REGISTER! REGISTER!

Don't forget that every man in White county must register anew this year, before the August elections if he would vote. The same is true of every other county where changes in township or county boundaries have been made.

The fact is, the law plainly requires every man to register, and it is the safest plan to do it.

W. H. NORRIS.

The Standard of this morning says Mr. Norris' letter, published by us a few days ago, is full of misrepresentation. This is a matter between Joe and Dad on the one side, and Mr. Norris on the other. We think Mr. Norris will be believed in regard to his statements. He has never borne the character of a man who would prevaricate, and we don't believe he has done it in this instance.

His son was sick when the detective and soldiers came to his father's house. He arose from his bed, where he had lain all day without eating anything whatever. A gentleman who was at Cook's Hotel, where Mr. Norris prepared his letter heard him make this statement, which is substantially as he made it in his letter. He further stated while here, that he brought a large fat man pho, they said was the Marshal, to take bail for his son, as he was sick, and that the man, (Carrow) refused, saying, if his son was sick he would employ a physician.

Mr. Pegram's family was about to start for Church when the soldiers arrived at his house. His wife and daughter who were afflicted were not going, of course, nor the son who was in the field, but other members of the family were preparing to accompany the Presiding Elder to Church.—Mr. Pegram said his son may go, and we believe them, so will the public.

As to Col. Frank refusing to keep the young man under guard, we never heard of it before, and it is very unlike him, if the Wilmington papers have spoken correctly of his kindly and gentlemanly bearing. It was the Lieutenant, Powell, however, was said to have made the offer. This will not be denied, for he told young Pegram so.

But the thrusting these young men into the felon's prison, was a cruel outrage, no one can say who did it. We believe it was the Governor. If Col. Frank did it after his soldiers had already had these boys in charge for twenty four hours, then it tells as much about Col. Frank as we wish to know. We shall require further evidence to make us believe he did it.

BAD DOING HIS LEVEL BEST.

It is evident to every one familiar with his style, that Governor Holden not only writes most of the editorials of the Standard, but is the author, also, of a good deal of its correspondence.

He wrote every word of the letter which appeared in the Standard of this morning, purporting to come from Washington. This is as old trick of the Governor's.

We have been informed that Mr. Dilling has every reason to believe that the arrest of Graham and a few others, was premeditated with Fool and Abbott in Washington, before they left; what the Governor writes from Washington is not true.

Perhaps the Governor dreams of one day getting into the White House, and writes letters to the Secretary accordingly.

The N. Y. Tribune of New Hanover, accepts the Conservative nomination for Congress in the 3rd district, and issues to the voters of that district an able address.

A WORD OF WARNING TO DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES.

The indications are exceedingly favorable all over the State for great success in the August elections. With proper efforts we may elect four Congressmen out of the seven. We may carry thirty of the fifty Senatorial Districts, if not more. We may elect seventy or more of the hundred and twenty members of the House, and elect the county officers in some fifty-five counties.

The Radicals are greatly alarmed at the general and intense opposition of the people to the Holden administration. They are divided, the carpet baggers against the scalawags, and the scalawags against the carpet baggers. The colored people have lost confidence in both, and most either rally to men of their own color, or to such honest and capable men among the Conservatives and Democrats to represent him.

Many who have heretofore called themselves Republicans and who have acted with the Radicals, are ashamed of their former associations. No man, white or colored, who desires to be respectable, will dare to defend Holden's administration. The waste, extravagance, dishonesty and stealings of the leaders of the party, are too palpable to be defined by any one. Holden and his abettors are determined to cover up their conduct, if possible. They will resort to any means to prevent an exposure of their villainy by a Democratic Legislature.

This is the real cause of Holden's military scheme, and the employment of Kirk and other hirelings, to prevent, if possible, the defeat of their party.

Conservatives and Democrats, you can defeat their nefarious schemes, if you will. You can elect honest and true men in the August elections and save the State, if you will. Will you do it?

What you need is unanimity, energy, courage and a determination to succeed.

1. Thousands have heretofore not registered, and thousands have not voted since the war. Four-fifths, or nine tenths of these are Conservatives. Will you not urge every man to register and vote the straight out Conservative Democratic ticket?

