RADICALISM A FAILURE.

Every true native son of our good old State, who feels that North Carolina is his home and his mother, as well as every adopted citizen who has come among us for the purpose of acquiring a local habitation, and identifying his interests with ours, must feel humiliated and sorrow stricken when he looks around and sees the utter prostration to which we have, as a State and a people, been reduced in the short space of a year and a half, under the mad, stupid, reckless and fraudulent administration of the party in power.

We can look at or think of nothing that has passed under their control that has not been contaminated, or deeply injured.—They began with the Constitution—a Constitution so simple, plain and fair that all could understand and all were willing to reverence and obey it, and, instead of merely altering it to make it conform to the altered condition of things, and letting alone those parts that needed no tinkering, they upset and remodeled the whole instrument, bringing to bear upon it the utopian ideas of impractical and unskilful political mountebanks, engrafting upon it strange provisions totally unsuited to us and to our situation as a people, making obligatory impracticable and useless schemes; in short, making it such a Constitution as we cannot live under happily, peacefully or prosperously.

Then they set about legislating under this new and, in many respects, odious instrument, and such a spectacle of law making was, perhaps, never before witnessed outside of Mexico or Hayti. Nearly every Legislator and prominent State official of the party in power, seemed to think that the State was reconstructed, the offices created, the taxes collected and the whole machinery of the government constructed and put in motion alone for the private and special benefit of those who had thus fortunately, (to themselves,) been accidentally elevated to those high and once honorable positions. All our statutes, framed with the most scrupulous regard to the protection of the rights of the people and the impartial, simple and cheap dispensation of justice to all, have been altered, patched and amended; repealed, re-enacted and repealed, until the most skilful and best informed lawyer in the State cannot tell what is statute law and what is not.

It is useless to speak of the wild and reckless legislation in regard to appropriations, and the subsequent repeal of it all, allowing just sufficient time between for some of their friends to swindle the State out of millions on millions of the bonds placed in their possession without any security whatever. It is also unnecessary to allude to the heavy tax levies laid upon the people, for every one has too feeling a remembrance of this part of their stupid and heartless work to need anything else to make them think of it.

They took hold of our works of internal improvements and killed them, at least, for the present, and we fear, for a long time to come. Instead of progressing gradually, prudently and slowly, as the condition of things would warrant, they "pitched in," to use a common expression, and so overdid the thing, that what with swindling and mismanagement they so discredited their own work that they were obliged to trade it, as far as possible, leaving it altogether one of the worst "botched jobs" of legislation that was ever turned out before.

They made an Executive, and what has been the acts that have marked his administration? Space forbids anything more than a mere allusion to some few of them. He advised the Treasurer to sell the North Carolina Railroad 6 per cent bonds at 65 cents on the dollar, when they were worth par; and it has been said and never contradicted, that he profited by the transaction; but whether this is true or not, it is hard to account for that want of ordinary business knowledge, and ignorance of the circumstances connected with this matter, that could allow him to permit one of his Executive locality to commit such a financial blunder, if indeed it were a blunder worse than a blunder.

He called to sending out his militia to certain counties—and sent militia; his scalping spies, going through the country, with the deep prejudice of low partisan minds, to spy and listen and report the words and the actions of people at their meetings and in the social neighborhood circle, thus driving from instead of drawing to him the confidence and respect of all decent people, will, when the excitement of the times shall have passed away, leave him as never before to justify in the estimation of a political lodger with his headquarters in the Chief Executive office.

But above all, that which is most astonishing and most unaccountable in the Radical Club Executive is their utter disregard of the wishes and misapprehension of the Radical party, who, going into power, supposed that they would have some show for the benefits of the Constitution, and that they would be allowed to administer the Government honestly, economically and impartially, and not be compelled to submit to the dictation of a few unprincipled leaders, who, for the most corrupt purposes, had taken control of the party; but failed and refused to listen to the public voice, and has never stretched forth his hand or uttered a word to arrest the frauds or to bring their perpetrators to account, but, on the contrary, the very persons who were doing the State and her public works this great injury, were his confidential and bosom friends, (and are, to all appearances, to this day,) on whom he seemed delighted to confer honor and positions of trust.

We intended to allude to the Radical Judiciary, but want of space forbids. The subject is too prolific to be crowded up in a short paragraph or two; therefore, we pass it.

