COUNTY CONVENTION .- According to appointment the conservative-democratic evention assembled in this city Saturday at 12 m.

Judge Fowle called the convention to order, and on motion, A. C. Green, Esq., of Cedar Creek, took the chair. Mesers, E. C. Woodson and J. C. Sym were appointed secretaries.

Judge Fowle said that in consequ of the heavy and continuous rain a large number of our country friends were unsble to attend, and he would therefore nove that the convention should appoin a Central County Executive Committee and then adjourn, subject to the call of the chairman of said Executive Committee

The Judge then moved that the follow ing gentlemen compose the Central Exec utive Committee : G. H. Snow, Chairman E. E. Harris, John Myatt, Geo. T. Stronach and Peter C. Flemming.

The nomination of these gentlem animously ratified.

Col. Rusa agreed with Judge Fowle that the Convention-should postpone the other business. The rain had been too severe to allow our country party friends to attend. He thought the Convention should adjourn subject to the call of the
