LOCAL DOTS.

Gov. Caldwell left the city yesterday afternoon on a visit to his home in Morganton.

There are letters in the postoffice, held for lack of proper postage, addressed to John H. Hall, Littleton, N. C., and Jas. Washington, Goldsboro, N. C.

Barney Crenshaw, col., and wife, were before the Mayor yesterday morning for creating a disturbance the night previous near Tupper's Church. Barney was fined $5 and costs.

Yesterday morning another excitement was caused in Market Square by a runaway steer. Some chicken coops and a few boxes were overturned and a slight stampede took place in the crowd.

The Board of Directors of the Penitentiary were in session yesterday examining into the facts concerning the recent escape of convicts. We went to press before the Board closed its session.

The Board of Directors of the Masonic Temple Associaton held a meeting on Thursday afternoon, the proceedings of which we hope soon to be able to publish. We are informed that the affairs of the Association are in a prosperous condition and that the Board are very hopeful as to the final success of the enterprise.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—H. A. London, Jr., Esq., Greeley and Brown elector for the Fourth Congressional District, Hon. Jno. Manning, and other distingnished speakers, will address the citizens of Franklin and Granville counties at the following places and times.

Louisburg, Tuesday, September 10th.
Kittrell, Thursday, September 19th.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—We clip from the columns of the Durham Tobacco Plant of the 4th inst., the following complimentary lines in relation to our esteemed fellow-townsman, Ovide Dupre, Esq.:

"Mr. Ovide Dupre, of Raleigh, a young lawyer of considerable promise, will be present by invitation at the meeting of the Durham Greeley & Brown Club on to-night week to address the club upon the political issues of the day. We hope all the village people and the citizens from the surrounding country will turn out.

Mr. Dupre is a speaker of no ordinary attainments."

THE LATE R. F. MORRIS, ESQ.—On Thursday the Board of Tobacco Trade of Durham held a meeting in relation to the death of this lamented gentleman, when the following proceedings took place:

On motion of H. A. Reams, Esq., Col. D. C. Parish took the Chair who, in brief but appropriate remarks, explained the object of the meeting.

On motion of J. W. Cheek, Esq., R. C. Barksdale Esq., was appointed Secretary.

On motion of H. A. Reams Esq., the Chair appointed the following gentlemen a committee to draft resolutions suitable to the occasion:

J. W. Cheek, W. T. Blackwell, H. A. Reams, J. S. Lockhart and R. C. Barksdale.

The Committee retired and after a brief absence returned and submitted the following resolutions.

Whereas, It has pleased an all-wise providence to remove suddenly from our midst our friend and neighbor, R. F. Morris, Esq., therefore

Resolved, That we offer to his bereaved and afflicted family our heartty condolence for the irreparable loss they have sustained in his death—to the community for the loss of one of its most active, persevering and useful citizens, and to the Board of the Tobacco Trade one of its most energetic and enterprising members.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and the Hillsboro' Recorder, Raleigh SENTINEL, and Durham Tobacco Plant for publication.

The Chairman, and Messrs. J. A. McManaen, —— Blount, J. W. Cheek, and H. A. Reams, paid feeling and eloquent tributes to the memory of the deceased, when, on motion, the meeting adjourned.

WAIFS AFLOAT.

A new version of an old verse—Loathe the poor Indian.

Those Indianians who sell fleas for flax seed may be said to fleece their customers.

A man that murders a widow is bound to give up smoking and chewing. If she gives up her weeds for him, he should give up his weed for her.

A wag, in what he knows about farming, gives a plan to remove widow's weeds; he says a good-looking man has only to say, "Wilt thou," and they wilt.

"Angelina, can you tell why your lovely eyes are like friends separated by distant climes?" No, Augusta, I can't. Tell me, oh! tell me why." "Because they correspond, but never meet."

We hear a great deal about labor reform, but there seems to be a greater need of reforming some of those fellows who don't labor.

"That bed is not long enough for me," said a very tall, gruff Englishman, upon being ushered into his bedroom by an Irish waiter at one of our hotels. "Faith an' you'll find it's plenty long, sir, when you get into it," was the reply; "for then there'll be two more feet added to it."

A close fisted old fellow, in treating a friend to some liquor, poured out a very small drink. The latter, taking the glass and holding it above his head, remarked very skeptically:

"You say this is forty years old?"

"Yes," replied the host.

"Then," replied our friend, "all I have to say is, it's very small for its age."

