The Museum of Goldboro' are to have an extension to Beaufort on 24th June.

Annasiah Bent, colored, was drowned near the wharf at Plymouth, while he was getting shingles.

The colored Pitts Company of Wilmington has gone to Charleston, S. C. to participate in a firmers' tournament.

Memorial Day was observed at Goldboro' on last Friday. A. K. Snider, Esq. delivered the Address.

Medical Convention at Concord. The Convention at Concord was in June. Roberson says O. H. Decker will be the nominee.

Alexander Kelly, Esq. late member of the House of Representatives from Moore county, died recently at his residence near Carthage.

Col Walter L. Steele, of Rockingham is prominently spoken of in connection with the Congressional candidacy in this district.

Some nights ago a thief entered the store of Mr. J. P. Harrison, at Plymouth, and stole $300. This is the third affair of the sort that has occurred in six months.

The Hillsboro' Recorder says: Susan Stowers, a white woman living with Mrs. Catherine Fletcher of this county, walked out last Sunday evening towards the railroad and hasn't been heard of since.

Ticker, the forger, who swindled the Raleigh and Wilmingtonians has been tried and convicted in Richmond, and sentenced to four years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

It is thought that Col. W. A. Allen, of Duplin, and Col. L. W. Humphrey of Wayne will be selected as the Senatorial candidates by the Convention for this District that meets on 29th inst. at Mt. Olive.

The results of last election are already known. Hogs run about $10 a head, and negroes are fighting. We hear of one fight at a negro festival last Thursday night and another negro was nearly killed on Saturday night—Goldboro' Messenger.

The Northern Times learns from a private letter that the British brig "John Byers," bound from Baltimore to Wilmington, in ballast, was wrecked a few days ago near Newbern, N. C. It did not seem whether there were any lives lost or not.

A serious affray occurred at Sand-Hill Depot between Col. Wilson and Jas. Davidson, both colored, resulting in the wounding of both heads. One was armed with a knife and the other with a turpentine sealer. Davidson is dangerously wounded and Wilson is in the hands of the Sheriff and in jail at Rockingham, Richmond county.

Mr. H. H. Hill, of Salisbury, says to the patron of the Campaign Tribune. Having returned from the Cincinnati Convention so late as Monday last, and the further delay in receiving my engravings, necessarily defers the issuance of the Tribune for two weeks. Nothing, on your part, however, shall be lost by this delay.

REVEREND SHAKER.—Yesterday Deputy Marshal Peters brought into the city a stilling and flaring, together with three hundred gallons of corn whiskey, all the property of John Furber, an illicit distiller of Gaston county.—Char. Dispatch.

The Catholic Fair closed last night, after a very successful week. Every one is contented in it has worked up a satisfactory and we trust that they will amply rewarded in the result.—Wil Journal.

VIRGINIA.

In the Shenandoah Valley, of Virginia, the wheat, oats, and rye crops give splendid promise.

Mr. Dearing, who lives near Salem, Va., has killed, within the last six months, 10 black bears.

SECIDE—POWERTAN, Va., May 18.—William T. Davis committed suicide this morning at Powhatan Courthouse by shooting himself in the mouth with a shot gun. The cause is supposed to be pecuniary embarrassments.

THE "RODIS DANCER."—The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Episcopal Church, at Norfolk, Friday:

"Resolved, That in the judgment of this council all members of this church should discontinue the practice of dancing and dancing, and that our ministers, by their pastoral influence and by faithfully executing the canons of the church bearing upon the subject, should discourage and restrain it."

FINOLAHA CONSIDERED.—Nine years ago, at 6 o'clock in the morning of Saturday, May 11th, Jan. first wife of Daniel Whiteley, who resides on Christian creek, near Staunton, died, and on Saturday last, May 11th, at 6 A. M. he lost his second wife, both having died at the same hour of the same day of the week and month; and, as a further coincidence, both were carried to the grave in the same hearse and buried by the same man at the same hour of the Sunday following.—Staunton Visitor.

THE WEATHER AND CROPS.—The Calender Observer of 17th inst. says: "We attended apprehensions about our Monday last, and were relieved to learn from the farmers that the county that the wheat and oat crop will be a perfect failure on account of the drought. A few weeks ago the wheat was very flourishing, but now we hear that many will not get their seed. We noticed some fields on the river bottoms that looked well, but we learn that the joint worms and the fly have made their appearance. The corn that is up looks badly, but rain will bring it out."

The Warrenton News says: "We had a light shower Wednesday night, setting the thirsty earth to the depth of an inch. But in common with other sections we feel the want of rain. We fear this and any crop will prove an entire failure. Everything is suffering for rain."

The Lynchburg Virginian of the 18th inst. says: "A gentle, soaking rain fell last night, which will be of inestimable benefit to the growing crops."

The drought is well-nigh universal throughout the New England, the Middle, and some of the Western States. Navigation is seriously interrupted, and threatens to be more so. At Philadelphia the Schuylkill, the source of supply for domestic use in the city, is so low that many families complain of want of water in their several stories. Such a prospect before summer seems forbidding a summer August is through.—Baltimore Sun.

N. Gambetta, replying to an address from a delegation of Abolitionists, said France need not speak of negroes. He advised them to stop patronizing and liberating the wretched for the future.

LETTER FROM HON. R. F. ROOPER TO D. R. GOLDLOR, ESQ.

Raleigh, April 27, 1872. D. R. Goldlor, Esq., D. R. Goldlor, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.

MY DEAR SIR: I feel a very deep interest in the cause of the Cincinnati Convention of Abolitionists, and I desire to convene to consider the political affairs of the country.

Throughout my life I have been an ardent lover of civil liberty, as secured and protected by a representative republican form of government.

No citizen of the United States, on whatever spot born or domiciled, has been more thoroughly attached to the Union than myself; and, simply because in its espousal, I have ever recognized the only sufficient security for the blessings of true freedom.

Before Mr. Webster uttered that patriotic sentiment—"Liberty and Union, now and inseparable"—(patriotic only because of its truth), I had thoroughly embraced the principle of secession, and my heart has ever been for the Union, and I have never deviated from it.

But my judgment was, as I have already stated, in favor of the Union. I have never seen a separation of the States, and I have never seen a separation of the States, and I have never seen a separation of the States.

These noble sentiments have ever been the pole stars of my head and my heart; and because of my attachment, or eloquence, or beauty in the language of their utterance, but because I have ever believed that liberty could not exist without Union, nor Union without Liberty.

I feel sure that the existence and cultivation of sectional spirit would disrupt the family of the United States, and I have ever been for the Union, and I have never deviated from it.

But my judgment was, as I have already stated, in favor of the Union. I have never seen a separation of the States, and I have never seen a separation of the States, and I have never seen a separation of the States.

These noble sentiments have ever been the pole stars of my head and my heart; and because of my attachment, or eloquence, or beauty in the language of their utterance, but because I have ever believed that liberty could not exist without Union, nor Union without Liberty.

I feel sure that the existence and cultivation of sectional spirit would disrupt the family of the United States, and I have ever been for the Union, and I have never deviated from it.

But my judgment was, as I have already stated, in favor of the Union. I have never seen a separation of the States, and I have never seen a separation of the States, and I have never seen a separation of the States.
