FOR CONVENTION.

Wake County Ticket.

Hon. THOMAS BRAGG,
Hon. D. M. BARRINGER,
Hon. A. S. MERRIMON,
GEORGE W. THOMPSON, Esq.

MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1871.

DEATH OF JAMES B. SHEPARD.

Died, in this city, on Saturday afternoon about four o'clock, Hon. James B. Shepard aged about 57 years. Mr. Shepard was complaining for ten days before his death. His sickness was of short duration. He was a graduate of the university of North Carolina, taking the first distinction in his class. He read law and came early to the bar. He represented Wake county in the senate in 1842. In 1844 he represented the same county in the house of commons. In 1846 he was the candidate of the democratic party for Governor.

Mr. Shepard had recently returned from Paris, where he lived for several years after the close of the late war. He was a finished scholar and a refined christian gentleman. He leaves one son only, who is now in Europe.

Mr. Shepard belonged to one of the ancient and honored families of the state, and leaves a large number of relatives to mourn his death.

NOMINATING CONVENTION.

On Saturday last the democratic conservative people of Wake, assembled in the court house in this city to nominate candidates for the convention. It was a large congregation of the sun-browned, hard-fisted white yeomanry of the state, who had abandoned their fields and crops to make one effort more to save their native state from the destroyers.

The resolutions and proceedings of the meeting will be found in another column.

The names of the gentlemen nominated will be found at the head of our column. They are not only well known to the county but to the state.

Bragg, Barringer, Merrimon and Thompson. This ticket has more capacity for forming a constitution than the whole radical party, who convened under Calvin Cowles for that purpose in 1868. As ex-governor, ex-judge, ex-minister, and a first-class practical farmer. Whose interest will not be safe in their hands?

Let the people throughout the state vie with each other as to who shall send the best men to the convention. Orange has done her best, in the nomination of Graham and Jones. Beaufort in the nomination of Satterthwaite, Caswell in the nomination of Kerr and Melane, and Wake in her nominations heretofore named. Let other counties do as well, and we shall have a convention that Gaston, Badger, Morehead and Miller might be proud of.

BOTH THE ORGANS.

The Radical Organ and the Office-Holders' Organ are both grinding away at the SENTINEL, and against convention. The Organ has a column upon us, signed "Stockholder," which is copied by the Office Holders' Organ. Both organs say we declared a scrip dividend as president of the North Carolina railroad, and Swepson got the benefit of it by buying the bonds at sixty-five cents in the dollar. The organs charge us with incompetency in the management of the North Carolina Railroad in 1868, as its president. It is well known that we were opposed to the scrip dividend of which the organs complain.

We have reason to be proud of our administration of the North Carolina Railroad. Every stockholder, so far as we heard, was pleased with it. As to selling the bonds of the company, belonging to the state, for sixty-five cents in the dollar, that was the fault of our incompetent treasurer, David Jenkins, and for it he should have been impeached.

One purpose of the two organs seems to be to make a railroad hero of Maj. Smith. Ninety thousand dollars of the receipts of the road for this year was owing to the policy adopted in 1868. This amount is received from the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad as a bonus for allowing them to take our freights on their road instead of taking them by way of Goldsboro'. The increased products of the country and the arrangement with the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad are the true causes of the increased receipts of the company, neither of which can be ascribed to the president, Major Smith. He is the author of nothing new or startling in the management of the road, except leasing it out for twenty without notice to bidders or even to the stockholders. It is true, he made a clean sweep of the old employees who would not vote the radical ticket. He dismissed section hands, agents at stations, and workmen in the shops, for their political opinions. He has prostituted the road to Holden and Kirk's uses and the uses of the radical party. We know, and can prove what we say.

JUDGE BUXTON'S LETTER.

"A gentleman from Harnett says Judge Buxton's letter is a libel upon the people of that county. There are only three persons in the poor house, and not a p isoner in the jail; the court got through its business in three days. A year ago Harnett county was the scene of midnight burnings.

