A serious instance of sport with fire A serious instance of sport with fire-arms occurred recently in Rutherfordton. A small boy levelled a pistot which he be-lieved to be unloaded, at another small boy, and pulled the trigger, all for fun. The result of this fun was a ball through the head of the object, and a coroner's inquest a few hours subsequently.

The Robssonian says: The oldest voter in the State is Thomas Shaw, colored, of Lamberbridge township, who is now 108 years of age; and though now nearly blind, he ride five miles to the precinct last Thursday and voted the entire con-last Thursday and voted the entire conrecollections of the war of '76; often speaks of seeing the "red-coats."

A HANDSOME COMPLIMENT -The gentlemes of Battleboro' presented Mr. C. W. Harriss, late mittor of fitts paper, with a beautiful gold headed cane as a token of their high esteem and friend ship. Our whole community parted with Mr. H. with feelings of regret and he es-ries with him to his new home our best wishes for his future success and prosperi-ty.—Battlebore' Advance.

THE OUTLAWS .- Since the killing Ton Lowery the two remaining outliers, Stephen Lowery and Andrew Strong, have disappeared from their old haunts about Back Swamp and Moss Neck. The Robsonian says it is understood that they have established a new base in a settleent several miles above, and known as Upper Scuffletown, where they are keep ng very quiet, and seem to be concerned nly to keep out of the way of Mr. Wish art and his gallant little band of pursur-tra. Wil. Star.

CAPT, JND. W. GALLOWAY, the Conser-CAPT, JEE, W. GALLOWAY, the Conservative candidate for the Legislature from Brunswick county, has given notice that he will contest the election of his competitor, Brooks. The returns give Brooks amjority of 17 rotes. Capt. Galloway any that he can prove beyond doubt, that a great many more than 17 illegal votes were cast for Brooks. — Wif, Journal.

MRAN CONDUCT.-When Mr. Let MRAS CONDUCT.—When Mr. Letumon Hicks, an old white man, nearly blind, went up to the polls at Maner Hill, in Edgecombe to vote, the negroes acted in a diagraceful manner. They made all thinds remarks, as 'poor man.' 'You are nearly dead now, with one foot in the grave.' 'What does he want to vote for,' her Ret Admins.

INTERIOR At one of the voting places in Granville county, N. C., a young negro man announced his intention of ing for Greeley, whereupon his mother and him by the nape of the neck, and teld him—" damn you, if you do, I'll break your neck." Her threats had the desired effect; for the frightened voter MEANER STILL -At Whitaker's, Nath county, some of the negroes hauled to the election a colored man, named Henry Bustic, who was so nearly dead that he could not speak or hold his head op. This peor unfortunate man was at the point of death, from an attack of the point of neath, from an attack of meazles and was dragged to the election, unconscious, and carried off in the rain. He of course was not allowed to vote. We have not heard from him since but presume he is dead .- Bat. Ad.

A shocking calamity befell a poor he gro boy, by name Mike Whitfield, while bathing in the Meherrin, near Borne's Bridge, in this county, a few days ago. It was supposed from his evolutions that he was murely cutting some mad gambols in the water, while the poor wretch was drowning; nor did the awful truth flash upon the consciences of the bystanders until he sank for the last time in his water y grave. No human sid could reach ry grave. No human aid could reach him—the waves had parted and closed, and with plastic grasp held him fast lock-ed in the embrace of death,—Hertford Cor. of Nov. Journal.

Obstration of an Arrest—Tendence rowands Moss Law.—Much excitement was raised by the colored population last evening about 7 o'clock, by the areat of a suspected negro thief. Mr. J. W. Jackson, the night watchman at Union Deput, who is by appointment of the authorities a special policeman of the city, the result of the support of the W. Jackson, the night watchman at Union Depot, who is by appointment of the airthouties a special poticeuran of the city, arrested a negro by the mane of Moses Wilson, under suspicion of stealing a led of peaches shipped by the W., C. & A. R. R. He collard the negro and marced him down town in this lashion in search of a segular policeuran bint failing to find one of these gentry, he attempted to make his way to the guard house with his prisoner. At the corner of Second and Market airest, his progress was greatly obstructed by an excited crowd of segrom, who were unmistakably disposed to interfere when they saw a negro collared by a white man. No doubt they would have rescued the prisoner had not Constable Hill (colored)—to his credit be it said—come to the prisoner had not Constable Hill (colored)—to his credit be it said—come to the prisoner had not Constable Hill (colored)—to his credit be it said—come to the said and the case will come up before the Mayor this morning. For a lengthm after the prisoner was ledged in the guard house the turbulent negroes remained in a state of excitement in front of the City Hall, declaring against the arrest of one of their color by a white man. We mention these facts to show the animus under recent election retarns and had teaching.—Will Journal.

GEN. SCHOULER FOR GREELEY. General William Schouler, of Boston, one of the best known and most influential Republicans in Massachusetts, has published a letter giving his feasons for abandoning Grant for Greeley. He views the situation at length, claims that the late Governor Andrews' sentiments were the same as those of the Literal Republican party to-day, and concludes as fol-

I have written the foregoing with no partisan feeling, with malice towards none, with sense of right "as God gives me to see the right," and 'in a firm and honest conviction that the election of Mr. Greeley, whom I have personally known and respected for more than thirty years, would be best for the whole country. By so voting I believe I shall be carrying out the wise and statemanlike views of Governor Andrew, enunciated in riews of Governor Anures, the last official utterance of his life, and who, though dead, yet speaketh; that I shall be acting in accordance with the spirit that actuated the 159,000 Massachusetts men who upon the land and upo ong sad years of war, and upheld with honor and renown the flag which signal-sed the cause and patriotic fame of the mmon wealth.

Respectfully yours WILLIAM SCHOULER.

NORTH CAROLINA + It is a relief that sometady is elected in North Carolina at last. The wild reports have been vexaaccount for them, unless it be that after the first reports, the ballot-boxes underwent manipulations that were requisite in the exigency to elect the Grant candidate for Governor. We know that leading men in North Carolina a month ago expected that he would be elected by force of the G verament intellegence. They said, "We shall carry the Legislature and a United States Senator and elect a majority of Congressmen, but lose the Governor." Tois they have done, and this, in the face of the power of the Federal Administration, is a great victory.—Rich. Disputch.

General Grant told the Herald's report at the Thousand Islands, that he not care about a second term. He is just running to hear what will be said of him, and what the people will think of t. Amiable curiosity!

Isabella is still fat and devotional. She mentioned in a recent letter from Paris

"Walking yesterday in the Avenue Reine Hortense, I noticed a well appoint ed brougham with two practing borses pulling up at the door of the little chap-el St. Fetdinand. A bulky lady, who at first sight might be described as elderly, but who is only prematurely fat, descend-ed from it, followed only by a footman went into the church. She was Isabella of Spain. She went there to return thanks for her son, Prince of the Austrias, having passed a good examination at the Vienna College. The Hotel Basilewski is now crowded with visitors every day to congratulate him on his proficiency."

THE LEESBURG POISONING CASE. Lees opened its August term this morning The grand jury was charged and sworn soon after they retired a number of indict ents were presented to them by State's attorney, among them two indict-ments against Mrs. Lloyd, charging her with the murder of her two daughters, Maude and Annie. It is expected that Court before the close of the week .- Cor ence Bultimore Sun.
