PUBLIC SCHOOL FUND.

When the Radical party came into power in North Carolina, on no subject did it make stronger pledges to the people than in the matter of public schools. The new Constitution made a liberal foundation for a splendid scheme of Public Instruction.—Provision on paper and a great flourish of trumpets, led the people to look for something. Pilgrim Ashley and his co-adjutors have overlaid and talked about plans, which might startle the great States of New York and Ohio, by their magnificence and costliness, but what has been done? Absolutely nothing.

Gov. Vance in his Tucker Hall speech demonstrated that like other pledges of the Radical party, its Educational scheme was a most inglorious failure. If a single public school, white or black, has been set on foot in North Carolina supported out of the School Fund, except the common school in operation at the university under the instruction of President Pool, Patrick, Mallett &c.) the public know nothing about it. The last tax bill raised $240,000 from the poll tax, yet no school has been established. No colored or white public school, so far as any one knows, except at the University, is in operation in the State under Superintendent Ashley! This is a fact which the people ought to know, and yet a good portion of the $240,000 is gone! Who knows where!

The Standard in order to cover up the bad conduct and utter failure of the Holden administration in reference to Public Schools, endeavors to turn public attention to the management of the School fund, under Gov. Vance's administration. Let the facts be brought out, and let the public judge.

When Gov. Vance entered upon the office of Chief Magistrate in 1862, he found the Common Schools in operation. He, in conjunction with the Literary Board, determined to keep up the schools during the war. Mr. Wiley, the Superintendent, had on his list in 1863, about 125,000 children enjoying the benefits of common school instruction. About $100,000 was appropriated that year out of the Literary Fund to keep up the schools, and they were kept up in 1862 and 1863, in the midst of a devastating war.

The entire income of the School Fund was in Confederate money, and the Board determined to expend it to the fullest extent in keeping up the schools. When he came into office there was on hand both Confederate bonds and Confederate money. There were accumulating beyond the ability of the Board to expend on the schools. After mature consideration and guiding the last advice, the Literary Board with the approval of Gov. Vance, determined not to invest in Confederate bonds, but to invest all the surplus means of the Board in new North Carolina bonds. No Confederate bonds were bought, nor could old State bonds be bought except at a high price, hence the investment was made in new N. C. bonds, believing that whether right or wrong, North Carolina would never repudiate her school fund.—Under this arrangement the Literary Fund was largely increased during his administration, and the schools kept up until the Federal troops occupied the State and the spread of war prevented. At the time the war closed the School Fund amounted to about $2,000,000.

We are assured, that at the time, this course of Gov. Vance and the Literary Board, was fully endorsed by Gov. Holden and by every public man in the State. The Bank deposited in State and Literary Fund stocks, Railroad stocks, North Carolina Bonds, &c. The Confederate money and issues on hand at the close of the war, was entirely beyond the power of the Board to expend.

The fact remains, that the Fund was kept up, &c. &c. &c. Never did more good and was never better managed than under the administration of Gov. Vance. He and the Board sold no public lands for a song, nor Railroad stocks cheap.

The Standard knows that the School Fund was properly managed after the war, without the concurrence of Gov. Vance or the Literary Board. The Standard's own party, required of the State the repudiation of all her bonds issued during the war for its support. That alone, broke the Banks and rendered the Bank stock, owned by the Literary Board, worthless, and, at the same time, destroyed all the new State bonds held by the Board. How has the Radical party, under Gov. Holden and Superintendent Ashley, managed the School Fund? The people shall know.

SAMUEL F. PHILLIPS AND FREEDMEN'S RIGHTS.

When the Democrats and Conservatives tell the colored people that they have no disposition nor intention to interfere with their rights, as fixed and established by the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this State, the Standard and the Republican leaders tell them, "O don't believe them! Don't trust them! They only want your votes; they have repented too late!"

Now there is one thing the colored people are bound to admit; that is, that the Democratic and Conservative party has never deceived them yet by holding out great promises to them and then failing to fulfil them. They have never promised them "forty acres and a mule," nor any other great thing, just to get their votes.

But we started this article to show the colored people something about their candidate for Attorney General, Mr. Samuel F. Phillips. He was not a Republican, as he says himself, until the Republicans nominated him for Attorney General. He is now a great friend to the colored man and his rights; but is he not a new convert? Perhaps he is not converted; and in fact, we doubt that he is.

