JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE TORTURE OF PRISONERS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

However much the Radical press of North Carolina may attempt to cover the the villany of their leaders and palliate the outrages of their hired militia, the fact remains beyond all question, that the most unwarranted and unprovoked cruelties have been practiced by Kirk's men in several notable instances. It is vain that they assert that their prisoners are humanely dealt with, when the public know that some of them have been wickedly and wantonly maltreated. The Raleigh Standard denies that Mr. Patton, of Alamance, was hung up by these militia, but we have the best testimony that he was so punished, and we have it from a reliable source that Kirk himself publicly asserted in Yanceyville last week that Patton was hung up by the thumbs three times, to extort a confession from him in regard to the murder of Outlaw.

There can be no doubt either, about the cruelties which were practiced upon Mr. P. A. Wiley, former sheriff of Caswell, by some of Kirk's irresponsible soldiery. Wiley was seized while at work on his farm; he was denied the privilege of going to his house for a change of apparel; he was placed on a bare back horse, his feet tied under the horse; and in this predicament he was trotted off to Yanceyville some ten miles distant. Arrived at Yanceyville, he was led into a room in the court house, surrounded by armed men with fixed bayonets and locks cocked, and there bound and at the mercy of these wretches, he was ordered to confess to the murder of Stephens, on penalty of instant death! His vile accusers at the same time declared they had evidence of his guilt and told him he had as well own up at once. Mr. Wiley, unappalled by such threats, simply replied to these fellows boldly that they were a set of liars and thieves, and that if they chose they might fire away. He was too brave a man to be intimidated by their menaces or humbled by their cowardly persecutions.

After awhile, when the scene shall change, when law and order shall be restored and when an outraged community and State shall seek to visit simple justice upon the authors of these crimes, Holden and his colleagues will cry out for mercy and swear they never did these things. But the facts will remain all the same, a blot and a stigma upon the Radical party and an everlasting damnation to Holden's administration.—Danville Register.

From the St. Louis Republican.

THE TROUBLES IN NORTH CAROLINA.

We trust President Grant will lose no time in giving his personal attention to affairs in North Carolina, and put an end by some means, we hardly care what, to the turmoil now going on there. That a State nominally in the Union, whose Senators and Representatives, are occupying seats on the floor of Congress, and whose people are supposed to be under the protection of the Federal Government, should be the scene of such outrages as our dispatches chronicle from day to day is a disgrace to the nation, and to the party in power. Men, women and children are flying into Virginia to escape the tyranny which prevails at home; Kirk and his negro militia are arresting peaceable citizens by the score, and North Carolina is in a worse condition, socially and politically, than at any time during or since the war. All this comes from the machinations of Gov. Holden and a little group of Radical office holders and office-seekers who are willing to inaugurate a hell upon earth rather than risk the loss of their places by the result of a fair, untrammelled election. Heretofore this State has been even more quiet and well-disposed than any of those belonging to the late Confederacy; there have been comparatively no disturbances of any kind, and the inhabitants have uniformly manifested a disposition to cheerfully accept the situation, and render prompt obedience to whatever laws reconstruction imposed. Unfortunately for them they chose a bold, bad man for Governor, who, instead of using all his efforts for the promotion of harmony and prosperity, has steadily sought to arouse animosity and kindle hatreds almost forgotten. Yet, in spite of Holden's plottings, in spite of his usurpations and his plans to rig, the people there have made no resistance, and are making none now, though insulted, abused, and driven away by the miserable ruffians which he has armed and put in the field to do his will. These people, as citizens of the United States, claim the right to hold an election in accordance with their own and the Federal Constitution, and if this is denied them, they ask to be protected in their persons, liberties and property from the assaults of an enemy which they are powerless to withstand. It is the solemn duty of the President to extend them this protection promptly, and to take such measures as shall insure the maintenance of order in North Carolina. He ought not to permit his action in the premises to be guided by the views of Gov. Holden or Mr. Robert Douglas, but he should examine for himself and apply the remedy without regard to personal or political sympathies. The case is urgent, delays are dangerous, and we hope to see the Executive show himself fully capable of comprehending the situation, and mastering it.

The negroes of South Carolina are now going in for their own share of the spoils of office, and making the carpet-baggers take back seats. In three Congressional Districts they have nominated two negroes and one white carpetbagger for Representatives, and the latter is running in a district in which he was beaten several thousand votes at the last election; and will again be badly beaten by the Democrats. In the remaining district, Whittemore and a negro are contestants for the Radical nomination. We can't say which stands the best chance to get it, but if any white Radical is elected to Congress in South Carolina, we hope Whittemore will be the man.

The negroes, who furnish all the votes are right in claiming the offices. It is a confession of their own inferiority and debasement—the 15th Amendment and Civil Rights bill to the contrary notwithstanding—to send a white Radical to Congress when the negroes have all the voters of the party.—Cincinnati Gazette.

The ladies of Waldoro intend holding a Fair to aid in building a Methodist Episcopal Church at that place.