The nineteen negroes now in Wake county jail extended their operations and burnings to Harnett. When we consider the number of barns burnt, the wonder is that Judge Buxton's letter did not excite more outrages than it did.

The New Hanover superior court adjourned Thursday afternoon. One hundred and eighty cases were taken from the criminal docket and disposed of.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.

This functionary, says the Asheville Citizen, by his conduct, more than any living man, has illustrated the truth of the good old maxim, that no man ought to be judge of his own case. He is now earnestly writing to keep himself in office under the fear that if a convention should be held, and new elections of judges be ordered, he may chance to be left out.

Under the old constitution of 1835, Judge Pearson occupied a place on the supreme court bench of North Carolina and held it till the commencement of the late civil war. The state seceded, passed ordinances of secession and of adhesion to the confederacy, and with her whole people went into rebellion, to use the phrase common with Judge Pearson and his political associates. But the judge then decided that the government was a regular, legal and valid one, and held under it the position of chief justice. After the close of the war, Andrew Johnson by the use of the military, crushed this government and set up another in its stead; and Judge Pearson decided that this too was a perfectly regular and legal government, and accepted when it was offered to him the position of chief justice.

The new Constitution, made through Gov. Holden, acting under Johnson's orders, was voted down by the people, and Gov. Holden himself beaten out of office by Gov. Worth, and the state returned again to its old Constitution, and yet Judge Pearson again decided that this too was all regular and perfectly legal, and he still decided that he ought to retain his office.

And when Congress by its reconstruction acts abolished the government, and by military orders established another one in its stead, Judge Pearson again decided that this government was, if possible, the most legal and regular of all, and readily took under it the position of chief justice.

Lady Coke, when her husband, Lord Coke, was attempting to defraud her daughter of her property, in reply to one who said the law would forbid it, said, "My Lord Coke can find law for any thing he wishes to do." In like manner Judge Pearson easily finds law to justify his holding office under all changes of government.

And when during the present year the people of the state shall have decided as they will do, to change their present mischievous constitution, if they shall propose to place the Chief Justice again on the Bench of the Supreme Court he will easily be able to see judicially that the government instead of being revolutionary, is perfectly regular and legal.

CONVENTION.

From all parts of the state we have cheering news in favor of convention. A gentleman from the west, who is no mean judge in such things, thinks there will not be more than one county west of Wake, that will not vote for convention.

The Old North State and the radical papers are deprived of their four strong arguments against convention. The four arguments were that Messrs. Leach, Fowle, Conigland and W. N. H. Smith, of Norfolk, were all against convention. These gentlemen are all for convention, and were at the time they were published as opposing it. The fifth, last, and new argument is that Col. Johnson, of Pitt, is opposed to convention. We expect this argument will be fully met when Col. Johnson is heard from.

It is said that Mr. Argo, of Orange, is opposed to convention. Is this argument too small, that the radical organs fail to notice it?

The SENTINEL draws from the state treasury seven hundred dollars per week.—Office Holders' Organ.

This is not true. What we do draw from the state treasury we give the state full value for in executing its printing expeditiously and well. The expenses of the SENTINEL are honestly provided for. The Office-Holders' Organ is based on fraud and robbery, and is supported by money the bulk of which is stolen from the people. The federal and state patronage in North Carolina is over $200,000—the federal and state steelage is fully three times that amount. This sum is assessed to support the Office Holders' Organ but a slight assessment is sufficient to keep up the one-horse concern. One week's blank paper bill of the SENTINEL would be sufficient to run the organ a quarter of a year. It is a strange thing that Office Holder's Organ—for whilst it is squeaking falsehoods at the SENTINEL its editor is and has been since the issue of the first number, staggering drunk throughout the grog shops of the city. It is an organ that grinds apparently without a grinder.

JAMES E. BOYD.

We saw this notorious kukls at Graham court. It is a reproach to the whole bar that a rule is not served on him to show cause why he should not be silenced and excluded from the bar. It is one of the evidences of the decay, or to use a stronger term, evidence of the corruption of the bar, to see members associating with such an unprincipled fellow.