He was certainly a terrible sinner in this respect, in 1866, as we shall proceed to show.

During the session of the General Assembly of 1866, of which Mr. Phillips was a member, the subject of fixing the status of the colored population of the State was under consideration, and Mr. Phillips made a speech on it.

Several members of the Legislature wrote Mr. Phillips a note, asking him for a copy of this speech for publication, and in compliance with the request, he did write it out, and it was published, and we have some copies of it.

In this speech Mr. Phillips told the Legislature and the people what he thought about negroes voting and holding office. We shall give extracts occasionally, that the colored people may see what Mr. Phillips then thought of them. We will give one to-day; here it is:

Mr. Phillips said:

"I enter fully into the counsels of those who define this to be a government of White men. For one I propose that none but White men shall participate in the duty and distinction of controlling this government. I maintain that the rights of suffrage shall be theirs exclusively—as also the duty of exercising public employments and the duty of distributing justice. Every public place—from the jury box to the chair of the President, must be a place for the White man alone. It is obvious that so long as that continues to be so, the government will be the White man's government."

"Now, colored men, what do you think of your candidate for Attorney General? Has any Democrat or Conservative ever gone any further than that? We ask you to think of these things—think for yourselves, and don't let hypocritical party leaders, who only want your votes to put them in office, pull wool over your eyes always.

INDIAN WARFARE.

"For a life, another life, For a blow, another blow."—Standard.

Then the object of the new military movement is to imitate the well known Indian doctrine, namely, if an Indian is killed, some white man, no matter who, must be killed to appease his spirit.

Is this what the Governor means?

Who will be Kill for Colgrove? Who will be murdered for Stephens? Who hung for Outlaw? The civil authorities either could not or would not detect and arrest those who committed these murders, and as we are to have "a life for a life," we suppose somebody is to be picked up, perhaps on bare suspicion, perhaps even without suspicion, and hung, or shot.

Is this the state of things the Governor is laboring to bring about?

Who is to die for Foscue? Who for the Medcodes? "For a life, another life," and for fear our own citizens might be a little squeamish in carrying out the rule, Kirk is imprisd to execute it. Ah! he is the man for the Governor!

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Conservative Congressional Convention which met at Goldsboro' yesterday, to nominate a candidate for Congress from that District, unanimously chose Col. L. W. Humphreys, of Wayne.

A precocious boy in a public school out West, who stands high in geography, was recently asked by his teacher where Africa was located. He promptly answered, "All over the United States."

The Albany Journal (Republican) thinks Judge Chase is the most probable candidate at the next Presidential election. The Albany Times is of opinion that Governor Hoffman is the coming man. The nominating convention for the next Presidency will be held about two years hence.

The census-takers get two cents for every name taken, ten cents for every farm, fifteen cents for every productive establishment of industry, two cents for every deceased person, and two per cent. of the whole amount for names enumerated for social statistics, and one cents per mile for travel.

There have been many definitions of a gentleman, but the prettiest of that given by a young lady: "A gentleman," says she, "is a human being, combining a woman's tenderness with a man's courage."

TRINITY COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.

We are indebted to a friend who went, saw and enjoyed the pleasant occasion of the Trinity College Commencement; but as his statement is lengthy, and we are cramped for space, he will have to excuse us for jumping over that part relating to the trip to High Point and thence out to Trinity, Frazier's omnibus and the embryo cities, and pitching at once into the Commencement exercises:

The Declamations by the members of the Freshman class took place on Monday night before our arrival and of course we could not judge of their merits.

Declamations by members of the Sophomore class took place on Tuesday night.—There were nine of them and all made good speeches. The best we thought was by B. H. Cuthbreth of Sampson Co. His subject "The Pen mightier than the Sword," a little hackneyed, but still prolific, and his speech was well written and well spoken. The most humorous was "Womans Rights" by J. L. Tomlinson of Bush Hill. He, we understand, is a quaker. We should not be surprised to learn that the spirit had moved him to extend the jurisdiction of some woman over his department of Bush Hill ere long. He talks just like he would be willing.

On Wednesday at 11 o'clock the annual sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Daily of Raleigh, his text was from 1st Cor. III 11, "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ." The sermon was of course able, eloquent and good, as is all his discourses.

