OFFICE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY,
June 1st, 1870.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society on Friday afternoon next at 5 o'clock P. M., at their office. By direction of the President,

J. J. LITCHFORD, Cor. Sec'y.
June 1-1t

LOCALISMS.—We don't know a more difficult undertaking than that of making, during quiet times, in a small city like Raleigh, a spicy and interesting Local column, especially when there is a continual down pouring of rain, which keeps every one housed except those who are obliged to be out, as has been the case a good part of to-day.

This morning, after going through the usual sedentary routine to the business of the day, and carefully reading and digesting the sparkling gems in the Local column of the morning's Standard, we sallied out, under a borrowed umbrella, in search of items; the following were all that presented themselves to our observant eye.

First, the opening of an office by the Carolina Life Insurance Company of Memphis, in the block of brick offices, corner of Fayetteville and Martin streets, and next to the office of the Brooklyn Life. We have been advertising the Carolina Life, of which it will be remembered, Hon. Jeff. Davis is President, for some weeks, and we are glad to hear that the Company, under the efficient agency of Gen. R. A. Heke, is beginning to do a fair business of insuring. Our townsman, A. M. Lewis, Esq., has become connected with the Company, as legal adviser and Assistant Agent, and may generally be found at the new office.

The next place we visited was the hardware store of Mr. J. Lewis, to inspect those patent broilers advertised in the SENTINEL, of yesterday, and we can recommend them to any and everybody fond of a nice, juicy broiled steak or chicken, or anything else broilable.

Next, we interviewed that new article, the "Cherry Seeder," advertised to day at the hardware store of Mr. T. H. Briggs; and truly it is an ingenious and simple little machine, sold at $2, and ought to be in any family where there are cherries. It just picks the seed out of the cherry as glibly as you please, without mashing the fruit or even squeezing the juice out of it.

On the street we met a gentleman from the country who spoke most despondingly in regard to the damage sustained by the crops in this county, from the heavy freshet. He is a very intelligent and observant man, and he gave it as his opinion that the loss sustained by the farmers on the Neuse and other large streams in the county, including the loss of bridges, &c., will not fall very far short of half a million of dollars.

In our perambulation we passed the splendid new Livery and Sales stables of Wynn & Co., adjoining which our enterprising fellow citizen N. B. Harp is having erected a large brick Carriage and Buggy Factory, but as only the walls of the first story have been begun, we shall say no more about it now, reserving it for a local on some future day, when we get hard run again.

One more paragraph must close the catalogue for to-day, and that will be to notice the new family residence now being erected for Col. Rock, in the beautiful oak grove, nearly opposite the Rayner place.—Other improvements in East Ward will be chronicled the next time we make a round in that direction.

For the Sentinel.

Inscribed to the memory of Elder B. Howell, son of Rev. Penn Howell, who died July the 19, 1869.

He is gone, he was young,
He is gone, we have hoped not in vain,
Planting the cross-mark to scorn,
With Young's life to love now at home.

Could love save or shield the hand of death,
His cheerful face would live to her;
But it would be not love who are left
To mourn for him who was so dear.

Why he left his dear friends so early,
Had he lived he would have proved brave,
And such of the impending death.

He's gone to a better home by far,
To live around the throne of God,
And in his youth to see him die.

Mother, mine boy did not fear death,
Why should you of his short life grief,
And, Father, your eyes weep for him,
Think of him and feel relief.

Sisters, brothers, you all must follow,
To Heaven or to Hell you must go,
Then God throughout eternity.—A Friend.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.

MR. EDITOR:—You probably know, what your readers are not apprized of, that in 1867, upon the resignation of Major J. W. Wilson as Chief Engineer of this Road, the Directors, (then all Conservatives) elected Col. W. E. Ellason in his stead.