Boyd has confessed his own infamy on oath. Decent men should shun him as they would Tourgee. He is a supervisor of something, we could not learn what. Some said it was a sort of detective's place to catch delinquent revenue officers. Others said it was no office but an appointment at $6 a day until a vacancy occurred to which he could be appointed. Kildee Lassiter fills a similar place in Granville. Will Percy, the tall supervisor from Mains, inform us what offices they fill?

"In the late troubles between Governor Caldwell and Mr. Turner, Mr. Moore, as a warm personal friend of Governor Caldwell, advised and assisted Mr. Hearne in the conduct of the correspondence."—Telegram.

This tale is not told as Governor Caldwell's second tells it on the street. Mr. Moore expressly stated he would have nothing to do with the matter except as a mutual friend to prevent bloodshed. The language applied by the Telegram to Mr. Moore could perhaps be more properly applied to Mr. Phillips.

WAKE COUNTY CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

On Saturday at 12 o'clock, m., in accordance with previous announcement, a large number of the best citizens of this county, favorable to the call of a state convention, assembled in the court house, in this city, to nominate candidates to represent the county in the proposed convention, and to make arrangements for the ensuing campaign.

On motion of Mr. O. L. Burch, the convention was called to order by appointing H. O Packer, Esq., to the chair, and Dr. Walter Dedman and J. P. Goodwin, secretaries.

Being called on, Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret explained the object and purpose of the convention in a clear and comprehensive manner.

The roll of the townships were called and 14 out of the 16 were ascertained to have representatives present.

On motion, all persons present from the various townships, friendly to the cause, were declared delegates.

On motion of Mr. G. H. Snow, a committee of five were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the convention.

The chair appointed Messrs. G. H. Snow, S. G. Hayes, Peterson Dunn, James Penny and Isaac Rogers.

After a short absence the committee returned and submitted the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1st. That we approve the action of the general assembly, in submitting to the people of the state the question whether they will have a convention to amend the constitution of our state under certain restrictions imposed by themselves.

Resolved 2. That the prostrate condition of our public credit; the intolerable burden of taxation; the extravagance; and mismanagement in both our county and state government; the multiplication of useless and expensive offices; the corruption and defalcation on the part of public officials; and numerous other evils in the public administration, owing in a greater or less degree to the defects of a constitution unsuited to our condition or wants and wishes of our people, all demand a change of the constitution.

Resolved, That the inalienable rights of self government vest in the people the power and say how and when they will have a change in their constitution—and that a decision by the people at the polls, with the consent and under the forms of law, of the existing government, is in pursuance of law, and of binding effect and obligation.

4. That we cheerfully concur in the restrictions to be imposed by the vote of the people on the delegates when assembled in convention—and that we will stand by all the rights and privileges of all our people as secured by the fundamental law of the land, without distinction of race, color or previous condition.

5. That we congratulate all the friends of reform, and of a pure administration of all the departments of the government on the bright prospects and the glad tidings of success which reach us from all parts of the state—and that, with energy and determination, we have no doubt of a glorious victory at the ballot-box on the 1st Thursday of August next.

On motion, nominations were declared in order and the various townships proceeded to vote by ballot. On the first ballot Hon. D. M. Barringer and Hon. A. S. Merrimon received 9 out of the 14 townships represented and were declared unanimously nominated. On the second ballot for the two remaining candidates Gov. Bragg and G. W. Thompson, Esq., having received 11 of the 14 townships were declared unanimously nominated.

On motion, the nomination of the entire ticket consisting of Messrs. Barringer, Bragg, Merrimon and Thompson, was made unanimous.

Messrs. D. G. Fowle, W. H. High and Jas. Litchford were appointed to wait on the nominees and inform them of their nomination and to request their acceptance of the same.

In a short time Messrs. Barringer and Merrimon appeared amidst the most enthusiastic applause, and each in speeches replete with words of patriotism and eloquence, accepted the nomination so heartily tendered them by their fellow-citizens.

