HOME AFFAIRS.
Local News.
Pay attention to the new advertisements.

The Board of County Commissioners meet on the 2nd of next month.

Churchill is a good hotelier. He is running the National according to Hoyle.

The Board of City Commissioners meet to-day week.

The Supreme Court will probably adjourn the middle of next week.

A. D. Royster has returned from his Northern trip. We trust he is much improved in health.

Yesterday ground was broken at the old Pepper corner for the erection of the four three story stores.

The beautiful iron front of Fisher's elegant building is being handsomely painted.

Horrible stenches in some portions of this city are still invading the nostrils of the residents of the localities.

We learn that a couple of wagon loads of the New York Times came to the post office in this city under the frank of John Pool a day or two since.

S. F. Phillips, of this city, who was billed to speak in Wilmington on Saturday evening failed to put in an appearance at the time appointed.

The August election is a State and county election and will be conducted by the old registration books of 1870 and 1871. Parties should remember this, for although they may have registered and voted in the last city election, their names may not be found on the county registration books, and their votes thereby lost.

Delano, Secretary of the Interior speaks in this city to-day (Wednesday). We suppose he will be afraid to allow a reply from our side as was Henry Wilson at Beaufort and Goldsboro' when Judge Fowle applied to him to do so. He will have a few hundred negroes to hear him.

A respectable colored man in this city was asked to join the Greely and Brown club when he replied, "I am with the club with all my heart, but I am really afraid of personal violence at the hands of these republican colored men if I should give public expression to my opinion." A free country this is.

The culvert on the street leading from Jones street to the main entrance of Oakwood Cemetery has been left in an unfinished state for some months, much to the annoyance of those who have occasion to pass that way. Everything about it has been completed for months but the covering. This is a favorite drive and parties, ignorant of the state of affairs, are compelled to turn back and go a half of a mile out of the way in order to get to the Cemetery. Harry up and fix it, or we shall give publicity to the rumor as to why this work is left in an incomplete state.

A FAVORITE DAY—30th of JULY.
Why are our friends in so many counties having mass meetings and barbecues on the same day, the 30th of July, and all talking for Carl Schurz, Deloitte, Tipton, McLane and other distinguished orators from other States, all to speak at the same day and at different places. Verily the people are aroused. Look out for the 30th of August.

POOL AT WORK.
We hear that this scoundrel of an operator is well at work, scattering his baited and larded documents. On Monday, when we are informed, he received express matter upon which he had to pay $54. He has eight clerks at work. Go it little fellow your time is short and your loss is almost run out. You will walk the plank and there is great comfort in that anticipation. "Hurry up the cakes."

HOURGLASS.
We are not done taking in.

The good news continues to come from many sections.

We again urge upon you the duty of registering at once.

We print tickets with neatness and dispatch. All kinds of Job Work executed at the Sentinel's office.

Let the Township committees see to it that every voter is talked with and urged to register before the day of election.

Be sure to read the pleasant letter from our lady correspondent at Kittrell. We will be pleased to have another letter from her beautiful pen.

Let every Township appoint a body of Highball men to carry to the polls all who desire to vote for the democratic ticket. Get your bugles, carriages and wagons ready, and early on election day begin your work in earnest.

MAYOR'S COURT, July 23, 1872.
Della Griffice was before the Mayor for violating section 1, chapter 4, city ordinance—disorderly house. Dollars contributed five dollars to the city treasury, received a severe reprimand and left the court room under promise to change her place of residence.

When the negroes engage in these violations of the law they have the assurance that they can do so with impunity. They know where to apply for bail. They know their cases will come before a court thoroughly biased against the men upon whom these outrages are perpetrated, and that one of the most bitter and malignant political partisans in the country selects the jury before whom they will be tried—We allude to S. T. Carrow, U. S. Marshal.

In making the above statement we have not exaggerated. The picture is true to life, and we know all fair minded and dispassionate men in this community will corroborate every assertion we have made in regard to this matter.

How can we expect peace and good order to prevail in our midst when sworn conservators of the law almost daily strike crushing blows at the very principles which uphold and regulate society? Can the latter be expected to yield obedience to laws when the intelligent and those whose duty it is to enforce them encourage by act and word their infraction? Almost nightly we hear government officials appealing to the worse passions that have an abiding place in the human bosom, and see their excitable audiences worked up even to frenzy. In court do we see some men hang lovingly around prisoners at the bar bidding them to be of good cheer that so harm shall come them guilty or not guilty.

Such is the chalice held to our lips, and when we make a wry face at the bitter dose we are stigmatized as traitors whose hearts are filled with the blackest treachery towards a benign government, controlled by a "let us have peace" party. Will not the true men of this city and county rally in a solid mass to make one more effort to throw off this burden of despotism? Will they continue to cover beneath the upheld whip of the taskmaster? If you have not lost every attribute of manhood think of these things and then act like men, who are determined not to sink to the condition of serfs without a desperate struggle to avoid the threshold. If you would have law and order restored and honest and liberty-loving officials to carry on the government, register and vote for Merrimon, and by electing him, give a powerful impetus to the Greely movement. Let these things be done and the dark cloud of tyranny which has overshadowed this fair land of ours for the past five years will be rolled back and the sunshine of liberty and prosperity will once more gladden our hearts.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION.
Wilson, Republican, Grant candidate for Vice President, has gone home from N. C. with a flog in his ear, and gives up the State. So we are informed by a good and true colored man who means to vote for Greely, as his life-long friend. Wilson has done no harm to Greely men in North Carolina.

