The next time we have occasion to allude to the throwing of spoilt meat out of the market we shall call the name of the butcher having it on hand. We say this as we think citizens should be informed of all such transactions and the name of the offending butcher given to the public as a matter of justice to the others.

NEWS FROM ORANGE COUNTY.

Extraordinary Longevity.—Within a radius of about five miles from Flat River P. O. there are sixteen men whose ages average more than eighty years and six months. The oldest is about ninety-six, and is still an industrious laborer in the field. The other six, in the same section; though not equaling the above figures, furnish most favorable statistics. What sparsely settled rural district can equal this?

Fires.—Mr. Samuel Mangum recently lost a fine barn of tobacco, which was nearly cured, by carrying in a torch during the night to examine the thermometer. On the 29th ult., Col. R. S. Webb had a barn containing 3,000 lbs. of fine tobacco, consumed. It is not known whether it was accidental or incendiary. There was partial insurance.

Runaway.—A team belonging to Mrs. Cynthia Carrington ran away last week, and one of the horses—a fine animal—broke his leg. Cause: The driver was asleep. Mrs. Carrington is one of the most successful bee keepers in this part of the State. She is waiting for that Italian queen from the SENTINEL office.

Crops.—Wheat, corn and tobacco excellent. This year brought the army worm to this section but it did no extensive injury.

HURRYGRAPHS.

Our Local is out of town.

The weather is again quite Summerish.

Our Senior returned from Norfolk on Thursday afternoon.

The religious meetings in the Baptist Church still continue.

Scuppernong grapes—the best of all fruit—are now abundant at 10 cents a quart.

Now is the time to subscribe to the SENTINEL. Job Work executed with dispatch. Send in your orders.

The slight-of-hand man was a failure. He only tried it one night to a very slim house. He paid his bills like a clever fellow.

The New York World is doing excellent service for the Liberal cause. It is staunch Democratic. Read the communication signed "Mecklenburg," in to-day's paper.

We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Mr. Heath, son of the late Judge Heath, from Mr. William Lewis, of New York, son of our esteemed townsman. Maj. A. M. Lewis, and from J. D. Vance, Esq., correspondent of the New York World.

Ovide Dupre Esq., a gentleman of talents, Assistant Elector for the 4th District, will soon begin an active canvass. Mr. Dupre is a strong, forcible, animated speaker and will do good for the cause of Retrenchment, Reconciliation and Reform.

THE REVIVAL.—We are glad to learn from the efficient and zealous pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, that up to this time some sixty persons have made a profession of faith in Christ. The series of meetings will probably conclude on Sunday next. On Thursday night new penitents were at the altar, and the gracious work still continues. The ordinance of Baptism and reception of members will take place on next Sabbath at 11 o'clock A. M.

APPOINTMENTS.—We announce the following appointments for Mr. Ovide Dupre, the Greeley and Brown Assistant Elector for the State at large:

Moore county, Jonesboro', Thursday October 10th.

Moore county, Carthage, Saturday, October 12th.

Montgomery county, Troy, Monday, October 14th.

Stanley county, Albemarle, Wednesday, October 16th.

Randolph county, Ashboro', Saturday, October 16th.

Orange county, Chapel Hill, Monday, October 21st.

Wake county, Cary, Wednesday, October 23rd.

Other appointments will shortly be announced.

The ladies are respectfully invited to attend.

CAN A DOG REASON?—A tradesman in Lawrence, Mass., owner of a dog and cat, has been in the habit of letting the dog go to market and buy his own meat. The dog would bring the meat home and deposit it somewhere in the store, and and when feeling the gnawings of hunger would go and get it. The cat acquired a habit of stealing its meat, and the dog would lie down near it watch for the thief, and when the cat came would drive her away. But at last he became tired of this business, carried the meat down the cellar and covered it up in the sand, one day the master of the dog thought he would get the meat, bring it up stairs, and see what the dog would do. After taking a nap, the dog went down cellar in search of his, meat, and commenced digging, as usual but there was no meat to be found. He laid himself down a minute, as if in thought, and then rushed up stairs, and, espying the cat "went for her," and chased her all around the store, as closely as a police officer in pursuit of a thief.

We do not know that this is as remarkable an instance of canine sagacity as one for which we vouch. Some years ago in Halifax, county there was a favorite pointer dog who was allowed the privilege of the house. In the winter time he generally occupied a "front seat" at the fire. On one occasion he came in from a ramble and found three or four hound puppies stretched out before the fire. They were invading his rights. This was not to be allowed. He walked up to his mistress, looked into her face, then turned and growled at the puppies. This not answering, he left the room and after a minute or two returned with a switch in his mouth. This he laid at the feet of his mistress, and then turning to the puppies growled indignantly, as much as to say, "These chaps have no business in here, give them a switching and make them toddle!"

