GRAND MASS MEETING IN CHARLOTTE.—On Monday, the 29th inst, the Hon. Carl Schurz, of Missouri, Hon. A. K. McLure, of Pennsylvania, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, Hon. W. A. Graham, of North Carolina, Hon. M. P. O'Connor and Gen. M. C. Butler, of South Carolina, will address the people of this portion of the State in Charlotte.

Fellow-citizens: You seldom have an opportunity of hearing such Statesmen and Orators; come!

Our election on the 1st of August, is the first gun in the contest, which, in November, is to decide whether you are to have a continuation of the corruption and misrule which now oppresses you, or you will assert your power and dethrone the oppressors.

"Freemen! awake! arouse! shake off the dew drops from your armour, and go forth to battle and to victory!"

A. BURWELL,
Pres't Greeley & Brown Club.
Charlotte, N. C., July 23, 1872.

APPOINTMENTS FOR CHATHAM.—Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, J. A. Womack, Esq., candidate for Secretary of State, H. A. London, Greeley and Brown elector, and other speakers will address mass meetings of the democrats and liberal republicans of Chatham at the following times and places, viz:

R. NOWELL, Esq., of Marks' Creek township, is by said committee appointed to fill the vacancy in the list of nominees for County Commissioners occasioned by the declination of Henry Mahler, Esq.

GEO. H. SNOW,
Chairman Executive Committee of Wake County.

HOME AFFAIRS.

HURRYGRAPHS.

See that your names are on the registration books. Be sure of this.

Be sure to register. Let nothing prevent the discharge of this duty. Go and Register now.

We hear encouraging reports from our Wake county canvass. It is thought by some that Gen. Cox will beat Jim Harris, the colored individual, who borrowed some thousands of the peoples' money.

We again urge the speedy formation of Minute Men in every township, whose duty it shall be to see that every man registers, and every friend of reform and retrenchment and peace votes. Get your vehicles ready.

We had the pleasure of a visit on yesterday from Wm. P. Wood, Esq., of Washington City, who will make some speeches in our State in behalf of good government and official reform.

Rain is needed in Wake county we learn.

Several editorials prepared for this issue have been crowded out necessarily, as we desired to give early publicity to the Correspondence and comments accompanying it, to be found in our editorial columns. Let everybody read it and learn something of the delightful Delano. That is the way to treat Grant's propagandists,

Those jaded wits
That run a broken pace for common hire.
BEN JONSON.

LOCAL DOTS.

Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, of Richmond, Va., was in the city on yesterday.

No cases at the Police Court yesterday.

Gen. Clingman left for the West Tuesday evening.

Col. J. W. Hinton, of Norfolk, Va., passed through this city Tuesday afternoon en route for Marion.

John G. Williams, Esq. and family, Mrs. Dr. Pritchard and Mrs. Chas. Allen, left the city yesterday for Beaufort.

The negro Fred Douglass, addresses his brethren of this city on the evening of the 30th inst., at Metropolitan Hall.

The well in the Western Ward opposite to the residence of Rev. J. B. Bobbitt has been completed for some time. Why is not the stump fixed in it?

A brown straw hat with the name of J. H. Mills in it is at the ticket office of the N. C. Railroad awaiting the pleasure of the owner.

Delano, like Wilson, was afraid to divide time with speakers of our side. He was backed squarely out by Col. Wm. B. Wood.

Go see if your name is on the registration books. The radicals are up to every dodge and will not hesitate to defraud you of your vote if they can do so.

TROOPS.—We hear from a trustworthy source that United States cavalrymen have been sent from this city in the direction of Chatham and Moore! What is a-foot now? Is the cry of Ku Klux about to begin again? What does it portend?

COL. WILLIAM E. CAMERON.—A distinguished campaign orator from Va., will speak to our people, at the following times and places, viz:

Hillsboro' July 29th.
Goldsboro' July 30th.
Company Shops, July 31st.
Raleigh, (evening) July 31st.

BE CAREFUL.—Now is the peculiar season of the year when unripe fruit and decayed vegetables find their way into the market in an abundance, more than sufficient to create an epidemic of small complaints. Too much care cannot be exercised by housekeepers in providing for their daily table.

