Hurrygraphs.

The weather is delightful.

We begin to need rain.

Our streets are becoming very dusty.

Our merchants are busy selling goods.

The western gate at the Capitol Square needs attending to.

Some of the Virginia papers will spell Judge Merrimon's name wrong. They substitute an a for the e.

Some of our North Carolina exchanges have a W. in Maj. Hughes' name that does not belong there.

The Petersburg Courier and Wilmington Star have thrown to the breeze the banner of Greeley and Brown.

We will from day to day give extracts from Northern and Southern papers to show how the Cincinnati nominees are received.

A letter in the post office, addressed to W. F. Davis, Kittrells, is held for lack of proper postage.

Rev. Charles W. Betts, a native of Wilmington, N. C., died recently in South Carolina. He was much beloved and honored, and had been for fifty four years a member of the South Carolina Conference. His age was seventy-two years.

Remember, the stockholders in the Oak City Building and Loan Association hold a meeting at the courthouse this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers, &c. First monthly dues payable to-night.

Revenue Sale.—Yesterday morning Deputy Revenue Collector C. D. Upchurch sold at the courthouse door, three barrels of corn whisky recently seized in Chatham county. G. D. Martin, of Chatham, bought two of the barrels at $1.20 and $1.50 per gallon. Mr. N. A. Blake purchased the third at $1.80 per gallon.

The Baptist Convention.—This body assembles on Thursday. On next Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights, Mass meetings will be held in the Baptist Church, when addresses will be made by eminent divines from the South.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard stated last night from his pulpit, that some five hundred delegates had reported already and that many more would doubtless do so. Georgia has some 140,000 Baptists and will probably send quite one hundred delegates, although but few had been reported up to that time. He also stated that the sessions would be open to all visitors, and citizens generally were cordially invited to attend. Many gentlemen of ability are expected to be present, among the large delegation. The Dr. also returned his hearty thanks for the exceeding hospitality that had been tendered by the citizens, and stated that some of the delegates were still unprovided with homes.

Divine services each day are expected to commence at 10:30 o'clock, a. m.

The Introductory Sermon will be preached by Rev. Dr. J. Pope Yeoman, of Missouri, on Thursday morning.

Hon. A. M. Waddell was in Wilmington on Friday, also Capt. S. S. Ashe, now of this city.

Pepper at the Green Front, Hargett Street, is furnishing delicious turtle soup to his patrons. Families can be supplied on application.

Rev. A. W. Mangum, Pastor of the M. E. Church, is delivering a series of sermons addressed to young men. Those already delivered are spoken of as being very eloquent and in structive.

Major Seaton Gales will deliver the Annual Commencement Address at the Asheville Female College on the 16th inst. The Major is one of the most accomplished speakers in this State and we feel sure that he will sustain his high reputation on this occasion.

A board of Fire Underwriters was organized by the Agents of this city, on last Friday; the object of which is to fix uniform rates for Raleigh. The following officers were elected:

P. F. Pescud, President; A. W. Lawrence, Vice-President; J. M. Tate, Secretary.

Revival.—We learn that an interesting revival is progressing in the Methodist Church at Carey, conducted by Rev. Messrs. Raven and Bobbitt. We understand that quite a number professed faith in Christ and connected themselves with the church.

Memorial Fair.—We understand that the ladies of the Memorial Association of this city will probably hold their Fair on the 15th inst., and that a number of ladies from Baltimore will be present to assist. The proceeds of the Fair will be used to finish paying for the Memorial Monument.

T. B. Bailey, Esq.—This gentleman's name was presented to the Greensboro' Convention as a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. B. had no intimation that his name would be used and was no candidate for the nomination. The vote for him was intended by his friends as a compliment to his well known worth and integrity.

Chicken Patties.—Chop very fine all the dry, poorest bits left from baked chicken; season carefully with pepper, salt, and a little celery cut in small bits; make a light puff paste, roll a quarter of an inch thick, cut with a neatly shaped paste cutter; lay a narrow strip of the paste all around, then put some of the mince on the paste; cut another piece of the same size and lay over. Boil fifteen minutes. This makes a neat dish and is good.

For the Ladies.—We give the following for the benefit of those of the gentler sex who have a holy horror of freckles.—We hope that those afflicted will try the remedy, and that it may prove efficacious: Take two ounces of lemon juice, half a drachm powdered borax, and one drachm of sugar. Mix together and let them stand in a glass bottle for a few days, then rub it on the hands and face occasionally.

