LOCAL DOGS.

A social club is about to be organized in this city.

Read, with care, the new advertise-ments.

There are fifteen prisoners now in our jail.

We direct particular attention to school advertisements.

F. H. Buebe, Esq., and lady left the city Friday for Morganton.

The trees on Fayetteville street need trimming.

The grass in the Capitol Square presents a beautiful appearance.

We are glad to announce to our readers the return of our associate editor to his post.

Jordan Stone, Esq., Managing Editor of the News is with the editorial excursion through the Northern States.

A. J. Burton, Associate editor of the News, is still confined to his room by sickness.

Judge Manly, of Newbern, is in the city in attendance upon the Supreme and Federal Courts.

We are happy to announce some improvement in the orders in and about the market house.

Room has been secured for the North Carolina delegation attending the Baltimore convention at the Carolina House.

Sheriff Tim Lee has at last returned from the Philadelphia Convention. His friends had come to the conclusion to offer a reward to learn his whereabouts.

Governor Graham and daughter passed through the city on Saturday en route to Baltimore. Gov. Graham goes to attend the meeting of the Peabody trustees.

Moses Patterson is ahead in the gardening line. He had roasting ears on the 7th inst., and yesterday brought a fine lot to market.

As a matter of information, we would like to know if persons erecting buildings have a right to deposit building material on the streets and let it remain for weeks to the obstruction of the thoroughfare.

YOUNG AMERICA FOR JULY.

YOUNG AMERICA for July is the most interesting periodical we know for juveniles. The editor gives us an excellent full length portrait of himself in the present number. Mice at Play, and Just my Lock are continued, more interesting than ever. Published by W. Jennings Demost, 808 Broadway, New York. $1 per year.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE for July contains an ample store of refreshing literature, including a continuation of Black at the Farm, by Neil Forrest; choice poems and music, splendid illustrations, fashions, household, etc., etc., and a four page engraving of the City of Vienna, the scene of the World's Exposition in 1873. Price, $3 yearly. Published by W. Jennings Demost, 888 Broadway, New York.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met Saturday at 9 A. M.

All the Judges present except Justice Rodman. The following cases were taken up and disposed of:

Benjamin Rush et al vs Halsey Steamboat Company, Cumberland; argued, J. W. Hindsale for the plaintiffs, and B. & T. C. Fuller for the defendants.

J. D. Williams et al vs Hugh A. Munroe, Cumberland; argued, B. & T. C. Fuller for the plaintiffs, and W. M. L. McKay for the defendant.

J. D. Williams et al vs Mary A. Munroe, Cumberland; argued, B. & T. C. Fuller for the plaintiffs, and W. M. L. McKay for the defendant.

The court adjourned to meet at 9 A. M. to-day (Monday).

GAS HOUSE.

On Friday evening we had a burned visit to the new Gas House, and was most courteously received and shown around by the obliging and efficient Superintendent, Mr. Sem'l Merrill. All of the apparatus connected with this establishment is upon the newest and most improved order. We regret that our space will not allow us to go into details and give an accurate description of the various improvements which the company have recently inaugurated in their works. We congratulate the company that they have in their employ such a skilled, active and gentlemanly Superintendent as Mr. Merrill.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of County Commissioners met in the court house Friday and discussed the road imbroglio in St. Mary's township and audited some accounts. The road question was not solved, but its further consideration was postponed until the 29th inst.

On Saturday the Board was again in session and engaged in considering county educational matters. No conclusion was reached in this matter as the Board is divided in opinion as to their right under the new school law, to distribute the school fund to which this county is entitled, amounting to some $21,000, among the different townships. The further consideration of this matter was also postponed until the meeting on the 29th inst.

WORTHLY BARRISTER.

The honorary degree of LL. D. was conferred upon Hon. A. S. Merriam, of this city, by the trustees of Trinity College at the late commencement.

No trial.—To local would inform the public that the editor has not yet come to a trial, though two weeks of the term have elapsed. If ever we are indicted and the prosecutor picks the jury at Marshall Court, we do not shall not cry out so loudly for a trial.

We will continue our report to-morrow.

COMMENCEMENT AT TRINITY COLLEGE.

The Associate has just returned from attendance upon the Commencement exercises of Trinity College, Randolph county, N. C. As he was travelling last night and got no sleep, he is forced to apologize for the crude manner of his report. He is compelled to write on Saturday although his eyelids are heavy.

The Exercises began on the 9th inst., and were concluded on 15th. T. J. Armstrong, New Hanover, was Chief Marshal. His Assistants were, T. Calson, Stanley, J. G. Brown, Raleigh, W. H. Page, Cary, W. H. Yopp, Wilmington, S. J. Vesch, Davidson, J. A. Baskdale, Wm. L. M. Brown, Randolph and J. P. McLaughlin, Charlotte.

