WASTE AFLOAT.

We are told that nothing succeeds like success; and we may therefore, we think, venture, without fear of contradiction, to assume that these new works, whenever they are published, will be doubtless as successful as those which they succeed:—

Fettered at First: a Story written as a prelude to Linked at Last,

To morrows with Artists: to be published as a companion work to Yesterdays with Authors,

The Worth of Waterlilies: a novel written as a sequel to The Valley of the Poppies,

Iron Locks and Bronze Handles: a domestic tale of Thrilling Interest, to follow Golden Keys,

Rich Master Sparrow: a new Sensation Story, but not written by the Author of Poor Miss Finch,

The Big Toe of Destiny: A Tale of Western Travel, published as a companion to The Finger of Fate, Slugs in the Salad: A Domestic Story, adapted for the readers of Poppies in the Corn.

It is well for the girls to know the risk they run in marrying brakemen. An enthusiastic member of the guild in St Louis the other night was awakened from a dream of an impending mishap by a cry of pain, and found himself sitting up in bed holding his wife by the ears, having almost twisted her head off.

A lady, who asserts that her opinion is based upon a close observance, says that men, as a rule, regard their wives as angels for just two months, namely—a month before marrying her, and a month after burying her.

There was one pun of Sidney Smith's that Charles Lever never tired of telling. Mrs. Grote, the wife of the distinguished historian, appeared once at a soiree with a queer sort of turban on her accomplished head. "Look at that," said Sidney, "that's the origin of the word grotesque."

We are requested to state that the sale of lots heretofore advertised by C. B. Harrison, Esq., for Monday, the 16th instant, has been postponed till Monday, the 30th of December next.

PUBLIC SPEAKING IN NASH COUNTY.—Henry A. London, Jr., of Chatham County, Greeley and Brown Elector for the Fourth Congressional District, and other speakers will address the people in Nash county at the following times and places: Nashville, September 27, Manning's, Friday, September 27, Farrell's, Saturday, September 28.

RARITY.—In North Carolina a place containing two, three or even six or eight thousand people is called a—city. Why is this done? What constitutes a city? What is a town? Look at your dictionaries when you speak of the city of Charlotte, or the city of Raleigh. Our enterprising neighboring village Durham, is as much of a city as this place or Charlotte, or Weldon.

THE CREDIT SYSTEM.—If newspaper men would all adopt the rule of our brother Mills, the capital editor of the Bladen Recorder, they would always have some money as he has. A friend asked him not long ago, how much was due on his books for subscriptions? "Not a dollar" was the reply. But unfortunately we are not all as wise as brother Mills, and so we and others are in the fix of the Fayetteville Eagle, who thus puts the case, and it fits us so precisely that we copy it:

PAY WHAT YOU OWE.—Many persons express interest in the Eagle. Some take it on themselves to criticise our paper and point out faults or merits. We like to learn these various opinions, but we would much prefer having what people owe us. Say what you please about the paper, but pay what you owe us. We would rather have the few dollars that we have earned than have the best or worst opinion of most people. There is no doubt about our furnishing a good paper if we have enough money and support.

HURRICANE.

Rains every day latterly.

Raleigh is unusually healthy.

Land buyers would do well to consult the advertising columns of the SENTINEL.

See the sale of valuable land advertised by L. A. Paschall, Esq., of Oxford.

Judge Merrimon left the city Thursday for Iredell court.

Gen. Harry Heth, who commanded two of our best North Carolina Brigades, is at the Yarborough House.

As the Associate for several days has done all the work on the SENTINEL, he has not had time to make out door rounds for items. So please excuse errors or defects.

The gentleman whose house was burned to which we referred two days ago, was Mr. Willis Harris, who lives at Wilton, Granville county. He had just completed a handsome residence and furnished it.

W. H. Hicks, Esq., the very clever Supervising Agent of freights on Raleigh and Gaston road, left the town yesterday for a short visit to his old home, Oxford.

The Richmond Enquirer says it throws better letters than those of Junius in its waste basket daily. Then a hundred-fold better articles go into the basket than appear in the paper.

Col. W. L. Saunders has gone to Kittrell. He is one of the most vigorous writers in the State, and we are glad to learn that he will soon be associated permanently with Maj. Englehard in the editing of the Wilmington Journal.

If you wish the people of North Carolina to know what you are doing, advertise in the SENTINEL. It is taken in nearly every county in the State. In many counties it circulates very largely.