Supreme Court.—The next term of this court commences on the first Monday June next. Applicants for license to practice will be examined on the first and second days. Cases from the various judicial districts in the following order:

1st week	cases from the	1st and 2d	dists.
2d	" "	4th and 5th	"
3d	" "	3d and 7th	"
4th	" "	8th and 9th	"
6th	" "	12th and 6th	"

A Contemptible Trick.—Some republican candidates for commissioners in the Middle Ward had tickets printed and circulated with their name in conjunction with those of several conservative gentlemen who were not candidates. The name of Mr. A. M. Saunders was especially used, and without the least authority on his part. He is very indignant, and denounces this unauthorized use of his name. Our opponents knowing and feeling the rottenness and baseness of the doctrine they seek to inculcate, have to resort to all sorts of mean and dirty tricks to uphold their cause.

Agricultural Clubs ought to be formed in every neighborhood. They are capable of doing great good. The other day, Mr. Jas. Southgate, in his readable "Temple Notes," mentioned a club in one of the Eastern counties that had accomplished a great deal for the improvement of agriculture in that section. The Goodwyn Agricultural Club, of Granville, and the Littleton Agricultural Club, of Halifax, are unusually intelligent bodies, and are doing an excellent work for the farming interests. The proceedings of the first named are now published in the Reconstructed Farmer, at Tarboro'. It formerly sent them to the Virginia Agricultural monthly published at Richmond, and its discussions excited interest among the planters of the Old Dominion.

Base Ball—Match Game.—At 3.30 o'clock this afternoon the Academy and City base ball clubs of this city will play a match game at the Baptist Grove. The first nines are as follows:

Academy Club.—H. Haywood c.; S. Haywood, p.; E. Smith, s. s.; M. Smith, 1st b.; F. Taylor, 2nd b.; R. Lee, 3rd b.; Western Gales, l. f.; L. Walker, c. f.; S. Johnson, r. f.

City Club.—B. B. Lewis, c.; J. D. Briggs, p.; C. Askew, s. s.; A. M. Lewis, Jr., 1st b.; S. Kramer, 2nd b.; J. W. Upchurch, 3rd b.; D. Harris, l. f.; M. Hayes, c. f.; E. Gayle, r. f. Western Gales is the captain of the nine of the Academy and B. B. Lewis, Jr., of that of the City. Ladies are especially invited to be present.

Dolly Vardens were out in force on Sunday.

Rumors of a fashionable marriage soon to come off are current.

A cheap, healthy and popular luxury. Fripp's Lager Beer.

Gen. Cary, the distinguished Ohio temperance orator who has been lecturing in this State, has gone to West Virginia.

Some of the State papers in publishing our ticket make Gen. Leventhorpe hail from Rutherford county. He is a citizen of Caldwell county.

Theo. N. Ramsay, editor of the Banner of Temperance has just returned from a trip to the Western portion of the State. We are glad to learn that Mr. R. added many names to the subscription list of his excellent paper.

Plants for Sale.—We are informed that a number of tea plants in splendid growing condition will be for sale at the Memorial Fair. Varieties of shrubs and flowering plants will also be supplied.

Sunday School Pic Nic.—We learn that the Sunday School authorities of the M. E. Church are about making arrangements to give the pupils of their school a pic-nic at Carey some time during the latter part of this month. We suppose that all of the Sunday Schools of the city will shortly pic nic it, as it has been usual so to do during the months of May and June.

Hon. Philo White and lady, now of Whitestown, N. Y., but formerly and during a long series of years residents of Salisbury and Raleigh, are now at the National Hotel in this city, on a visit to their many relatives and friends in this State. Mr. White, in 1834, was the founder of the North Carolina Standard, in its purer and better days, and which he successfully edited and published for a number of years as the organ of the Democratic party of the State, and was the State Printer during three years of that period. Since then, he has discharged the functions of various public positions, at home and abroad, the last of which was as Minister Resident at Quito, the Capitol of the Republic of Equador.

BOOKS RECEIVED.

Dare Fairfax. By Ada Augusta Gott. E. J. Hale & Son, Publishers, Murray Street, New York. This is a novel from a house well known and extensively patronized in North Carolina. The Messrs. Hale are publishing readable and interesting volumes, in a neat and appetizing form. We have not read Dare Fairfax. It is handsomely printed and bound. We know nothing of the author.

Woman's Kingdom. A Love Story. By Miss Mulock. Harper & Brothers, Publishers, New York. This is one of the exceedingly neat volumes of a favorite English writer's works that this eminent house is publishing. We have not read this novel, but if it is equal to John Halifax, Gentleman, it is an excellent contribution to current fiction. We have received other books from the same house that will be noticed hereafter.

