HURRYGRAPHS.

Read our Campaign Rates. Send on your clubs.

Tobacco is beginning to get low in that tobacco box.

We have some important campaign matter which we will lay before our readers at the earliest time possible.

Any one wishing to purchase a "brand new" Washington Hand Press, No. 5, will please call at the SENTINEL office.

The poem in our last paper ought to have been credited. It was from the elegant pen of Mrs. Margaret J. Preston, of Virginia.

Mr. Julius A. Wright has retired from the Statesville Intelligencer. He is a good writer. Mr C. R. Jones, as editor and proprietor, will continue the paper.—Abundant success!

The young men of Charlotte are about forming a military company. Why cannot our beautiful little city have one also? When we were at school —— years ago, Raleigh had four companies, including two military schools.

For $11.25 we will send five copies of the DAILY SENTINEL for three months.

DIED.—Mr. C. E. Bowes, who resided in Raleigh for many years, died recently at Jacksonville, Fla. He was 20 years of age.

RESIGNED.—J. P. Prarie, Esq., at the recent meeting of the Board of Commissioners, resigned his seat as Commissioner, but up to this writing his resignation had not been accepted.

SUPREME COURT.—Up to this date there are only 20 new appeal cases registered upon the docket of the Supreme Court for hearing at the June Term.

RECOVERING.—We are glad to hear that Rev. Dr. R. S. Mason, the venerable and beloved Pastor of the Episcopal Church of this city, is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

OAK CITY BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION.—This new Building and Loan Association met Tuesday and deciding to transact no business, adjourned over until this (Thursday evening) as will be seen by a reference to the advertisement which will be found elsewhere.

LOCAL DOTS.

Whitewashing is now in vogue.

Strawberries can be had at 15 to 20 cents per quart.

Sanitary measures are badly needed in the city.

Read the column of new advertisements.

The pavement in front of the telegraph office is undergoing necessary repairs.

The Magic Churn, exhibited by Messrs. Lord & Mills, is creating much interest in this community.

Major Giles and lady arrived in this city yesterday morning from a trip to Asheville.

Pescud, Agent of the Home Insurance Co., displays a neat and handsome sign in front of his office.

It is asserted that a fresh boiled lobster, eaten by an inebriate, is a potent agent in restoring him to soberness.

Persons with tender skins, wishing to avoid persecution by the mosquitoes, would do well to bathe in coal oil or peppermint essence.

A very neat two story school house has been erected in Western Ward on the square opposite the residence of E. O. Macy, Esq.

We are happy to announce that 7 of the canine species were ruthlessly slaughtered last night on Wilmington street. We suppose that trade in dog bark for tanning purposes will be brisk.

"Crazy Jim" an inoffensive insane colored man and inmate of the county Poor House, was taken up in this city on Tuesday and lodged in jail for safe keeping until he can be returned to his old quarters. Jim is in the habit of running away from the Poor House whenever an opportunity offers to do so.

Mr. M. U. Squito and family have arrived in this city after an absence of some months. We can't say we welcome them back.

CITY MARKET.—Butter 35 to 45 cents per pound; eggs 15 cents per dozen; spring chickens 12 1-2 to 25 cents apiece; old chickens 40 to 45 cents; cherries 10 to 15 cents per quart; cabbages 3 for 25 cents; carrots, onions and radishes 10 cents per bunch; green peas 40 cents per peck; snaps 75 cents per peck; new Irish potatoes 75 cents per peck.

MASONIC MASS MEETING.—There will be a Masonic Mass Meeting at Masonic Hall this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the proposed Strawberry Festival, which is to be held at an early day in aid of the Masonic Temple. Every Mason in the city is fraternally invited to attend.

For $5.62 we will send five copies of the SEMI-WEEKLY SENTINEL for three months.

POLICE MATTERS.—Yesterday morning only one case was upon the docket of the Police Court:

Yesrgin Brown was arraigned for leaving his team in the street unguarded. The said team, taking advantage of their liberty, indulged in a slight runaway which resulted in some damage to the pavement of the street, and for which Mr. Brown was forced to compensate the city to the tune of $5.

