On the north side of the Market House in the middle of the street, the putrid carcass of a dead cat has lain for several days, and on Saturday the smell was simply terrific. Without being at all epicurean in our ideas and preferences in regard to strong smells, we venture to say that the smell of fish being in somewhat more appetizing than that of a dead cat. What say the city authorities? Discuss the question, gentlemen, for after all it may be more a matter of taste than smell.

BOUNDED OVER.

Saturday, U. S. Commissioner, B. W. Best, rendered his decision in the case of U. S. vs. Sheldrick Jones charged with an attempt to intimidate S. B. Croxon in the exercise of his franchise as a citizen. He required a bond of Jones to the amount of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. Circuit Court in this city. This decision is heartily approved of by all fair minded and law abiding men.

When a man has tried everything, and found it will not answer, let him go where there is an acre and try that.

"Do you keep matches?" asked a wag of a country grocer. "O, yes, all kinds," was the reply. "Well, I'll take a trading-match," said the wag.

A young lawyer, who has just been admitted to the bar, sadly and discontentedly observes that the law is better in theory than in practice.

Paragaphers have re-animated the old joke that if you whole a boy you'll find him full of bubbles. The remark holds true only when you make the boy swim.

If small girls are waits are large waiters? "Certainly," says a sweet sixteen; "at least the boys have the habit of applying their lips in sealing their wags."

There is a young lady in Millard who has been taking music lessons on the piano for some eight years. The other day she sent an order to a music store in New Haven, and fearing her spelling might not be just right, added this postscript, "You must enclose this letter, as I ple be most but spel be ere."

CORONADO W. HARRIS, Esq., the editor of the Bathurst Advance, has removed to Wilmington to edit the Star. He has for some time been contributing to its columns, and is a young man of much promise. We wish him great success.

THE WASHINGTON GAZETTE.—We are glad to see that this paper has been revived under the editorial management of H. A. Foote, Esq., a young lawyer of clever parts. Mr. J. F. Hawkins is the publisher. Price $3 a year. The first number under the present management evidences industry and tact, two great essentials in newspaper success. All hands have our best wishes.

CROSS.—We learn that some of the radicals say that Cross who was assaulted on Tuesday night because he was a Greeleyite, is of no consequence—a shabby sort of fellow. "He was sent out by the Freedman's Bureau to teach school, and was appointed by Gov. Holden to go to Granville and establish Local League. He was appointed a magistrate by the Radical party and discharged his duties as such. He resigned his office and came to Raleigh to resume his duties as a barber. But if he had been the least nobody, he has rights under the law, and is privileged as a freeman to vote for Greeley or say one else if he pleases to do so. The assault upon him was an outrage."

SUPREMACY COURT.—On Saturday the court met at the usual hour. All of the Judges present. The following cases were argued:

Edmund Jones vs. N. C. R. Co., Mecklenburg, C. Dowd for the plaintiff, and R. Barringer and J. H. Wilson for the defendants.
S. B. Alexander vs. A. T. & O. R. R. Co., Mecklenburg, Jones & Johnston for the plaintiff, and R. Barringer and J. H. Wilson for the defendant.
State vs. Ann Eliza Davidson, Mecklenburg, Attorney General, Battle & Sons and Orville Dupre for the State, and J. N. Clement and C. Dowd for defendant.
Wm. McCombs vs. W. F. Griffith, et al., Mecklenburg, H. W. Gilson and J. H. Wilson for the plaintiff, and J. N. Clement and C. Dowd for the defendants.
The court adjourned at 12 m. to meet at the usual hour.

OXFORD.—Our correspondent of the date of July 18th, writes as follows:
Miss Jeannie Patterson's readings on last Monday and Tuesday nights were a complete success, and showed that she was in every respect worthy of the encomiums bestowed upon her by the press and the many audiences whom she has honored with an entertainment. She is a beautiful and accomplished lady, while her fascinating manner, and modesty are recognized as those that distinguish our southern belles. She has been elsewhere as she left many other places, with the best wishes of its citizens for her success.
Capt. Wm. Biggs, the editor of the Tarboro Observer, is in town on a visit.
Maj. Jas. T. Littlejohn has taken the place of Willis Jenkins who did not accept of the nomination, and is doing sterling service. Maj. L. is active and unselfish in working for the success of his party, and the people of Granville will not allow such devotion to the cause of truth and liberty to go unrewarded.
The negro Hughes, who was nominated by the Hads for the House, is making very insinuating speeches. He is a barber and so native of Granville, but an imported carpet-bagger from Wake, which he left because he could not get an office as it is said.
Merritt and Bell are now the principal candidates for office of Sheriff. They are very bitter and tell many things on each other which should drive both from the stump.
A negro was arrested and jailed for stealing a pair of shoes from Jas. T. Hunt's store, or as Cuffee Mayo said about the pistol, he did not steal but only took them to look at.
The tobacco sale comes off to-day and will attract a crowd of buyers and sellers, no doubt, as there is already a good deal of tobacco in the warehouses.
Many of our citizens attended the Greeley mass meeting in your city and came back very enthusiastic and determined to work. Dr. W. R. Hicks, who was elected a Vice President, left Granville for the first time in many years and has just gotten back to-night. The High School of Messrs. Horner and Graves commences on next Monday. There are a good many boys here already and the prospects of having a fine school are very flattering. They are both gentlemen of experience and great reputation both as scholars and teachers in this and other States.

