LOCAL DOTS.

Fine rain Wednesday night.

Our market is now very poorly supplied with butter, eggs, &c.

Business men are now being annoyed by the collection of the revenue tax.

Yesterday morning resembled a Fall more than a Spring morning.

Serenading is now becoming fashionable.

Fishing parties are becoming numerous.

Judge Merrimon left for Fayetteville Wednesday afternoon.

Delegates from this city to the Medical Convention, which assembles in Newbern on Tuesday next, will leave on Monday morning.

Col. W. H. Harrison, ex-Mayor of this city, is talked of as the republican candidate for Sheriff.

Gen. R. F. Hoke and W. H. Finch, Esq., are erecting neat cottage residences on the street opened through Mordecai grove.

We hope the new Board of City Commissioners will act on our suggestion to old Board to sell the gas lamp posts, on our streets, for old iron, and appropriate the proceeds towards paying interest on city bonds.

In Western Ward many back lots are badly in need of cleaning. We hope the city authorities will leave off discussing the important matter of who shall be keeper of the city scales, and turn their attention to matters involving the health and well being of the community.

A. Williams was taken up on the street by the police and carried to the guard house from which he was released on account sickness with the understanding that he should appear before the Mayor when called for.

Billy Smith, the radical nominee for Congress, yesterday took up his station in front of the market house and spent a large portion of the day in shaking hands with every one who would condescend to go through that operation with him.

To the courtesy of Mr. E. C. Woodson, the clever and gentlemanly local of our neighbor the News, we are indebted for a telegram on Wednesday from Franklinton furnishing us with the news of the nomination of Maj. W. A. Smith, by the radical farragorie that assembled at that place to go through the farce of nominating one of their breed to represent this district in the next Congress.

Workmen are engaged in repairing the upper windows and rooms of the jail.

The conservative democratic county convention meets in the court house to-morrow at 12 m.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen left the city this morning to attend the pic-nic at Milburnie.

The Auditor, or at least his clerk, for he has not been at his post for some time, has finished sending off tax books to the several Sheriffs of the State.

Messrs. B. Y. Rogers and W. V. Clifton are spoken of in connection with the conservative nomination for the sheriffalty of this county.

SENT TO THE WORKHOUSE.—Merritt Cook, col., was yesterday sent to the county work house by order of the Board of County Commissioners, to work out a large bill of cost against him.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of Stephen Worth will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, at the Methodist Church. He was in every sense of the word, one of God's noblest works—an honest man.

Two little colored lads, anxious to emulate the example of Ike Young and Willie Jones at Franklinton, had a set-to in front of our office yesterday morning, which resulted in a bloody nose on one side.

David Jenkins, Esq., State Treasurer and Radical candidate for re-election, says, that he is very certain of his election but not quite so sure as to the balance of the ticket.

TO OUR FRIENDS THROUGHOUT THE STATE.—We desire to make the SENTINEL a wide-awake NEWS paper, and would be extremely glad if our friends in the State would send us any news items of interest they may have from time to time.

TOWNSHIP MEETING.—The Conservatives and Democrats of Raleigh Township will meet in the Court House tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 o'clock. A full attendance is earnestly desired as business of importance pertaining to the interests of the party will be transacted.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Willis Scott at her residence in this city on yesterday morning. Mrs. Scott was an estimable lady and much beloved by those that knew her. The funeral services will take place at the residence of J. P. Prairie Esq., to-day at 3 p. m.

We direct attention to an article signed "Hal," which we copy from the Fayetteville Eagle. It reminds the reader of a matter well worth his consideration. When scalawags and negroes get together to bolster up and whitewash Holden, it is well to remind the people of what this bad man did.

DR. NECAISE.—Such is the name of a strawberry weighing nearly one and a quarter ounces, and measuring over two inches around, which we saw Mr. The. Snow have yesterday. Mr. Snow also left some nice strawberries at our office, but the Senior quickly disposed of them by sending them to a young lady.

INVITED.—The Rescue Steam Fire Co. of this city have been invited by the Fire Department of Charlotte to visit that city and participate in the celebration of the "20th of May." We dare say, our boys remembering their cordial and generous entertainment by the hospitable citizens of Charlotte on the occasion of a former visit, will be anxious to accept the invitation.

COL. LEE M. MCAFEE.—We were glad to receive a letter, a day or two ago, from our old friend, Col. McAfee, who now resides at Galveston, Texas. Col. M. was one of our gallant soldiers, and was regarded as a lawyer of distinction and a politician of high character and usefulness. We trust his success in his new home will be commensurate with his desires and unquestioned merit.

CITY MARKET.—Mr. Paul C. Lincke, Stall No. 21, furnishes us the following report of the city market:

The premium list for the coming Fair in October will be arranged on a most liberal scale and no efforts spared to make the Fair the largest and most attractive one ever held in this State.

THE FRANKLINTON RADICAL CONVENTION.

FRANKLINTON, May 15, 1872.

