SPIRIT OF THE AGE. - This paper super edes the Banner of Temperance, and i he organ of the Independent Order of Good Templars of this State. It is published by the enterprising firm of Edwards & Broughton, of his city, who recently purchased the paper from Theo. N. Ramsay, Esq. The paper, the first number of which is now upon our table, is gotten up with no little typographical skill as might well be expected coming from the hands it does. Its reading matter, both original and selected, is of the most excellent description and gives evi dence that cultured minds are engaged upon its columns. We wish the Spirit of the Agrevery success, and we hope that it may soon attain that degree of prosperity which its name-sake, in years gone by reached.