OPEN TO INSPECTION.—Section 8 of the election law makes it the duty of the registrars and judges of election to attend at the polling places of their townships or precincts with the registration books on Saturday, 27th instant, from 9 a. m. till 5 p. m., when and where the said books shall be open to the inspection of the electors, any of whom shall be allowed to object to the name of any person appearing on the books.

PENALTY.—A heavy penalty attaches to any person who shall, with intent to commit a fraud, register at more than one box, or who shall induce another to to do. Let your name appear on the books of the precinct in which you reside on the day of election and on no other. If you have changed residence, have your name erased from the book of ward or precinct in which you registered at last election.

RT. REV. Bishop Gibbons, Catholic Bishop of this State arrived in this city Tuesday afternoon and left for the North yesterday morning. He passed the night at the National Hotel where he was visited by many of his friends and admirers. Bishop Gibbons is one of the most highly accomplished and beloved prelates in this country.

AN EXCELLENT PURPOSE.—It is now generally understood thoughout the State that every patriot and enemy to radicalism will vote at the election on Thursday next. It is understood that the white men will all rally to the country's protection, and see how large a majority can be given for the noble party of Reform, Retrenchment and Reconciliation. Let every man do his duty. From now until the going down of the sun on 1st August let our battle cry be—"FORWARD—TO THE COUNTRY'S RESCUE."

CORRECTION.—We were in error in stating that the coming election would be conducted according to the registration of 1870 and 1871, so far as the wards of this city are concerned. We learn that the County Commissioners borrowed the city registration books used at the last municipal election, from which list books were made for the county. These books were compared with the township book, (used before the passage of the present law,) in which the names of all electors in the township appeared, and names not appearing on the ward books were considered as outside the corporate limits, and entered in the book of that precinct. Still, it is possible in transcribing between two and three thousand names, omissions may have been made. Look for yourselves.

LOOK OUT.—Another trick of the radicals has come to light. Our friend Dr. Willis Lewis, of Granville, writes to John Spelman, Esq., that he has received a copy of John Pool's villainous circular, headed "Read and Circulate," which came inclosed in a copy of the Blasting Powder, Mr. Spelman's campaign paper. The question arises, when did the rascals perpetrate this great wrong? Was it done by the mail agent, or by whom? Who are thus tampering with the United States mails, in the interest of Grant and Caldwell? This thing must be looked into—this infamous procedure must be stopped. We have no doubt the SENTINEL and News packages are manipulated in the same way. Doubtless those scoundrels who are thus acting have a double purpose—to circulate their abominable lies and to place democratic editors in a false position which might lead to a criminal charge, if not a criminal prosecution.

ON THE TRIPOD.—It is now generally understood that the great Decapitated is once more an editor. He has excellent parts for that kind of work, and his adroit pen is very manifest in the columns of the Era, so we learn. With Grant to furnish from the United States Treasury the money with which to corrupt, with Carrow and others to dispense it, with Pool to prepare and circulate his infamous slanders, with others to slip radical lying bulletins into the mail packages of the city papers, and with Holden to indite keen, clever, adroit editorials in which he will try to make the worse appear the better reason, it will indeed be a great, a wonderful triumph we will have gained when August 1st has come and gone. We know our "beloved" of old. He has great capacity for editing, but we have read none of his recent contributions. We should think however that he would write with a faint heart. He is too sagacious to expect victory. Others may be deceived by radical boasts, but Holden knows better. He has no pleasure in what he is doing, for "work without hope draws nectar in a sieve."

JUDGE FOWLE AFTER WILSON.—When Henry Wilson, the radical candidate for Vice President, was at Beaufort on Saturday last, Judge Fowle, of this city, asked to be allowed to reply to him. Wilson refused in his most sanctimonious manner, saying that a discussion of the issues of the day would take up so much time that the sanctity of the Sabbath might be invaded. On the following Monday at Goldsboro' Judge Fowle again asked for a division of time, saying that they could have until Saturday evening to finish the debate.

Again this Massachusetts Solomon wilted and could not face the music. He said that there were so many republican speakers to be heard that it was impossible to give Judge Fowle any portion of the time.

