Another of Caldwell's Pardons. Governor Caldwell has pardoned out of the penitentiary the notorious and infamous John Everett, of Halifax. Everett Seventh District F. B. McDowell, of for years before his incarceration bore a vile character in his section, and when entenced-to the penitentiary all good citizens rejoiced. He it was that incited the late revolt in the penitentiary which resulted in the death of one of the negro convicts and dangerously wounding another. Everett, it is said, exerts quite a large influence with the worst portion of the negroes of Halifax, and hence it is that our model Governor, Tod R. Caldwell pardons him to put him at work before the election.

SEVERE ACCIDENY .- Jus. Bryan, Esq. an old citizen of our city, was fearfully mangled at Mr. Sam'l. Rowland's factory on Thursday morning. While attending the plaining machine his left hand was aught in the machinery and torn to breds. He exhibited a great deal of nerve in the trying ordeal to which h subjected, for while the arm and hand were only connected by a few ligature auscles, he saked a by-stander to cut them with a razor, which being done, he re quested Mr. Rowland to go to Raleigt and get a doctor to his house by the time of his arrival. He then rode into town, a distance of four miles. His arm was am outsted by Dr. E. Burke Haywood, assist ed by Dr. F. J. Haywood, Jr., and he is a this writing doing well. Mr. Beyan is 70 ears of age, and this exhibition of forti-ade on his part is remarkable.

TYPOGRAPHICAL EXCURSION.-The excursion of the Typographical Union of this city to Kittrell's Springs, on Thursday, managed we ever participated in.

After a pleasant ride of a couple of hours the excursionists reached Kittrell Depot and disembarked while being saluted with strains of music by the Favetteville brass band, which the proprietors of ple vehicular transportation had been provided and seen the party were whirlednow possesses all the qualities requisite to make it attractive to the visitor. Of the virtue of its waters it is unuccess for us now to speak as it has long du cetablished a reputation.

Though very early in the season, 75 or 80 visitors are at present domiciled at Kittrells. Among them we notice Gen. Rob't, Ransom and family, R. H. Smith, Esq., and family, Gen. R. F. Hoke and family and R. C. Holly and family.

The crowd soon assembled in the spacious and elegant ball room of the hotel, when Dr. G. W. Blacknall, of the Yarbrough House of this city, introduced Col. J. P. H. Russ, of this city, who, in behalf of the Mossra. Blacknall, welcomed the excursionists in a hearty and handsome speech. He was responded, to at the request of the Union, by W. H. Finch, most felicitously. Mr. Finch's remarks were happily conceived and gracefully

At the conclusion of Mr. Finch's remarks, Gen. Robt, Ransom was loudly for and responded briefly, but to the point.

Cant. E. C. Woodson, the clover city editor of the Daily Nesse, was next called for and being a very diffident (t) man it required some persuasion to bring him forward. But he at last came and astonsee that he could talk even better than he writes. The Captain's remarks were received with frequent bursts of applause, and his quaint humor often convulsed his suditory with laughter. Though a married man the Captain once or twice during his remarks grew sentimental when aking about the fair ones before him, and giving license to a fertile imagination soared upon the wings of lancy into the jute the realms of persy. Mr. N. B. Broughton, one of the Com mittee of Arrangements, read a letter from Ex-Gov. Holden, regretting his inability to attend. Mr. W. V. B. Gilbert then explained the absence of several gentlemen who had been invited to attend, Capt. Sam. T. Williams, the accomplished political editor of the Daily News, who was ed as being unavoidably ed from being present by pressing business engagements. At 3 o'clock the party were summ to the dining room, where they found the tables spread with all the delicaies of the season, and everything being served up in a handsome style. We were informed by several boarders that the fare on this sion was such as they received every day. We immediately came to the conclusion that they were a set of splendidly fed folks, and that the proprietors kept one, of the best tables in these United

In the ball room W. H. Uzzell Eq., the News, as Floor Managor, was most exflicient, and his gentlemanly and courteous bearing won him many friends. The Committee of Arrangements consisting of srs. W. W. White, J. J. Lewis, N. B. Broughton, W. N. Jones and Z. T. Broughton, were fully up and equal to their duties, and to them are due the thanks of the excursionists for the or derly and systematic manner in which everything was carried out. The authorities of the Raleigh & Gas ton Road well sustained their reputation of being accommodating to and careful of the comfort and well-being of their patrons, and to them are due the warn thanks of the excursion party.

> D. W. County, Esq.—This excelled gentleman, a prominent citizen of the county of Rockingham, and for years Treasurer of the State of North Carolina, has been at the Yarboro' House for more than a week. He is the same unyielding patriot he was in those pure and hones times when gentlemen filled the public offices. No man ever bore himself better in office, no man sustained a higher character for integrity and honesty, and so man commanded more of the respect of both the great political parties than Daniel W. Courts. May he live long and be blessed abundantly in store home and in basket.