On Wednesday evening at 3 o'clock the chapel was again crowded to hear the address to the Literary societies by Maj. Seaton Gales of Raleigh. We have heard Maj Gales before, but never heard from him anything better than was this address. This is as much as need be said. The young men of the societies were much pleased at the selection they had made in securing his services and every one enjoyed a literary treat.

On Wednesday night we heard the orations by members of the Junior class.—These were also good. Prominent among the best was "Daring Determines Fortune" by H. W. Norris of Wake Co. To demonstrate the truth of his doctrine he advanced some ideas which seemed a little extreme and extraordinary, in which he was a little taken off by R. C. Elder of Randolph, who followed with "Circumstances on Practical Destiny," advocating contrary views.

After these declamations Prof. Johnson delivered the address to the Alumni. His address was "short and sweet," one of the prettiest things we heard and put every one in a good humor with him, themselves and every body else.

Thursday was Commencement day. The exercises were opened between 10 and 11 o'clock, with vocal music by the choir, anthem, Oh, Praise the Lord, a beautiful anthem and well rendered. After which was prayer by Rev. President Jones, of Warrenton Female College. Then followed the orations by the graduating class, fourteen in number, in the following order:

1. Latin Oration, Salutatory Address—By James Julius White, Trinity.
2. Thoughts and their Consequences—By Wm. Alexander Flynt, Forsythe county.
3. Be true to Thyself—By Henry H. Adams, Carthage.
4. French Oration—By Wm. B. Mann, Moore county. This was necessarily excused.
5. Life has no Chronology—By Richard Stokes Andrews, Trinity.
6. The real and the seeming—By Frank Lewis Reid, Thomasville.
7. A. D. 1890—By Vincent Blackstone Swan, Caswell county.
8. The Social E-tate—By James DeJarnett Pemberton, Richmond county.
9. Greek Oration—By Saml. Weldon Brown, High Point.
10. Progressive Theology—By Junius Thomas Harris, High Point.
11. Egotism in Talent—By Wm. Gamaway Garther, Davie county.
12. Trial by Jury—By Wm. Thos. Swann, Caswell county.
13. Lyric Poetry—By Alvis H. Stokes, Caswell county.
14. What shall be done with the criminal classes—By James Terry, Le Grand, Richmond county.

These speeches were all good in matter and most of them very well delivered. We were particularly pleased with those of the Messrs. Swann, Le Grand, Harris and Reid. These young men have the talent to make their mark and we shall expect to hear from them good reports in future.

Interspersed between the speeches was music by the Salisbury Brass Band, not of the first order, however, which was, perhaps, owing to the short time they had been practising.

After the orations of the Seniors came the report of the President and conferring the degrees. The President stated that under the president system of grading, it was very difficult to obtain first honor. That only about 30 (if we remember correctly) out of the 110 students of last session had obtained it, and only one in all the schools. This one was Mr. Andrews, of Trinity. He stated also that the Trustees had resolved to build a new Chapel before next Commencement, which every one seemed glad to hear, as they were just about sufficiently packed to want more room badly. Those who could not get into the chapel that day will doubtless also appreciate this resolve of the Trustees, if they will carry it into execution.

The degree of D. D. was conferred on Rev. Turner Marion Jones of Warrenton Female College, and A. M. on some Virginian whose name we do not remember.

The medals were presented to the Graduates from their respective societies by Maj. Seaton Gales, in a very beautiful and appropriate impromptu speech.

The party on Thursday night was a grand success in its way. We had never found means to enjoy anything of the kind much, and were inclined to leave before it came off, but this one we did enjoy very much and were glad that we remained. The only drawback was the immense crowd, but the disadvantages were much obviated by throwing open all the Literary Halls, Libraries, Museums, officers and students rooms—all of which were well filled as well as the passages on the several floors. Some of the lads lost sight of their lassies soon after going, and spent most of the balance of the evening in hunting and enquiring for them. This was quite amusing to those of us who were more fortunate as well as those lads who found theirs, but rather poor fun to the loosers.

The good things to eat abounded of the nicest quality. The boys engaged supper for 800 people and we should judge that they had all of that number to feed, and plenty for all.

There were about 170 boys at Trinity last session. We made the acquaintance of a large number, and found them to be the most gentlemanly, quiet, genial, hospitable, and in every way pleasant and agreeable young men we have ever seen assembled.—If they were girls we should, of course, say they were beautiful—but as it is, they will excuse us for that. It can be safely said that their appearance is pretty; they have very fine looking fellows themselves, but the company of three of these had been engaged to attend the commencement exercises four or five months in advance. Most of the resident ladies have to receive about twenty visitors of the students each week. Glad our sweetheart is not about there.