2. Some candidates have been nominated on our tickets, perhaps, whom you do not prefer and do not wish to vote for. At ordinary times you might, without any harm, scratch your tickets and vote for others. But you cannot do it now for any reason whatever, and be blameless. A vote for an independent candidate, or a Radical nominee, or not to vote at all, is a vote for Radicalism and against your principles. If you believe the welfare of the State requires the defeat of the Radical ticket, you would act inconsistently to refuse to vote for the Conservative nominee, or to vote for an independent candidate, or a Radical nominee, or not to vote at all, and would be doing a wrong to your principles. We warn you not to do this.

3. Once more, rally to the defense of your State. It may be your last chance to save her from the vandals. Be calm. Be on the alert. Keep cool but work. Let the Radicals and Holden and Kirk do their worst; it can only recoil upon their own heads. If you determine to preserve your temper, and do your duty. Obey the laws. They may fret and worry you and try to exasperate you, but keep cool and do your duty. Holden's military plans, the employment of Kirk, and other outrages, are telling powerfully against him and his party. Let us avoid everything that would produce a re action.

Rally to the rescue! Let every man work between this and the election day, to carry the State.

HOLDEN ON BUTLER.

It gives us pleasure to know that North Carolina, where there are Buffaloes still, is to have a taste of Butler's rule in her embossed counties."—Richmond Enquirer.

"Thou villain! the people of the seaboard counties of North Carolina are as loyal as any citizens. They have endured more, suffered more, and accomplished more to secure the independence of the South than any people in it, and yet, you dastard miscreant, scoundrel, express a satisfaction that the Beast, Butler, has been commissioned to rob and plunder them.

The writer of the sentence we quote has not a cent at stake in the country, except his neck, and yet he rejoices that Butler, the despised of God and man, has been sent to furnish the Buffaloes of North Carolina.

If Butler comes into North Carolina, we will try to welcome him with hospitable hands to a robber's grave."—Standard, when edited by Gov. Holden.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN ON CARPET. BARGAINS.

During the war, a few Virginians and now and then a Marylander, was appointed, not to a State, but Confederate States office in North Carolina. The Governor did not like it, as will be seen from the following utterance taken from the Standard:

"Now is it true that there are vulgar prejudices in the South against Virginians? Our people have complained and justly, that the administration at Richmond has filled many of the Confederate offices in this State with Virginians and Marylanders, to the exclusion of our commanding citizens. Blackguards, bullies and needy bankrupts from Virginia are put, held in higher estimation here than citizens here."

If we would imitate the Governor in coarse language we would say, "Thou villain, miscreant and dastard!" After expressing such antipathy in favor of natives, why didn't they choose Tourgee for Judge, Ashley for President and Printer, Ashley for superintendent of Public Instruction, Hinsdale for Secretary of State? Dewey and Hurdle as Professors of the University, Colin McRae for State proxy on Railroads, and Boyle, the whilom mayor, for Treasurer. If we could be excused for using the Governor's language, we would read over this list of beggary, struggle and say, "Thou villain! miscreant! dastard! how came they here?"

There will be a big camp meeting at Cape Hatteras on the 14th of August.

Nowhere is the contrast of excitement over the proposed race between the boats "Lady Gay" and the "Sunny South."

MURFREESBORO, N. C. July 11, 1870.

Messrs. Editor:—Pursuant to a call for a Convention, the Conservatives of this and Bertie county, met on Saturday 9th inst., at Ahosky Church to nominate a candidate for the Senate for this district, Hertford and Bertie counties.

The meeting was called to order by Langley Taylor, Esq., and on his suggestion John Wilson Esq., of Bertie, was called to the chair. On taking the chair, he explained the object of the meeting and after a few brief remarks the Convention proceeded to business. George W. Beverly Esq., was requested to act as Secretary and T. G. Moore was called as assistant. On motion a Committee was appointed, representing both counties, to meet and report the name of some gentleman, who would be acceptable to both counties as their candidate for Senate. The Committee returned and reported the name of L. W. Mitchell Esq., who had been formerly nominated as the choice of Bertie county, Messrs. P. H. Winston, Jos. Cherry, D. V. Valentine and A. T. Shaw, were appointed as an Executive Committee in the canvass, and, on motion, the names of L. W. Mitchell and Thomas Jernigan were added to this Committee.

