THE AMNESTY PROCLAMATION—IT IS TO ISSUED.

"Data" of the Baltimore Sun, writing from Washington, says:

A telegram from the Associated Press denies the truthfulness of a paragraph in these despatches relative to the President's proposed Amnesty message. Your correspondent has taken the trouble to get from the "best authority" the truth on this subject, and finds that what has heretofore been stated in these despatches is correct. As was stated before, the President informed Senator Johnson, of Virginia, and Senator Boarman, of West Virginia, that he had prepared a message to Congress recommending universal amnesty, and that he would transmit it to that body after the admission of Texas and Georgia; that in his opinion the time for general amnesty has arrived, and he thought Congress should pass a bill enabling all political offenders to become enfranchised by going to the nearest court, registering, and taking a prescribed oath. The republication of these facts aroused the opponents to general amnesty among a few senators and Representatives, who have been since that time exerting their influence with the President to have the message delayed or set aside altogether. Notwithstanding the unqualified denial by the Associated Press of the real facts, it is nevertheless true that the subject of amnesty has been several times talked over by the President and his Cabinet, and General Grant adheres to his original purpose, and the draft of a message to Congress on the subject is now lying upon his table. Meantime accounts of outrages alleged to have been committed recently in North and South Carolina and Alabama, upon colored persons, have been brought to the notice of the President by Senator Warner and others as a reason why the Amnesty Proclamation should not now be issued. Senator Warner vouches for the reliability of some of these accounts, whilst others are not credited. Secretary Fish had an interview with the President on the subject to day, and approves the course proposed by the President. General Sherman also approves the Amnesty message, and to-day remarked that Amnesty would tend to soothe the two or three hundred thousand persons disfranchised in the South, and would cause them to assist in putting down lawlessness, and this class of people would no longer be found saying: "We are not citizens, and don't care if the laws are violated." Admiral Porter also remarked that general amnesty ought to be granted at once.

A BALL IN THE FAR WEST.—The local editor of a very far West journal, having attended a ball on the frontier, has felt moved after the manner of Jenkins, of the metropolitan press, to furnish a report of some of the dresses worn by some of the eminent ladies present:

Miss A. was everlastingly scrumptious in an underskirt of red calico, flounced with blue muslin, surmounted with an overskirt of linsey hooped in the rear en saddleback with yellow bows. Waist a la anarcapon busome de buster. Hair in a chignon resembling half a cabbage head. Extraordinary hairy.

Mrs. B. wore a skirt of home-made flannel displaying in a very beautiful manner her No. 11 moccasins. Corsage de sangandish ornamented with soldier buttons. Hair friseezee perfume of cinnamon drops. Exclusively hifalutin.

Madame C., a noted half-breed belle, attracted an all-fired sight of comment by appearing in a hoop skirt ornamented with toz tails en circumbentibus. Waist of yellow flannel, slashed with stripe of buffalo hide. She carried a big sun flower, and danced with great success. Terrifically magnificent.

That is a queer story about GRANT and the Cabinet refusing to pay fare on the Hudson River Railway when en route to General THOMAS' funeral, and, but that it is so very circumstantial, might be taken as a hoax. The statement is that, having vainly endeavored to get his fare, the conductor proceeded to uncouple the Presidential car at Poughkeepsie, and would have left it on the track had not some higher official of that road taken the responsibility of ordering its freight of "dead heads" forward. Perhaps, as it appears the party left New York at midnight, they were, like the men in the pirate song, "all very merry," and so far above the baseness of the slave who pays, but, be this as it may, the incident would be justly characterized as unprecedented did not memory recall how the great heart of the nation once whipped up his bobtailed gray in Philadelphia and went tearing down the street with a swarm of policemen, anxious to maintain the ordinance against fast driving, at his tail. Of course, if there was no attempt to bilk this Hudson River Railway conductor, a denial is in order. We take the story from the Poughkeepsie News.—World.

CLOVER AS ECONOMICAL CROP.—Red clover is recognized as ranking highly as a fertilizing crop. Prof. Voelcker, in a report of the Royal Agricultural Society of England, in 1868, said, in substance, that experiments made showed the largest crop of clover removed from the soil appeared to increase its wheat capabilities. From this, as well as from other deductions of the Professor, together with his own experience in the same line, a correspondent of the Rural New Yorker comes to the following conclusions:

"The best result to be gained in the use of clover as a fertiliser, comes by letting the growth remain as long as possible on ground, without even mowing or feeding. In this way the roots attain their greatest development, and the dense shade to the top soil is favorable to the deposition of nitrogenous matter. I would produce as dense and luxuriant a growth as possible, let it remain untouched by scythe or hoof till the latter end of summer, then plow and sow with wheat, or better still, work thoroughly in the autumn, and next spring, sow with barley and follow with wheat."

POST OFFICE RE-OPENED.—We are gratified to announce that the Post Office known as "Craighead," in this county, (between Charlotte and Davidson College,) has been re-opened. Miss Rose Dunbar is the Postmistress.—Charlotte Democrat.

CASE, who was hung in Belmont county, Ohio, the other day, admitted that his first sin was voting the Radical ticket.
