado'ed out and drifted one evening in the Capital Square, then went into winter quarters for the war.

Who ever reads the Franklin county resolutions, will see that an effort on the part of the Legislature, to hold over, give more indications of blood and war, than did Holden's and Rodman's cry for secession.

Let the people of every county and township in the State, hold public meetings and denounce this perfidious and fraudulent attempt to rob them of their dearest rights and privileges.

HOW IT STANDS.

Leaving out of sight everything of fraud, corruption, mismanagement, on the part of the present State officials, here are a few facts that nobody can gainsay, and startling in their character to every honest citizen of the State who desires to see our public works progressing, our debts paid, and the name of the Old North State preserved in all its purity and integrity of former days.

We just state the following facts without attempting to show the connection or bearing they have, one upon another, or to account as to how they came to exist; we we will leave these things for the reader, and merely state the naked facts.

1. Our State debt is now about thirty-five millions of dollars.

2. The tax laid this year to pay the interest on bonds, does not quite pay the interest on half of them.

3. The consequence is that instead of reducing the State debt, it must be increased about one million of dollars this year, by funding the coupons due.

4. The failure to pay the interest on the old bonds, has depreciated them to 41 cents in the dollar, which, however, falls on private holders of these bonds, as they long since passed out of the hands of the State. The repudiation of them, therefore, by the Radical party, is a double crime, it inflicts injustice on the bond holder, and stabs the credit of the State at the same time.

5. The present tax bill raises off the people, outside of the special tax levied, $600,000.

6. All of this sum of six hundred thousand dollars, is absorbed by the current expenses of the State Government.

7. A great deal of this money goes to pay the salaries of a large number of new officers, never known in the State before the Radical party came into power.

8. After all the ordinary expenses of all the departments of the State Government, together with the extraordinary expenses, are enumerated, for the year ending Sept. 30th 1869, the Treasurer reports seventy-six thousand dollars of the people's money spent, under the convenient head of "contingencies".

9. Three men, Dr. Sloan, A. J. Jones and Milton S. Littlefield, have in their possession, without security or check of any kind, twelve millions of dollars in State bonds, bonds belonging to the people, while no prudent business man would put twelve hundred dollars of his own private funds in their hands without security.

10. Unless the people see that the money for which their State bonds are sold is appropriated and used by those having the management of it, in building the roads for which the bonds were authorized, they will never pay them.

11. There is strong suspicion that the money realized on sale or hypothecation of some, at least, of these bonds, heretofore, has not been thus used.

12. Radical members of the Legislature daily strengthen and confirm these suspicions by throwing obstructions in the way of investigating the facts in regard to this matter, prominent among whom are men suspected of being personally interested in preventing the investigation.

13. Our new, special tax, bonds are quoted in New York, at 28½ cents, currency, being a gold value of about twenty one cents on the dollar.

14. The failure to meet the obligations of the State in the payment of the interest on our bonds, so often promised by the Governor, the Treasurer and the Legislature, together with the suspicious management of our financial affairs, have brought the bonds and the credit of the State to the pitiful and deplorable condition they are in.

Let the members of the General Assembly ponder these things. They know they are true. We have heard numbers of Republican members say they believe there is fraud and corruption, among many officials, in the management of the State bonds; yet they hesitate to lend a helping hand to ferret them out. In some instances they suffer themselves whipped in by the caucus lash to assist in obstructing investigation, against the expressed convictions of their own minds. We have heard them confess it.

Some, however, have refused to be driven further, and have been "read out;" others there are, who cannot stand it much longer.

The time will come when all these things will be made manifest; if fraud exists, it will develope its existence; if the present deplorable state of affairs results from want of statesmanship in our Legislators, the people will take the matter in hand and reform it. They certainly will not submit much longer to their present burdens.

SENATOR ABBOTT, of North Carolina, is engaged to play "Bob Acres" at a theatre in Raleigh.—Exchange.

Quite a mistake. He appeared in the character of "Bob Acres" in Wilmington last summer, and was so successful as to win the hisses of the audience long before the introduction of the final scene, and has now gone to Washington to engage in another series of rehearsals with Senator Sprague.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

SATURDAY, Dec. 11.

The Court met pursuant to adjournment.

J. H. Abell, admitted as an attorney of this Court and qualified.

The case set for hearing this morning was called viz: James W. Cope, vs Ashley Whitley, action of debt. Phillips and Battle and Parker, for plaintiff, Dortch and Moore for defendant.

The note upon which the suit was brought was given in October or November 1863, for land sold by the plaintiff to the defendant for $3,000 payable January 1st, 1864. The testimony was conflicting as to whether the money was to be paid in Confederate currency. Defendant claimed that it was to be paid in money current at the time it fell due. Plaintiff testified to the contrary. Note was given to a Mr. Caraway, since dead. Plaintiff said he gave no instructions to Caraway to receive the money, but left the note with him for safe keeping while he went to Texas. The defendant paid off the note to Caraway in Febuary 1864. The plaintiff testified that he never received the money, nor knew that it had been paid to Caraway until the latter part of 1865. The whole of the day was occupied in hearing this case—no recess being had during the whole day. At 6, P. M. the case was submitted under charges from his Honor to the Jury.

The jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, scaling the principal of the note at the rate of $2,50 for $1, and charging interest from date of the note to the present term which is $760 with interest from Nov. 1st 1863 to the day of payment.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following are the resolutions introduced by Mr. Robeson, of Macon, looking to an investigation of alleged interpolations of the act of 1868-69 concerning text books:

WHEREAS, At the session of the General Assembly of North Carolina of 1868 and 69, an act was passed in pursuance of the provisions of the State Constitution, to provide for a system of public instruction, and

WHEREAS, The said act, as it appears in the printed laws of said session of 1868, and 69, contains provisions not enacted by said General Assembly, whereby important powers are conferred upon the Board of Education in contradiction of the expressed will of the General Assembly, in enacting said law, and

WHEREAS, In pursuance of these unauthorized powers the Board of Education have proceeded to enter into engagements, and to make contracts involving a large expenditure of the public moneys, against the expressed intentions of the General Assembly and to the detriment of the public good, Therefore

Be it Resolved, That a special Joint Committee of —— on the part of the House of Representatives and —— on the part of the Senate be appointed to investigate the interpolations of said act of 1868 and 69, and to report such legislation as may be necessary to secure the intention of the General Assembly in this behalf.

For the Sentinel.

REPUDIATION.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:—Governor Holden, has just telegraphed to New York, that your State Senate has passed what the Herald styles a Bumbyan resolution, maintaining the State credit, and that the repudiators will be overwhelmed, &c.

Now the Governor ought to know what all honest men plainly see;—that the promoters and partizans of the "special tax" bonds are the arrant, and the only actual repudiators. For, they have withdrawn and seek to withdraw the taxpaying ability of the people away from its proper object of maintaining the credit of the State at the point where its honor and good faith are first concerned. The neglect to provide interest for the old bonds, while a parade was made of payment of interest on a favored class of the new, amounted to a virtual repudiation of the prior obligations of the State. Such a fiscal policy is suicidal, and until it is fairly and squarely revised the honor and prosperity of the Old North State must remain under a cloud.

FIAT JUSTICIA.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Dec. 11, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Lindsay, Moore, of Carteret, Hyman, colored, Etheridge, Colgrove, and Blythe,—6.

Mr. Welker, presented a report from the Committee appointed to erect a Penitentiary, which was ordered to be printed.

Mr. White, from the Committee on Education, reported back the bill to incorporate the Wilson Collegiate Seminary for young ladies, and recommended the following additional section, "That it shall be the duty of the Trustees and Professors of the Wilson Collegiate Seminary for young ladies, to report to the Superintendent of Public Instruction on or before the 1st of October, 1870, the number of pupils in attendance, course of studies pursued, text books used, and all other information of a public character that the Superintendent of Public Instruction may desire."

Mr. Martindale, presented the report of the Special Committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company. The report was presented in printed form making 34 pages.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS, &C.

By Mr. Moore, of Chowan, a bill to extend the corporate limits of the town of Goldsboro, placed on the Calendar.

By Mr. Forkner, a bill to enlarge the powers of the County Commissioners by giving them the power heretofore vested in the County Courts in relation to the processioning of lands; referred.

By Mr. Jones, of Wake, a bill to incorporate the Boydon and Ridgeway Turnpike Company; referred.

By the same, a resolution in favor of Mrs. J. C. Hinton; referred.

By Mr. Moore of Cartret the following resolution:

Whereas it appears from the report of the Superintendent of Public Works, that there is, and has been during the past year, a conflict of authority between the said Superintendent and his Excellency the Governor touching the powers and duties of the said Superintendent, under the acts Ratified April 12th 1869, defining the powers and duties of the said Superintendent. Now therefore be it

Resolved, That the General Assembly of North Carolina in and by the acts above recited, intended to, and did vest in the Superintendent of Public works, all power and authority to take paramount charge and control of all her public property and her interests in the public work. To cast the vote of, and appoint Directors on the part of the State, and represent the States interests, either in person or by proxy designated by him alone, at all meetings in which the State is interested whether in Railroads, Canals, Turnpikes or otherwise.

Any laws or parts of laws anterior thereto to the contrary notwithstanding.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

A MAGNIFICENT

NORTH CAROLINA

PLANTATION FOR SALE.

THE PLANTATION KNOWN AS "OAKLAND," (formerly the property of Dr. Samuel Karr,) situated in Rowan County, N. C., on the Lincolnton Road, 11 miles from Salisbury, and about 6 miles from China Grove Station on the North Carolina Railroad.

This Plantation is one of the most desirable in the State, and in its improvements unsurpassed. It contains 188½ Acres, one-half cleared; a large quantity of Meadow and Bottom Land, over 200 Acres under lyover of a Mill Pond for fifty years. The residue is heavily timbered with splendid Oak and Hickory.

The Family Mansion contains Eleven Rooms; the Out-Buildings consists of Kitchen, Dairy, Ice-House, Smoke-House, Laborers' Houses, Barns, Stables and a Granary capable of accommodating from 15,000 to 20,000 bushels of Grain. In addition, about 150 yards from the house, is the Mill—Grist and Four—with three runs of stone; and in its near vicinity, Miller's house, Gin house, Blacksmith shop, and Cotton Screw.

It is believed a Canal might be dug from the Creek, supplying the pond, to run the Mill, and the Land beneath, of extraordinary fertility, given to the cultivation of large quantities of Grain or even Rice. The Mill Building, resting on a story of rock foundation, has two stories and a half of brick above, with a wall on the first story two feet thick and could be converted into a factory. The Residence is well situated, and commands a fine water view.

Fully two-thirds, if not more, of the population of Rowan county is White.

Parties desiring to see the property can apply at Raleigh, N. C., to Mr. J. H. Ennis, at the North Carolina Bookstore; at Salisbury to Brown, Mock & Co., H. H. Helper, Esq., or Col. E. J. Long, Express Office; at Charlotte, to Wm. Phifer, Esq., Dr. E. Nye Hutchinson.