Dr. Craven, though more familiarly known among the boys as "Old Brat" is very popular and much respected—so is also the several Professors, especially "Napier." We learned that there were more visitors from a distance to this than any preceding commencement; more students than ever before and more than at any other Methodist College in the South. They expect and will make room for still more. "Long may Trinity wave" and grow in numbers and usefulness.

For the Sentinel.

Agreeably to a previous notice given, a meeting of the Conservative party of Cabarrus county was held in the Court House in Concord, on Saturday 18th inst.

Upon motion, Col. Wm. A. Weddington, was appointed chairman, and Caleb Pitts secretary.

The object of the meeting was then briefly explained by W. J. Montgomery, Esq., to be the nomination of candidates for the different county offices, and a candidate to represent the county in the House of Representatives of the next Legislature of North Carolina.

Upon motion, a committee consisting of one delegate from each township was selected to act as a nominating committee. A recess of ten minutes took place to enable the delegates from each township to consult together. The names constituting the committee being then announced, they retired to consult.

Upon motion, a committee consisting of W. J. Montgomery, Dr. P. M. Henderson and John Morrison, were selected to report suitable resolutions for the action of the meeting. Upon their return the following resolutions were reported and unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1st That we fully approve of the address issued by the Conservative party of the last Legislature and pledge ourselves to a strict adherence to the principles therein announced.

Resolved, 2nd. That we heartily endorse the nomination of Judge Shipp, as the Conservative candidate for Attorney General of North Carolina, and hereby pledge ourselves to use all honorable means to secure his election.

Resolved, 3rd. That we pledge ourselves to support the nominees of this meeting.

The Committee upon nominations having returned reported the following named candidates:

Upon motion, the meeting then adjourned.

WM. A. WEDDINGTON, Chairman.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting to be the nomination of candidates for the various offices to be filled the present year.

On motion it was agreed that in the selection of candidates, the convention vote by townships—each township being entitled to one vote.

On the first balloting a candidate for Representative and candidates for most of the other offices were chosen. Two other ballotings resulted in the selection of candidates for the remaining offices.

The nominations made are as follows:

For Representative—John G. Marler.
For Sheriff—T. D. Kelly.
For County Commissioners—Jno. D. Halcomb, Jno. W. Algood, A. Horne, S. T. Speer, and James C. Miles.
For Register of Deeds—W. F. Hoots.
For County Treasurer—Reps Martin.

John G. Marler being called on, responded in a few appropriate remarks, accepting the nomination so unanimously tendered him by the Convention.

On motion, it was ordered that the Chairman appoint five delegates from each township to meet the delegates from Surry at Rockford, on the 16th inst., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Senate.

On motion of Joseph Dobson, Esq., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we cordially indorse the address of the Conservative members of the last Legislature and adopt it as our platform.

On motion of H. G. Poundexter, Esq., the proceedings of this meeting were ordered to be sent to the Raleigh SENTINEL and Old North State for publication, and that the Winston Sentinel and Salem Press be requested to copy.

JNO. D. JOHNSON, }

The Senate increased the Congressional representation of the House to three hundred members, at which the West is jubilant. The present House consists of two hundred and forty-four; the increase will be fifty six, of which Illinois will have six, Indiana two, Ohio two, Michigan four, Wisconsin four, Iowa four, Minnesota two, Missouri four, and Kansas two. Total, thirty. With thirty more votes in the next House and thirty more votes at the next Presidential election, the West will be able to defy the East, and make her power more felt in the councils of the nation. The end of New England dictation is at hand. Leaders from that section have been arrogant, grasping, lacerating; and when the screw is reversed they will be badly pinched.—Philadelphia Age.

THE PRICE OF FLOUR.—A farmer of much intelligence and information, who resides in a neighboring county, has expressed to us the prediction that the crop of wheat now being harvested will be so immense, that flour next fall will be sold at $4 per barrel. So mote it be.—Lynchburg Republican.

The Mississippi legislators make a good thing of it. Besides drawing $9 a day, one of them keeps a butcher shop and another plays the fiddle at private parties.
