If you don't want the small pox, take your paper direct." The explanation of this curiom and interesting medical fact is simple; the prevalence of epidemics depends on atmospheric influences, and the borrowing of papers produces such a very "mean" temperature that nature revolts.

GRANT INTIMIDATORS BROUGHT TO GRIEF, &c , &c./

Yesterday (Monday) morning Gabrie Hogg alias Craven, Primus Haywood and Solomon Austin, all golored men, were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner, R. W. Best, charged with attempting to intimidate one S. G. Cross, in the exercise of his rights as a freeman and citizen.

The case of Gabriel Hogg alies Craven, charged with an attempte I intimidation of S. Cross, on Thursday morning, July 18th, in violation of section 5th of the act of Cougress of May Stat, 1871, known as the "Enforcement Act," was first taken

G. L. H rton bein faworn, testified that on Thursday mening he was at J. L. Overby's store, on Wilmington Street, when Cross came in when he (Horton) exclaim of, " The lost is found and the dead has come to life? Cons then remarked "I wish every man to vote as he pleases." Gabalcame in and said that any negro who goes back on his color ought to have his throat cut and if he (Cross) would come out of the house he would give him what he needed, a damn snaggle tooth son of a b-, and a damu Greeley sigger. Cross started to go out when Mr. Dancy, advised him not to go as be might get into a row. He (Witness) said the that the sidewalks are as free to you (Cross) as any one clse.

The cross examination elicited nothing to contradict the above.

Mr. Strong said that the prosecuti had several witnesses by whom they could prove the same thing but they did not wish to take up the time of the court. John Freeman, col., witness for the deence, was next examined. On the morning in question he came from the market house and was going to Lane's store, which is next to Mr. Overby's, when he heard loud talking and he came to the dose of Mr. Overby's store. He board somebody say something he didn't know said "ch, I know you; you are Wood-who or what. Gabe then said that there son. I know how you have been cutting were no democrat niggers and no white man would believe there was. A white days." Captain Woodson told the man man spoke up and said Cross had a right to go away he didn't wish to have any to his opinion. Gabe said he did not care difficulty. The man then exclaimed "I for his opinion and that if Cross didn't am a freeman and by God, responsible like what he said he could whip him if for what I say," Captain Woodson then he came out. Some one said "go out; it arose from his seat and upon which three is intimidation." Gabe then came out colored men, sitting near by, rose from and went up the street and Cross came their scale and approach out shortly afterwards. Cross examined.-Did not hear Cross may that be was a freeman and would vote being unarmed and knowing that he as he pleased and wanted everybody class could not successfully cope with four able as he pleased and wanted everybuily clan to do likewise; did not hear Gabe call him | bodied mea retired for the purpose of arm a damn snaggle tooth son of a b-, and that any negro who went back on his color if he would come out he could whip him. have not the alighest doubt but this

Heard Gabe call him a God dama snaggle tooth, thieving Greeley son of a b-, who ought to have his throat cut, and if he came out he would give him what he deserved. Cross then started for the door, when he (witness) told him not to go as he might get into a row. Did not say (as the witness Freeman swore) that he (witness) would not see him imposed upon. Mr. Horton, who was present, said, "Let him go; the streets are as free to him as anybody else, "

> The defence declined to examine the Mr. Strong said that the prosecution did not consider it necessary to make any re marks. Mr. Argo, for the defence, said that he would, call the attention of the court to the fact that under the act in question no case could be made out of this. It was nere personal quarrel growing out dipolitice and nothing more.

Mr. Strong, for the prosecution, replie that there was no quarrel in the matter Cross was standing in the store of Mr Overby, giving an account of the amount made on him Tuesday night, and in that connection exclaimed, "I am a free man and I will vote as I please and with everybody else to do the same," when this may Hogg steps up and says "you d-a snaggle tooth son of a b-h; any negro who poes back on his color, L e., vote for Breeley, ought to have his throat cut." Taking this whole affair, link by link, from the assault upon Cross on the even ing of the 16th instant up to the scene or acted in the store of Mr. Overby, and nothing else but a clear case of intimida tion could be made out of it. Mr. Stron showed, beyond the possibility of a doubt mosity by these men simply because he cted in a representative capacity in a Greeley and Brown Mass Meeting,) and an effort was made to intimidate not poly im but others who might think with

The defence agreed to rust the case with the understanding that the evidence of Cross and Crabtree in the case of Ned. Jones should be embodied in the testimo ny of this case.

over to the next term of the Circuit Court in a bond of $5,000. By consent of counsel the bond was reduced to $1,000./

By agreement of counsel the warrant against Sciences Austin, charged with a riolation of the 5th section of the Enment Act, in regard to Cross, on the morning of the 16th inst., on Hillsboro street, was discharged.

All of these cases, that of Simon Cravon's included, shows most conclusively that the body of negroes here are determined to intimidate, not even stopping at marder, all of those colored men who dare have and express an opinion contrary to that of the majority of political matters. And the matter does not stop here. They are daily growing more impudent to white people and seek every occasion to insult hem in the most unprovoked and grossest namer. If their leaders do not cease to encourage and arge them on in this conduct the true white men and those colored men who are prosecuted for opinion's sake must take steps to protect themselves and amilies from ontrage and Insult,

Anorhen Guoss Outhage .- On Saturday evening Capt. E. C. Woodson, City Editor of the New was sitting on the steps of the Courthouse engaged in a quiet and friendly conversation with Mayor Whitaker, when a colored man named Barham approached and after caluting Mayor Whitaker turned to him and, without the slightest provocation, addressed to him some very impertment remarks. Mr. Woodson at first made no response supposing that the man had mistaken rim for some one cise. The negro repeated his offensive remarks and said "oh, I know you; you are Woodop about here the last two or three exclaiming, "hurrah for Barbam, we