To sum up all in a few closing words, the Radical or Republican party in this State is a failure. Its Constitution is a failure; its Legislature is a failure; its Executive is a failure, and its Judiciary is a failure. They have confounded and confused the laws; they have laid heavy taxes on the people; they have exhausted the Treasury; they have ruined the State credit; they have impeded the progress of internal improvements; they have failed to provide for the education of the poor children of the State; in short they have done those things they ought not to have done and have left undone those things they ought to have done, and there is no health in them.

THAT BLACK ROLL.

We wish to put in shape for easy reference, the record of the members of the Senate who voted last Friday to abolish the investigating committee, previously raised by a Resolution of the Senate. The direct and only effect of the passage of the Resolution of Mr. Smith of Wilkes, would have been to stifle investigation almost entirely, and cloak and hide the frauds and swindles of those who have heretofore escaped, either on account of the vacillation of an investigation, or by running away to get out of the reach of questions, of the suspected parties.

Here is the classified List:

Beeman,	native scalawag	Anson.
Bellamy,	" "	Edgecombe.
Brogden,	" "	Wayne.
Blythe,	" "	Henderson.
Harrington,	" "	Harnett.
Jones,	" "	Columbus.
Jones,	" "	Wake.
Smith,	" "	Wilkes.
Stephens,	" "	Caswell.
Colgrove,	Carpet bagger	Jones.
Cook	" "	Johnston.
Davis,	" "	M'Dowell.
Hayes,	" "	Robeson.
Lewis,	" "	Brunswick.
Martindale,	" "	Martin.
Moore,	" "	Carteret.
Sweet,	" "	Craven.
Epps,	colored	Halifax.
Galloway,	"	N. Hanover.
Hyman,	"	Warren.

When it was known that the Resolution was lost, Beeman and Jones, of Wake, changed their votes from the affirmative to the negative.

Dodgers. Mr. Burns, of Chatham, and Mr. Lassiter, of Granville, kept themselves out of the way, and dodged the vote. Mr. Winstead, of Person, had obtained leave of absence the day before, but it is said he had not left the city.

Every Democrat in the Senate, and eight Republicans voted against the rescinding Resolution.

CHOICE OF DANGERS.

If you see a man on a boat in the midst of turbulent waters, jump from the boat into the water, you infer that he is either insane, or that the danger of remaining in the boat is greater than the danger of jumping out of it into the water. The twenty Radical members of the Senate who voted to abolish the investigating committee, on Friday last, are all, or nearly all, men of common sense, they are none of them exactly insane. Each man of them, who does not know that he is politically dead with his constituents, knew that to give that vote was political suicide. The inference is a legitimate one that the danger in not giving it was greater than the danger of giving it. There must have been a fearful alternative.

The people will form their own ideas of what that alternative was. They may very reasonably suppose that Littlefield would approach them thus: "Gentlemen, I am in the power of this Committee, unless I run away again, and that would be worse than to stay. I intend to stay. You know what has been the connection between us in the past; if left to the mercies of this committee, I shall make a clean breast of it. You know how that will affect you. Now save me from this committee by abolishing it."

We may very reasonably suppose the existence of some such alternative, from the spectacle presented in the Senate on Friday.

THOUSAND ARMED LOYAL MEN—DAMNING STORIES.—Warrants were issued yesterday by the Judge of the Special Court for the arrest of R. J. Krebs, the present manager of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency in this city, who has been conducting regular lottery drawings twice a day for two or three days past. There are two warrants, one for a city case of misdemeanor, and another case brought in the name of the State. A trial is appointed for this morning, and Mr. Krebs was required to give bond of $1,000 in each case for his appearance then, and to suspend his lottery business in the meantime.

It is alleged that the present management has exceeded the limits allowed by the charter of the Agency and conducted a lottery for money, contrary to law. The case will come up this morning, and these points will all then be brought out. Maj. C. M. Stedman and Col. E. H. Moore have been retained for the defense.—Wilmington Journal, 4th.

TRAVEL.—A correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel gives the following as one of the strange sights of the times:

How strange some things appear! In the House of Representatives, in Jan.—a "Union soldier," a "carpet-bagger," a Radical—is now standing in the breach, leaving his home to a stretch of three and thirty days, representing the house of Joseph, Phillip in the Province, Jesse in Lancaster, Thomas in Chester, and others who were the Commissioners, Governors and Generals, in charge of the Negroes and Rebels, to discover, detect and plunder the enemy.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, March 5, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

FROM THE HOUSE.

Numerous bills were transmitted from the House mostly of a private character, among them a bill to amend sections 140, 266 and 274, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

On motion of Mr. Graham the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Beeman: Bill to establish a Ferry across Pedee River at the head of the falls in the county of Anson. Referred.