Do the people remember that some five or six years ago this same Mr. Wilson visited this city and made a speech at the north end of the Capitol. Then, for we heard it with our own ears, he very generously invited a reply from any one who felt disposed to make one. He did not then, of course, take into consideration the fact that this whole State was one vast garrison, and on every side glittered Federal bayonets. He did not know that Southern men were seized, without law or warrant, and cast into military prisons for the least expression of opinion. The whole world applauded the magnanimous act. It was so gallant in the distinguished Senator to invite debate from an overpowered people then living under the benign sway of martial law. But the laurels of the would-be Vice-President have faded. When invited to discuss the questions of the day, under other surrounding—when a fair and full debate could be had—he most ignominiously shows the white feather. Can't the Republican party put forward a candidate for the second highest office in the government who is not afraid to meet our State orators in debate?

THE GRAND MASS MEETING.

A FARCICAL FIZZLE—DELANO EVIDENTLY DISGRUNTLED, &c.

Of all the fizzles in political demonstrations the one on yesterday was the biggest and most farcical. The white managers of the affair looked as they no doubt felt—very mean. Calvin Rogers, our postmaster, habitually carries a hang-dog look, so his countenance indicated nothing, but Ike Young, the Revenue Collector, had a severe attack of what is known as the "mean grins."

At half past 10 o'clock a "procession" consisting of 97 (actual count) colored men and boys marched up Fayetteville street, headed by the Raleigh Brass Band, to the National Hotel, marshaled by C. M. Farris, white, and Jim Dewey and Henry Lane, col. Not a white man joined in. The republican white brethren stood aloof and could not be induced to fall into ranks.

Arriving in front of the National Hotel the "procession" halted, and those who could afford the luxury proceeded to the bar for the purpose of "smiling." John Pool, Delano, P. W. Perry, Revenue Supervisor, S. F. Phillips and others stood on the upper piazza evidently expecting to be cheered, but nary one did they get. Ike Young went out and stirred around in the shu crowd and tried to manipulate one but he made a painful failure. One old good hearted darkey, feeling sorry for his disappointment, yelled out "hooray for Mister Grant and Colfax." This excited Ike's wrath and he exclaimed, "You d—d old fool, get it right, get it right." This was the sum total of the enthusiasm displayed at the Hotel.

The procession moved on to the ground selected for the speaking minus Mr. Delano and party. They evidently didn't like the escort.

At the speaking ground, Lovejoy's Grove, stands had been erected for the speakers and the band, and a few seats provided for the audience. The speakers stand was ornamented with a U. S. flag, pictures of Grant and Lincoln and a few old threadbare mottoes.

Mr. Phillips, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, introduced to the audience, which consisted of 250 negro men, women and children, including some 25 or 30 whites and numerous lemonade, watermelon and ginger cake venders,

MR. DELANO.

As this gentleman is personally an utter stranger to our people we will give a slight description of his appearance: He is medium sized and apparently about 55 years of age, with a long and rather sallow face. His eye brows are thick and shaggy and the expression upon his face, when not talking, is a sinister one. When uttering what he means as a pleasantry one can readily detect the great effort that brings it out, and when giving emphasis to an sentiment he has the appearance of a man in a violent rage. He has a strong voice though one sitting a short distance from him can scarcely understand what he says so indistinctly does he articulate.

HIS SPEECH

was a sore disappointment to those of his friends here who have the intelligence to form an opinion in regard to such matters. The harangue would have done well for a county candidate muster day at some cross roads, but falling from the lips of a cabinet officer of a great government, it was undignified and disgraceful. Even if he did know that nine-tenths of his audience were ignorant negro men and women he should have felt that the position which he unfortunately occupies demanded of him a decent comportment if he has no respect for himself. He frequently addressed his audience as "you fellows," "you rascals," &c., and affectionately alluded to his private secretary, who was then on the stand, as a "poor devil." Mr. Delano knows best whether or not people who serve him and the administration are "poor devils." We rather agree with him and think that they are. The illustrious gentleman paid some well turned and graceful compliments to the ladies present, which was supposed to have been received with modest blushes and coy applause. Smiles wreathed comely faces, fans gently waved and perfumed handkerchiefs fluttered in the air, and the great man made happy by many tokens of the appreciation which the fair sex greeted his attempts at gallantry.

In a word the speech was full of platitudes and misrepresentations and withal was coarse and vulgar. If Grant's cabinet can furnish no better specimen of oratory and ability than that given us yesterday by Mr. Delano, then we believe that all the hard things said about its stupidity and corruption to be terms of commendation compared to what it deserves.