Mr. Thomas Jernigan, the candidate for the House of Representatives in Hertford county, then rose and delivered a forcible and very creditable address to his hearers rehearsing Radical abuse of power, their useless extravagance in office, and ended amid loud applause.

Mr. Mitchell then followed. He thanked the Convention for the honor unanimously conferred on him, and then delivered an energetic and stirring speech, characteristic and well suited to the occasion. After a severe exposure of Radical wrong doing, he closed his speech with applause, his hearers evidently well pleased with their choice.

The meeting then adjourned.

PITTSBORO, July 11, 1870.

HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR.:

Editor Sentinel—Sir: In an article published in your paper of the 6th inst., signed "Chatham," dated Pittsboro', July 2nd, 1870, I find the following language, to wit:

"Not a man spoke in this meeting, (I mean the whites,) who did not leave the impression that he was talking for a place of some profit, that he was hiring himself out to pander to the prejudices of the colored race, with the sole view of advancing himself."

If this language was intended for me the author of it penned a wilful lie.

Respectfully, yours,

N. A. RAMSEY.

Having been informed (not officially) that I had been nominated by the Radical Convention which assembled in Yanceyville on Saturday July 9th 1870, for the office of Register of Deeds, I hereby decline the said nomination, while I appreciate the compliment that was intended to be paid me, I cannot lend my name to a party with whom I have no sympathy, and request that my name be withdrawn from the ticket.

J. A. HOPKINS.

Yanceyville, July 12th, 1870.

A Sensible Ox.—The New York Sun which notwithstanding its utter Radicalism, is extremely anxious to see the final catastrophe, says:

There is an evident breaking up of the Republican column, which is spreading alarm far and wide. The Democrats at fair only fritter the enemy's fire. Gen. Grant has not only failed to meet the expectation of the party, but he has exhibited an obstinacy, combined with incompetency, threatening the most serious consequences. He shows the worst points of Johnson's nature, without the political ability. The alienation and disaffection among Republicans are open and growing. Favor and patronage alone prevent a split. Lines are between the party and the Presidency. But it must come to some form, and before long.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan of Philadelphia, selected by the Executive Committee of the 3rd district as the Conservative candidate for Congress in the room of Dr. Dodd, declined by the death of Daniel Reese.

This resolution is a capital one, but will be the means of uniting much strength to the Conservative party in the State.

The Radicals of Bladen county have nominated Forter, the "Mummy Doctor," for the Senate.

For the Sentinel.

ATTENTION REPUBLICANS.

Remember, that the Governor, whose administration you support, has seen fit to call into service one thousand men under the control and management of the notorious Kirk, from East Tennessee.

Remember, that he declares his purpose to be the preservation of the peace.

