THE CASWELL PRISONERS.

We mentioned last week the rumor that the Solicitor, J. R. Bulla, declined to draw a bill against F. A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell and Felix Reese, at the present term of Caswell Superior Court, because he did not consider the evidence would warrant the Grand Jury in finding a true bill against them. This rumor has been confirmed by a letter received from a friend at Yanceyville yesterday morning. The letter says:

"The Superior Court for Caswell county has been in session this week, on Thursday of the term the counsel for W. A. Wiley, Jno. T. Mitchell and Felix Reese moved for their discharge in the case in which they were bound over by Justices Pearson, Bostic and Dick, when Mr. Solicitor J. R. Bulla, stated that he had examined the testimony taken by the Justices and was well satisfied as Grand Jury would or could find a true bill upon such testimony; in fact he would not ask a Jury for the finding of a bill upon such evidence, and consequently had no bill and did not intend to do so. The Grand Jurors, that the Grand Jury, of their own accord, had made every effort to find witnesses in regard to the perpetrators of the murder, with no success. Whereupon the Judge ordered the prisoners to be discharged."

And thus ends the mighty farce of the Caswell County Ku Klux cases in which Holden, Pearson and Kirk were such prominent actors. Let it be remembered—for it is an important feature of the matter,—that it was not a Ku Klux Grand Jury that refused to find a bill against these men, but a Radical bolting, with all the evidence before him, and all the witnesses at his command, who declares that the Grand Jury could not and would not find a true bill on such testimony as that on which Pearson, Dick and Bostic bound the accused over to answer a charge of murder; and that it was a Radical Judge, and a very dowdy died partizan one at that, with all the facts before him, and, no doubt, with a strong disposition to sustain Holden and justify this lying, garbled Pearson letter, who ordered that the prisoners be discharged.

Yes, the farce is ended, but what a light does the transparent piece Holden, Pearson, Dick and Bostic in! Language is impotent to characterize them and their action in this matter, faithfully and justly.—Their names will go down on the pages of history, not as good men and patriots would wish their names and actions to be handed down, but as partizan Judges, disturbers of the peace, agentationists, traitors to the constitution, and oppressors of the people; corrupt officials, who plotted against the liberty of the people and the freedom of the ballot box, in order to perpetuate all power and the most power, and all the wealth and dishonesty of their partizan associates.

By the order of Gov. Holden and agents of, Judges Pearson, Dick and Bostic, the Holden and Pearson letter to Wood, and Pearson's Sermon with, to use, meeting of the other two Justices, a large number of the farmers of Caswell county were arrested and deprived of their liberty, not only without law, but against law and the Constitution, by the instrumentality of mere memories, mostly from another State, held for weeks without being informed as to the charges against them or allowed a single individual the opportunity of hearing their accusers; subjected to the insults of their jailors, put to heavy pecuniary expenses besides the loss of their time, their legitimate business dragged to Raleigh and there, after a partial examination, required to give heavy bonds to appear at Court and answer nothing; for Bulla and Tourgee say there is nothing against Shall the men—the officials—who perpetrated these outrages go unshipped of office? Shall they not as officers, be impeached and deposed from their positions and be made to suffer the punishment of their crimes? We have no doubt these things will come upon them, and that an indignant and outraged people will yet call them to the bar to answer for their high crimes and misdemeanors.

Anderson and others.—Anderson Greene, one of the witnesses against the Caswell prisoners, who testified strongly against Felix Reese, was tried before the present term of the Superior Court of Yanceyville, and found guilty of arson in setting fire to Felix Reese's barn, and was sentenced by Judge Tourgee to five years in the penitentiary. Anderson, during all the witnesses in the above cases, who gave testimony against the prisoners, was living with Col. Wm. Holden, and while last heard from had arrived safely in Texas and was still prospering.

We learn, that one Gentil, who left a fort of debts owing on the late Caswell Fair, started at Yanceyville last week, the proceeds to go to the Caswell prisoners' bail, but finding that the money might be making disturbances in Caswell, and fearing that the soldiers might be making disturbances in Caswell, and fearing that the soldiers might be making disturbances in Caswell, and fearing that the soldiers