Editors Sentinel: The Republican Convention has just adjourned after many fights inside and outside of the church where they met. Such a convention never assembled before, such confusion and disorder and confusion was never before seen among men not cannibals. Harris, not Jim the negro, but Logan son of Cebe, was chairman of the meeting; Long Perry, of whom you delight to talk, was in attendance and bulling up Ike Young. The Raleigh train in due season brought Father Reid, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, accompanied by Hawk Rogers, R. C. Badger, son of the late great Senator, Adolphus Cheek and Isaac Strayhorn, of Orange. A negro with two white men were made secretaries. Drunken negroes desecrated the church and disturbed the meeting. But the grand scene of the day was Capt. Ike Young knocking General Willie D. Jones on the stage and hard by the Speaker, Logan Harris, whose fat cheeks usually as red as a baby's after a spank, became in his fright as pale as death.

Between ballots one Rogers of Granville deserted Capt. Ike Young, who approached Gen. Willie D. Jones and said Mr. Rogers had gone back on him and he was a d—d rascal. Gen. Willie said Rogers was a gentleman. Capt. Ike repeated his estimate of Rogers, and ended what he had to say of him with a word beginning with a d and ending with a nation. Gen. Willie D. Jones in turn repeated his estimate of Mr. Rogers, where upon Capt. Ike struck him a heavy blow which would have floored him but for friends standing by.

Here the convention adjourned, but whether for whiskey or because the General was hors du combat, is not material.

A scripture reading wit of the town has furnished the following sketch of what followed, all of which, however, is not literally true:

Hawk Rogers approaching Mr. Jones said, "Courage General, courage, such a wound cannot be mich."

General Jones, "No, my friend, it is not so deep as a well nor so wide as a church door, but it is enough. I am no longer a candidate. I resign in favor of William A. Smith, and I dare Ike Young to strike him."

Many a holy text around was strewed by Father Reid to teach the convention how to die. Said Father Reid, "Brethren, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. Brethren, you will make this convention a proverb and a by-word among all the people. You should be like Saul and Jonathan who were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided. That profane writer, Gray, says, "The paths of glory lead but to the grave," and here is an illustration of it. Capt. Young and Gen. Jones the two most distinguished men of the party, could but a moment ago read their histories in a nation's eye and on the journals of Congress, have gone to their graves and upon their ruin arises Major Smith. My brethren, there is nothing like the luxury of doing good. In vain proclaims our chieftain, peace peace, let us have peace. Jeremiah commands you to 'mend your ways and your doings."

Yes, said a democrat who had strayed into the meeting, that same Jeremiah says the "Ethiopian cannot change his skin or the leopard his spots."

Hawk Rogers to Brother Reid:

"Father Reid, this is a church, and you preach and teach that there is a time for all things, but I tell you holy father, this is no time to be preaching. This Convention and Capt. Young have fulfilled the scriptures, where it is written: 'His enemies shall lick, the dust,' and again it is written "How are the mighty fallen in battle," Saw you not how the Captain felled the General in battle? Father Reid, your sermon is all Greek to this Convention: you are throwing swine to pearls. Father Reid I have not heard before this a sermon in thirty years. The last sermon I heard was from you on this text, 'Oh that I had wings like a dove.' Holy father, I wish you had the wings and God would give you the spirit to spread them, that you might fly from his temple which has become a den of inequity."

General Jones and Captain Young made friends after brother Reid's exhortation, upon which the Father said, "Mercy, forgiveness and truth have met; loyalty, peace and righteousness have kissed each other." Said Gen. Jones, with his black swollen eye, in the language of Job, "miserable comforters are ye all."

After nominating Major Smith, the convention and armed Woodson will give you the perfect account of the convention, I give you the pious duty.

FRANKLIN.

P. S. Numerous friends enquired of Hawk Rogers where was his and the Governor's mutual friend, Mark Williams. Hawk answered, he was detained at home. The truth is, he is in jail for beating a woman.

STILL ELECTIONEERING.—On Tuesday Gov. Caldwell pardoned out of the Penitentiary another colored convict by the name of Pittman. We have not learned the offence of which Pittman was convicted, nor the county from which he hailed, but we do know that if his accidental Excellency continues this reckless abuse of the pardoning power for base and contemptible personal and party purposes, the Penitentiary might as well be closed, and thiefs and ruffians given authority, under the seal of the State, to prey upon society.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Negotiations are about resulting in favor of consequential damages before the Geneva Tribunal. Though retained in case, will not be noticed.