RIDGEWAY CONCERT.—The concert at this place on Wednesday evening was a brilliant affair, and a success both in the point of patronage and the rendition of the programme. The hall, though tastefully decorated by the French wine growers of Ridgeway, under the skillful direction of Mons. V. Clerc, was sadly deficient in acoustic properties which detracted from the effect of the music despite the scientific execution. The following programme was rendered, in almost all particulars, in a highly creditable manner, and the appreciation of the audience was testified by frequent and vociferous applause:

Delta Kappa Epsilon March.
Cavatina Il Bacio.
Waltz, for violin, piano and cornet.
Trio for piano.
Vocal Duet—"In the Grove I'll Meet Thee."
Solo for Piano.
Cornet Solo—Serenade.
Palo Alto—Quickstep.
Last Rose of Summer.
Daughter of the Regiment.
Harp Solo.
Carroll Polka, composed for this occasion by Prof. Dodworth.
Arditi Waltz.
La Marseillaise, Grand.

The young lady performers acquitted themselves charmingly both as to vocalistic as well instrumental music, but as none of them were professionals no special names can be called.

Prof. Dodworth, late of the Dodworth Band of New York; Prof. Hahr, of the Warrenton Female Seminary; Prof. Bohiman, of the Raleigh Female Seminary; Prof. Pimson, of Raleigh, and Messrs. V. C. Royster and Wm. Simpson, of this city, were among the gentlemen performers. This is a combination of splendid musical talent, and it can be readily imagined that the music which their combined genius contributed was of a very high order of merit. As some of these are professionals, and as this brief notice is written to please, the particular performance of no one gentleman will be spoken of, but a general, though deserved, compliment paid to all.

In a word, the concert pleased all who attended—the music excellent—crowd large and if its pecuniary success is to be measured by merit then the new church will have an abundance of pews.

At the conclusion of the concert the Hall was cleared of its benches and the dance began, and many a pretty little foot, encased in spotless white kids, kept time to the music of Rufus Stanley's string band of this city. Of course all the ladies were beautiful and graceful, so all that should be said on this subject can be left to supposition and no violent effort of the imagination is required to do the matter justice. But prominent among the dancers could be seen the stalwart form and handsome face of Woodson, of the News—the "observed of all observers," pirouetting gracefully with "first upon the heel-tap then upon the toe." As he glided through the mazes of the dance with feet that seemed upheld by an airy platform, bright eyes followed admiringly, while upon masculine visages were depicted envy and jealousy. The ladies, with a singular unanimity, pronounced Woodson in matters terpsichorean to be sans pareil.

At the hour of 2 a. m., the dance ended and the special train, which came down from this city, took its departure, bearing off many who reside in this city and along the line of the road.

The authorities of the R. & G. R. R. displayed their usual spirit of accommodation, and to Captain Jimmy Young, the polite Conductor in charge of the train, the thanks of the passengers are due for his kind and constant attention to their wants and comfort.

We forgot to mention in the proper place that the piano used was furnished by Prof. Pimson of this city. It was one of his grand concert, 7 octave pianos, and was pronounced by all those present, capable of judging such things, to be a splendid instrument. The Professor's pianos are fast acquiring a marked popularity.

COMPLAINTS. A subscriber to this SENTINEL whose post office is Warrenton, informs us that for four weeks he has not received his paper. Our mailing clerk says it has been sent regularly. Whose fault is it? It is either the fault of the mail agent or the post-master at Warrenton.

FAIRS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—Our State is certainly blest if a multiplicity of Fairs constitutes blessings. We are not certain that the following list is complete. We give time and place for holding the next Fairs:

North Carolina Agricultural Society, Raleigh, October 15th to 18th.

Farmers and Mechanics' Association of N. C.; Goldsboro', October 22d to 26th.

Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, Weldon, Weldon, October 29th to November 1st.

Fair of the Carolinas, Charlotte, N. C. October 22d to 25th.

Cape Fear Agricultural Association, Wilmington, November 12th to 15th.

Central Agricultural Fair, Henderson, Oct. 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th.

Sampson county Fair.

Cumberland county Fair.

Salisbury Fair.

ANNUAL ADDRESS AT THE HENDERSOO FAIR.—The following is the letter of J. J. Davis, Esq., of Louisburg, accepting the invitation to deliver the annual address before the Central Agricultural Society at Henderson on the 10th prox.:

LOUISBURG, Sept. 4th, 1872.

To Capt. John Booth, Wm. H. Lassiter and Dr. W. W. Young, Com., &c.

Gentlemen:—I have received your favor requesting me to deliver the Annual Address at the next Fair of the Central Agricultural Society, on the 10th of October.

Farming is not my occupation and I distrust my ability to address acceptably the intelligent assemblage of Farmers and others who will attend the Central Fair, but I feel a deep interest in Agriculture and in the success of the Central Society and will render what aid I can to promote that success. I, therefore, accept your invitation and will be with you at the Fair and address you, as requested.

With the hope that you may meet with the fullest success,

I am Truly, &c.,
JOS. J. DAVIS.

