THE JOURNAL.

OUR PISTOLS GOVERNOR

Obituary.—Mrs. Adams, wife of Mr. Adams, not having the fear of Kirk and Holden before his eyes, told him he'd "be d—d" if he didn't pay, and so he did, leaving the negro amateur, minus a hand and his mouth open.

Instruction.—We learn that the intendant has issued an order, Kirk, Claxton to Holden, Kirk, Claxton and Holden, the payment of the Yeoman, will be suspended in his place, who it is said will be appointed in his stead.

Brave Fair.—We beg the people to remember that the State Agricultural Fair is held in the City on the 16th, 17th, 18th and 21st of October. It is only about six weeks off, and such a one as the Fair ought to be.

They had better look sharp or the Democrats will get the Legislature.

Fearfulness of the Times.—As one of Holden's colored State Troops was passing Mr. Cantrell's confectionery store this morning he perhaps noticed a couple of gentlemen standing at the door, and as he passed them he heard one of them say, "Well, sir, I don't like the looks of things at all." Whereupon the other replied, "Nor I either, sir." The trooper, no doubt, thought that the times were fearful indeed, and with deep regret (?) he passed on.

Outrageous.—We learn that Kirk and his lambs still hold possession of the office of the Superior Court of Caswell County, and refuse the records and papers are being badly used, some torn up and that Mr. Brandon, the Clerk has appealed to Gov. Holden for relief and that the Governor pays no attention to it. Well so it is daily treating up the greater wrath against him.

The Question.—We publish Judge Fear's opinion in the Wagley case, simply as a matter of history. Its conclusions are so reliable as the witnesses. Long and brief and its arguments are worth as much. The opinion is very much in the strain of the editorial of the Standard of yesterday in reference to recalling Republicans. The public have had enough of such sensational arguments in regard to Mr. Kirk, to place much confidence in their coming from such source. The only real discovery of crime and the criminal yet by this investigation that we can see, is the Grey and Long case who burnt the school house. But let was prompted by personal malice against the owner. The school house was the property of Mr. Wm. Long, a colored Conservative. No politics in the matter. Grey is a colored Republican, and he even his self is probably there would have been a split also between the civil and military, then is the action of politicians could have influenced their action, nor was it the order of the camp as will be shown. The nearest that has been shown of political bias prompting the burning of the school house was the fact that Long was a Conservative and Grey a Republican. As Mr. Gattis is a colored lad who declares he does not know a letter. There is no politics in the case, and the whole thing is a put up job between the two colored men, and the whole matter will be sifted to the bottom.

Long is said by some to be the man who burnt the school house. Others say it is not so, Judge Bishop will enter upon the duties of his office in a few days. We have not yet seen the Governor's proclamation.

Burke.—It is rumored that at the extreme solicitations of Gov. Holden et. al. Judge Boyd, the newly appointed U. S. Circuit Judge, will visit the city, to conclude with the Governor and afford if possible some relief from Judge Brooks' alleged attempt to be d—d" if he didn't pay, and so he did, leaving the negro amateur, minus a hand and his mouth open.

Another Fire.—At Mr. Adams, a few minutes from Philadelphia, and one of the Company who furnished the Round House at the R. & G. Shops recently, was burned to the Street Depot, on the Baltimore road, on Saturday night last. Loss about $2,000.

Obituary.—Mrs. Adams, not having the fear of Kirk before his eyes, told him he'd "be d—d" if he didn't pay, and so he did, leaving the negro amateur, minus a hand and his mouth open.

Instruction.—We learn that the intendant has issued an order, Kirk, Claxton to Holden, Kirk, Claxton and Holden, the payment of the Yeoman, will be suspended in his place, who it is said will be appointed in his stead.

Brave Fair.—We beg the people to remember that the State Agricultural Fair is held in the City on the 16th, 17th, 18th and 21st of October. It is only about six weeks off, and such a one as the Fair ought to be.

They had better look sharp or the Democrats will get the Legislature.

Fearfulness of the Times.—As one of Holden's colored State Troops was passing Mr. Cantrell's confectionery store this morning he perhaps noticed a couple of gentlemen standing at the door, and as he passed them he heard one of them say, "Well, sir, I don't like the looks of things at all." Whereupon the other replied, "Nor I either, sir." The trooper, no doubt, thought that the times were fearful indeed, and with deep regret (?) he passed on.

Outrageous.—We learn that Kirk and his lambs still hold possession of the office of the Superior Court of Caswell County, and refuse the records and papers are being badly used, some torn up and that Mr. Brandon, the Clerk has appealed to Gov. Holden for relief and that the Governor pays no attention to it. Well so it is daily treating up the greater wrath against him.