FASHION DOTS.

Costumes still reign supreme for out of doors, and it is very rarely that the mantle, whether light or loose, is not made of the same material as the rest of the dress. The few black silk mantles that are worn are excessively rich and elaborate in ornament, and profusely trimmed with lace.

It is very likely that white muslin fichus and mantelets of different forms will be worn, as the season advances, to accompany those materials, such as printed muslins, which are unsuitable for complete costumes.

Pale, self-colored batistes, trimmed with lace, white or the same color, or muslin frills and plaitings, will be very well worn when the warm weather comes

Silk dresses with flounces and polonaises, or tunics and pelerines of silk grenadine, the same color, will be much in favor. For out-of-door wear they will be generally completed by a bonnet or hat of the same thin material.

Plain or figured black silk grenadine will also be much worn as polonaises and tunics over colored silk for dinner or demi toilets. White muslin and gaze de Chambery will also be arranged in the same manner.

The trains of long dresses do not begin quite so forward as they used; this leaves the feet more liberty in walking.

Bodices are almost all worn open, with fichus of muslin or tulle underneath.

Corsets, either with or without tunics, will be much worn. Some have shoulder-straps or short sleeves, others merely come under the arms. These elegant adjuncts to a toilet are becoming to almost all figures; they are made with points, or basques, plain or postillions. For young ladies, as the season advances, they will be accompanied by white muslin bodies, handsomely trimmed, with lace or muslin insertions over color. This will enable many skirts to be worn whose bodices would be too hot.

This arrangement also makes a very pretty dinner dress, or demi toilet.

The corselets tunique are cut in a variety of elegant shapes. With some the tunic portion hangs plainly; with others it is draped; this arrangement depends entirely on the style and substance of the material employed.

For $3.62 we will send five copies of the SEMI-WEEKLY SENTINEL for three months.

N. D. Harris, with Ammidon & Co., Baltimore, is in the city, stopping at the Yarborough House.

MR. GOODLOE'S LETTER.—We invite the attention of our readers to the calm, judicious letter of D. R. Goodloe, Esq., addressed to Hon. B. F. Moore, of this city, and in reply to the one published in the SENTINEL of yesterday.

A LOUD GUN.—A day or so ago Q. Busbee was seen to go to the office of the Long Percy. On yesterday from our window we saw Sam Phillips enter the building of the same paper, so we may expect a tremendous gun when the Long Percy fires next time.

PERSONAL.—Among the arrivals at the Yarborough House are M. J. McSween, Esq., editor of that sterling paper, the Fayetteville Eagle, W. D. Harrington, Moore county, Maj. W. H. Smith, Norfolk, Col. C. O. Sanford, Va., Dr. R. J. Hicks, Granville.

EXCURSION.—The pupils and teachers of the white and colored Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylums will leave this morning at 6 o'clock on an excursion to Lockville, Chatham county. They design to spend the day at Lockville and return to the city by night-fall. We wish them a pleasant day.

SWORN IN.—Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mayor Whitaker swore in the newly elected city officials. He took especial pains to charge the police as to what is required of them in the performance of their trust and their duty in relation to a strict enforcement of the city ordinances.

A GOOD CUSTARD.—Upon five eggs, well beaten, pour one quart of milk scalding hot, stirring all the time; sweeten to taste; flavor with lemon or nutmeg, bake it twenty minutes in an oven at a moderate heat. A custard made in this way is superior to one made of cold milk, as the taste is richer, and it does not "whey."

The left wing of the Shaw Collegiate Institute is very nearly completed. The main building and the right wing have not yet been commenced. The left wing alone constitutes a very handsome building and presents an imposing appearance. It is located on the grounds formerly owned by Hon. D. M. Barringer. To the right of the dwelling house a large building, designed for a female college, is soon to be erected.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—Work has commenced towards fitting up, in handsome style, the basement of the Citizens National Bank. This will be a great improvement to that already magnificent building. When the Masonic Temple, the new hotel on the site of the old Cape Fear Bank, and the U. S. building on the site of the present postoffice, to say nothing of the edifice which our enterprising fellow citizen, Mr. Frapps intends erecting on his corner, are completed, this will be the handsomest and most imposing portion of the city.

