THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1870.

ATTENTION FIRE Co.'s!

You are hereby notified to meet at Fireman's Hall, this (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock, for drill.

Music HATH CHARMS, &c.—We observe that Dr. Blackwell, of the Yarborough House, has just received a very fine Piano from the manufactory of the Messrs. Steinway, of New York. The instrument is highly praised by competent judges.

AMUSEMENTS.—Two very good companies are now performing in this city—Haverly's Minstrels at the Opera House, and Mr. Ben. Cotton's Varieties at Metropolitan Hall. Both companies are composed of talented performers, and are deserving of liberal patronage.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS, &c.—We observe that Dr. Blackwell, of the Yarborough House, has just received a very fine Piano from the manufactory of the Messrs. Steinway, of New York. The instrument is highly praised by competent judges.

AMUSEMENTS.—Two very good companies are now performing in this city—Haverly's Minstrels at the Opera House, and Mr. Ben. Cotton's Varieties at Metropolitan Hall. Both companies are composed of talented performers, and are deserving of liberal patronage.

OFFICERS OF THE SOCIETY.

Pres't, 1st Vice President, Col. R. G. Hamlin, 2d Vice President, Dr. E. D. Young, 3d Vice President, Col. P. E. Hale, 4th Vice President, Dr. A. Oepchart, 5th Vice President, Col. Jno. Beckwith, 6th Vice President, Jno. A. Clarke, Treasurer, P. Harris, Assistant Treasurer, W. W. Jones, Secretary; Jos. A. Clarke, Assistant Secretary; W. W. Jones, Treasurer.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Dr. W. W. Young, Chairman, Capt. J. R. Clarke, Hon. E. Conigland, Capt. J. R. Brodie, Rev. W. Wiggins, Dr. G. W. Blackwell, Dr. W. J. Hawkins, Dr. W. T. Chesshire, Col. T. L. Jones, D. Y. Cooper, W. D. Moyer, Geo. J. R. Mordecai.

MARSHALS.

Col. W. R. Cox, Capt. Marshal, Capt. Thos. White, Dr. Geo. A. Foote, Jas. R. Young, W. A. Thompson, Capt. Dudley, F. H. Anderson, Maj. R. A. Badger, Jas. Masenburg, Col. T. L. Jones, D. Y. Cooper, A. Haywood.

POLICE.

Maj. Harry Harris, P. H. Fuller, Jno. W. Watts, Henderson Hunt.

PROGRAMME.

TUESDAY—FIRST DAY.

At 10 o'clock, Trotting Match No. 5.

At 11 o'clock the annual address will be delivered by Hon. K. P. Battle.

At 3 o'clock, Trotting Match in single harness, best 3 in 5. Premium, $10.

At 4 o'clock, for trial of speed, one mile, hitched to sulky. Premium, $10.

At 4½ o'clock, Pacing Match, best 3 in 5. Premium, Silver cup.

WEDNESDAY—SECOND DAY.

At 9 o'clock, the Chief Marshal will assemble the Judges appointed to award the premiums in front of the Speaker's stand when the blanks for their reports will be given them, with all necessary instructions.

At 10 o'clock, there will be an exhibition and trial of Agricultural Machinery and implements, which will be placed around the track for examination.

At 11 o'clock, Grand Tournament, will take place. Premium, Silver cup.

At 1 o'clock, Trotting Match, best 3 in 5. Premium, Silver cup.

At 2 o'clock, Pacing Match, best 3 in 5. Premium, Silver cup.

At 3 o'clock, Trotting Match in double harness, best 3 in 5. Premium, $10.

At 4 o'clock, Trotting Match for horses in single harness, best 2 in 3. Premium, $50.00. Second Premium, $10.

At 4½ o'clock, Pacing Match under saddle, to be awarded for the fastest horse by the quickest time, best 2 in 3. Premium, $10.

At 5 o'clock, half mile heat, premium will be awarded likewise.

THURSDAY—THIRD DAY.

At 9 o'clock, the Chief Marshal will assemble the Judges appointed to award the premiums in front of the Speaker's stand.

At 10 o'clock, Trotting Match in double harness, best 3 in 5. Premium, $10.

At 11 o'clock, Trotting Match for horses in single harness, best 2 in 3. Premium, $50. Second Premium, $10.

At 1 o'clock, Pacing Match under saddle, to be awarded for the fastest horse by the quickest time, best 2 in 3. Premium, $10.

At 2 o'clock, Trotting Match in single harness, best 3 in 5. Premium, $10.

At 3 o'clock, Trotting Match for horses in double harness, best 3 in 5. Premium, $10.

At 4 o'clock, Pacing Match under saddle, best 3 in 5. Premium, Silver cup.

At 4½ o'clock, Trotting Match, best 3 in 5. Premium, Silver cup.

At 5 o'clock, half mile heat, premium will be awarded likewise.

