Taylor.

N. B. The auction at Longue, continues to-day—stoves and other articles to be sold.

Convention.—Why are the Republican members of the Legislature, like Balaam, as he journeyed from Pethor toward Moab? Give it up? Because they are rebuked by their own ass!

Extraordinary.—When we allude to the Legislature in general terms, either favorably or otherwise, we allude to them as Republicans, because the Republicans are the majority, and control all their movements. But when we allude to certain members of the Legislature, we allude to them as Democrats, because the Democrats are the minority, and have no power to control the movements of the majority. Democrats are not responsible for the acts of Republicans, and Republicans are not responsible for the acts of Democrats. Democrats are responsible for the acts of Democrats, and Republicans are responsible for the acts of Republicans. Democrats are not responsible for the acts of Democrats, and Republicans are not responsible for the acts of Republicans