The University Monthly for April published by the University of Virginia Publishing Company, is a very entertaining number. It contains a most life-like steel portrait of Mathew Fontaine Maurry, L. L. D. and a well written biographical sketch of him. We may hereafter make some extracts from it, as it contains valuable information concerning one of the most gifted and distinguished Southern men. Price $1 a year. Send to 54 Lexington St., Baltimore.

The stockholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad met in Wilmington on Wednesday. Hon. R. Y. McAden, of Charlotte, presided. Nine thousand four hundred and ninety seven shares were represented in person, and three thousand two hundred and forty-seven by proxy. The Directors submitted a report upon the financial condition of the road, which stated that $300,000 will be required to pay the amount due for advances on first mortgage bonds, pledged as collaterals, and to pay interest on January coupons, and an additional amount of $80,000 will be due on the 1st of July next to pay interest falling due then. Resolutions were adopted raising a committee to open subscription books to raise means to meet the liabilities of the company and to extend the road, for which they shall receive second mortgage bonds at 50 cents on the dollar; and that in the event the company should be unable to meet the interest on its bonded debt on July 1st, and no arrangement can be effected with the bondholders to avoid foreclosure, and they should institute legal proceedings, that good faith required that the company should make no opposition.

False Theories Overthrown.—We live under a new medical dispensation, very different from that under which so many of our forefathers died. The sick are no longer bled till they faint, nor gorged with mercury, nor prostrated with violent cathartics, nor blistered on their shaven heads. Ever since the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, twenty years ago, renovation and restoration, not depletion and prostration, have been the watchwords of the judicious portion of the profession. The remarkable success of this famous vegetable preventive, invigorant and curative has worked a complete revolution in the general treatment of disease. At first the dogmatic members of the faculty would not believe it. "What!" they exclaimed, "cure liver complaint without mercury, chronic rheumatism without colchicum, fever and ague without quinine! Impossible!" But the most obstinate incredulity must yield in the end to practical demonstration. From that time to the present dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous diseases, nervous complaints and constipation have vanished under the operation of the great specific, as at least ninety per cent. of the cases in which it has been used as a remedy for those ailments, while as a preventive of all maladies generated by change of climate, sudden revulsions of temperature, epidemic poison in the atmosphere and unwholesome water, its beneficial effects have been so obvious and uniform as to secure the most perfect confidence in its properties as an antidote, safeguard and cure.

Examples for the Ladies.—Mrs. Mary R. Bobbard, Troy, N. Y., earned in 1868, $731.47, stitching 31,032 shirt fronts equal to 886,120 feet of seam. At 99 stitches to the inch, this would give 312,609,280 stitches, an average of 708,891 per day, 88,612 per hour, and 1,477 per minute, or sixty times as fast as hand sewing. Sixty years in one! For nine cline has run three years by steam and three by foot-power without repair, and is as good as when bought.

Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is no Patent Medicine humbug, gotten up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, but is a perfect Specific for Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the head," and kindred diseases.

A Glorious Record.—Twelve years ago a few modest lines in a New York Journal invited public attention to a new Vegetable Restorative, and solicited a trial of its merits as a remedy for indigestion, biliousness, fever and ague, debility, nervous disorders, rheumatism, and all complaints requiring invigorating and regulating treatment. In this quiet, unpretentious way, Plantation Bitters was introduced to the world. It was a success from the beginning. All that was claimed for it as a tonic, a corrective and antidote to malarious fever, was found to be strictly true. Within five years the annual sales of this article amounted to over One Million of Bottles. A few years more and the demand had swelled to five millions. The annual consumption of the bitters has now reached the almost incredible aggregate of six millions of bottles, and for every bottle sold a copy of the Illustrated Medical Annual, published by the proprietors, at a cost of $150,000, is given away.

A New Beautifying Agent.—All Dentifrices had their Drawbacks, until the salubrious Buds of the Soap Tree was brought from the Chilian Valleys to perfect the Fragrant Sozodont, the most delightful article for the teeth that a beauty was ever dipped into.

"Children's Lives Saved for 50 Cents."—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken, by Dr. Jacobs' Vermont Liniment, warranted for 5 years, and never 9 bottles returned. Venus herself would not have been beautiful if her complexion had been bad. If beauty is skin deep, it is necessary to secure and retain that part of it; and ladies instead of resorting to paints and powders, should remember that an impure, blotchy, or sallow skin is the proof of feeble digestion, torpid liver, or vitiated blood, for all which Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters is a safe cure, and effectual remedy.