For $3.13 we will send five copies of the WEEKLY SENTINEL for three months.

OXFORD NOTES.—A correspondent informs us, that Sheriff Moore stated in a speech the other night, that the Democratic, or Ku Klux party as he called it, had murdered over two thousand colored men in this State besides committing numberless other outrages. Comment is superfluous. It would require the man who lost his apples out of the bind part of his wagon to do justice to the occasion. Maj. Daniel A. Paschall, after a protracted illness, died on the 20th inst. He was some sixty six years of age we suppose. His wife died about a year ago.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—Pursuant to adjournment the Board of County Commissioners met yesterday at 10 a. m.

The County Treasurer was ordered to pay J. N. Bunting $620 for insolvents and acquittals at Spring Term 1872.

The Treasurer was ordered to pay John Jones $44.15 for cleaning jail sink, &c.

The Treasurer was also ordered to pay T. H. Briggs $12.50 for picks, handles, wash brushes, &c.

After auditing various accounts the Board adjourned to meet again on the last day of the month.

THE NEW METHODIST CHURCH.—The following is the committee appointed to solicit funds for the erection of the proposed new Methodist church:

Rev. A. W. Mangum, Mrs. L. B. Evans, J. C. Palmer, J. A. Jones, Miss Blanch Fentress, Mrs. G. W. Wynne, Miss Julia Hutchings, Miss Lizzie Howland, Miss G. Harrison, S. C. White, W. J. Young, D. W. Bain and Theo. H. Hill.

We are informed that the money subscribed will be required to be paid in three installments; the first installment on the 1st of October, 1872, the second on the 1st of Jan., 1873, and the 3d on the first of April, 1873. We also learn that an effort will be made to purchase the Wheaton property, on the corner of Salisbury and Hargett streets, to build the proposed church on. We hope our Methodist friends will be able to secure this site for their new church, as it is one of the most desirable in the city.

For $3.13 we will send five copies of the WEEKLY SENTINEL for three months.

ICE.—Mr. N. A. Blake will keep on hand during the summer season Boston ice which he will sell at a low figure—lower than ever before sold in Raleigh. Persons wanting ice will please call on A. D. Royster & Bro., Fayetteville St., and leave their orders.

We were glad to see in our office yesterday the two model farmers of Orange county, J. W. Norwood, and P. C. Cameron, Esqrs. They agree with us that clover and grasses, instead of cotton and tobacco, should be grown in Orange and on all the clay lands of the state.

THE SENTOR editor acknowledges the reception with thanks, of a complimentary ticket to attend the Final Celebration of the Union Literary Society of Hampden Sidney College, Va., on June 11th. The Medalist for the occasion is Mr. J. L. Currie, of N. C. Mr. T. A thinson, of this State, is one of the Marshals. Mr. Patrick B. Shaw, of North Carolina, is one of the Committee.

"The Life of the Flesh is the Blood."

This being the fact, it is very obvious that when the blood becomes corrupted the whole system becomes corrupt also. To relieve this the true policy undoubtly is to direct the remedy to the source of the disease. It is in this manner that Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla and Queens delight acts. Its specific effect is on the blood; it purifies it vitalizes it, and expels all distemper from the system.

Being free from violent Minerals, it is adapted to general use. The old and young may use it; the most delicate female, at any time, may take it; the weak and enfeebled will be strengthened by it; the tender infant, who may have inherited diseases, will be cured by it.

For Syphilis, and all its trains of evils, it is a sure antidote.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills are a mild and gentle purgative, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestive or torpid liver. They have no equal.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—One hundred and fifty horses have been ordered to Galveston for cavalry. The cabinet meeting was unimportant, the Attorney General and Secretary of the Interior were absent. A photographic copy of stolen Buell papers are in existence, they will be re-produced. E. C. Sanands, of Florida, was nominated for consul at Rio Grande.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—SENATE—A prolongation of the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus was discussed.

HOUSE—Engaged in the Pacific Mail subsidy.

