MEAN.—Last night some rascal or rascals entered the garden of Mr. William Barlow, in the Eastern Ward, and completely ruined his onion bed. The onions were being raised for the purpose of obtaining buttons, and were unfit for table use.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to our friends of the News, for their kind assistance Tuesday afternoon, when an accidental breaking of our press occurred. Our issue of that day was printed upon their press and to them we are indebted for being able to save a portion of our western mail.

A NUISANCE.—If Chief of Police will take the trouble of walking to the corner of Davie and Bloodworth streets, he will find what is called a "hide house," used for the purpose of drying and preparing beef hides. The stench proceeding from this quarter is by no means pleasant to the nostrils of the denizens of that locality, and the nuisance should be at once abated.

IMMIGRANTS.—Some days ago the ship Moravian arrived at Norfolk, Va., bringing some 140 Scotch and English immigrants to this country. Col. Geo. Little, our Commissioner of Immigration, was on hand, and induced quite a number to come and inspect the lands of this State, and on Thursday evening quite a number arrived in this city. We learn that these immigrants are well to-do farmers and are men of some capital. We hope these now visiting our State will be induced to remain, and take up their residence amongst us.

DELEGATES TO THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.—We are authorized to state that arrangements will be made for the accommodation of the North Carolina delegation to the Baltimore Convention the announcement of the place will be made.

Yesterday, while endeavoring to argue a case in the Circuit Court, Starbuck, the District Attorney, said that Gov. Graham had been "guilty of an argument." The pupils of the M. E. Sunday School enjoyed their pic-nic at Cary yesterday very much. They returned to the city about 6, p. m. in high spirits and delighted with their entertainment.

The matter of removing the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons from Wilmington to Raleigh, was discussed at the recent convocation at Wilmington and postponed until the next meeting of the Grand Chapter.

Business seems to be very dull in the city at present; or at least we should judge so, as we saw on yesterday one of our merchants, sitting in front of his store, on Fayetteville street, with a mirror in his hand, "shining the eyes" of some industrious laborers near by. We think he was "hard up" for employment.

W. H. Finch, Esq., long an insurance agent in this State, and who has done a large business heretofore, has been appointed Commissioner of Insurance for the State of North Carolina. Mr. Andrew Syme, of the Secretary of State's office, is the Chief Clerk of the Insurance Bureau to whom all communications should be addressed.

CORRECTION.—There is no man more accurate in his figures and statements, than our candidate for Treasurer, Major John W. Graham. In the report of his speech which appeared in Friday's paper he is made to say that Wm. A. Smith furnished the engine to take Littlefield out of the city, when it should be Swepson.

This was an error of the reporter and not of the speaker. The two names are so intimately blended in the bond business and big swindle that one may generally be substituted for the other without falsifying facts.

JNO. C. TAYLOR, Esq.—This venerable friend, one of the first citizens of Granville and one of the noblest specimens of a man, morally and intellectually, whom we have ever known, has opened a classical school for boys at his residence two miles from Oxford. Mr. Taylor is, we suppose, over seventy years of age. Once a man of large wealth, he has for a year devoted himself to teaching, after having re-read the ancient classics with which he was so familiar in his youth and early manhood. He is a most genial gentleman, and the best Shakspearian scholar now living in the State. See his advertisement.

THE REV. P. A. STROBEL, Bible Agent for the State, returned to the city Thursday evening after an absence of nearly four weeks. During the past month, the Agent has visited and conferred with twenty auxiliaries and committees. The receipts from auxiliaries and contributions amounted to nearly $400. Orders were sent to the Bible House for books amounting to over $400. Over 800 Bibles and Testaments were granted by the Parent Society for gratuitous distribution. The Agent speaks hopefully of the prospects of the Bible cause in this State. During the past month two new auxiliaries and three branch societies were organized.

SPEAKING AT TRINITY COLLEGE.—Judge Merrimon, our candidate for Governor, and J. H. Separks, Esq., our candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, will speak at Trinity College, on Friday 14th inst. Hons. M. W. Ransom and J. M. Leach, are expected to be present.

THE GREENSBORO' PATRIOT.—It affords us pleasure to see the enlargement of this well edited and staunch supporter of truth and right. It has our very best wishes.

PERSONAL.—Our sanctum was honored on yesterday with a visited from P. A. Duffy, editor of that stannch and ably conducted paper, the Greensboro' Patriot. Mr. D. reports that the political prospects in his section are most encouraging for our party.