By Mr. Blythe: Resolution in favor of F. E. Taylor, Sheriff of Henderson county. Lies over.

By Mr. Love, the following resolution to wit:

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and he is hereby requested to inform the Senate, without delay: What sum or sums of money he has paid out of the Treasury for legal advice appertaining to his department since July 1st, 1868, and what sum is now due and owing, if any, for such advice.

Mr. Martindale said he was opposed to passing any such resolution. He could see no necessity for it. The Senator from Jackson was constantly introducing such resolutions and consuming the time of the Senate unnecessarily. A similar resolution making inquiry as to what disposition had been made of scraps of carpeting, was rejected by the Senate, as it deserved, and this should receive a similar fate. He did not know what object the Senator had in introducing such resolutions, they certainly could accomplish no good. He was getting tired and sick of them, and moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Love said he would say to the Senator from Martin (Mr. Martindale) that he did not intend to submit his bills and resolutions to him in order to get his opinion as to their correctness or merit. He was a la judge of his duties as a Senator. If the Senator from Martin was too dull to see the point, it was not his (Mr. Love's) fault. The object of the resolution was to ascertain how much money the Treasurer had paid for legal advice. He was fully prepared, but, if desired, did not press it. Agreed without any opposition. $50,000 for the purpose if he chose. That people had a right to know how much had been expended. He presented the Senator from Martin was really not of such consequence and the Finance Committee, as was plainly indicated by the Senator's remarks on former days, in trying to break up an investigation that is likely to expose swindlers. As to the "scraps of carpet," the Senate has virtually admitted that the Secretary of State had improperly used the payment of the Capitol carpet, perhaps 50 yards, by rejecting his resolution on the subject.—The Republican Senators had put their Secretary to a deficit. He (Mr. L.) was not to blame for it. If the Senate objected the resolution now under consideration, they would place the Treasurer in the same fix.

Mr. Martindale's motion to lay it on the table was voted down.

AYES.—Messrs. Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (col.) Legg, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Sheffner and Smith—13.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, moved the indefinite postponement of the resolution.

Mr. Graham called the previous question, which was sustained, and the resolution was adopted.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (col.) Legg, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Sheffner, Smith and White—14.

By Mr. Parker [at the request of Mr. Winstead who is absent] the following resolution, to-wit:

Resolved, That Hon. Thos. Bragg, Samuel Phillips and W. L. Scott, Esq., Committee appointed under a resolution of the Senate ratified, be, and they are hereby respectfully requested to report the result of their investigation to the Senate by the 10th day of March or sooner, if not incompatible with the public interest, and that the Secretary of the Senate is directed to furnish said Committee with a copy of this resolution.

Mr. Cook moved to amend the resolution by striking out "be and they are respectfully requested" and insert in the blank "we beg and pray you."

Mr. Moore of Carteret, said he did not the amendment would not be adopted, he had no idea himself of begging or praying the committee to do anything for his accommodation, when a member of said Committee was not even a citizen of the United States.

Mr. Graham demanded the previous question and called for a division of the question, which was sustained.

The Senate refused to strike out.

AYES.—Messrs. Beeman, Bellamy, Colgrove, Cook, Legg, and Martindale.—6.

Mr. Cook moved to reconsider the vote by which the main question was ordered, motion was lost, and the resolution was adopted.

NAYS.—Messrs. Bellamy, Colgrove, Cook, and Harrington.—4.

On motion of Mr. Nicholson, the rules were suspended, and the bill passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. French, the rules were suspended, and the resolution in relation to the Cape Fear Harbor, was taken up and adopted.

Mr. Durham said that the Chairman of the Special Committee requested that the House should postpone the examination of Gen. Littlefield, by the Committee of the Whole, and he (Durham) hoped the committee would remain in office, and sanctions would remain in force, and sanctions should finish their examination of that gentleman. The Speaker said that the Chairman of the Committee of the Whole had just given him the same information, and that the committee would remain in office.

Section 1. That J. T. Henry, N. W. Woodfin, W. P. Welch, W. G. Candler and W. W. Rollins be and the same are hereby appointed and constituted a commission to examine and fully investigate the condition and affairs of the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, and to make a full and final statement of all the accounts and liabilities of the present and former officers of said Company. "The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $45 PER TON OF 2,000 LBS., AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This Guano is a complete manure, containing a large percentage of Ammoniates, and Bones, and nearly as much Ammonia, as effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of adulterated fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Lehrman, Esq., of Battle County, S. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the wood was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Hutton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.