ADJOURNED MEETING.—The Policy holders of the Life Association of America will hold an adjourned meeting in the city of St. Louis, on the 25th of this month. See advertisement,

Gen. Henry Heth, Manager of the Life Association of America, arrived in our city Wednesday evening, and is stopping at the Yarborough House.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—A friend tells us that at Atlanta, Georgia, the hack drivers do not speak a word upon the arrival of a train, but merely hold up a large card containing a picture and name of the hotel. Passengers are often greatly annoyed at the vociferation and importunity of porters and hackmen. In some places such characters are real nuisances. Our authorities here might adopt wisely the Atlanta style.

SNUFF DIPPING.—A bagatelle we scribbled the other day relative to snuff dipping, is taken quite seriously by a Virginian. We did not say Virginia ladies dipped. We only said that beautiful ladies in Virginia, &c., might dip, but not in our State. The whole was meant as a pleasantry. We abominate the practice so heartily, we should be sorry to learn that beautiful women anywhere ever soiled their beautiful teeth with such—well, let it out—nasty snuff.

THE BAPTIST FEMALE SEMINARY.—We are pleased to learn from F. H. Hobgood, Esq., the popular and efficient President of this excellent Institution, that there are now seventy two pupils in attendance, with a certain prospect of further increase. We regret to learn that some parents were deterred from sending their daughters under the erroneous impression that there was a great deal of sickness in our town. There have been a good many deaths during the summer, as is always the case in a town as large as Raleigh, but most of them were chronic cases, such as would happen in any community. The health of Raleigh is really excellent. In fact its location is such, that ordinarily its people must enjoy a perfect exemption from those diseases that are traceable to malarial influences. Parents need have no apprehension in sending their daughters to any of the excellent schools now in operation in this place.

CURE OF THE EYES.—Multitudes of men and women have made their eyes weak for life by the too free use of the eye sight, reading small print and doing fine sewing. In view of these things, it is well to observe the following rules in the use of the eyes:

Avoid all sudden changes between light and darkness.

Never read by twilight on a very cloudy day.

Never sleep so that on waking the eyes shall open on the light of the window.

Do not use the eyesight by light so scant that it requires an effort to discriminate.

Never write or sew directly in front of the light of the window or door.

It is best to have the light fall from above, obliquely over the left shoulder.

Too much light creates a glare and pain and confuses the sight. The moment you are sensible of an effort to distinguish, that moment stop and talk, walk or ride.

As the sky is blue and the earth green, it would seem that the ceiling would be a bluish tinge, the carpet green, and the walls of some mellow tint.

The moment you are instinctively prompted to rub the eye, that moment cease using them.

If the eyelids are glued together on waking, do not forcibly open them, but apply the saliva with the finger, and then wash your eyes and face with warm water.

THE HIGH FUNCTION OF THE PRESS.—"They were made to encourage, to teach and to bless,
Those invincible brothers, the Pen and the Press."

This was the motto of the Oxford Leisure Hour when edited by the writer. He recognizes the usefulness and potency of new papers, and the great responsibilities that attach to the journalist. We would gladly see a convention of the North Carolina Press held, and such steps taken as would promote the efficiency and harmony of the craft. It seems to us that there are several questions that need regulating. The price of advertising, the subject of cash subscriptions, the question of giving proper credit to other papers when the matter in any form is used, journalistic amenities—these and many other topics might be introduced and salutary measures might be adopted. The following timely remarks we copy from an editorial in the Philadelphia Age:

Thomas Jefferson, one of the greatest political philosophers that ever lived, said: "Were it left for me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate for a moment to prefer the latter." The press in our time fully justifies this estimate of its importance. It is the greate t bulwark that is left to the people against fraud, peculation and official corruption, and when it can be bribed or bullied, the last stage of political degredation will be reached in our country. The great function of the press is to let the light in on the management of the people's affairs; to put them under the public eye—like the big plate glass windows that secure property better than iron or oak shutters, because the public look in and see what is going on.

The statue of Sir Walter Scott, to be erected in Central Park, New York, arrived in that city on Saturday by the steamship Anglia, from Glasgow. It is a counterpart of the statue at Edinburg, representing Sir Walter in a sitting posture, with a dog at his feet. The spot selected as the site is opposite the statue of Shakspeare.

Strong Testimony.