RELEASED ON BAIL.—During the past two days the following prisoners of the county jail have been released on giving bail for their appearance at the next term of the Court: W. A. Champion, charged with attempting to pass counterfeit money on H. C. Oliver & Co., at Apex, $1,000.

Wm. Ray, col., charged with stealing a ham from Gill & Bro.

THE CROPS.—The crops in Franklin are good—wheat is generally good—corn needs plowing. Cotton planters in the eastern counties are going it this year on a large scale. The high price of cotton has induced them to greatly increase the area of land devoted to cotton over last year. They are also going heavily in debt for fertilizers, and in some sections nearly every farmer has given a mortgage upon his land. This is a very suicidal course. It reminds one of a gambler that ventures all upon one card. If prices rule low next winter, or if the crop should fail, the farmer with his mortgaged home would be irretrievably ruined. Some people will not learn by experience or observation.

CURIOSITIES.—During a visit to the State Library yesterday we were shown by Mr. Hill, the obliging and efficient librarian, an old German bible, printed in the year 15 1. The book has an elaborately illuminated title page, and is embellished with wooden engravings. As the art of printing was in its infancy when this book was printed, it is supposed that the movable wooden types were used. The volume is in an excellent state of preservation. We were also shown a Latin bible, printed in 1602, which is also well preserved, and presents a very handsome typographical appearance. These books were presented to the library, Jan. 1st, 1870, by E. T. Mockridge, of Philadelphia, to commemorate a visit to this city of himself and family during the summer of 1869.

SUPREME COURT.—The court convened yesterday at 9, a. m. The following cases were called:

Samuel Rogers and wife vs. J. Brickhouse and wife, from Martin county. Messrs. Smith & Strong for the plaintiffs, and T. P. Devereux, J. A. Moore and Busbee & Busbee for defendants. Placed at end of docket.

Benjamin F. Stilley and wife vs. Myer Rice, executor, Pitt. Phillips & Merrimon for the plaintiffs and Warren & Carter for the defendants. Argued.

Jno. G. Blount vs. R. C. Windley, et. al., Beaufort. E. G. Haywood for the plaintiff and Phillips & Merrimon for the defendants. Placed at end of docket.

W. F. Lewis, executor, vs. G. W. Johnston, administrator, Pitt. No counsel for the plaintiff and Johnston & Nelson and Smith & Strong for the defendant. Argued.

State vs. Edward Williams and Mary Ann Avery, Pitt. Attorney General Shipp and Oride Dupre for the State and Johnston & Nelson for the defendants.

The court adjourned to 9, a. m., this morning.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The court met yesterday at 10 a. m. Judge Brooks presiding.

Cases upon the criminal docket were resumed.

The case of U. S. vs. Thos. D. Tinning, Orange county, was taken up. The defendant being charged with not keeping his books of tobacco sales as required by law. Gov. W. A. Graham appeared for the defendant and District Attorney Starbuck for the government. After argument by counsel and the charge of the Judge, the jury retired.

U. S. vs. J. W. Perry, Chatham, charged with offering for sale spirits on which tax had not been paid. The defendant pleaded guilty and judgment was suspended on the payment of $50 costs.

Wm. Martin, Yadkin, charged with illicit distilling, and his surety Repa Martin, called and failed on the second day of the term, appeared and their forfeitures were erased, and they were recognized to appear at the next term in a bond of $1000.

U. S. vs Felix Lyle and Hosea Davidson, Polk; charged with illicit distilling. The defendants submitted and judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the court took a recess until 3 o'clock p. m.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONSERVATIVE STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.—In accordance with previous announcement the Democratic Conservative State Executive Committee convened yesterday in the city at the Chambers of the Central Executive Committee at 9 a. m. Hon. D. M. Barringer in the chair.

After the roll of the different districts was called, the committee at once proceeded to the transaction of the business for which they were called together, viz: to appoint delegates for the State at large to the Baltimore Convention and for a general consultation as to matters affecting the interests of the party.

The following gentlemen were appointed as said delegates:

Major J. A. Engelhard, of New Hanover, Gen. A. M. Scales, of Rockingham, Henry G. Williams, of Nash and Hon. John Manning, of Chatham. W. J. Yates, Esq., of Mecklenburg, was appointed Alternate for Maj. Engelhard; F. H. Busbee, of Wake, Alternate for Gen. Scales, and Captain J. L. Robinson, of Macon, Alternate for H. G. Williams, and Col. T. B. Venable, of Granville, Alternate for Hon. John Manning.

The following resolution, offered by H. A. London, Jr., of Chatham, was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to address a circular letter to the Chairman of each County Executive Committee requesting him to appoint three active men in each township to overlook the registrar's book on the Saturday preceding the election, and to see that no person be improperly registered, and to attend the election for the purpose of preventing fraud.