It was understood, at that time, that Col. E. was a decided Conservative; but, after the Western Division of the Road was cut off and the Stockholders were made to all intents and purposes, a distinct corporation under the control of Swepson and Littlefield, Col. E. was re-elected by the Radical Directors, appointed by the Governor for the "Eastern Division." Whether he sacrificed his political opinions, in order to obtain the office, or whether he has any settled or deeply-rooted convictions, as to politics, this writer does not know, but it is certain that under the rule, inaugurated by Smith and Gov. Holden, no other Conservative or Democrat was permitted to retain any office of importance without a promise of political repentance and reform. And it is certainly true that Col. E. acted in concert with the Radicals in the last meeting of our Stockholders at Newton, when Vance and Merrimon were defeated for Directors.

The President, Dr. Mott, and the Superintendent, Col. Tate, the former a Republican and the latter a Democrat, have, I believe, labored assiduously to raise means to prosecute the work. Since our State bonds depreciated they have been endeavoring, with prospects of success, to raise funds on mortgage bonds, issued by the Directors under the provisions of the charter. Col. Tate also superintends the running of trains and discharges all the duties incident to his office.

Therefore, it will be readily understood, that the Chief Engineer has nothing to do with that portion of the road, already finished. What then are his duties? Simply to superintend the construction, and to lend all of his influence, and exert himself to the utmost to complete the work speedily.

The foregoing is merely explanatory of what will follow. Has Col. E. discharged his duties unselfishly and faithfully? Has he earned the salary (which I believe, is three thousand dollars) given him by the company? I would not intentionally do injustice; but he certainly ought to explain some things, that are now exciting suspicion against him, and in the absence of such explanation the Directors should call for an investigation of his conduct. Hon. T. R. Caldwell is one of the twelve Directors and claims perhaps justly some credit for his efforts, in the appointment of the Bragg committee, to ferrit out any fraud or misconduct on the part of railroad officials. The writer has entire confidence in Mr. Caldwell's personal integrity, and he hopes therefore, that he will have the nerve to call the attention of the Board of Directors, at their next meeting to the following facts in relation to the Chief Engineer.

First, it is certain, that the grading is nearly completed to a point about ninety miles from Col. E's place of residence (Statesville,) and it is said, that he makes only semi-occasional visits to the mountain section where a number of contractors are engaged in leveling the mountain sides and boring through the Blue Ridge, his excuse being, that he is engaged in his remote office. What he does there beyond supervising the estimates of resident Engineers, which should not occupy much of his time, especially as these gentlemen from constant attention to the work, know more of it probably, than he does himself, no one can imagine. In one of these "Angel's visits," to the mountains, recently made, he reported to the contractors and in some way it was communicated to the managers and laborers on the mountain section that Dr. Mott and Col. Tate could not furnish means to the contractors and the work would probably be suspended.

Secondly it is certain, that Col. Eliason is a partner in a very large contract on the road, of which Gen. Forrest is President, leading, I believe, from Memphis to Selma, Ala.

Thirdly it is equally true that a short time after the aforesaid visit, a number of managers with about two hundred hands left our road with some agents of Col. E's company, destined for his work in Alabama.

Now, I do not charge that Col. E. designedly recruited hands for his own private contract to the detriment of our Road, for the presumption is, that any official receiving three thousand dollars to see to the vigorous prosecution of this work, would not prove recreant to his trust. But take the facts together, that a high official circulated such a report, that his agents followed and enticed the employees away, and this enured to his own personal benefit, while it certainly injured the corporation, of which he was the paid servant, and, I think, it is proper that he should be required to give an account of his stewardship.

There are some other rumors in relation to the official conduct of Col. E., and supported by a sufficient show of evidence to require examination. If he should choose to ask the Directors for a thorough investigation, not a mere white washing Committee, he can have an opportunity to exculpate himself, and I hope he may be able to do so. A STOCKHOLDER.

On Friday last in the Cumberland Superior Court, the jury after an absence of twenty minutes, rendered a verdict of guilty against Jacob Manuel, colored, charged with murdering another colored man named Mayner, on the 1st of April last.

NOTICE—BENEFICIAL TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Persons indebted to the undersigned, will come forward and settle within 30 days from date, if not their names, amounts (and what for!) will be published for 30 days. PHIL. THIEM.

