NOTES ON THE SENATE PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY.

The last dying effort to screen the swindlers who [illegible] Credit, was made by their friends in the Senate yesterday.

On Tuesday night a Radical caucus was held and over a hundred dollars worth of Champaign drank on the Capitol Littlefield's expense. At this caucus nineteen Radical Senators pledged themselves to vote for a resolution disbanding the Senate investigating Committee.

Mr. Smith of Wilkes introduced the resolution yesterday morning, though it is said Sweet got it up, and its discussion occupied the session. It was during this discussion that the facts given above came to light.

The resolution [illegible] and in favor by scathing addresses by Messrs. Robbins, Welborn, Graham, Sowe, Love of Mecklenburg and Lindsay. Various efforts were made to stave off a vote, but about 2 o'clock the previous question was moved and the vote stood 20 to 20; but as it was known the President of the Senate would vote against the resolution, Messrs. Bowman and Jones of Wake changed their votes, making it 19 to 22.

The names of those who thus gave their votes to a measure that every one understands was calculated, and, no doubt, intended to screen those accused of swindling the State from exposure and accountability, are the record, and to-day and fifty years from to-day, they will be mentioned with scorn and contempt.

PARTY PREJUDICE.

During the discussion on the resolution to set aside the investigating committee, in the Senate yesterday, Mr. Jones of Wake said, in substance, that he believed that one of the committee of investigation, owing to party prejudice, could not do a political opponent strict and impartial justice. He believed there were all "honorable gentlemen," but, unconsciously to himself, the gentleman alluded to would lean in his judgment. While he was making the remark, we could not help thinking of Pope's, very applicable, though on a different subject:

"Unconscious husbands know their own defect,
And learn from hence, the spouses to suspect."

The insinuation was as unjust as it was uncalled for, and Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg, and Maj. Graham, both characterized it as undeserved. Mr. Jones of Mecklenburg was the author of it a pretty hard hit, saying, if there were any real grounds for the remarks of the gentleman from Wake that the honor, lives and property of the people of the State were in jeopardy at the hands of a partisan Judiciary who, according to the views of Mr. Judge of Wake, cannot shake off the imperfections of human nature sufficient to secure impartiality, even under oath, [illegible]

AFFRAY.—Our report of the Senate proceedings of yesterday necessarily does not give all the incidents of the passage between Mr. Smith and Mr. Robbins, he [illegible] in private conversation. The matter was as follows:

In his speech the Senator made a direct insinuation against Mr. Robbins. As soon as he did so, Mr. Robbins, sitting in his seat not far away, promptly denounced him as a [illegible], in emphatic terms two or three times. The gavel of the President stopped the thing just then. But it was evident that trouble would ensue when the Senate should adjourn.

Shortly afterwards Mr. Smith sent a friend to Mr. Robbins to apologize and beg his pardon. But Mr. Robbins refused to listen to any [illegible] of the kind, and he did publicly to the Senate.

Mr. Smith then rose and said he was "sorry he had made the remark, and he desired to correct it by apologizing for it; reserving only, and he hoped the Senator from Rowan would forgive him, as he regarded that Senator as a perfect gentleman and a man of unblemished honor and integrity."

Mr. Robbins said he "accepted the retraction and apology of the Senator from Wilkes, and considered that he had made it." The matter was then dropped.

We have just seen his circular, Just to Time, in which he says he feels the very [illegible] and he is ready for an addition to his customers. We advise all who want to [illegible] at the cheapest possible rate, to give Mr. B. an early call, and order him their family merchant in future. They may be quite sure that [illegible] and that they will have [illegible] to make them in a perfect manner.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA."

Salvation for the Hair

CLEAR AS WATER!

WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!

OPENS THE LIGHTS!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is a liquid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all sediment or mixture of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same convenience of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and purest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and [illegible] upon consumers the use of the "Vitalia" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset, will not explode. Its increased generation, the "Vitalia" Oil is packed only in the strongest [illegible] and [illegible] Cans, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with paper seal and [illegible] No [illegible] put [illegible] Vitalia Oil, for sale by druggists generally, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietor.
