

Governor Holden, Senator Abbott and Judge Tourgeon, of North Carolina, will be writing to the papers their accusations, motivations and explanations about who was responsible for the destruction of the Klax Kase.

THE RIVALRY IN NEW YORK.—A letter dated New York, Thursday, says: "The rivalry in New York between the two churches, the Episcopal and the Methodist, has become a matter of public concern."

A HATER-FIELD INCIDENT.—A correspondent in factoring some of the incidents of the great battle around Metz, mentions the following:

Though Gen. Grant is very wrong in meddling with politics in the States, he is perfectly consistent. He was opposed to the Walker movement in Virginia, because it hurt the ultra Radical cause.

MARK TWAIN.—The St. Louis Republican gives the origin of Mark Twain's nom de plume of "Mark Twain".
