The Baltimore Convention.

BALTIMORE, June 9 .-- Last evening wa devoted to meetings of delegations, for organizations and speech making at sev-eral places in the city. All the principal hotels are densely packed, and private houses are open to personal friends. The situation at midnight is unchanged. There is evidently a large major ty in favor of the nomination, though i is still the paramount theme. Samuel Ball, of Louisiana, with his friends, bolted the bolters primary moeting yesterday. Nevada, New Jersey and Oregon

Nevada, New Jersey and Oregon were not represented in the meeting of the National Committee, yesterday. The Pennsylvania delegation compro-mised by the following resolution: Resolved, That the Chairman be in-structed to cast the vote of this delegation for candidates for President and Vice President, as each delegate shall direct and that he be authorized when two thirds of the Convention shall have vote for a candidate in the name of the united delegation, to move to make such nomina-

Mr. Belmont, after some personal re-marks, nominated Thomas J.dicson Ran-dolph, of Virginia, saying that it is an auspictous omen that a scion of the author of the Declaration of Independence is to insugurate the struggle of the Domocracy for freedom and equality pression and tyranny in our fair land, Mr. Randolph was elected by acclama-on. He said : I am aware that the very great honor conferred upon me by this body is due to no personal merit of my own, but is a token of respect to the State from which I come, and is a recognition of other circumstances possibly adventitious. I am perhaps the oldest member of this body, and a the oldest member of this body, and a life of eighty years with the Domocrati-ic Republican party constitutes me a senior member. I remember freshly overy Presidential contest, from the fra-clerion of Jefferson, to the present time, and I can say with truth, that I remember none which involved higher questions of account liberty based constructed personal liberty, local self-government, demands of our party and our people, a calmer or more carnest recourse to funda-mental principles. It strikes me as a duty of this body and of this hour to wreat the Generatoria the main the bands of wrest the Government from the hands of its present despotie and corrupt holders, and to place it in honest hands, to restore the citizen everywhere to the proud con-sciousness of personal right, and to all the States, perfect integrity of local self gov-ernment. This, with the recognition of the supremacy of the civil Constitution and the law, will, in my judgment discharge all our present duty.