The committee deemed the appointment of Electors for the State at large inexpedient until the action of the Baltimore Convention is known.

The committee then adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

We were delighted that so many of the districts of the State were represented at this meeting. It speaks well for the earnestness and zeal of our friends.

BIBLE MEETING AT NASHVILLE.—The State Agent addressed a meeting in the Court-house at Nashville, on Tuesday evening June 4th. The Nash County Society was organized in 1866. In that year, the American Bible Society, sent them a donation of $141, worth of books, all of which, except three Bibles, have been disposed of. This is the only supply of Bibles ever brought to the county. After the address on Tuesday evening, the Society was re-organized and the following officers chosen:

Rev. Jeremiah Johnson, President.
W. T. Griffin, Cor. Sec'y.
Maj. J. T. Jenkins, Treasurer.
Van Buren Batchelor, Depositary.
Executive Committee—Capt. N. W. Bridges, W. J. B. Harper and Dr. J. M. Earl.

The Society gave the Agent an order for $50 worth of Bibles and Testaments to replenish the Depository and the Agent made a donation of $25 worth of books for gratuitous distribution, especially amongst the freedmen.

INTERESTING TO TOBACCO GROWERS.—The new tax and tariff bill reported by the Committee on Ways and Means to the House of Representatives contains the following provisions:

"Every farmer or planter producing and selling leaf tobacco shall hereafter be required to keep a book, the form to be prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue, a record of all his sales of leaf tobacco, the number of hogsheads, cases, or pounds with the name and residence, in each instance, of the person to whom sold and the place to which it was shipped. Any farmer or planter who shall produce and sell leaf tobacco without keeping or causing to be kept the book herein prescribed shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500."

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—It is asserted that Fish has resigned.

The Spanish government will release Doctor Howard as a favor to the United States, but it the demand is made on the ground of American citizenship, it will be refused.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—SENATE.—There were many factious and amendments to the clause of the appropriation bill giving a quarter million dollars to the mail carries, when the matter went over to Friday.

The bill to punish the obstruction to the administration of justice in the United States Courts, passed. It goes to the President.

Chandler made an elaborate attack on Sumner for his statements regarding Stanton and Grant.

Mr. Sumner said he would read one single letter to show the truth of what he had said in reference to Mr. Stanton's opinion of Grant. Before reading, however, he would declare that Mr. Stanton did say to him what he had reported. He asserted on this floor that this was so.

Mr. Sumner here read the following extract from a note received this morning from Horace White, of Chicago: "Dear Mr. Sumner—The late Secretary Stanton, not once merely, but several times, expressed himself to me, substantially, the same opinion of Gen. Grant that he did to you, with the addition that General Grant had been greatly overrated as a military commander. As to the latter point, I recall a long conversation with him after the fighting at Spotsylvania C. H., in which he (S.) expressed more than he had ever known him to feel concerning any campaign—He felt that he could not continue to fill up the awful gash made by Lee in our ranks without a further call on the loyal States for troops, but I suppose you know all about that."

During a portion of this conversation, he kept Chandler cooling his heels in the ante-room, in order to flourish what he had to say to me, a mere Bohemian, although I twice suggested it would be indecorous for me to remain while a Senator desired an audience.

The river and harbor bill passed, and goes back to the House for concurrence.

Most of the Southern appropriations were increased. Kellogg's amendments were all adopted.

The Red River raft appropriation, of $150,000, occasioned considerable discussion, but was finally adopted. Louisian gets nearly half million dollars of appropriations, $31,000 were appropriated for improving Galveston harbor, Texas, $10,000 for improving Red Fish River, $10,000 for Cypress Bayou, $17,500 for Cedar Keys and St. John's river, Florida, $200,000 for improving Arkansas, White, Red and Wachita rivers, $10,000 for improving the Mobile Harbor, $50,000 for improving Savannah river and harbor, Georgia, $50,000 for Acotink creek, $15,000 for Acquia creek and fifteen thousand dollars for the Rappahannock river, Virginia, $10,000 for Roanoke river, $100,000 for Cape Fear river, North Carolina; for improving Charleston harbor, South Carolina, $40,000. The bill goes to the House for concurrence.

The election or enforcement bill will probably become a law. This information is furnished from a very knowing source.

The tax and tariff bill has been signed.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—Pennsylvania will vote for Wilson. Wilson's friends are sanguine.

Succession on the second ballot stated that Colfax has written a letter ordering the withdrawal of his name under certain circumstances.