A CASE OF COOL IMPUDENCE.—We have heard of many acts of cool impudence, but one of the coolest we have yet heard of occurred in this city a few days since. A gentleman of this city had a valuable horse for sale, and a man called to see the animal. He examined the horse carefully, and then asked the owner if he would take a note for the animal. The owner replied that he would not, as he had been swindled in that way before. The man then pulled out a check for the amount, and asked the owner if he would take that. The owner replied that he would, as he knew the check was good. The man then wrote a receipt for the money, and asked the owner to sign it, which he did. The man then left with the horse, and the owner has not seen him since. He has not only detected a bare-faced swindler, but will render private assistance to the police in finding the rascal.

PRIVATE ASYLUM AGAIN.—The following from the Journal, says that since the war the number of persons in that section of the State has increased so rapidly that the State Asylum cannot meet the wants of the community, and that a movement is on foot to establish a private Asylum for that unfortunate class. The present owners are the same who started the one now in progress at Morganton, and their success in the latter, and their ability to manage it, is a guarantee that the new institution will be conducted on equal principles. The present owners are the same who started the one now in progress at Morganton, and their success in the latter, and their ability to manage it, is a guarantee that the new institution will be conducted on equal principles.

PRIVATE ASYLUM AGAIN.—The following from the Journal, says that since the war the number of persons in that section of the State has increased so rapidly that the State Asylum cannot meet the wants of the community, and that a movement is on foot to establish a private Asylum for that unfortunate class.

Mr. Editor:—We, the people of Hillsboro and vicinity, are in a deplorable condition for want of a Bank. We have been doing business for the last two years without a Bank, and we have been compelled to send off all our money to pay for goods, and we have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods. We have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods. We have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods.

Mr. Editor:—We, the people of Hillsboro and vicinity, are in a deplorable condition for want of a Bank. We have been doing business for the last two years without a Bank, and we have been compelled to send off all our money to pay for goods, and we have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods. We have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods.

CONVICTED.—We learn that Charles H. Brodie, who was tried and convicted, last week, of forgery, was found guilty of the charge, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years. Mr. Brodie was defended by Messrs. Fuller & Busbee, and Mr. Fuller, we learn, will move for a new trial. Brodie was also indicted for forgery, and will be tried at the next term of the Court.

A CASE OF COOL IMPUDENCE.—We have heard of many acts of cool impudence, but one of the coolest we have yet heard of occurred in this city a few days since. A gentleman of this city had a valuable horse for sale, and a man called to see the animal. He examined the horse carefully, and then asked the owner if he would take a note for the animal. The owner replied that he would not, as he had been swindled in that way before. The man then pulled out a check for the amount, and asked the owner if he would take that. The owner replied that he would, as he knew the check was good. The man then wrote a receipt for the money, and asked the owner to sign it, which he did. The man then left with the horse, and the owner has not seen him since. He has not only detected a bare-faced swindler, but will render private assistance to the police in finding the rascal.

CONVICTED.—We learn that Charles H. Brodie, who was tried and convicted, last week, of forgery, was found guilty of the charge, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years. Mr. Brodie was defended by Messrs. Fuller & Busbee, and Mr. Fuller, we learn, will move for a new trial. Brodie was also indicted for forgery, and will be tried at the next term of the Court.

A Chance for Everybody.

We will do well to bear in mind the notice of a 000000000 Raj., President of this Bank, in reference to the enlargement of the Bank. Many who have been prevented from depositing with their agents, Messrs. Fels & Co., of Baltimore, were placed on special deposits with their agents, Messrs. Fels & Co., of Baltimore, and which may be any, have been concerned, We have not heard from the Bank since the 5th, 10th and 20th of the Bank. Perhaps it would be prudent in the people to wait a little longer before they make any deposits.

Mr. Editor:—We, the people of Hillsboro and vicinity, are in a deplorable condition for want of a Bank. We have been doing business for the last two years without a Bank, and we have been compelled to send off all our money to pay for goods, and we have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods. We have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods.

Mr. Editor:—We, the people of Hillsboro and vicinity, are in a deplorable condition for want of a Bank. We have been doing business for the last two years without a Bank, and we have been compelled to send off all our money to pay for goods, and we have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods. We have been compelled to borrow money at 10 and 20 per cent. to pay for our goods.

CONVICTED.—We learn that Charles H. Brodie, who was tried and convicted, last week, of forgery, was found guilty of the charge, and sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of two years. Mr. Brodie was defended by Messrs. Fuller & Busbee, and Mr. Fuller, we learn, will move for a new trial. Brodie was also indicted for forgery, and will be tried at the next term of the Court.

A CASE OF COOL IMPUDENCE.—We have heard of many acts of cool impudence, but one of the coolest we have yet heard of occurred in this city a few days since. A gentleman of this city had a valuable horse for sale, and a man called to see the animal. He examined the horse carefully, and then asked the owner if he would take a note for the animal. The owner replied that he would not, as he had been swindled in that way before. The man then pulled out a check for the amount, and asked the owner if he would take that. The owner replied that he would, as he knew the check was good. The man then wrote a receipt for the money, and asked the owner to sign it, which he did. The man then left with the horse, and the owner has not seen him since. He has not only detected a bare-faced swindler, but will render private assistance to the police in finding the rascal.