JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE REPUBLIC DYING.

The Baltimore Telegram thinks, and not without reason, we fear, that the American Republic is slowly but certainly dying. It says:

"We are treading swiftly the old beaten path of downfall and decay. The history of the world teaches its saddest lessons in its record of the death of republics. Once dead, forever dead, is the mournful epitaph inscribed upon them all. We too are floundering along the same decline, we too are proving as every republic that preceded us has done, that popular government is a failure, and its brief culmination is either anarchy or despotism. Our fathers tried to render us exceptions, but in a passionate hour we forgot their precepts, we deteriorated in political morals and disregarded their wise and wholesome injunctions, and we have begun that march which never yet has been stayed, and which leads to inevitable ruin. No people who have preceded us, who have ever permitted their rights, their liberties in their government to be usurped or appropriated by either a one man power or an oligarchy, have ever proven themselves capable, competent or willing to regain them. Nor are we any better, any wiser, any more vigilant than those who have lived before us. We are indifferent to usurpation, we are misled, deceived and despoiled by a reckless and unscrupulous partisanship; we see our rights and liberties invaded and destroyed, and we shrink like cowards or crouch like slaves before the arm of lawless power. Soon even the name with which we cheat ourselves and mock the truth will be exchanged for the proper one to describe our new form of government, and the American Republic will be remembered only among the eulogies of history."

There are some things so coolly impudent that we are compelled to notice them in a more pleasant vein than they deserve, and the call by Holden & Co., published in the Standard of the 26th, is of this character. Here are men who for two years have been plundering the coffers of the State, tyrannizing over the people, and bringing dishonor upon the State and sinking themselving to the lowest depth of infamy, calling upon "good" citizens to join them in Convention! Some beings who have profited by the rascalities of the past, and some who dream of pelf for the future, will doubtless be good to the invitation. The State will have a good opportunity to count a large number of the prominent plunderers and expectant vampires who would continue in the road of ruin and disgrace, when that Convention shall meet. How easy the good citizens of the State know with whom not to associate, for those thus assembled would be as unfit for the company of honest, as fire damp for the vitality of the blood. Morality would perish in such an atmosphere, like the fragrant flowers of the Indies on the frozen plains of Siberia. The good citizens of North Carolina will no longer be led and deceived by such mountebanks. No longer will their liberty, their lives, and their honor be entrusted to such keeping. The voice of the good citizens in August will unseat most of them from the positions they have occupied, and if justice can reach those who merit it, she will consign to the cells of felons many who have brought such wide spread ruin upon the whole commonwealth.—Wil. Journal.

SLEEP AND DEATH.—"To live without fearing death," said Rutland, is the only means of living happy and dying at a good old age. People who dread death seldom attain longevity. If death presents itself to us under a repulsive and terrifying aspect, it is solely owing to our habits and prejudices having perverted our feelings. Montaigne justly said that it is the darkening the room, the faces full of grief and desolation, the moaning and crying, that make death terrific. Civilization, by investing death with the most lugubrious associations that it can conjure up, has also contributed to render it a hideous spectre. It is the reverse with the patient. In nine cases out of ten it is not only a relief, but almost a sense of voluptuousness. Sleep daily teaches us the reality of death. "Sleep and death are twins," said the poets of antiquity. Why, then, should we fear death, when we daily invoke its brother as a friend and a consolation? "Life," said Buffon, "begins to fall long before it is utterly gone." Why, then, should we dread the last moment, when we are prepared for its advent by so many other moments of a similar character? Death is as natural as life. Both come to us in the same way, without our consciousness, without our being able to determine the advent of either. No one knows the exact moment when he goes to sleep, none will know the exact moment of his death.—It is certain that death is generally a pleasurable feeling. Locke used to say that life would be unsupportable to man if the gods had not hidden from him the happiness he would experience in dying. Tullius Marcellinus, Francis Bunzo, and the philosopher Le Materie, all spoke of the voluptuousness of their last moments. Such are the consolations which philosophy presents to timid minds, that dread death. We need not say what much higher and loftier consolations await the Christian who is firm and steadfast in his faith, and has before him the prospect of eternal life.

HAVE SOME A PURPOSE.—The secret of all success in life, of all greatness, nay, all happiness, is to live for a purpose. There are many persons always busy who yet have no great object in view. They flutter away their energies on a hundred things, and yet never accomplish anything because never giving their attention to only one thing.—They are like butterflies, but from spot to spot, never gaining wealth, while the ant, who keeps to a certain circuit around her hole lays up stores for winter's comfort. Such persons are doomed to be miserable in the end. If they are not sooner, for they find to the case of life they had been passed by all who had a purpose. It is not only the positive drones, therefore, but the busy idle that makes a blunder of life for the want of a purpose.

Senator Trumbull has a new house built on the site of the old Capital. Talking on the piazza Gideon Trumbull, his son, where Mary perished from hunting, Mrs. Lincoln was mentioned, and Mrs. Hutchinson and Bella Boyd's fingered in prison.

MEDICAL.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR,

OR

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA and CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions and Blotches, Mercurial Mania, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villanous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sore.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both be soon infected alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and Aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye.
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all sides.

For all affections of the kidneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Moser, of Columbus, Ms., I suffered tortures with running sores. Since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a baby's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say much relief was unknown to me before. Rec'dsent me five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with erysipelas. Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

For ALL Diseases of the KIDNEYS, BLADDER OF THE URINE, &c.

And for Female Diseases,

Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Debilities, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and economical illuminating agent. The chemical ingredients of other good qualities, should undergo examination into every family in the country, Messrs. Hale & Co.'s stand.