The platform committee was in session till dawn this morning.

The colored part of the Virginia delegation have locked in tracers, and resolved to go for Colfax.

The Gentile delegation from Utah was admitted.

The Convention is densely packed. Every State and territory is represented. The States will be called alphabetically on all questions. The platform will be disposed of before the nominations. The rolls shall be called on nominations. When a majority is reached for any candidate, the question of unanimity shall be put, when the chairman of delegation shall state the vote for each candidate or proposition. The five minute rule was adopted. The resolutions were referred to the committee on resolutions without reading. But the resolutions from the Union League were ordered to be read by a vote of the Convention.

The national committee consists of the following names: Alabama, Spencer; Arkansas, Clayton; Florida, Gleason; Georgia, Fanning; Kentucky, Goodloe; Louisiana, Casanaul; Maryland, Fulton; Mississippi, French; South Carolina, Moses; Tennessee, Maynard; Virginia, Wells; West Virginia, Crews.

The proceedings while waiting for the report of the platform committee were somewhat incoherent. The blacks and whites contended for the rostrum. Ultraism and Grant provoked equal applause. The rules were suspended, and Grant nominated. A shifting scene disclosed Grant's picture. The farce provoked much noise.

The vote for Grant was unanimous. In casting the votes of delegations, each chairman made a little speech, which was received with great good humor. The following is not among the most extravagant. Popham, of Virginia, said: These are the Republican people, marching forward under banner—Sic Semper Tyrannis. She intends coming next autumn to put her iron heel upon the head of the Democratic party. The gods are just and Virginia will be redeemed.

After the hurly burly had subsided, a motion was made to suspend the rules, and nominate a Vice President, which was carried.

Pennsylvania nominated Wilson, and Massachusetts seconded the nomination. Indiana nominated Colfax, and Michigan seconded the nomination, Mississippi also seconded the nomination, Lynch, colored, saying, it seemed to him as if the spirit of Lincoln is here, and he remembered what he proclaimed on one occasion when he said it was not a safe time to swap horses.

The proceedings were here interrupted by the entrance of the Platform Committee, which reported in effect, as follows: The resolutions speak of the great courage of, and the duties performed by, the Republican party in suppressing the rebellion, emancipating the slaves, enforcing the laws, developing the internal resources of the country, encouraging and promoting emancipation, collecting the revenues and reducing the National debt, and express the belief that the country will not entrust the Government to any party or combination composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress. They hold that the recent amendments to the Constitution must be sustained and carried out, that honorable faith with foreign nations should be maintained, that the civil service should be reformed, that no further grants of public lands should be made to corporations, that the revenues should be such as to furnish a moderate balance to be applied to the reduction of the public debt, and that revenue such as is raised from tobacco and spirits should be raised by duties on imports, which duties should be adjusted so as to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and promoting the industries, prosperity and growth of the whole country, that the future bounty of the government should be extended to the soldiers and sailors of the late war; that the American doctrine of naturalization should be maintained; that the franking privilege should be abolished and postage reduced; that the public credit must be preserved, and specie payments should be resumed; that the claim for woman suffrage should be treated with respectful consideration; that the amnesty action of Congress is approved, also its anti kuklux legislation; that the rights reserved to the states must be respected. Finally, it concluded by expressing confidence in the modest patriotism, earnest purposes, sound judgment and practical wisdom of U. S. Grant.

After the adoption of the platform, Virginia nominated John F. Lewis. A colored delegate from Texas nominated E. D. Davis.

The vote stood: Wilson 364 1-2, Colfax 321 1-2. Virginia changed to Wilson, which gave him the nomination.

The convention adjourned sine die.

THRESHING MACHINES, HORSE POWERS.

We desire to call the attention of farmers to our manufacture of Separators. We have greatly improved these machines within the last two years, and they are now superior to and better adapted to the wants of the Virginia farmer than any machines brought from the North, while our lower prices and the saving of freight make them cheaper. We make and send with our machines the Cary or Pitt's Horse Power, and furnish machines mounted on wheels, complete with horse power, belts, &c., for $480.

We had our wheat threshed during the past summer by a "Cardwell Thresher and Cleaner," owned by J. W. Alley. The machine did excellent work, threshing every particle of wheat from the straw, and cleaned it out entire satisfaction. We can recommend the machines to any one wishing a good Thresher and Cleaner.

John R. Jones, Sam'el Cottrell, Jr., Wm. C. Muncure, Wm. Shepparson, Alex. R. Holladay, J. L. Carrington.

We also make a good Two horse Thresher that we sell complete for $250.