Burnett's Cocoaine.—No oils, neither pomades or alcoholic washes—foreign or domestic—can compare with Cocoaine as a HAIR DRESSING. It nourishes the hair fibrils in the scalp, gives it new life and lustre—and renders it the "crowning glory" of both sexes, old and young.

Pratt's Astral Oil.—More accidents occur from using unsafe oils, than from steamboats and railroads combined. Over 500,000 families continue to burn Pratt's Astral Oil, and no accidents directly or indirectly have occurred from burning, storing or handling it. Oil House of Chas Pratt, established 1770, New York.

A Beautiful Write, soft, smooth and clear skin is produced by using Dr. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sunburns, and all other discolorations from the skin, leaving the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detrimental to health.

Just the Remedy Needed.—Thanks to Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, we have for years been relieved from sleepless nights of painful watching with poor suffering teething children.

For Dyspepsia, Indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers. The Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

Risley's Genuine Golden Bell Cologne Water according to the original formula of Prevost, Paris, as long and favorably known to the customers of Haviland, Harral and Risley and their branches, for its fine permanent fragrance is now made by H. W. Risley and the trade supplied by the successors, Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York.

Thurston's Ivory Pearl Tooth Powder.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

Carbolic Salve unequalled as a Healing Compound. Physicians recommend it as the most wonderful remedy ever known. Price 25 cents per box. John F. Henry, sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

Christadoro's Hair Dye.—This magnificent compound is beyond contingency, the safest and most reliable Dye in existence; never failing to impart to the hair, uniformity of color, nourishment and elasticity. Manufactory, 6 Maiden Lane, New York.

Syapnia is Opium purified of its sickening and poisonous qualities. It is a perfect anodyne not producing headache or constipation of bowels, as is the case with other preparations of opium. John Farr, Chemist, New York.

THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

Cincinnati, May 4.—The following telegram from Horace Greeley was received here after he had been informed of his nomination.

New York, May 3.

To Whitelaw Reid:

Please tender my grateful acknowledgments to the members of the convention for the generous confidence they have shown me, and assure them that I shall endeavor to deserve it.

(Signed) Horace Greeley.

The address of the national convention of the Irish American League concludes: "We take the liberty of suggesting the immediate organization of Greeley clubs or leagues in every ward, city and county, and that an efficient State Committee would be for more general direction of and co-operation in the good work. Then organize and let our watchword be, "Greeley and victory." Signed, in behalf of Committee, James J. Rogers, chairman, New York, John McCafferty, secretary, Missouri.

The following gentlemen compose the national liberal republican committee: South Carolina, S. O. Pierce; Texas, E. M. Pease; West Virginia, M. C. Church; District Columbia, C. M. Alexander; North Carolina, D. R. Goodloe; Louisiana, H. C. Warmoth; Arkansas, John Kirkward; Florida, C. Drew; Tennessee, J. H. Fowler; Kentucky, L. N. Beebitz; Alabama, Wm. T. Hatchett; Mississippi, R. Jeffers; Georgia, R. C. McWhorton.

The committee have elected Ethan Allen, of New York, chairman, and Daniel R. Goodloe, of North Carolina, Secretary. It has adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

At College Hall a meeting of the Ohio delegates was held, which comprised about half of the Ohio delegation to the Liberal Convention, and which turned out to be very stormy. Judge W. B. Sloane, of Port Clinton, was called to the chair. A large number of delegates made speeches, and some of them were denunciatory and exciting, while others counselled moderation and consideration. Among the most prominent were Judge Hoadley, who was one of the committee of resolutions, he said that Judge Stanly Matthews, the temporary President, John W. John, as well as himself, had left in disgust. Judge Sloane said he had been originally an Adams man, but there was no evidence that Greeley and his friends had practiced fraud upon the convention, and he, until he had such evidence, should adhere to the nomination. He believed it was for the interests of the country that there should be a complete change in the administration of the Government. He counseled them to be calm and considerate, and to act deliberately like men. Thomas R. Powell, of Delaware county, said he was dissatisfied, but urged moderation.

Judge Brinkerhoff said he would not be made a victim of choice between two evils. Men came to the convention from New York and Pennsylvania who were as much intruders as the devil was when he intruded himself among the sons of men, and they came and out-witted and outnumbered them. He did not belong to any body now; he was not yet willing to say he wouldn't vote for Grant, but he should not vote for Greeley.

