JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WALKING SIGNS OF CHARACTER.—Some observing person has given the following rules for judging a man by his walk:

Observing persons walk slow; their heads move alternately from side, while they occasionally stop and turn around.

Careful people lift their feet high and place them down, pick up some little obstruction and place it down quietly by the side of the way.

Calculating persons generally walk with their hands in their pockets and their heads slightly inclined.

Modest persons generally step softly for fear of being observed.

Timid persons often step off from the sidewalk on meeting another, and always go around a stone instead of stepping over it. Wide awake persons "toe out," and have a long swing of their arms, while their hands move about miscellaneously.

Careless persons are forever stubbing their toes.

Lazy persons scrape about loosely with their heels, and are first on one side of the walk and then on the other.

Very strong minded men place their toes directly in front of them, and have a kind of stump movement.

Unstable persons walk slow and fast by turns.

Venturous persons try all roads, frequently climb the fence instead of going through the gate, and never let down a bar.

One idea persons, and always very selfish ones, "toe in."

Cross persons are very apt to hit their knees together

Good natured persons snap their finger and thumb every few steps.

Fun loving persons have a kind of jig movement.

STRANGE TRIBE OF INDIANS.—Professor Newberry, of Columbia College New York in a lecture in that city on Friday evening last on the "Colorado Plateau" thus spoke of a singular Indian tribe:

During the first part of the voyage up the river they became acquainted with a remarkable tribe of Indians, of gigantic size. They subsisted wholly on vegetable food. They tribe is known as the Mohavis, and probably number about 10,000. They seemed peaceful, playful, and those that the party employed as guides were eminently faithful and true to their word. The speaker described the habits of the people, their food, clothing, and modes of life generally at considerable length. The party remained among them a long time, and they found that these people, of all others, have not been corrupted by the Mexicans or Spaniards. They are doubtless fire worshipers, but exactly what their religion is it is hard to tell. They are copper colored, but not nearly so dark as most tribes. They have not high cheek bones, but round heads and full faces, are mild and quiet of disposition, very neat in their habits, and well dressed. If any litter was made upon the floor at luncheon time a lady well dressed came in with a dustpan and very carefully removed all the refuse. This, the speaker thought, was an indication certainly of their cleanly habits. They are situated in a desert country, and it is only by the utmost industry and economy that they are able to live. This tribe is located in the northeast corner of Arizona.

In the vales near Jordan, in the neighborhood of Jericho, not far from the Dead Sea, is found, growing in great abundance the vine of Sodom, a plant from the fields around that devoted city which produces grapes as bitter as gall, and wine as deadly as the poison of a serpent. This deleterious fruit is mentioned by Moses in terms which fully justify the assertion: "For their wine is of the vine of Sodom, and of the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter, and the wine is the poison of dragons, and the cruel venom of asps." It is probably the wild vine, a species of gourd which produces the coloquintida, a fruit so excessively bitter that it cannot be eaten, and when given in medicine proves a powerful purgative. It seems there fore, to have been early, and not without reason, considered poisonous. It was of this wild vine the sons of the prophets ate, and its instantaneous effect, together with their knowledge of its violent action, easily accounts for their alarm. II Kings, iv. 39.

LOVELINESS.—It is not your neat dress, your expensive shawl, or your pretty fingers, that attract the attention of men of sense. They look beyond these. It is true loveliness of your nature that wins and continues to retain the affections of the heart. Young ladies sadly miss it who labor to improve their outward looks, while they bestow not a thought upon their minds. Fools may be won by gewgaws and fashionable showy dresses, but the wise and substantial are never caught by such traps. Let modesty be your dress. Use pleasant and agreeable language, and though you may not be courted by fop or sot, the good and truly great will love to linger in your steps.

A poor boy of thirteen years was taken sick in a New York boarding-house, and exhausted nearly all his means, so that he no longer paid for food, but lodging only. He paid his last quarter on Christmas night, when the woman told him he must go, but he was unable to move. Another lad visited him and paid for Sunday night. The woman, thinking he would die, carried him out in the street, where he was found by a neighbor, who conveyed him to the Five points House of Industry. He was unable to stand, being faint from hunger, as he had eaten nothing since Friday morning, and during Christmas day he was suffering the agony of starvation, without a soul to minister to him in that city of wealth and plenty.

THE MAN THAT DON'T ADVERTISE.—The Waterloo Courier has the following flattering notice of the man that does not advertise:

The man who don't advertise has got his store hung around with slabs and pieces of barrel-heads inscribed with lampblack. "Irish Pertaters," "Corn Meal," "Power," "All kinds of country produce," "Salts, and Kanties for sale here." He says, 'that ain't no sense in newspaper advertising, as long as a man is smart enuff to tend to his own business, and his steard at the door and hollow the fellers in."

Providence is getting the foundation laid for her soldiers' monument, and will be dedicated July 4th, next.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of toil and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practically without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed, in short, this invention brings the immense and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and necessary to be used, as it can be appreciated; thousand of others will find room in every country home that uses this light for one purpose or another, again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps. Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation during the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP SAW MILLS on the shortest notice, and in the most approved manner. There are now two of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is that the saw is a single saw; and not two saws as in the common frame, by the use of which there is a great saving of lumber, and not the least jarring of the machinery.

This Mill is not surpassed by any Mill in the State. Those desiring to purchase a Mill will do well to call and see it in operation before purchasing elsewhere.

Address, T. FAIRLEY,

Mill Creek, Sampson Co., N. C.

This Mill surpasses all others in the State.
