RALEIGH COTTON MARKET—Reported for the SENTINEL by Lynn Adams, Cotton Factor, Grocer, &c., Market Square, Raleigh, June 6, 1872.

Cotton to-day firm at 22 1/2 to 22 3/4. Sales 3 bales.

WANTS AFOAT.

Not amiss—a pretty widow.
A singular fact—to-day will be yesterday to-morrow.
The man who walked two days running, was afterwards waded a fortnight.
An appropriate present for ward politicians—a repeater.
The confederates of the South are backward in coming forward. The season is to blame.
The modern horse shows no signs of staid while the iron is hot.
The Chicago Post says: If the young woman who sends us the "Penny" on "Spring" will communicate her address, she will be exposed.
"Academy of Billiards" is the latest "University of Base Ball" next, and possibly "National Institute for Instruction in Marbles."
Cheap sponge cake—Beat up four eggs, yolks and whites separate; add to the yolks a teaspoonful and a half of sugar; beat them together, and add to them four tablespoonful of cold water, and one teaspoonful of flour. Stir the flour into the yolks and sugar, then add the whites of the eggs, after they have been beaten to a froth. Lastly add a teaspoonful of soda, dissolved in water. Flavor with a few drops of essence of vanilla or of lemon. Bake about an hour.

MEMORIAL FAIR.—Tucker Hall last Wednesday evening presented a brilliant appearance. It was thronged with crowds of beautiful ladies and handsome men, and superbly decorated with wreaths, etc., besides being hung all around the galleries with white and red cloth. The arrangement of the tables was all that good taste could suggest. We did not learn the amount of money taken in, but are assured that it largely exceeded the expectations of those having management of the Fair.

THE STREET EXPERIMENT.—It is giving his attention to the Streets in the eastern ward. They receded it.

CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Yesterday (Thursday) according to appointment, the Conservatives and Democrats of this (4th) congressional district, assembled in Convention in the court house, in this city, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress.
The Convention was called to order by H. A. London, Jr., of Chatham, Chairman of the District Executive Committee, who nominated Capt. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin, as temporary chairman, and appointed E. C. Woodson, of the Franklin News, R. M. Farman, of the Franklin Courier, C. W. Harris, of the Battleboro Advertiser, and W. C. Sims, of the Daily SENTINEL, Secretaries.

LOCAL DOGS.

There are now two prisoners in jail awaiting to be tried on the charge of passing counterfeit money.

C. W. HARRIS, EDITOR OF THE BATTLEBORO ADVISER, AND R. M. FURMAN, OF THE LOUISBURG COURIER, WERE IN THE CITY YESTERDAY.

We were glad to see these gentlemen looking well.

A NEW STREET HAS BEEN OPENED IN THE eastern ward. It runs between the residences of C. J. Rogers and Mr. Mills, of the Biblical Recorder.

John Smith, col., shot sometime ago at Millburn, is still alive and is in this city under treatment by Dr. E. Burke Hayward. The ball which lodged in the back part of the neck, has been extracted.

Regular monthly meeting of Raleigh Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, this (Friday) evening, June 7th, at 8 o'clock, at Freeman's Hall.

We return thanks for an invitation to join the Raleigh Methodist Sunday School in their excursion to-day to Cary. We would gladly accept the invitation but our duties forbid.

LET GRATITUDE BE TO RECEIVE that faithful friend of good government, the Newbern Journal of Commerce, in a tri-weekly edition. It takes the place of the Daily which has been discontinued for the present. Success every way Colored!

Judge Powle and Gen. W. R. Cox, escorted the distinguished gentleman to the chair amidst the most enthusiastic applause.

ON taking the chair, Mr. Barringer made a happy and most appropriate address.

Judge Powle stated that he learned that a number of gentlemen on our State tickets were in the city. He alluded to Major John Hughes, our candidate for Lieutenant Governor, Major John W. Graham, our candidate for Treasurer, Hon. W. M. Shipp, our candidate for Attorney General, Jos. H. Seapark, our candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, and John A. Womack, our candidate for Secretary of State. He moved that these gentlemen be invited to take seats on the platform. The resolution was unanimously carried.

ON motion of H. K. Nash, Esq., of Orange, a Committee of 1 from each county was appointed to draft resolutions.

The chair appointed H. K. Nash, of Orange, R. H. Battle, of Wake, H. A. London, Jr., of Chatham, L. R. Waddell, of Johnston, Thos. Webb, of Orange, H. G. Williams, of Nash, W. K. Davis, of Franklin, and Willis Jenkins, of Granville.

ON motion of Mr. N. Palmer, a Committee of three were appointed to wait on those gentlemen on our State ticket who are now in the city.

The chair appointed Mr. Palmer, P. M. Stewart, and Captain R. F. Williams, Josiah Turner, Jr., next addressed the crowd. He had no choice between Roger, Manning, Davis and Littlejohn. He merely wished to instruct the Orange delegation not to present his name. Before he wished to hear anything about rewards, honors, etc., he wanted to see North Carolina freed from this radical incursion, etc., etc.

The Committee on Resolutions returned and reported, through their chairman, H. K. Nash, Esq., the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we do hereby endorse the platform of principles adopted by the recent State Convention at Greensboro, and cordially ratify the State ticket for its triumphant success, and pledge to its faithful support our earnest and continued efforts until victory perches on our banner on the 1st Thursday in August next.

