THE SENTINEL

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1870.

Hon. Thos. S. Ramsay, ex Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c. &c.

Messrs. Andrews & Co., by [illegible] arrangements, are at the Yarbo[illegible] first regular arrival of Spring [illegible] Hats. If the ton of the [illegible] fashion, the young man can afford to dispense with.

Flour dealers are referred to the advertisement of S. Duer, Baltimore.

W. H. Jones & Co., offer a small tract of land near the city.

Leach Brothers advertise flour, flour and tobacco.

Asphinia.—Shoffner, having immortalized himself by the introduction of what [illegible] Whitney, Gen. Grant & Co. by bow[illegible] tools in an exalted position; at least we judge so, if what we have heard be true, that he asked the President of the Senate, recently, to call him to the Chair a minute! Perhaps he intends to run for Lieutenant Governor, next time, and wants to "practice" get the hang of it.

Back Again.—Moring was back in his seat yesterday; but seemed only to have gotten clear of a portion of his disabilities. How he can sit there and vote, day after day, when he knows the constitution of the State, which he has sworn to support, debars him from occupying the seat he does, is more than we can understand. We understand that Moring was hard up to find a boarding house last night.

Brother Blythe sometimes forgets whether he is the Senate or at camp meeting. He recently commenced "a few remarks" to the Senate with, "fellow sinners." The address was very appropriate to the audience, if not to the place.

Attention Bucket Company.—There will be a meeting of Bucket Company No. 1, held at the Court House on Wednesday evening the 26th inst., at 7½ o'clock, for the purpose of organizing for the year 1870, and electing its officers. Each and every member will please attend, as there is business of great importance certainly to be transacted. O. [illegible]

Free Schools.—The Asheville Pioneer calls for the organization of the free schools. Simple man that he is, don't he know enough of such things to be aware that not one proper step has been taken in that direction? The Superintendent of Public Instruction don't know how to organize free schools in North Carolina; he seems to think the thing can be begun and carried on like it is in Massachusetts, forgetting that there is a vast difference between free schools in a State where the system has been long established and having a liberal school fund, and a State where the system is to be started and carried on with very limited means, and by a man unknown to the people, and distasteful to them.

Raleigh National Bank.—The following officers for this bank for the next year, were elected on yesterday,

DIRECTORS.

Charles Dewey, W. H. Willard, A. S. Merrimon, R. S. Tucker, W. J. Hawkins.

Charles Dewey, President; W. H. Willard, Vice President; P. A. Wiley, Cashier John C. Blake, Teller.

A Stitch in Time Saves Nine.

If you have a cough, do not say or do those unlucky words, "It is only a cold," those unlucky words to be untimely grave by neglecting what they call "a slight cold." These slight colds are very insidious. They soon become deep-seated and defy all remedies. DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT will cure it. It can be had of all Druggists.

A Body and Mind Diseased.

Such is dyspepsia. The stomach and the brain are so intimately allied for the one to suffer without the other, as that dyspepsia and depression are inseparable. It may be added, too, that irritation of the stomach is almost invariably accompanied by irritation of the temper. The invigorating and tranquilizing operation of Hostetter's Bitters is most powerfully developed in cases of indigestion. The first effect of this agreeable tonic is comforting and encouraging. A mild glow pervades the system, the stomachic restlessness in the region of the stomach is lessened, and the nervous restlessness which characterizes the disease is abated. This improvement is not transient. It is not succeeded by the return of the old symptoms with aggravated force, as attends the case when unfortunated stimulants are given for the purpose. Each dose seems to impart a fresh measure of healthful invigoration. But this is not all. The aperient and antibilious properties of the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] salutary in augmenting tonic and nervine virtues. If there is any [illegible] in the secretion of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] upon the discharging organs is speedily salutary, and the check of constipation, the [illegible] action is just sufficient to produce the natural result, perfectly and without pain. The [illegible] [illegible] evacuation, evaporation from the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
