'TWAS JUST ONE YEAR AGO TO-DAY' that I commenced catering to the taste of this people in the Tobacco line.
How well I have succeeded in giving you just the thing you most desired, can be attested by the thousands, who have extended to me their patronage.
In making my bow, for your past liberality, I enter upon a new year, with the determination to please you still better, if possible—give me a trial and see if I don't.
You have heard me blow a good deal about the Banker Cigars, for which I am sole agent in Raleigh, and which have justly won for themselves, an enviable reputation.
Just let me say one word more to their praise. It is the best ten cent Cigar in the State. I know the stock that goes in them, every particle of the filling is genuine Havana Tobacco, with the finest quality of wrapper. Can't be beaten, no use trying.
I have the Opera Banker, three for twenty-five cents, same stock a shade smaller, try them.
Cigars of all grades, twenty-six different brands.

The following gentlemen used it last season, and recommend it highly:
Edmunds Jacobs, Bay Jackson, N. C., says I am of the opinion the Fish Guano is the cheapest to the planter, and I have no doubt it is a most valuable fertilizer.
Mr. H. P. Pope, Newsoms, Va., used it on land, that without manure would not produce 200 lbs., seed cotton to the acre, he applied 300 lbs. Fish Guano to an acre and picked out 800 lbs. of nice seed cotton, and yielded 100 lbs. more of cotton than 300 lbs. of Peruvian and no stalk land. He expects to use it mostly on cotton this year.
Mr. Samuel Ford, Hicksford, Va., used it by the side of Peruvian, the crop of cotton from the Fish Guano was the best, the crop of tobacco and corn was equally as satisfactory. I shall use it on my spring crop. I think this is just what the farmers in the South need to renovate the exhausted lands.
Mr. A. E. Stevenson, Newsom's, Va., says I used the Guano under oats, it gave perfect satisfaction. For cotton I prefer it to the Peruvian.
Mr. H. Liverman, Bertie county, N. C., says I used the Fish Guano in the drill by the side of the Peruvian, and do not hesitate in saying it was superior to the Peruvian, and when the difference in price is considered it is much to be preferred to the Peruvian.
Rev. W. W. Kennedy, of Elizabeth City, N. C., used the Fish Guano on the side of cotton next from the barn-yard; the cotton from the Fish Guano grew better during the season, and opened earlier and better. I also used the Peruvian Guano, though costing one third more, I prefer the Fish Guano on account of price.
Dr. Thos. J. P. Smallwood, of Bertie county, N. C., I authorize Messrs. Rader Biggs & Co. to say, I used the Fish Guano last Spring and have no hesitation in saying it was superior to Peruvian in every respect.
C. W. Skinner, Edenton, says, I think the Fish Guano an excellent fertilizer for grain or grasses.
Dr. W. A. Massenburg, Southampton county, Va., says I think by the application of 200 lbs. of Fish Guano per acre, ordinary land can be made to yield 1,000 lbs. seed cotton, or 25 or 30 bushels of oats per acre.
It is also highly recommended by Henry Copeland, Jr., Rich Square, N. C.; W. J. Bishop, Bertie county, N. C.; Thos. M. Johnston, Plymouth, N. C.; S. R. Joyner, Murfreesboro, N. C.; R. J. Bass, Scotland Neck, N. C.; Chas. T. Deans, Hertford county, N. C.; E. B. Boston, Boykins, Va.; W. H. Bridges, Seaboard, N. C.; S. A. Northcot, Rosated, N. C.; Boston & Harrison, Boykins, Va.; Wm. S. Francis, Boykins, Va.; Saml'l R. Hilliard, Hilliardston, N. C.; John E. Moorcock, Halifax county, N. C.; Lafayette Taylor, Bertie county N. C. And many others.
