CHAMBER OF THE STATE CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONSERVATIVE PARTY

There will be a general meeting of the State Executive Committee of the Democratic Conservative Party, held in the City of Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 15th day of October, proximo.

By order Central Executive Committee, THOMAS BRAGG, Chairman.

We shall make no apology for alluding to a matter personal to ourselves, nor shall we seek to prolong a personal quarrel with those who seem anxious for it.

On the 18th of August last, the Wilmington Journal contained a long letter from Major Wm. A. Hearne, the conclusion of which is as follows:

Submitting to the dictation of old wily leaders, who would drive or they would not ride, we have been reorganized and revived in our midst and all over the south, their old time secret political societies, which, before the war, the know nothings were a sample, and the essence of which, to-day, is the kuklux.

It cannot be longer disguised or denied that the kuklux is a bloody rivalry, and that it is a murderous, scoundrel, burning, pillaging organization, to the political ends of the conservative party.

Originally a member of this organization myself, I know what I say, when I write about the kuklux and their connections.

It is, then, for the democratic party to take to purge itself of this kuklux crime and outrage, and there is but one way to do so, and that is to throw the responsibility upon the conservative organization, and let democrats everywhere sever their connection with the conservative party, a name which, through the political significance that has been given it, stands in the nostrils of every decent man of the country.

You will bear me witness that I have, as a democrat, personally signed this conservative petition for more than four years; and from it I have professed all manner of permanent life to the country. I have changed that it was the result of an attempt to undermine the democratic party, and finally campaign its ruin, and the conservative petition for more than four years; and from it I have professed all manner of permanent life to the country.

But for any further neglect or failure to organize the democratic party on the plain old-fashioned principles, and in the true name of the old simple unadorned democracy, the democrats of North Carolina have only to blame themselves hereafter.

Major Engelhard, in the Journal of the 3d of September, says he would have been silent if Mr. Turner had not assigned the Journal for publishing a slander, in permitting Major Hearne, over his own name, a place in its columns to explain his position in regard to the late campaign in this state.

For Major Engelhard to suppose that such charges and all insinuations as to our character for truth would not be replied to was to look for quiet submission and passive obedience on our part which we have not been able to practice after two weeks trial.