STEUBENVILLE, OHIO, Sept. 4, 1871.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt:

Dear Sir—I feel it a duty to you and to suffering humanity to make public the great merits of your EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA and QUEEN'S DELIGHT. For years I have been a great sufferer, my general health broke down, and I was afflicted with nervousness of the most terrible character, which was soon followed by an eruption all over the body, forming large ulcers in some places, and attended with rheumatic pains. Tongue cannot describe my suffering; I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and had a perfect loathing of food. I was attended by several physicians, who rendered me no relief. I despaired of ever being well again; but thanks to a kind Providence, I accidently heard of your medicine. I sent for half a dozen bottles, and before I had taken three I began to feel better, my appetite improved, and the rheumatic pains became less severe and I could enjoy sleep. I have continued its use, and have taken eleven bottles, and believe I am a sound man again. The ulcers have all healed, my skin is smooth and healthy, and I have gained 22 pounds in weight. I believe my sickness resulted from a taint of scrofula. I would earnestly recommend your compound to my fellow sufferers.

With deep gratitude to you,
I am ever your friend,
JAS. FRANKLIN.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills are a mild and gentle purgative, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestive or torpid liver. They have no equal.

TRUTH AND POETRY.—Milton puts into the mouth of Lucifer, in "Paradise Lost" these memorable words—

"TO BE WEAK IS MISERABLE."

Never was a truer sentence written than this—supposed to be wrung from the Archfiend in his impotence and agony. Every victim of nervous debility, or of that depressing languor which is one of the accompaniments of dyspepsia and biliousness, can testify to the misery of mind and body which they involve. The motive power of the system is partially paralyzed; the mind is haunted by anxiety and fear; and the sufferer is as incapable of applying himself energetically to any kind of business as if he were under the benumbing influence of catalepsy. This terrible mental and physical condition need not, however, be endured for forty-eight hours by any human being. Plantation bitters is an absolute specific for all the torments which a deranged stomach, a disordered liver and shattered nerves, superinduce.

The worst coughs yield, as if by magic, to the wonderful curative powers of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

sep 10 deod1wawit

AVOID THE PERILS OF THE SEASON.—Autumn although the most radiant portion of the American year, has its drawbacks. The heavy evening dews and morning vapors and the great disparity in temperature between the night and day, give rise to many painful disturbances of the bowels, such as colic, cholera morbus, diarrhœa and dysentery. The digestive organs are also unfavorably affected by the change of season, and dyspeptics generally suffer most severely during the fall. Derangements of the liver are likewise common, and miasmatic fevers prevail in newly settled districts and low lying and marshy localities. These unpleasant contingencies of the season are not, however, unavoidable. By strengthening, toning and regulating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters even the most delicate may escape them. At the expiration of summer all the bodily powers are in a somewhat exhausted state. They require the wholesome stimulation which this genial vegetable invigorant supplies. Under its renovating influence the nervous energy which the wilting heat of July and August had kept in abeyance or partially extinguished, crops out afresh; the flaccid muscles recover their elasticity; the appetite takes a sharper edge; the processes of digestion and assimilation become more rapid and perfect; the spirits rise, and the whole organization acquires its maximum of activity and resistant power. Even persons of comparatively feeble constitution, when thus fortified against the perils of the season, will have little cause to fear a visitation from any of the disorders to which we have referred. As a protection against miasmatic fevers and all epidemics engendred by malaria, Hostetter's Bitters may be justly pronounced not only unrivalled but unapproached. Look well to the label and trade mark, as there are many counterfeits and imitations in the market.

Cotton Press.

SEND YOUR ORDERS IN FOR THE IMPROVED

"Grey Utley Cotton Press."

THE UTLEY COTTON PRESS, so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction for the past three seasons, can be obtained with its improvements, of me at Raleigh.

This is an Invention of Power, whereby all friction is overcome. Its simplicity, Economy and Durability astonish all who see it. And the more so that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated.

The screw is wholly Force by the steel plate, Follower Block and two 1 3-4 in. square iron Bars, which are capable of sustaining a weight of 180,000 pounds; thus giving much more strength than is required. With this Press two men can pack a bale of cotton with ease in eight minutes, weighing from four hundred to five hundred and fifty pounds.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the Lint direct from the Gin or Lint-hoom, as may be desired, thus saving away with baskets and frequent handling of the Lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down and put up in 30 minutes, and can be transported on a two-horse wagon.

I believe it to be unequalled by any Press for Power, Convenience and Durability.

Press complete; Depot of Cotton Box, 8 feet; 2 ft. of Bale, 4 1-2 feet by 28 inches; weight of Bale 400 to 550 pounds.