On the 9th the Sermon before the Theological Society was preached by Rev. W. H. Moore, of N. C. Conference. We did not hear it.

On 10th, at night, the Members of the Freshman Class declaimed. Mr. W. M. Russ, of Raleigh, was among the number. On the evening of the 11th, the Sophomores declaimed.

At 11 o'clock on Wednesday, 15th inst., the annual Sermon was preached by Rev. W. P. Harrison, D. D., of Atlanta Ga. It was somewhat discursive, not strikingly appropriate, but evidencing talent and culture.

At 3 o'clock the Address before the Literary Societies was delivered by our distinguished U. S. Senator, Hon. M. W. Ransom, of Northampton. It was a vigorous, eloquent production, containing massive thought and abounding in lofty patriotism. His purpose was to elevate the aspirations and incite to noble deeds the young men to whom he addressed his animated appeals and profound reflections. It was extemporaneous and held the attention of his very large audience for over an hour and a half. He closed amid great applause.

Gov. Vance being upon the rostrum was justly called for. He made a brief, amusing and practical speech that brought down the house many times. It is a great favorite with North Carolinians, and they will take no denial from him whenever he is present when speaking in good faith.

At night the following members of the Junior Class, representing the Societies, spoke:

I. Culture.—By W. H. Pegram, Harrest County, (Ch. Phil.)

2. John Milton.—By G. B. Everett, Ertretville, (Columbia.)

3. What Makes Heroes.—By P. D. Hodges, Davie county, (Hesperian.)

They were excellent performances. Thursday was Commencement Day. We give the programme entire:

I. Vocal Music. Anthem, "The earth is the Lord's, &c."

II. Latin Oration, Salutatory Address, by Claudius Barringer Townsend, of Robeson county.

IV. Slow growth, by Terry Winston Welborn, Trinity.

V. Concede with Grace, or resist with Ounnon, by James Archer Monroe, Fayetteville.

VI. Fast Living, by Julius Augustin Turner, Stanley county.

VII. Wisdom does not always speak in Greek and Latin, by Millard Mill, Wake county.

VIII. Forms of Beauty in the Quarry, await the hand of Genius, by Landon Lowelllyn Doub, Trinity.

IX. Greek Oration, by James Alexander Worthing, Moore county.

X. Honorary Oration. "What I know about Politics," by Julius Liles Tomlinson, Randolph county.

XI. The Bar, by John Alston Barringer, Ochenoboro.

XII. Soil Power, by William Capers Norman, Caswell county.

XIII. President's Report, and Degree Conferred.

XIV. Societies Represented, by B. Simpson, Caswell county, (Hesperian.) I. J. Austin, Black Hawk, Miss., (Columbia.)

XV. Medals Presented.

XVI. Bibles Presented.

XVII. Voluntary Address, by William Leak Terry, Little Rock, Ark.

XVIII. Benediction.

Of these speeches, most of which were really good, that delivered by William Norman, was incomparably the best. It was full of thought and delivered capably. His manner was winning and remarkably original. He is a young man of much promise.

The speech of J. L. Tomlinson was distinguished for humor, good sense and occasional imaginative excursions at once pleasing and graceful.

The Latin Oration was doubtless good. At any rate it sounded well, and General Leach says he never heard a better one by any Roman orator. We must rub up our Latin before we go to Trinity again. The Greek oration was all Greek to us. We were in Gov. Vance's fix, who quoting the Nectar Ambrosianus, of Kit North, said that he knew no Greek except when it was in Latin and had been translated into English. Byron says somewhere that he or some one else "knew little Latin and less Greek." We are in the same predicament. The speaking went off excellently well and the happy looking, pretty girls, and their wavy hair, seemed to us to be lovely.

Dr. Wax, the eminent German oculist and optician who is at the Tarboro Hotel, is successful here as at other places. He has supplied leading physicians with his Brazilian glasses with which they express themselves highly pleased. Other prominent gentlemen have also been supplied.

OUR CANDIDATES AT HIGH POINT.

On Friday night as we drove up to Barber's hotel at High Point, our candidate for Superintendent of Public Works, J. H. Separs, Esq., was closing an animated and stirring speech to a crowd of citizens who had assembled in front of the hotel and had called him out. Judge Morrison arrived with us, and had scarcely entered the hotel before loud calls were made for him. He responded most happily in a speech of some twenty five or thirty minutes, making, as he always does, a profound impression by his powerful logic and strong array of facts. Our friends in that section are aroused and confident. Leach will best the Capt. Perry, by a larger majority than he best Scott.