The Question.—We publish Judge Fear's opinion in the Wagley case, simply as a matter of history. Its conclusions are so reliable as the witnesses. Long and brief and its arguments are worth as much. The opinion is very much in the strain of the editorial of the Standard of yesterday in reference to recalling Republicans. The public have had enough of such sensational arguments in regard to Mr. Kirk, to place much confidence in their coming from such source. The only real discovery of crime and the criminal yet by this investigation that we can see, is the Grey and Long case who burnt the school house. But let was prompted by personal malice against the owner. The school house was the property of Mr. Wm. Long, a colored Conservative. No politics in the matter. Grey is a colored Republican, and he even his self is probably there would have been a split also between the civil and military, then is the action of politicians could have influenced their action, nor was it the order of the camp as will be shown. The nearest that has been shown of political bias prompting the burning of the school house was the fact that Long was a Conservative and Grey a Republican. As Mr. Gattis is a colored lad who declares he does not know a letter. There is no politics in the case, and the whole thing is a put up job between the two colored men, and the whole matter will be sifted to the bottom.

Long is said by some to be the man who burnt the school house. Others say it is not so, Judge Bishop will enter upon the duties of his office in a few days. We have not yet seen the Governor's Proclamation.

The Question.—We publish Judge Fear's opinion in the Wagley case, simply as a matter of history. Its conclusions are so reliable as the witnesses. Long and brief and its arguments are worth as much. The opinion is very much in the strain of the editorial of the Standard of yesterday in reference to recalling Republicans. The public have had enough of such sensational arguments in regard to Mr. Kirk, to place much confidence in their coming from such source. The only real discovery of crime and the criminal yet by this investigation that we can see, is the Grey and Long case who burnt the school house. But let was prompted by personal malice against the owner. The school house was the property of Mr. Wm. Long, a colored Conservative. No politics in the matter. Grey is a colored Republican, and he even his self is probably there would have been a split also between the civil and military, then is the action of politicians could have influenced their action, nor was it the order of the camp as will be shown. The nearest that has been shown of political bias prompting the burning of the school house was the fact that Long was a Conservative and Grey a Republican. As Mr. Gattis is a colored lad who declares he does not know a letter. There is no politics in the case, and the whole thing is a put up job between the two colored men, and the whole matter will be sifted to the bottom.

Long is said by some to be the man who burnt the school house. Others say it is not so, Judge Bishop will enter upon the duties of his office in a few days. We have not yet seen the Governor's Proclamation.

Obituary.—Mrs. Adams, wife of Mr. Adams, not having the fear of Kirk before his eyes, told him he'd "be d—d" if he didn't pay, and so he did, leaving the negro amateur, minus a hand and his mouth open.

Instruction.—We learn that the intendant has issued an order, Kirk, Claxton to Holden, Kirk, Claxton and Holden, the payment of the Yeoman, will be suspended in his place, who it is said will be appointed in his stead.

Brave Fair.—We beg the people to remember that the State Agricultural Fair is held in the City on the 16th, 17th, 18th and 21st of October. It is only about six weeks off, and such a one as the Fair ought to be.

They had better look sharp or the Democrats will get the Legislature.

Fearfulness of the Times.—As one of Holden's colored State Troops was passing Mr. Cantrell's confectionery store this morning he perhaps noticed a couple of gentlemen standing at the door, and as he passed them he heard one of them say, "Well, sir, I don't like the looks of things at all." Whereupon the other replied, "Nor I either, sir." The trooper, no doubt, thought that the times were fearful indeed, and with deep regret (?) he passed on.

Outrageous.—We learn that Kirk and his lambs still hold possession of the office of the Superior Court of Caswell County, and refuse the records and papers are being badly used, some torn up and that Mr. Brandon, the Clerk has appealed to Gov. Holden for relief and that the Governor pays no attention to it. Well so it is daily treating up the greater wrath against him.

The Question.—We publish Judge Fear's opinion in the Wagley case, simply as a matter of history. Its conclusions are so reliable as the witnesses. Long and brief and its arguments are worth as much. The opinion is very much in the strain of the editorial of the Standard of yesterday in reference to recalling Republicans. The public have had enough of such sensational arguments in regard to Mr. Kirk, to place much confidence in their coming from such source. The only real discovery of crime and the criminal yet by this investigation that we can see, is the Grey and Long case who burnt the school house. But let was prompted by personal malice against the owner. The school house was the property of Mr. Wm. Long, a colored Conservative. No politics in the matter. Grey is a colored Republican, and he even his self is probably there would have been a split also between the civil and military, then is the action of politicians could have influenced their action, nor was it the order of the camp as will be shown. The nearest that has been shown of political bias prompting the burning of the school house was the fact that Long was a Conservative and Grey a Republican. As Mr. Gattis is a colored lad who declares he does not know a letter. There is no politics in the case, and the whole thing is a put up job between the two colored men, and the whole matter will be sifted to the bottom.

Long is said by some to be the man who burnt the school house. Others say it is not so, Judge Bishop will enter upon the duties of his office in a few days. We have not yet seen the Governor's Proclamation.