SENATE—The Senate was occupied the whole day with the kuklux trials.

HOUSE—The House Conference report upon refunding spirit taxes when destroyed was passed. The Conference report giving double subsidy to the Pacific mail was passed and amended that steamers shall be entirely of American construction. The amendment requiring the York and Panama Steamship line to be maintained was adopted. The House is in session to-night upon Foreign affairs.

Carpenter, from Committee on Judiciary, reported without amendment a bill to amend bankrupt act by substituting 1871 for 1864 in the first proviso of the 14th section, also with amendments to Trumbull's bill amendatory section 33 of the bankrupt act, Mr. Alcorn said "Northern men have become, since the war, bona fide citizens of Mississippi, taking stock in the sympathies and interests of our people, these are amongst the elite of the Republican party. Others have come into the state as sojourners so long as they can hold office. Their tenure of office will end as it began, with exceptions of the rule."

Like thieves who set fire to houses, they have come to inflame in order to steal. My colleague, representing nothing in Mississippi save these agents of hate, stands here a slumbering block to repose and concord; he knows no restraints of the representative, he is not a citizen of the State, he has never contributed a dollar to her taxes, he is not identified with her by even technical residence, he blackens her character by misrepresentation, six murders at Meridian he tortures into ten, the murders of negroes in the state he distends into hundreds, eighteen murders on the record for three months he exaggerates into forty-three, the forty five assassinations which he does commit in presence of the Senate, conduct with the misrepresentations by which carpet-bag incendiaries sought to shape the kuklux bill to their designs of irritation and hate. A Union soldier, identified with me by residence citizenship and interest by the government powers declared six months ago that, be his personal testimony what it may, that the conduct of Mississippi was peace, and he still continues the assertion of my colleague when stating in this letter that so late as the 20th of May, peace reigned throughout all her borders.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Bosses have generally conceded upon eight hours and the strike is virtually over. Ten thousand emigrants landed at Castle Garden yesterday.

The Herald's special commission to look after Dr. Livingston is within 20 days march of him. He was well at last advices.

Many of the carpenters who were in the successful eight hour strike, now favor a new strike for four dollars per day.

Maxwell's knitting mill, at Amsteam, has been burned.

The election of Bishops in the General Methodist Assembly is progressing by ballot. It is a tedious affair. Dr. Sloces said thirty years ago, at an election of Bishops, there had been ballot stuffing, he hoped if such a thing was ever discovered here, the vote would be taken over again. An Indiana delegate demanded that the laity and clergy vote separately for Bishops. Motion for a separate vote was lost. Tremendous cheering.

A delegate called attention to the demonstration of the audience, and moved that the galleries be cleared, (hisses from the galleries.)

Bishop Ames asked the police if any were present, to clear the galleries.

The tellers announced that Wiley and Merrell were elected Bishops. The remaining three will be elected to-morrow.

The steamer Barnes, from Savannah, passed a sunken schooner on the outward and inward bound track of vessels off Barnegat light.

In the Methodist Conference, only 3 Bishops have been elected, viz: W. L. Harris, Central Ohio; R S Foster, New York; Thos. Boreman, Iowa. Those lacking a majority were Peck, Wiley, Foss, Eddy, Merrell, Haven, Reed, Newman, Wahlton, Fowler, Crary, Cummings, Coffee and Hill. There were several other scattering votes.

FROM CHARLOTTE.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 24.—A part of the construction platform of the Catawba river bridge, on the Air Line Railroad, fell to-day, killing Thomas Mays, of Thomasville, N. C., and badly crippled five others.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., May 21.—In the Presbyterian General Assembly to-day the resolution introduced by Col. Preston, of Virginia, inquiring into the expediency of preparing a Liturgical service for congregational worship, was rejected by 165 to 5.

FROM EUROPE.

PARIS, May 21.—Chas. Francis Adams, has departed for Geneva.

MADRID, May 21.—The latest dispatch from Biscay reports that the Carlists organization in that province has been completely annihilated. Five thousand insurgents surrendered to the loyal forces on last Sunday. Order is now restored throughout the entire province.

Sickness is here.