"OVER LAND AND SEA."

We are glad to announce that our citizens will have an opportunity of attending this exhibition during the early part of this week at Tucker Hall. Below we give what our neighbor the News, of Saturday, says about it:

All lovers of art and historical scenes should attend these interesting and instructive entertainments, as they are said to be of a superior character; the like of which are seen only once in a lifetime perhaps.

The exhibitions in Wilmington, Newbern, Fayetteville and Tarboro, have elicited from the press of those places the highest encomiums of praise, and we verily believe that there is a rich treat in store for our citizens next week.

DISAPPOINTED.

A number of ladies and gentlemen for the past week have been disappointed in leaving the city on the 10 o'clock freight train going west. This is of frequent occurrence. We will inquire where the blame is. Some say it is the fault of the Pennsylvania Central, some of the Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co., while others declare it is the Seaboard & Roanoke road. This much is certain, there is no excuse for the Pennsylvania Central making a schedule to leave Raleigh at ten and then leave one day at twelve, another day at three and a third day at half past three.

L. W. BARRINGER, Esq.

This gentleman, son of our distinguished fellow-citizen, Hon. D. M. Barringer, has recently completed his law studies under Judge Person and obtained from the Supreme Court his license to practice, and will soon open his office in this city. Mr. Barringer is a young man of marked talent and will, should he live, obtain eminence in the profession which he has adopted. A city pride is the incentive of this notice, because Mr. B. stood prominently in a large class which was pronounced by the Judges of the Supreme Court to be one of the most talented they ever examined.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Saturday.

This court convened at 10 A. M.

E. R. Hampton, of Jackson county, was admitted as an attorney of the Court on taking the usual oath. He was introduced by U. S. Solicitor Starbuck.

Cases from the Civil Docket were called as follows:

U. S. vs. L. C. Harding, suit on distiller's bond. Damages assessed at $31.69 and costs.

U. S. vs. Wm. Allgood, Jr., Wm. Allgood, Sr., and Horace Allgood, suit on distiller's bond; damages assessed at $13.82.

Edgar L. Thompson vs. Wm. Sutton and T. Child; verdict for the plaintiff to the amount of $1,190.10 of which $1,000.21 is the principal.

U. S. vs. G. H. Moore, et al., suit on bond; verdict in favor of Government to the amount of $4,671.60 with interest from November Term, 1871.

A MIDNIGHT CONCLAVE.

On Friday night a number of the local radical politicians held a secret convale at Tim Deo's place just beyond the western limits of this city. We understand that the object of the meeting was to discuss and consider the colored vote of Cuba, Haiti and Santo Domingo, as it is called. United States Marshal Carrow, "Hon." James H. Harris, Col. Jos. W. Holden and other worthies of this description were present and took part in the drunken deliberations of the meeting. Carrow, we are told, spoke feelingly upon the necessity and beauty of education, and a vote of thanks for his able address was extended to him by "proclamation."

"Hon." James H. Harris, Col. followed "proclamation" and eloquent address upon the education of corruption in Cuba, &c., and was exceedingly warmly spoken of, "how about that?"

"$10,000 from the Freed Commission said something about in the report." We know of no other two men in the State who can better stimulate the theory and practice of the subjects to which their remarks were devoted. A certain white republican, whose name we withhold at the request of our informant, wanted to know why Horace Greeley was any more of a liberal republican than he was, for he (the speaker) had spent lots of money in this community, and he had never heard that Greeley had ever invested a single cent here.

Dr. Wax, the eminent German oculist and optician who is at the Tarboro Hotel, is successful here as at other places. He has supplied leading physicians with his Brazilian glasses with which they express themselves highly pleased. Other prominent gentlemen have also been supplied.

MARRIED.

In Richmond, Va., on the 10th of May, by Rev. Dr. Hodge of the Presbyterian Church, Mr. HENRY N. JENNER, of Washington D. C. (formerly of Louisa,) to Miss ELIZABETH M. MONTGOMERY, of Dinwiddie county, Virginia.

Died.

In the vicinity of Fayetteville, on the 11th inst., JAMES G. COOK, aged 64 years.

NORTH CAROLINA.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT 15th JUNE, 1872.

Lindley Spring, Plaintiff,

vs.

Patrick Murray, Defendant.

This is an action by the plaintiff to recover the sum of Four thousand dollars with interest from the 16th day of August, 1871, due him by the defendant as is endorsed by an assignment of the defendant to one W. H. Winder of a certain decree on record in the Court of New Jersey, and by said Winder assigned to the plaintiff.

The defendant, the said Patrick Murray, is hereby summoned to be and appear before the Court of our Superior Court, at the Court to be held for the county of Wake, on the 16th day of August, 187
