THE STATE TROPPS.- We have been sked two or three dozen times if Holden intends to disband his standing army when the prisoners they have arrested are turned over to the civil authorities. We don't cially, to keep that ornamental colored guard at the arsenal, to play marbles in Capitol Equare for the good of the State, the ghosts of Ku Kluz that disturb the Governor's repose, and he will keep his troops to protect him against those hob-goblina. at $16 a month. That is a pretty piece of business, to ar rest a man because he didn't choose to lend him his horse; yet it is no worse than a thousand other acts of lawleseness and indignity that have been practiced on our citizens by Holden's band of brigands, since they have been in the State.

The law gives redress for such outrages, and that redress will be sought. The people have been barassed and oppressed long upon them, for the sake of peace, but there is a point beyond which, "forbearance ceases to be a virtue," and that point has ceases to be a virtue," and that point has been reached. HOW NOT TO MANAGE SOUTHERN

ELECTIONS.

A saying of the Wise Man is verified in the course of some extreme Southern po-littelaus and their Northern abettors: Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him." The not his foolishness depart from him." The class of whom we speak learn nothing from experience. The fact that Gov. Holden's violest proceedings have transferred North Carolina to the Democracy teaches them no lesson. They imagine that the possession of power entitles them to play despotic tricks with impunity; and that if their authority to override law and outrage justice he shallened they have but to a need. authority to override law and outrage jus-tice be challenged, they have but to appeal to Washington to obtain all the support they require. They assume that Federal troops are available whenever they choose to call for help, and that, if these are not equal to the occasion. Congress will upset its own work, do violence to the rights of its own work, do violence to the rights of sovereign States, and restore chaos as a pretext for military government. It must be admitted that for these extravagant assumptions too much justification has been afforded. The dispatch of troops to do Gov. Holden's bidding is a precedent not less miscalevous in its tendency than the ever recurring threat of interference which the extraorists in Government promitted. the extremists in Congress promulgate whenever they find party supremacy jeop-ardized in a Southern State. But the folly that invokes Federal interference is none the less because there is a folly that conceder such interference. In either case it is sui-

What is about to happen when Mr. For What is about to happen when Mr. Forney's two papers begin to talk of "renewed Southern outrages," all of us know. The sign is understood everywhere. There is a purpose which may be interpreted without prophetic aid. Some scheme for promoting personal ambition or factious greed is to be presented to Congress or the President.
Some plan is contemplated for carrying an election against the will of the people, or for perpetuating an authority that cannot withstand the iree exercise of the ballot.
Then the Kukiux reappear, and murders and outrages multiply at a rate which only vivid imaginations can explain. Of this startling intelligence the Washington startling intelligence the Washington monopoly; they are without a rival in that line of the new-paper business. And they enough; they have borne as no other of their peculiar skill. They would have people have borne the judignities heaped us believe that the defeat in North Carolina upon them, for the sake of peace, but there might have been prevented had there been more bayonets at the ballot-box; and they so describe events in other States as to so describe events in other States as to suggest the necessity for military appearances to make sure of Republican victories. They ask us to rely more, upon the bullet, and less upon the ballet.

From this teaching Georgia has happily been rescued by the good sense of one branch of the local Legislature, indered and perhaps aided by Attorney General AKERMAN. The people are not to be defrauded out of an election, as was proposed. Now let us hops that they will be allowed to vote unnoises ed by the military. Mr. Akerman has well said that the Republican Party can better afford to lose a State than to retain many important matters in relation to the instruction of the Deal and Dumb will be brought before this Convention, and the meeting is looked forward to with great interest by members of the profession. Our State Institution will be represented by the Principal and some of the teachers. standing army to aid bim in managing mat-ters, and shreatens to appeal to the Wash-ington Jupiter if the Legislature reject his propositions. A disparch to the Ga.veston Bulletin—a stanach Union sheet—briefly Austra, tos. 5 — Gov. Davis has determined that if the Legislature adjourns without passing the appropriations he asked, amounting to $1,600,000, that he will im-out passing the appropriations he asked, amounting to $1,500,000, that he will immediately call an extra session. It that is relused, he will report to the Federal Governoes that the State is lawless, that he is poveriess, and ask that the State he remanded to military rule, that he be appointed Military Governor, and troops estationed in the State as before reconstruction."

We have seen these things so often already that the prospect of their repetition excites no surprise. The partise in Hoessa is which they originate is not exhausted. All we can hope is that if Gov. Davis make a pilgrimage to Washington he will return home a less confident if not a wiser man. It is quite evident that the process of tinkering the Bouthern States to establish party supremacy is them forever, has been continued too long for the good of the party itself. The object of reconstruction was national, not partises, and the policy that would unsettle a finished work as often as partisan exigencies arise, in as scandalous as it is impolitic. It brings diagrace on the party resorting to it, and insures a repetition of results akin to those in North Carosins. The field is broad and fair, and we should be content to content it fairly. Many publicantial advantages are on the Republican aids, and their legitimate use should be sufficient for all reasonable purposes. If our party managers would turn them to the hear account, and win victories where now they seem to dread defeat, they will expel the Holdsmand Barnes from their concells, and the reakless above of power, and the reakless above of power.
