DUMPHY DOUGLAS ARE GONE!
The Editor of the News and Observer writes to the Editor of the Raleigh News and Observer...

It will be seen from Dumpey's resignation, that he had not been retained. He resigns as Colonel and Aid of the Governor...

It is thought by some that Col. Clarke must have written the Governor's letter accepting General Dumpey's resignation...

There were more ladies in attendance than we have seen at similar meetings since 1810. It was to their presence that we were indebted for the quiet and order that prevailed...

The colored people were out in great numbers. A friend who was introduced to Governor Holden for their attendance...

Mr. Willis Haskery was not introduced. He was a short but willing speaker. Mr. John F. Warden, who was Master of the Convention, introduced the resolutions...

Quite a number of Kirk's discharged Tennessee conscripts who were brought into North Carolina by Holden to manure, abuse, bang and mope over people...

When we look, however, at the paper's character and tenor of the editor's address, we are not surprised that people who exhibit...

THE BURNING
The burning of the papers of the late Governor Holden is a subject of great interest...
