This morning Father Reed, in company with Hawk Rogers, U. S. Detective Berry, Rotating Dick and a number of colored brethren, left this city for the Radical Congressional nominating Convention at Franklinton. We stop the press to an nounce the nomination of W. A. Smith, of Johnston. The wires report a stormy time. The colored partisans of Willie D. Jones and Ike Young indulged in a free fight and a private fisticus took place between Jones and Young. While the fighting was going on Billy slipped in and got the nomination. The whole affair is reported as the most turbulent and disgraceful on record.