Remember, that this call for troops has been made in the midst of a heated political contest and on the very eve of the election. Do you believe the Governor's purpose is to preserve the peace and to protect the citizens of North Carolina in the free expression of their political opinions? Do you believe that he would employ such an agent as Kirk, just at this time to consummate that purpose? Do you believe that he would call from the State of Tennessee, a notorious ruffian and robber, if it was his honest desire to preserve the peace in the State? If you do, listen to the following facts as I shall briefly state them, and it doesn't stir the blood in your veins and cause you to tremble for the safety of North Carolina, God save you from such fanaticism. On Friday the 8th, Kirk with his armed mob passed through this place on his way "God only knows where"—(if he knows anything about such an abandoned wretch.) Before the train had fairly stopped at the depot, three or four of his devils jumped off, and with pistols, guns and drawn swords, committed a most wanton and murderous assault upon the Agent of the W. N. Company, Mr. Lawson Fry. Mr. Fry, as was his custom, was out at the track to meet the train, in the discharge of his duty as Agent, and while thus discharging his duty, he was assaulted as above indicated, driven into the depot warehouse, was made to take up a bucket of water, and after offering repeated insults to provoke resistance and excite a disturbance, with drawn swords and pistols presented at his breast, he was ordered out to the train, and there, under the curses, imprecations and threats of taking his life, he was forced to submit to the most humiliating and damning requirements, under the jeerings and curses of a thousand armed ruffians, called out by Gov. Holden to preserve the peace in North Carolina. It seems that an empty car has been standing at the Newton depot for some days, awaiting the shipment of grain, that while thus standing, some one (who is now known to be a small boy and not 18 years old) wrote on the side and end of the coach, the following inscription: "Dead men tell no tales." "Ku Klux Kirk." This was done on Tuesday morning. The words were written with chalk and was simply a piece of boyish mischief. This writing was called to Mr. Fry's attention by some one on Wednesday, who heard, probably the mail carrier on W. N. C. R. R. say that Kirk's men would be along in a few days, and that some one would be hurt if that writing remained on the coach. Immediately upon hearing this Mr. Fry procured a bucket of water and he thought succeeded in entirely obliterating the writing, and the fact is that it was so nearly obscured that it required the closest observation to discover it at all. After being made to rewash the coach he was then escorted (by the same guard) back into the ware house, required to take his marking pot and brush and after applying it to the writing (which was then illegible) was made to write, "Kirk is a man." About this time "Kirk" made his appearance and mildly told the boys "that would do" and thereupon made Fry mark out "Kirk is a man." About this time the train started off when one or two of the lambs drew their pistols and presented them at the Engineer and threatened to shoot him if he refused to stop his train. After some little time consumed in cursing rebels and swearing that they would kill from the cradle up but what they would exterminate rebels, and Ku Klux, the bloody and cowardly devils left, we hope never to return. During the time consumed in perpetrating this outrage Mr. Fry was not even permitted to open his mouth, and when he did attempt to speak, he was punched with pistols and guns and invoked fresh curses and threats on his head, and whilst in the act of applying the marking brush to the writing on the coach he was rudely forced to pull off his hat and thus humiliate himself to a band of lawless banditti and East Tennessee ruffians styled Governor Holden's Militia, called out with a view of preserving peace in North Carolina. "Now" the villian who makes the utterance, lies, they were called out to terrify the people and thus influence the August election with a view of perpetuating his hellish rule in North Carolina. They will commit other outrages similiar to the one perpetrated on Fry, and perhaps more diabolical. It is done to provoke resistance. It is done to excite and irritate the public mind. It is done to afford them some pretext for sending armed guards in our midst and thus prevent a fair election, especially in those districts where the contest is about equal Conservatives and Democrats in North Carolina, possess your souls in peace, the heel of the tyrant is on your necks. Refrain from lawlessness and violence, submit to these outrages with patience and that Roman virtue that has made you the most distinguished people on the face of God's green earth. Brother comrades in the Confederate army, we are the power in North Carolina, let us counsel peace. Let us submit to our lot, our courage has been tried on many a hard fought and bloody battle field and thank God our record is untarnished. Your native State is to day in the very throes of ruin, it is your duty to go to her rescue. Let us remember against whom we have to contend, and what must stake.

Let us remember that these insults are offered to us with a view of forcing us into resistance and irritating us into violence. Brother comrades, much depends on our action and conduct. Let us act with becoming propriety and all will be well.—Peace will again smile upon our benighted land and the voice of reason will again resume its sway. I forbear any further comment upon the conduct of Kirk and his men. The facts as I have related them are true. We will write on the Governor and if it is his purpose to preserve the peace in North Carolina, he will interfere and see that Mr. Fry's grievance are redressed.

CATAWBA.

A Sensible Factory.—The cotton factory at Augusta, Ga., runs 10,000 spindles, and Senator Sprague says that is is the best managed institution of the kind in the country. The amount of capital invested is $900,000, and for several years past the annual dividend to the stockholders has been twenty per cent.—The daily product is 20,000 yards of manufactured cloth. The operatives number 500, and their monthly wages amount to $16,000. No share of the stock (selling originally $100) can be bought for less than $187. It is stated that the families connected with the operatives in the factory number nearly five hundred souls.—This is strong inducement to build up cotton factories in every portion of the South.

Judge Pleasants, of California, vindicated the dignity of his court against an irreverent lawyer, lately, leaving his place and giving the attorney a severe caning. The judge then resumed his seat and told the whipped pleader to proceed with his remarks.