We congratulate the Central Society that Mr. Davis has accepted their invitation, as they can confidently expect an address replete with eloquence and instructive suggestions.

The Ill that Flesh are Heir to.

Are many, but a remedy for them all is furnished by nature. There is no doubt that for every disease there is an antidote in the vegetable kingdom. The aborigines were the victims of many and loathsome maladies, yet they found in the wilds of their forests remedies sure and powerful. Acting on this belief DR. TUTT'S SARSAPARILLA AND QUAKEN'S DELIGHT is offered the public as a most highly concentrated vegetable compound possessing extraordinary power for the cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Scrofula, Ulders, Swelling of the Glands, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Liver Complaint, Secondary Syphilis, the effects of Mercury, &c. It is a most powerful alterative and Blood purifier, and at the same time so harmless that it may be used by all.

Watch out for Chills and Fever, and prepare the system for resisting its attack by using Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills.

Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye makes the old look young.

YEAS AND NEIGHS.—If horses could make themselves understood in human language, they would signify by a universal "Yea," their assent to the statement that the MUSTANG LINIMENT is the best remedy extant for all these external ailments, and by a most emphatic "Neigh!" show their displeasure at every attempt to use any other preparation in its stead. Ever since its introduction at St. Louis, at the close of the Mexican war in 1849, it has proved a signal blessing to horse and man—curing, with absolute certainty and wonderful despatch, such equine diseases as spavin ringbone, poll evil, scratches, hoofals, &c., and relieving and finally removing the painful affections which attack the muscles, sinews and external glands of human beings. It is a fact beyond contradiction that for all injuries or complaints of man or quadrupeds to which an external remedy is applicable, the MUSTANG LINIMENT is preferrable to every other.

NATURE'S APPEALS FOR HELP.—Every indication of debility and exhaustion is a mute appeal of Nature for medicinal aid to arrest the progress of decay. How are these silent appeals of physical weakness to the resources of the healing art usually met? Too often, unfortunately, the drugs prescribed aggravate the symptoms. Whoever recommends drastic purgatives, or mineral salivants, or poisonous alkaloids, under such circumstances, is an ally of the ailment and an enemy of the patient. Whoever, on the contrary, advises the broken down and desponding sufferer to resort to that peerless vegetable invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, for aid and comfort, is a true philanthropist. It is safe to say that there never was an instance in which such advice was given and accepted without the happiest results. From the very depths of weakness and despondency thousands have been restored to vigor, health and cheerfulness by the renovating operation of this wholesome stimulant and alterative. All its medicinal ingredients are remarkable for their sanative properties, and in combination form an absolute specific for indigestion, liver complaint, nervous affections, rheumatism, intermittent and remittent fevers, general and local weakness, and every species of disorder incident to change of season or climate. The stimulative element of this invaluable protective and restorative is not an impure excitant, but the thoroughly rectified essence of sound rye, admitted by all good chemists to be the most healthful of exhilarants.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 5.—The positive refusal of O'Conor to accept the nomination created a profound sensation, but was applauded behind the ropes.

The motion to clear the gallery was hissed and withdrawn.

The President restored order by refusing to recognize any speaker until all the delegates resumed their seats.

LATER.

There is current talk that if O'Conor persists in declining the nomination, Adams takes the first place. The squabble is progressing over the Vice Presidency.

Lelly, of Louisiana, read a radical communication justifying the withdrawal of the Louisiana delegation from the convention.

Goodloe, of Kentucky, offered a resolution in effect, opposing any nomination by the convention.

The New York World's Louisville special says to days programme is to push Adams up to the first place, and nominate Lyon or Egerton for Vice President.

LATEST.

The convention has adjourned without making any nomination in place of O'Conor.

The following is the communication, in full as presented by the Louisiana delegation to the National Democratic Convention, as representatives of the Democratic State of Louisiana:

"A solemn duty is imposed upon us at this moment. In voting unanimously for Charles O'Conor as the candidate of the Democratic party for President, and for John Quincy Adams for Vice President, we believe that we have represented, so far as individual opinion can be represented in the aggregate of a political body, the true principles of Republican government. It came on us as an inspiration that Charles O'Conor and John Q. Adams might save the republic. O'Conor has refused to be our standard bearer and history must pass on his reasons. We believe him to be a citizen eminently pure, devoted to a republican government as contemplated by Jefferson and by Jackson, and without ostentation when occasion required, heroism in assertion of principles. With profound regret we have heard epithets applied to him by members of this Convention, since his absolute declination has been made known, which could only be applied to the basest of men; hypocrite and cowardice were attributed to him. We believe the last hope of Republican principals are with this Convention; as it is a matter of utter indifference whether Grant or Greeley succeed, with sad hearts we foresee the death of the Democratic principles and Republican government. Let us pray to God that the impending revolution may be without blood. We came here in a spirit of fraternity and in that spirit we part from the majority of you. The Convention before the denunciations of O'Conor were uttered had not in our opinion exhausted all becoming means of prevailing on him to accept the distinguished honor tendered him.