The reporter left, being unwell, just before Mr. Delano concluded his speech. It was understood that John Pool was to follow, and that such minor guns as Ike Young, S. F. Phillips, Calvin Rogers, and others of that ilk, were expected to spout their little pieces.

The whole thing was a complete failure, and even republicans speak of it derisively. Even Abbott was ashamed of it, and during the time our reporter was on the ground had not appeared on the platform, but was sitting some distance off in a carriage. He was either disgusted with the failure of the meeting, or was shockingly slighted by his party friends.

We would have given our readers a full report of the concern but it was such, to use a rather inelegant phrase, a "bust," that it is worth neither the time nor space.

Beyond a Doubt.

More diseases are the result of the derangement of the Liver, than from any other cause. When that organ is diseased, every part of the system sympathizes with it, and general prostration and decline is the result. The best, safest, and speediest remedy for Liver Complaint and all the diseases that follow, is TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS. they are peculiarly adapted to the climate of the South. They are sold by Druggists everywhere.

AUGUSTA, GA. November 1, 1869.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt:

Sir—For several years past I have been subject to billious attacks, and always was a firm believer that there was no remedy for the complaint but mercury, until a year and a half ago, as an experiment, I tried your Vegetable Liver Pills, and was agreeably surprised to find that they accomplished all the results, and more besides of Blue Mass or Calomel, without any of their bad effects. I was always an unbeliever in Patent Medicines but can say this for your pills—that, since I commenced using them, I have not taken a particle of mercury in any shape, and I consider this fact an important one, and one that those who are in the habit of taking mercury for billious diseases can properly appreciate. I cordially recommend them as the best Liver Medicine ever introduced. Yours, etc.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Grant is here; Col. Carter, of Louisana, interviewed him this morning with a view of reconciling Radical differences in that State.

The President leaves Washington again to-morrow night.

The Cabinet to-day had nothing of public consequence before it, and business was soon over. All the members present except Delano, who is en route to North Carolina.

The new list of Internal Revenue Supervisors will be promulgated to-morrow and several other appointments which were decided upon to-day, will be made by the President.

Spotted Tail and his braves will interview the President to morrow.

Major Sterrett Ramsey, the oldest Pay master of the Navy, is dead.

The July report of Agriculture is now ready. The reports of corn represent 986 counties, including an area usually producing seven hundred million bushels annually, and indicating and increase of 3 per cent. This is equivalent to more than three fourths of a million of acres, and the total area of this great crop of the country, which nearly equals in extent the aggregate of all other tilled crops together, is probably about thirty five million acres.

The States in which an increase of acreage is reported is as follows: New Jersey 2 per cent, Pennsylvania 2, South Carolina 2, Georgia 1, Alabama 3, Mississippi 1, Louisiana 8, Texas 8, Arkansas 4, West Virginia 2, Kentucky 2, Ohio 2, Michigan 10, Indiana 2, Illinois 1, Iowa 1, Missouri 4, Kansas 28, Nebraska 20, California 1. Diminution appears in Maine of 4 per cent, Vermont 2, Massachusetts 4, Rhode Island 5, Connecticut 6, New York 1, North Carolina 2, Tennessee 1, Wisconsin 4, Minnesota 3.

The area in the remaining States reported the same as last year. Of the reports from 986 counties, 265 place the condition above 100; 413 below 100. Illinois is represented by 50 counties, of which 22 stand above average, and 23 below. Of 34 counties in Missouri, the condition of corn is above average in 16, and below in 25. Of 36 counties in Kansas, 8 only send figures less than 100. In Iowa, where cool and cloudy weather generally prevailed in spring, followed by changeable weather, and in some sections heavy rains, only two reports of the condition are above 100, and in Ohio, where the drouth has been severe, but three reports of 45 gives figures higher than 100. The States making returns higher than 100 are, Vermont 101, North Carolina 101, Alabama 110, Mississippi 111, Louisiana 119, Texas 110, Kentucky 103, California 101.

The following return the condition below average: Maine 96, New Hampshire 98, Massachusetts 98, Rhode Island 92, Connecticut 98, New York, 95, New Jersey 96, Pennsylvania 98, Delaware 92, Maryland 92, Virginia 94, South Carolina 95, Georgia 94, Florida 78, West Virginia 95, Ohio 90, Michigan 93, Indiana 95, Illinois 99, Wisconsin 95, Maine 86, Iowa 88, Missouri 97, Kansas 98, Nebraska 97, Oregon 97, Tennessee is placed at 100.