On motion, the secretary was requested to communicate with Messrs. Bragg and Thompson, and inform them of their nomination.

On motion, it was decided that the chairman should appoint, at his leisure, three active and earnest gentlemen in each township of the county as canvassers, together with a local central executive committee, the members of which should reside in this city.

[The names of the canvassers and executive committee will be published here after.]

After the thanks of the convention had been tendered to the chairman and secretaries, and newspapers friendly to the cause requested to publish the proceedings, the convention adjourned.

THE RUTHERFORD OUTRAGES.

RALEIGH, June 16, 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I live in the county of Polk but only ten miles from the town of Rutherfordton. I have been in Washington City on business, and am detained here for a short time. I heard so much talk in Washington and hear so much in your city about the outrages in Rutherford that I feel called on to make a statement of facts as I know them to exist.

I live only ten miles and a half from Mrs. Jackson, the woman Mr. J. R. Carpenter, who bore Judge Logan's letter to the senate, swore had been "whipped tarred and feathered." Mrs. Jackson was never whipped, tarred or feathered. She is a disreputable character. Willie Johnson, a married man, abandoned his wife and children for this woman. Disguised men went to her house in search of Johnson. They did not find him. They informed Mrs. Jackson that Johnson would be whipped if he did not discontinue his visits. Mrs. Jackson was not molested as she reported herself and as I have every reason to believe. Mrs. Jackson and Willie Johnson have eloped together since the visit of the kuklux or men in disguise.

Light Hall, Taylor and his daughter, Mrs. Simmons, live about five miles from me. These are persons who were whipped, according to Mr. Carpenter's statement before the senate. Light Hall has a wife and family; he abandoned them and took up with Mrs. Simmons, the daughter of Taylor. Hall was found in Taylor's house, where he was a constant visitor. Men in disguise whipped Taylor, but not his daughter, (as we learn.) They took Hall out of Taylor's house and carried him home; when they got him there, in his own yard, they gave him a good lashing. Hall has abandoned the Taylor-Simmons family and is now, as he should be, attentive to his own wife and children.

Thos. Wesson lived sixteen miles from me. Wesson was a negro, who had a white wife and several children. Wesson and two children were murdered, and his wife and one child, with their throats cut, were left for dead. The house was fired and the murderers fled. This was reported as a kuklux outrage, until Mrs. Wesson, who escaped with her child in her arms from the burning house, was able to testify to the murderers, who were her white republican neighbors, two brothers named Adair. They are now in jail.

The Biggerstaff affair is, I think, entirely personal, and not political, growing out of distilling without a license. Aaron Biggerstaff was indicted and fined twenty dollars by Judge Logan, when he should have been put in the penitentiary for twenty years.

The late disturbances occurred in my absence, and I am not able to speak of them, only from reports. I have written this, Messrs. Editors, because I felt it due to the people of Rutherford and the state. I have no political ends to serve, for I am no politician. Respectfully yours,

J. A. DUNCAN.

CARTERET COUNTY CONVENTION.

In pursuance of a call of the executive committee for the county of Carteret, a convention was held at Beaufort on Monday the 12th inst., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the convention.

On motion Dr. Sam'l Leffers was called to the chair, and W. L. Arendell appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting being explained by the chairman, on motion a committee of two from each township was appointed by the chairman to nominate a candidate for the convention and draft resolutions for the action of the meeting.

The committee reported that J. H. Davis was selected by it as a candidate for the convention, and recommended the adoption of the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The general assembly of North Carolina did, on the 3rd of April, pass an act to submit the question of convention or no convention to the people, and to provide for the election of delegates, and whereas said act has been pronounced by the first jurists of the state to be in conformity with the constitution which secures to the people the right to govern themselves in the manner best suited to their interest; therefore be it

Resolved, That the conservative party of Carteret county most heartily approve the action of the general assembly in submitting this important question to the people and in staying the hand of taxation until their verdict can be obtained.

