

THE SENTINEL.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Wimbleton have been shipped North from Wilmington.

Rev. Jno. S. Long's lecture in Wilmington on Love and Ambition, was a great success.

A fearful dog-war is raging, or as some would write it, "is being raged" in Wilmington.

Hon. John Baxter, now of Tenn., will address the people of Rutherford at the Court House on 25th.

The Wilmingtonians are about to have a play at the Opera House called "The Swamp Angels; or the Lowry Bandits of N. C."

The Wilmington Post says Dr. W. J. Potter has been appointed Quarantine Physician in Smithville, in place of Dr. W. G. Curtis, removed.

NOMINATIONS.—James M. Gudger and W. H. Fletcher, the Democratic candidates for Senate in the District composed of Caldwell, Burke, McDowell, Mitchell and Yancey.

HARD on BULLY.—The Rutherford Post says that John Overton, negro, has joined the Rogue party because Billy McRae joined it.

DANIEL BOONE'S SISTER.—It may not generally be known that a sister (Hannah) of the great Daniel Boone, the pioneer of Kentucky, is living in Caldwell County, N. C. She has remarkably good health, is now eighty five years old and bids fair to reach a hundred.—Charlotte Democrat.

The Charlotte Observer says: "We understand that there has been a colored military company organized and armed here for ten months. We don't know whether this is true or not, but if so, why has it been done so secretly? Can any one answer the question?"

In the death of Mr. Richard L. Harris, which occurred on Tuesday last, from typhoid fever, Rutherford county has lost one of her best citizens, and the community in which he lived a kind-hearted gentleman and good neighbor. He was fifty years of age.—Rutherford Post.

RADICAL NOMINATIONS.—The nominations for Congress are:

1st District—C. L. Cobb.

2d District—Charles R. Thomas.

3d District—Neil McKay.

4th District—W. A. Smith.

5th District—Thomas Settle.

6th District—O. H. Dockery.

7th District—D. M. Purcell.

8th District—W. G. Candler.

A LOYAL PUBLISHER.—Mr. T. T. Best, of Forsyth, publishes a card in the Winston Sentinel, which is rather hefty on Judge Cloud. He says that he had his Honor summoned to appear before a magistrate's court. His Honor replied: "Tell the Plaintiff to go to hell, and say to the court that I will not come." The North Carolina negroes have given us some queer specimens of judges.—South Home.

MILITARY COMPANY.—A Company has just been organized in Charlotte with the following officers:

Captain, Maj. J. G. Harris; 1st Lieut., W. H. Coddron; 2d Lieut., D. M. Riggs; 3d Lieut., W. B. Taylor; Surgeon, Dr. C. H. Brown; 1st Sergeant, C. C. Morton; 2d Sergeant, S. S. Peagam; 3d Sergeant, H. H. Edmund; 4th Sergeant, L. S. Holt.

This is, we believe, the first white company organized in the State, since the war upon the South. It is to be armed. Southern Home.

CAPT. TREYZANT.—The Columbia Phoenix of Sunday corrects its Saturday's report of this gentleman, by saying that "a cowardly warded dispatch from Charleston by a friend to the family of Capt. Treyzant, led us into some error yesterday, in relation to the release of Capt. Treyzant on habeas corpus before Judge Bryan. The first hearing has not yet been had. The true state of the case as derived from the counsel for the defense, who arrived here yesterday, is that Judge Bryan, having determined to hear Capt. Treyzant's case on its merit, has instructed Commissioner Bazzar to take the lawyer, both for the prosecution and defense in Chester, and report it to him; and in the meantime has discharged Capt. Treyzant on recognizance, with sureties, to appear and abide his decision.—Char. Observer.

VIRGINIA.

The next annual meeting of the Educational Association of Virginia, will be held in Staunton on the second Tuesday in July.

The crop on lower James River is said to be the best since the war, while in the Valley of the Rappahannock, from the long continued drought, the crop will be short. In the southwestern portion of the State it will be generally a fine crop.

THE EXCERPT.—There are two gentlemen in Lynchburg, Va., who are not members in the recent assembly act of Congress. Hon. T. A. Bowles, who was a member of the 30th and 31st Congress, and Dr. M. P. Christian, who was a surgeon in the United States navy, and resigned his commission to enter the service of the Confederate States navy.—Lynchburg Virginian.

CANNED PEACHES.—Mr. John C. Moormaw, of Cloverdale, was making extensive preparations to can a large quantity of peaches the coming season. He represents the peach crop in his neighborhood as very good, and expects to put up 50,000 cans. His brand of peaches has obtained a most flattering reputation; and it is said that dealers manifest a decided preference for it.—Richmond Herald.

THE BIG SLIDE.—There was a very se-rious slide on the Lynchburg and Danville railroad, yesterday evening, at the section near Fishing creek, one mile below the city. A large number of hands have been for some months engaged in cutting through a very rough bluff, in which heavy sliding was frequent, and the work completed the job, as they thought, and proceeded further on.

But yesterday, a wholesale slide came unexpected upon them, and in a few moments not less than forty thousand square yards of stone and dirt tumbled in upon the track, which had been already graded, filling up the space in such a way as to require the whole job to be done over again.

Fortunately there were no hands in the cut at the time, several of them having passed through a short time previous to the slide. The strongest thing about the affair is, that the solid stone wall through which the track had been made, were considered as safe as though they had been cemented together.—Lynchburg Republican, 15th.

Gen. Juhls, A. has written a letter declining the use of his name for Congress in the Lynchburg district. He says:

"If ever there was a time when there was truth in the words of the poet who has said, 'the post of honor is a private station,' that time is now, and is the more so because of the trials attending the station in our impoverished land, while office, especially under the United States Government, is a public emoluments. The greatest hope of our country at this time is the wild hunt after office, and I shall, certainly, not add to that evil by my personal example."