REGISTER.—See that your names are on the registration books if you have previously registered. If you have not registered, go and do so at once. As we understand municipal registration will not answer.

A MONSTER BIRD.—We were shown by day a bird that was raised in the garden of Mrs. G. W. Beams of Granville, that measures 19 inches around. Who can beat this bird!

The Warren county democratic executive committee is a good one. It is composed as follows: Messrs. W. A. Montgomery, H. A. Foote, E. H. Plummer, J. Y. Christian, B. M. Collins, John Wiggins, J. Boyd, Jos. Drake, Furney Southall, John Watson and Ben. William Estlin.

Col. A. K. McClure.—This eloquent and distinguished Pennsylvanian will address the people at the following times and places:
Snow Camp, Alamance county, July 23d.

Ashboro, Randolph county, July 25th.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—Gen. A. M. Scales, Dr. Keen and Col. Maten will address the people of this and Stokes county at the following times and places:

200 SUBSCRIBERS.—We do not "crow" over our success either, but we must "crow" to-day at least. Our mail brought us two hundred subscribers to the DAILY SENTINEL. Who of our friends will follow suit with a club? Send on your names at once. See our campaign rates. We are trying to render the State some service, and we rejoice that our labors are appreciated in many quarters. Words of encouragement and praise come to us from a hundred sources.

TEACHERS' CERTIFICATES.—During the past week the County Examiner, Wesley Whitaker, Esq., issued teacher's certificates to the following parties:
F. H. Wilkins, col., second class, second grade; Edward Varner, white, second class, second grade; J. P. Burgess, col., second class, first grade. Thirty-five certificates have been issued since the 29th of March last. Of this number the following persons received first class certificates: Mary Cook, white; R. W. Taylor, white; Kate W. Edwards, white; S. E. Waitte, white; J. P. Allison, white; W. L. Crockett, white; Norman McJohnston, white.

THE WARREN CANDIDATES.—Our informant led us into error as to one of the candidates for this county, so we give the ticket as it is. For the Senate—Walter A. Montgomery, Esq. For the House, Col. Wm. Davis and Capt. B. M. Collins. They are our personal friends and we can truthfully say that three cleverer gentlemen do not live. They were very gallant soldiers in the days of conflict and death. Col. Davis lost an arm, Capt. Collins was wounded several times, and Montgomery was brave on a dozen battle fields where the reaper death was at work. They are in the best sense, men of character and intelligence. Warren might well be proud of such a delegation.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We are glad to learn from the General Supervising Agent, J. D. Brooks, Esq., that this Company is prospering finely, and has done since 1st April one-third as much work as it had done in the twenty-two months of its previous existence. Its officers are gentlemen of the highest standing, and Mr. Brooks himself is a capital agent—urbane, indefatigable and intelligent. This is the only Home Life Company in the State and should be patronized liberally. The money that goes into this Company is kept at home where it can be watched. Its Board of Directors are gentlemen of influence and business reputation in the Cape Fear region.

MEETING OF THE GREELEY AND BROWN CLUB.—Friday evening, under call of the President, the Greeley and Brown Club, of this city, held a meeting in the Court House. The President, C. M. Baboo, Esq., presided. Some 27 or 30 names were added to the list of members.

On motion of Douglas Bell, a Committee of five was appointed to take into consideration the erection of a Greeley and Brown flag pole and the purchase of colors. The Chair appointed Messrs. Bell, J. F. Harris, W. H. Jones, Weir and Croxon, and Sam. H. Hill.

The Executive Committee not being ready with their report upon a constitution and by-laws for the government of the Club, further time was allowed.

On motion of H. H. Bradley, it was agreed that young men under 21 years of age should be allowed to join the club.

On motion of Douglas Bell, it was decided that the club should hold a meeting on Wednesday evening next and that the President be authorized to announce the place of meeting and to invite speakers to address the club.

S. G. Croxon, col., moved that the club shall receive members into its ranks irrespective of color, &c. The motion was put to a vote and carried unanimously.

On motion, the club then adjourned to meet again Wednesday evening next.