GRANT'S ADMINISTRATION ENCOURAGES KICKING, &c., &c.
As an evidence that the present administration encourages intimidation of voters, mob law and kluksklan we cite the well known fact in this community, that the moment any republican is arrested and held to court officers of the U. S. government, stationed in this city, immediately become his bondsmen. In many instances they wait not to be asked but volunteer. This is so no matter what the character of the accused, the heinousness of the crime and the clearness of the evidence. Who became the bondsmen of Mac Jones, the colored man bound over on Saturday last by U. S. Commissioner Best for assaulting one of his color simply because he acted as a Marshal at the recent Greely and Brown Mass Meeting? They were E. J. Young, Collector of Revenue; Willis D. Jones, Assessor; R. T. Boster, U. S. deputy Marshal and A. W. Shaffer, U. S. COMMISSIONER. This man Jones was bound to court after a fair hearing before an officer of the government and upon the production of the clearest testimony. This is not the only case. All of the negroes proven to have participated in the recent attack upon G. Cross, col., have all or most of these government officers upon their bonds.

When the negroes engage in these violations of the law they have the assurance that they can do so with impunity. They know where to apply for bail. They know their cases will come before a court thoroughly biased against the men upon whom these outrages are perpetrated, and that one of the most bitter and malignant political partisans in the country selects the jury before whom they will be tried—We allude to S. PERSONAL.
We had the pleasure of a visit on Monday from Mr. Cutburt, correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, and on yesterday Mr. Coffin of the World honored us with a visit.

JUDGE FOWLE.
This eminent and able North Carolinian was not allowed to speak with the Massachusetts rafter, Mr. Wilson, but we learn that he drew off nearly all of Wilson's crowd when he "cracked" at Beaufort.

THE CONSERVATIVE DISTRICT.
We are requested to announce as follows:
That branch of the State Executive Committee for the Conservative party of North Carolina appointed for the 5th Congressional District will meet in Greensboro' on the 27th inst., for the purpose of appointing a Presidential Elector for that District. The committee consists of Hon. D. W. Courts, J. I. Seale; Col. E. B. Withers, and W. M. Robbins.

GEN. CHANDLER.
We had the pleasure of a brief conversation with this gentleman on yesterday. He brings "glad tidings of great joy." He and Senator Doolittle spoke at Fayetteville on Saturday last to the largest crowd that has been seen there in years. Each occupied two hours. Gen. Bradley T. Johnson followed them. At night Gen. Clingman and Johnson, and Hon. T. C. Fuller addressed a newly formed Greely and Brown club, Gen. Clingman also addressed large crowds at Lumberton, Lockville and Jonesboro'. He is a good reporter from Chatham and Moore. Rogers will beat Smith handsomely in Chatham. General Clingman says the East is wide awake and will certainly do as well as it did in 1870, that he is not familiar with the state of things between here and Salisbury, but that at that place, we will surely gain from 3,000 to 4,000 votes. Hurrah!

THE WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY is growing very rapidly in public favor. It is a North Carolina company, managed entirely by North Carolina men, and the money invested in it is kept at home, where the insured can watch the man who manages it. Its work is increasing daily. The President, Col. Robt. Cowan, of Wilmington, its Secretary, Maj. General, and its General Superintending Agent, Mr. Brooks, are gentlemen of the highest character. It is an extraordinary management that such an extraordinary impetus has been given it.

A COMPENDIUM OF THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.
By Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, E. J. Hale & Son, Publishers, 17, Murray Street, New York.

The above is the title of a new book to be issued this week, which is destined to create a sensation. Its author is a statesman, who, having been identified with the history of our country for nearly two generations, brings to his task an experience such as is possessed by few of the writers of the age, and who treats his subject in a manner at once fascinating and instructive. The book should be in every school room, and in every library in the United States. It is the history of the country, its unmaimed body, and its prevailing spirit, a Yankee to both student and statesman, a necessity to every one who wishes to know what has been done, and why it has been done, by those who made, and those who have administered the government of these States to every school room, that the young may learn the true principles of the government which was instituted by their forefathers, and grow up conscientious worthy of good representatives. So educate the young, and there will be a reasonable prospect of real reform in the administration of their government.

The volume—1200, 513 pages, with numerous illustrations—is beautifully printed, and tastefully and strongly bound. Price, $1.50. If not to be had at the local book stores, the publishers will send it by mail, post paid, on receipt of the price.

SAVANNAH, July 22.

FROM EUROPE.
GENEVA, July 22.—It is generally understood that Tribunal Arbitration first took place in Paris, the consideration of Privator Florida.

MADRID, July 24.—A large sum of money was found on one of the prisoners who was engaged in attempting to take the life of King Amadeus, this together with the admission of other prisoners is believed to be a conclusively established fact that men that had no political feeling, which would prompt them to assassination of his majesty but were merely hired instruments of political complicity. Previous to attempt assassination, the King had received an anonymous communication warning him that his life was in danger. When attacked by a royal party a sharp engagement occurred between the would be assassins and police and Kings' escort, his majesty himself was not a participant but was provoked by his attendants. It is generally believed the parties arrested are the same who assassinated Prim.

FROM WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, July 23.—A careful Washington special telegrapher this morning expects to return to Washington this week to hold a brief official session prior to his trip to Niagara Falls and down the St. Lawrence. After that he will not be again in the city for quite a month. There will not, however, be a full Cabinet meeting, as Secretary Delano will be in North Carolina making speeches and Secretary Robeson will remain for the present in New Hampshire.

Owing to the protracted absence of the executive officers few of us possess now a brief conversation with this gentleman on yesterday. He brings "glad tidings of great joy." He and Senator Doolittle spoke at Fayetteville on Saturday last to the largest crowd that has been seen there in years. Each occupied two hours. Gen. Bradley T. Johnson followed them. At night Gen.