Resolved, That we believe the existing constitution defective and ill-suited to the condition of the state and would most earnestly urge upon our friends the importance of voting for a convention to remedy defects and afford that relief which the circumstances of a suffering people so imperatively require.

Resolved, That we approve of the restrictions imposed by the act submitting the question of convention or no convention to the people to-wit; non interference with the homestead and personal property exemptions and with the clause which provides for a mechanics' and laborer's lien law and non interference with the rights, privileges or immunities of any person in the state on account of race, color or previous condition as now guaranteed by the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution of the United States.

Resolved, That those sections of the constitution which say the public debt shall not be questioned, and that the general assembly shall by appropriate legislation provide for the prompt and regular payment of the interest on the public debt, and after the year 1880 taxes shall be laid to pay not only the interest but the principal also, should be expunged from the instrument and the public debt left to the management of the legislature as in the days gone by.

Resolved, That in order to escape the burdens of oppressive taxation we invite men of all parties to co-operate with us in securing a popular verdict in favor of a convention as the only mode of attaining so desirable a result.

Resolved, That we utterly condemn all secret political organizations by whatever name known and that we stand ready at all times to aid the civil authorities in the strict maintainance of the laws.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere thanks to the present general assembly, especially to our own representative Dr. L. W. Martin, for their unbiased course in all matters of vital interest or importance to the state.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint a suitable number of gentlemen to act as an executive committee for the conservative party of Carteret county, also appoint a suitable number as sub-committee for the different precincts.

On motion the report of the committee was unanimously adopted by the convention.

Mr. J. H. Davis accepted the nomination in a few but appropriate words.

Mr. J. H. Houghton, of Craven, being called on feasted the meeting for an hour with able argument in favor of the convention.

Mr. Henry Bryan being called on stated that he would address the people on the ensuing evening.

Mr. L. J. Moore, the senator from Craven and Carteret, addressed the meeting setting forth in a forcible manner the need of a convention. Stated that the republican members of the legislature were willing to vote for the two-thirds bill, but decided not to do so for fear of injuring their party. He thought this question above party and intended to vote for the bill and do all in his power to get his constituents to do likewise.

The meeting was also addressed by Messrs. Jennings, Pigott and M. F. Arendell.

The following committees were announced by the chair:

Executive Committee.—Dr. Richard Leffers, A. D. Lawrence, W. F. Rowland, David Pierce, Jno. D. Davis, Allen Davis, Jr., Silas Webb, David McCain, and D. S. Sanders.

W. L. ARENDELL, Sec'y.

THE INDEX OF THE PERIOD.—[Kansas correspondence of the Cincinnati Times.]—Pictures in the old geographies used to represent the Indian standing solitary and in a melancholy attitude on a rock, gazing in a sad, reflective way upon a train of cars speeding along in the valley below. He seemed weeping to see the steam-horse invading his hunting-grounds, and overcome with gloomy forebodings as to his future. I saw this lonely Indian at the railroad depot this morning. He was grumbling because the train was a few minutes behind time, and cursed the depot agent in good missionary English because he didn't hurry up and check his carpet-bag. He looked delighted when he saw the train coming, shook hands with the conductor when it arrived, borrowed a "chaw terbacker" of a brakeman, and as the train moved away I saw him comfortably stretched out on two seats eating peanuts.

Among the officers and directors will be found none but names of such high character and exalted integrity, as will be a guarantee, that the trust reposed in them will be honestly and faithfully kept.
With an ample Capital, moderate rates, Policies non-forfeitable after two years premium is paid—in fact with every advantage that can with prudence and safety be extended to policy-holders, this company appeals with confidence to the people of North Carolina for patronage, and offers them an opportunity to invest with safety in a most sacred cause.
A Board of directors will soon be established in Raleigh, who will supervise the investment of funds received in North Carolina.
This arrangement will keep in circulation a capital among our own people which has heretofore to a great extent been sent abroad to accumulate in the hands of strangers and enrich distant communities. Our conditions are so simple, and so liberal, that we confidently invite comparison with any company in the world.