To-day a delegation of Georgians, consisting of Judge Hobb, of Macon, Henry Brigham, of Savannah, State Senator Gresham, Colonel Edward C. Anderson, H. D. Capers, Major Hoff, of Mobile, Major Jones, of Atlanta, Col. Trobell and other prominent gentlemen, sent hither in the interests of the Inter Oceanic Canal project to unite the Mississippi river with the Atlantic, called on the President. They were accompanied by the entire Georgia delegation in the House. The representatives were introduced to the President by Gen. Young. Col. Trobell, in a speech of a few moments duration, called the attention of the President to this matter, not only important to the people of Georgia, he said, but every portion of the common country. The delegation was to offer the President, and through him to the country, just such a highway that will be safe in war, commodious in peace and unobstructed by ice, cheapest known to the commercial world, and ample for the country that needs it. Col. Trobell explained the route which will open navigation the Atlantic ocean; the cost of which would not exceed twenty millions, while its benefits would reach the whole country. The delegation was here to ask, in view of this being a great national work, that the President would give it a favorable consideration. The President, in response, said he had seen a map of the route, and it looked to him eminently practical. He was convinced of its importance, and but for lateness of the present session, he would make it the subject of special communication to Congress. He suggested it would be advisable that friends of the measure in Congress to obtain in.o.luction and reference of the bill as preliminary to subsequent action of the Executive. He did not know if Congress would be disposed to guarantee bonds of the company, or would prefer to give direct aid only in public lands. He regarded the measure as deserving of national aid. The delegation will to-morrow, represent the importance of this contemplated work to the Vice President, Speaker of the House and Committees on Commerce of each House.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—SENATE—The Senate concurred in the conference report on the deficiency bill.

The Baltimore and Potomac depot site bill was up and discussed at length.

Recess till evening.

HOUSE—The House ordered a conference committee on Consular and Diplomatic bill.

A resolution that both Houses adjourn from the 29th inst. until the last Wednesday in November, was introduced, but subsequently withdrawn, the introducer giving notice that he would offer it again to-morrow.

The tariff bill was considered.

Dawes withdrew his pending substitute for the second section. The second section now stands as follows:

It reduces the existing duties on the following articles, ten per cent: All manufacturers of cotton, all woods, hair of the Alpaca Goat and other animals, and all manufacturers thereof, all iron and all manufacturers of iron, all metals not herein otherwise provided for, and all manufacturers of metal, except watches, jewelry and other articles of ornament, all printing paper, all manufacturers of India rubber, gutta percha, or straw and of clothing of all descriptions, providing that the duty on umbrellas, &c., shall not be less than on goods of the same material and quality as the coverings thereof, all steel and manufactures of steel wire, rope and wire drawn made of iron wire or of steel wire, are to pay the same duty as iron wire or steel wire.

Conference report on the deficiency bill submitted and argued. The paragraph on cotton claims which was the chief point of disagreement, is modified, that the Secretary and Treasury is authorized and directed to pay to the legal representatives of all the cotton seized after 30th June 1865, by the agents of the government unlawfully and in violation of their instructions the net proceeds without interests of the sales of such cotton actually paid into the treasury, the receipt thereof to be in full satisfaction of all such claims and not apply to any cause now pending before the court of claims or to any cause not filed in Treasury Department within six months after passage of this act.

Dr. Geo. R. Giles has been arrested on the charge of fatal abortion.

It is stated that the cabinet makers, plumbers, granite cutters, journeymen tailors and other trades are organizing with a view of striking if their demands are not acceded to.

An attempt has been made to destroy the machinery of Thompson & Co.'s, and Gregory & Co.'s, steel works in Jersey City. Their employes struck last week and it is supposed they attempted to ruin the works to prevent other men from taking their places.

The liberal republican state committee yesterday resolved to hold a ratification meeting soon.

The 9 a. m. express train on the Erie railroad had a narrow escape from complete destruction near Port Jervis yesterday. The axle of the palace car "Pacific" burned off while the train was running at a high rate of speed, the car running along an embankment one hundred feet high, and was only saved from being thrown down the embankment by the strong shackling and the fact of its being on six-wheel trucks.

Attorney-General Barlow has discontinued the suit against Jay Gould and Lane, on the request of Mr. Swann, agent of the British stockholders at whose instance the suit was begun, for the reason that the persons Swann represents, have made arrangements with other stockholders which insure protection to their rights.

LONDON, May 15.—The message of President Grant to the United States senate, submitting the proposed additional article to the Washington treaty, relative to indirect claims, proves to reassure the public that the differences between the two nations will be honorably settled. The publication of the message has had good effect upon the market for American securities, which is now firmer than at opening.

PARIS, May 15.—Marshall Bazine, though placed under arrest, is allowed to remain at home, but guards have been placed on the grounds surrounding his residence to prevent outside fosters from communicating with him.

VENUS herself would not have been beautiful if her complexion had been bad. If beauty is skin deep, it is necessary to secure and retain that part of it; and ladies instead of resorting to paints and powders, should remember that an impure, blotchy, or sallow skin is the proof of feeble digestion, torpid liver, or vitiated blood, for all which Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS is a safe cure, and effectual remedy.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.—No oils, neither pomades or alcoholic wash—to clog or decompose—compare with Cocoaine as a Hair Dressing. It at once lays the hair firmly in the seam—gives it new life and lustre—and renders it the "crowning glory" of both sexes, old and young.

Is economical, free from burning at low or handling, the standard of the Pratt, established 1770, New York.

Dr. W. H. Tutt:

Dear Sir—Having used your Liver Pills and finding none will have done my wife or myself as much good, I would like to know if they would do as well North as here.