Gentlemen, we leave you with the painful conviction that we can no longer serve our common country, our State or our principles, by remaining with you. Signed, David Scrully, R. C. Kelly, J. H. Lair, on behalf of the delegation from Louisiana."

Immediately after the adjournment of the convention, the delegates re-assembled as a mass meeting with J. Bayard, of New Jersey, in the chair.

Mark M. Pomeroy, Gullady, Weems, of Georgia, and others, made speeches, and a telegram from Atlanta, Ga., was read announcing great enthusiasm in that city over the action of the convention. The following dispatch was received from John Q Adams:

QUINCY, Mass., Sept. 5.

To Col. Blanton Duncan, Louisville: I will gladly serve as Vice President with O'Conor, but will accept nothing else. O'Conor must positively stand.

Signed, JOAN Q ADAMS."

The following is Goodlett's resolution in full:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that Chas. O'Conor, having fully and heartily approved of the objects and purposes of this Convention, and having been unanimously nominated for President, and John Q. Adams, of Mass., for Vice-President, that the delegates of Democratic party here assembled are unwilling to make other nominations in their stead, and that the Democratic party will give them, in any event, an undivided support.

The Convention refused to allow Col. Duncan to cast the votes for Maryland and Texas.

Goodlett's resolution was adopted, yeas 544, noes 30.

After the usual complimentary resolutions, the Convention adjourned sine die.

FROM EUROPE.

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—The Emperor of Russia, Czarwitch Alexander, and the Grand Duke Vladimire arrived at Eastern Railway station at a quarter past two this afternoon. They were met by Emperor William, Crown Prince Frederick William, Prince Frederick, the son of the Crown Prince, the Grand Dukes of Mecklenburg, Baden and Weimar, the Duke of Coburg and a large number of other German Princes. The Ministers, with Chancellor Bismarck, at the head, the most famous Generals of the army and the chief dignitaries of the Imperial Court were also present. The Czar, on alighting, saluted and embraced Emperor William in a most cordial manner. The two Emperors entered the same carriage and passed slowly through the streets amid the cheers of an immense multitude. All the Princes, Dukes, Generals and courtiers followed, making a long and brilliant procession. The imperial carriage stopped at the Russian Embassy, into which the Emperor Alexander was conducted.

THE UTLEY COTTON PRESS, so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction for the past three seasons, can be obtained with its improvements, of me at Raleigh.

This is an Invention of Power, whereby all friction is overcome. Its simplicity, Economy and Durability astonish all who see it. And the more so that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated.

The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block and two 1 3-4 in. square Iron Bars, which are capable of sustaining a weight of 180,000 pounds; thus giving much more strength that is required. With this Press one man can work as fast as eight with any of others, packing from four hundred to six hundred and fifty pounds.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the Lint direct from the Gin or Lint-room, as may be desired, thus doing away with baskets and frequent handling of the Lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down and put up in 30 minutes, and can be transported on a two-horse wagon.

I believe it to be unequalled by any Press for Power, Convenience and Durability.

Press complete; Depth of Cotton Box 8 feet; size of Bale, 4 1-2 feet by 28x28x30 inches; weight of Bale 400 to 500 pounds.

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT SOUTHERN remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scrofulous Taint, Rheumatism, White Swelling, Gout, Goitre, Consumption, Bronchitis, Nervous Debility and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the Blood.

The merits of this valuable preparation are so well known that a passing notice is but necessary to remind the readers of this journal of the necessity of always having a bottle of this medicine among their stock of family necessities.

Certificates can be presented from many leading physicians, Ministers and business men throughout the South, endorsing in the highest terms the living Efficacy of Rosadalis.

Dr. H. Wilson Cox of Baltimore says: "he assumes it in cases of bronchitis and other diseases with much success."

Dr. T. C. Page of Baltimore, recommends it to all persons suffering with diseased blood, saying it is unsurpassed by any preparation he has ever used.

Key Dewey Belt of the Baltimore M. E. Conference South says he has been so much benefited by its use that he cheerfully recommends it to all his friends and acquaintances.

Travers & Co., Druggists, of Gordonsville, Va., say it never has failed to give satisfaction.

Scott & Mayfield, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, says it cured them of Scrofulous sores all else failed.

Rosadalis is not a secret preparation its ingredients are published on every package. Show it to your Physician and he will tell you it is composed of the strongest alteratives that can be used, with an excellent Blood Purifier. But our space admit we could give you testimonials from every State in the South and from persons known to every man, woman and child either personally or by reputation.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.