Gen. Jack Casement asked if they were not satisfied with the platform, other members answered, "Yes, Yes." He further inquired if Greeley was not honest; what more was wanted? He, Gen. Casement, had joined the movement and torn up the bridge behind him; he was going to stick by the nomination.

Gen. Burnett said he felt discouraged and disheartened; he did'nt think the civil service reform had anything to hope for from the hands of such men. Horace Greeley was honest, progressive and liberal in his views, yet he was a man of crotchets; he had no judgment of men; his political friends and associates in New York were among the class of men who did not enjoy public confidence, who were nearly allied to the Tammany corruption. Though he was deeply grieved at the result to day, he thought they ought to maintain their organization for future work, and not take hasty steps which they might repent.

Col. Parrot, of Montgomery county, said there never was a more shameless trade made by men than that made by Gratz Brown in the convention.

Mr. Fry, of Clarke county, said the bargain and sales were evident. Some members asked where was the evidence. Fry replied that the evidence was in Gratz Brown's speech.

Mr. Ayers, of fourteenth district, urged them not to judge too sharply, and counseled moderation.

Gen. Brinkerhoff announced his resignation as a member of the State Central Committee. He was not willing to abide the determination of the Convention.

Gen. Durbin also declines to support the ticket, and resigned his position as a member of Central committee.

Judge Spalding, of Cuyahoga, and Mr. Smith, of Columbiana county, came to the defence of the convention.

Latur in his remarks, he said Greeley was among the first to fight Tammany, whereupon two or three present arose, saying that he did not, he rather defended them.

Judge Hoadly again got the floor, charging that Tammany had triumphed; he said he would defeat Greeley and Brown if he had to vote for Grant to do it. He was no office seeker, but was after men to punish them before they got their hands in the public treasury, but he was not in favor of abandoning their organization until the time should arrive, when their principles could prevail.

Several other members spoke for and against the nomination, and finally, after a long session, a motion to adjourn prevailed.

A large number of delegates departed for their homes last night.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Washington, May 4.—The nomination, while it excites mirth in all high political circles here, seriously changes the probable programme. The Democratic leaders were virtually pledged to the Cincinnati Convention with Davis as standard bearer, but now the shrewdest politicians predict square Democratic nominations. In view of the interest taken in the probable action of the Democratic party, the following from the World is telegraphed: It editorially expresses profound surprise at the result in Cincinnati. Adams, who proved by far the strongest of all the candidates who had been expected to be strong in the convention, might have been cordially endorsed by the World, as he would have been cordially supported by the democratic party. Greeley can expect no such encouragement, nor has he any reason to expect such support. The convention has chosen to nominate the most heated and conspicuous opponent of the democratic party in the country. It called for revenue reform, it has call the most zealous of protectionists.—This leaves the Democratic party entirely free to await the developments of the immediate future, and opens the way for a possible Democratic victory. The World will reserve its judgment until the meeting of the National Convention to be called next week by the National Committee meeting in this city. The World recommends an early date for the assembling of the Convention.

The Philadelphia Age suggests a straight Democratic ticket. The New York Herald editorially welcomes Greeley into the campaign as a man whom the people will always respect and honor. The Herald adds: "Whether we shall support or oppose him, must be decided by himself. He has received this nomination, and if he avoids certain fallacies that have embarrassed the usefulness of his career, we shall support him."

Andrew Johnson's claim for rebate income tax amounts to over $4,000.

The President, Secretary of State, Foreign committee of the House and Senate, had a conference to day.

The President, when directly approached, did not think it proper to communicate the object or result of the conference, as other parties were equally reticent.

From loose conversation, the following may be regarded as a close approximation of to-day's meeting at the State department: Sumner has notified his government that England under no circumstances will permit the question of consequential damages to be presented, at Geneva. It is noticed that Democratic members of the foreign committees of the House and Senate were not invited to the conference. Parties to the conference have their mouths closed. A backdown on the part of the administration is probable, nearly certain.

"It Acts Like a Charm."

This is what we hear on all sides of Dr. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT. In cases of Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma and all Pulmonary Diseases it affords instant relief. It permeates the very substance of the Lungs and causes them to throw off all acrid matter. It is very pleasant to the taste. Children take it readily.

New York, August 31, 1870.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt:

Sir—When in Akron, last winter, I suffered very much with a severe cough, and bought from it than any I ever used, I took half a dozen bottles home with me, and have had to give some of it to my friends. Please send me one dozen by Express, C. O. D.