WHEAT—Improvement, in the condition of wheat is reported from New York, Maryland, Virginia, Michigan, Missouri, Kansas and to a slight degree in some other States, while a small decline is reported in Ohio, and in some of the Southern States, the averages in the winter wheat States stands as follows. Connecticut 94, New York 78, New Jersey 79, Pennsylvania 99, Delaware 75, Maryland 57, Virginia 99, North Carolina 118, South Carolina 103, Georgia 102, Alaba 116, Mississippi 102, West Virginia 95, Kentucky 112, Ohio 75, Indiana 88, Missori 66. Of the States producing almost exclusively spring wheat: Maine 108, New Hampshire 103, Vermont 104, Wisconsin 101, Minnesota 101, Iowa 108, Nebraska 112, Oregon 95, California, which is not fully reported, 120 for early sown and 112 for late.—Kansas, spring 95, winter 60; Illinois, spring 114, winter 92; Michigan, spring 38, winter 81. The average condition for the United States is almost exactly the same as in June, or 94, 6 per cent. less than average in the quantity of the grain is uniformly superior in the Middle States in Ohio, Michigan and Missouri and wherever the better condition is reported the straw is shorter but the heads are generally long and well filled. The kernel plump and heavy the quality of Southern wheat will probably prove as fine as any other produced in that section. In threshing fulness the heads in proportion to the quantity of straw causes the yield to exceed the expectation and may go far to offset the small decrease in reported condition. It is quite probable that the general excellence of the grain will make present crop of equal value to that of last year. It has been almost an entire exemption from rust, and comparatively little complaint of insects. The Hessian fly is reported in several places, more numerously in Ohio valley, and the chinch bug has caused losses in many counties of Illinois, Iowa and Missouri.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The eight hour strikes seem to have entirely collapsed.

Streeter has resigned from the Liberal Republican Committee and will support Grant.

Murphy writes from Long Branch that he believes President Grant himself paid for his sea side cottage, and that he (Murphy) did not contribute anything toward it at any rate.

The Tribune denies the story published in some of the Republican papers that Greeley ever conferred with the Germans relative to selecting any one for office, that he never desired any one to get up meetings for him or that he ever asked anybody to try to get him nominated for the Presidency.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, July 23.—Alderman Wm. McMullin was fatally shot by a pat-doned convict, in a quarrel over a stolen bouquet. McMullin's ball has been extracted, and there is some hope for him.

FROM EUROPE.

LONDON, July 23.—In the House of Commons this afternoon, there was some discussion upon the subject of the arrival of French Commissioners in England, during which, the significant question was put to the Government by Sir Robert Peel, after alluding to the fact that Germany had expelled Jesuits, he asked the Premier whether the Government intended to enforce the section of the Roman Catholic relief act of 1829, which provides for the banishment from England of all members of the Society of Jesus. Gladstone in reply, said the subject was important and should be taken into serious consideration by the government. He added, that though the law in question was now nearly half a century old, no steps had yet been taken for its enforcement.

Railway parties in Liverpool are on a strike, and business is seriously interfered with.

GENEVA, July 23.—Claims for damages caused by the vessels Boston, Sallie, Jeff Davis, Joy and Music, have been dismissed by the arbitrators. The demurred of Great Britain, concerning the other vessels, is overruled.

The case of the Florida was concluded to-day. The decisions is believed that the awards will be two million, six hundred thousand dollars damages for her depredations.

No session of the tribunal of arbitration to-day nor will be to-morrow.

PLAIN QUESTIONS FOR INVALIDS.—Have the routine medicines of the profession done you no good? Are you discouraged and miserable? If so, test the properties of the new Vegetable Specific, Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, already famous as the finest invigorant, corrective and alterative, that has ever seen the light. Dyspeptics and persons of billous habit should keep it within reach, if they value health and ease

"ALL maidens are very good," says one moralist. "But where do bad wives come from," says another. "Oh, bad wives are maidens turned sour," says another; and we know that either sour wives or sour bread are not what good husbands want. Therefore, our advice to husbands is, to keep your wife from getting sour, be cheerful yourself; keep your wife in a good humor, and in order to have good bread and other things properly cooked, make your wife a present of the