Resolved, That we heartily congratulate the friends of law and liberty and of good government everywhere, on the bright prospect of a glorious triumph for our country in the approaching political contest—a both state and national—a triumph which shall rescue our country and its liberties from the dangers of centralization, official corruption and inefficiency, civil anarchy and military despotism, and restore to every part of the nation, but especially to our suffering and oppressed people of the South, the halcyon days of true peace and prosperity—and the blessings of local self-government and civil liberty.

Resolved, That to secure the consummation of this glorious result, we cordially invite the earnest union and active cooperation of all the friends of free government and republicanism.

CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT CONVENTION.

Resolved, That we pledge to the most loyal support of the platform of principles and resolutions support in the approaching contest.

THE RESOLUTIONS WERE ADOPTED WITHOUT A dissenting voice.

Z. Lottay, Esq., of Johnston, moved to go into a ballot for a candidate, carried.

On motion, it was decided that each county should have the same number of votes that they are entitled to in the House of Representatives under the new apportionment bill.

Nominations were now declared to be in order.

W. H. Ayers, Esq., of Johnston, nominated Hon. Sion H. Rogers, of Wake.

H. K. Nash, Esq., of Orange, nominated Hon. John Manning, of Chatham.

Capt. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin, nominated Jos. J. Davis, of Franklin.

N. E. Canady, Esq., of Granville, placed in nomination the name of Major J. T. Littlejohn, of Granville.

A. H. Lewis, Esq., of Wake, seconded the nomination of Hon. Sion H. Rogers.

J. M. Manning, of Chatham, seconded the nomination of Hon. John Manning, of Chatham.

First Ballot—Wake 4 votes and Johnston 2 for Mr. Rogers. Nash 1 vote and Franklin 1 for Mr. Davis. Orange 2 votes and Chatham 2 for Mr. Manning. Granville gave Mr. Littlejohn 2 votes. There being no other, a second ballot was gone into which had the same result as the first.

A third ballot was had and before its conclusion it was evident that Hon. Sion H. Rogers had received a sufficient number of votes to secure his nomination, and a motion was made to declare the nomination unanimous. Capt. J. J. Davis, Hon. John Manning and Nat. E. Canady, Esq., all spoke in support of the motion. The motion was put, and carried amid deafening cheers.

ON motion of T. Webb, Esq., of Orange, H. A. London, Jr., of Chatham, was unanimously chosen as the Elector of this district.

Messrs. Jas. U. Kirkland, of Orange, and Hon. D. M. Barringer, were chosen as delegates to the Baltimore Convention from this district.

Capt. C. M. Cooke, of Franklin, was chosen as alternate for Mr. Kirkland and A. D. Pence, Esq., of Granville, alternate for Mr. Barringer.

ON motion of C. M. Busby, Esq., the Convention took a recess until 3 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at 3 p. m. Maj. J. T. Littlejohn, of Granville, cordially endorsed the nomination of Hon. Sion H. Rogers and pledged his hearty and zealous support.

Maj. John Hughes, our candidate for Lt. Governor, being present was called. He was introduced to the Convention by the President, Hon. D. M. Barringer.

Major Hughes addressed the platform and addressed the Convention in an eloquent and forcible speech which, combined with striking illustrations and sound logical arguments. He recalled the course and record of Tod R. Caldwell and Curtis H. Brogden. By a reference to reports of legislative proceedings he clearly fixed upon the latter personage a participation and complicity in the Littlefield swindle.

The Major was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause, and his address was listened to with the strictest attention and made a deep impression upon his large audience.

Major J. W. Graham, our candidate for Treasurer, in compliance with a most enthusiastic invitation, next addressed the convention. His remarks were happy in conception, ingenious in thought, and delivered with great force and effect.

He alluded to the prominent men of the Republican party in this State, and showed what desolation and corruption had cursed the State since their coming into power. The Major then proceeded to detail the financial embarrassments into which the State had been plunged by this party by their wholesale stealing and reckless expenditures.

He alluded to the corruption of the legislature of 1868-69. He thought that they were misled, but now it had been proved by sworn evidence. When the first committee to investigate the charges of bribery, fraud and corruption endeavored to secure the presence of Littlefield, he left this city at night and proceeded to Cary in a private conveyance where he was taken up by an engine sent them for that purpose by W. A. SMITH, President of the North Carolina Railroad.

He then alluded to the fact of the bill appropriating $6,000,000 worth of bonds to the Western N. C. R. R. was in Gov. Tod R. Caldwell's own handwriting, who most zealously advocated it.

Major Graham continued to give us various illustrations of the manner in which the State and the people have been wronged and robbed.

We understand that on last Tuesday night, at the second regular meeting of the Oak City Building and Loan Association nine shares were redeemed at 100, which is considered a very fine price for a beginning—not too high for the borrower, nor too low for the company. Judging from the material of which this company is composed—working, enterprising young men—we feel confident of its prudent management and rapid growth.

INTERESTING TO TOBACCO MANUFACTURERS.—As the following may prove interesting to our friends living in tobacco sections, we copy it.

The uniform tax on tobacco of twenty cents per pound, and which has been a subject of conference between both Houses for some days, was finally passed, and now only awaits the signature of the President to become a law.