OBITUARY.

Announcement has already been made of the recent death, at the residence of his son-in-law, Henry F. Spaulding, Esq., Parkside, Rockdale, S. C., of that Christian gentleman, Dr John Beckwith. The intelligence has brought profound sadness and regret to many in this community, who knew and loved the dead, and who so keenly feel the loss of their bereavement. The writer asks a few lines in the SENTINEL, to pay a feeble tribute to the eminent worth of the good man gone.

Dr. Beckwith was born in Poughkeepsie, New York, and was the son of Captain John Beckwith, of the Revolutionary Army. He graduated in the School of Medicine at the early age of 21 or 22 yr, and came South to reside. He married Margaret, sister of the distinguished John Stanly, of Newbern,—a lady of most estimable character and shining virtues, who died a few years since,—and subsequently settled at Salisbury, in this State. Thence, after a short residence, he removed to Raleigh, where he lived for more than thirty years, adorning the we ks of social and domestic life, and illustrating his Profession by a skilful and successful practice. About the year 1845, he removed to Petersburg, Virginia, where his eldest son, Dr. T. Stanly Beckwith, resided,—living there until 1865, when, at the close of the war he transferred his residence to the beautiful home of his son-in-law, on the Hudson, where, at the ripe old age of 86 years, he breathed his last, in the full possession of all his faculties, surrounded by sorrow ng daughters and sympathizing friends, in the blessed hope of a blissful hereafter, and crowned with the halo of a well-spent life.

Those, in this community, who remember Dr Beckwith, as he was when he dwelt among us, will recall, with pleasure, his affable and agreeable manners, his scrupulously fastidious dress, his intelligent, cheerful and benignant countenance, and his gentle and skilful offices in the sick chamber or by the couch of suffering. The writer remembers him, as one of those courtly gentlemen of the "Old School," of whom so few survive, and of whom the last must, unfortunately, soon disappear, leaving behind the fragrant memory of a class of men, who were proud, without being arrogant,—dignified, without being over austere,—gentle and tactful, indeed, without being frivolous,—pious, without being puritanical,—tolerant always, kind to all, just and liberal,—without fear and without reproach.

Dr. Beckwith, when among us, enjoyed the high regard of such men as George E. Badger, Thomas F. Devereux, Weston R. Gales, and others of our leading citizens, and the friendship, particularly, which existed between him and the three above named, was of the most enduring and tender character.

An almost life-long communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and an earnest lover of her Liturgy, his declining days were blessed by the spectacle of his youngest son worthily wearing the Episcopal robes of the Church of his faith, and presiding, with marked efficiency, over one of the largest and most flourishing Dioceses in the South.

His end was calm and full of serenity and peace. He grew, at times, in his last illness, ecstatic, at the idea of re-union, in the Heavenly country, with the loved ones gone before; and, finally, he went through the dark portals victorious and triumphing!

INCOME $6,500,000!! ALL CASH.
Sum Assured, (New Business,) during the year 1869, $51,021,141.00.
BEING OVER $12,000,000 GREATER THAN THE NEW BUSINESS OF ANY OTHER LIFE INSURANCE Co. IN THE WORLD.

PURELY MUTUAL. DIVIDENDS PAYABLE AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "Annual" ONLY THE FIRST ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT MEAN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals seven hundred and THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the County Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

JAMES PARSONS respectfully informs the public, that he has returned to Raleigh, for the purpose of disposing of some more of his superior Piano Fortes, and at the same time will give his attention to tuning and repairing Piano Fortes, for those who may desire his service. Mr. P. is too well known in Raleigh and North Carolina generally to render it necessary to name any references, but refers to Gov. Vance, Mr. W. J. Palmer, Miss Hargrave, and the Professors at St. Mary's and elsewhere are familiar with his qualifications, as an experienced Piano Forte Maker. Orders left at the Book Store of J. A. Jones, Esq., will meet with prompt attention.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
Or,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, and of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair. These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.