Here is another "dog story." An artist in Charlotte has a dog who is generally the first to discover the fires that occur. He has been so faithful an alarmist that his master will get up and dress and go out in search of the fire when there has been no other alarm, and has never failed to find that the faithful dog was correct.

Whilst on the dog question we will give another true story. Some years ago, more than fifteen, there was a large fire in Oxford. A gentleman lived some three quarters of a mile from his place of business. A large, noble setter-dog was the guard he left to protect his store. He was very fierce and would not permit any one to approach the door at night without violent barking. On the night of the fire, it became necessary to break the store open. The dog made no resistance, not even barking. As soon as he was released, he made for home, met his master near the house, jumped upon him, whined, barked and then ran some fifty yards, stopped, looked back and returned. This he repeated all the way to the store. Was this reason or what?

LITERARY GOSSIP.

Hon. Chas. K. Tuckerman, late American Minister to Greece, has a book in the press of Putnam, entitled "The Greeks of To-Day."

Only four students attend the course of lectures established at the University of Strasbourg on "American Literature and Political Science." The lecturer is Prof. von Holst, late of New York.

The title of Dr. Holland's new novel is "Arthur Bonecastle." The first chapters will appear in "Scribner's" for November. The scene is laid in New England, and the early part will deal with some exceptionable features of boarding school life there.

The "Rivista Europea" announces that the library which Mr. Thomas Adolphus Trollope had formed in Florence will be sold by auction next November, at Mr. Trollope's villa. The library contains upwards of ten thousand volumes, and many rare works of interest.

Mr. B. L. Farjeon, author of "Joshua Marvel" and other works, will write the story for the Christmas number of Tinsley's Magazine. The title, we hear, is "Bread and Cheese and Kisses."

"The Christian Vagabond," by Blanchard Jerrold, which appeared in the pages of "The Gentleman's Magazine," will shortly be published in book form, with illustrations by the author.

Two Russian novels, by two of the best novelists of Russia—"Taross Boulba," by N Gogal, and "the Daughter of the Captain," by A. Pouchkiffe—have been recently translated into French by M. L. Viardot.

Eckmann-Chatrian's "Histoire du Plebiscite" has been suppressed by the French government at the instance of the Prussian government, who considered that some of the illustrations were calculated to give an unfavorable impression of the conduct of the Prussian soldiers during the war. The suppressed edition has been purchased by an English house, and will shortly be issued.

PENNSYLVANIA.

COLONIZING THE STATE WITH NEGROES.

[By Telegraph to the Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—A week or two ago it was stated that the managers of the Ring in Pennsylvania were engaged in importing negroes from this District and Maryland for colonization. At first this was doubted, even by the friends of a free and fair ballot. Of course it was strenuously denied by the members of the Ring; but the evidence is now complete that a regularly organized importation of negroes, especially from the northern counties of Maryland, has been going on for some time. Conductors on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad state that several thousand negroes have passed over that road within the last few weeks. This, however, is not the only evidence of the contemplated and partially accomplished fraud. There are persons here whose names are withheld for the present, who state that the agents of the Ring, men sent out by Simon Cameron with the ostensible purpose of engaging railroad hands, have sent hundreds of negroes into Pennsylvania. A gentleman who met a car load of them inquired where they were going. One of them replied: To work for Massa Cameron and vote for Mass Grant in Pennsylvania." In most cases extravagant wages have been promised these deluded creatures, but the understanding among all of them seemed to be that the job was not to last long. They are to be scattered throughout the State, but their strength will be thrown into Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and the larger towns, where it is supposed they will not be detected. Of course, they are entirely ignorant of the character of the business for which they are wanted, and also of the penalty which the laws of Pennsylvania metes out to persons convicted of illegal voting.

A gentleman who arrived here from New York to-day states that it is pretty well known there that about 1,000 roughs, repeaters and ballot-box stuffers are under contract to leave that city the latter part of the week for Philadelphia. They are under the management of Bill Tweed and Jimmy O'Brien, and will form part of the 12,000 or 15,000 majority which the Ring men predict for Hartranft in Philadelphia, that is, provided they are not caught and dealt with according to law.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Congress at its last session established a United States Court for the Western District of North Carolina, but failed to make any provision for the appointment of the United States Marshal. There could be no court without a Marshal, and the Marshal of the Eastern District could not act because his jurisdiction is limited to the counties not embraced in the Western District, no grand or petit jury could be summoned without Marshal, and no money could be drawn from the Treasury to pay the unexpected emergency, Marshal Carrow is appointed a disbursing agent of the department of Justice, and under this appointment has just drawn from the Treasury twenty thousand dollars, to pay the expenses of the Court.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Francis Leiber, the well known publicist, is dead.

Capt Francis L. Norton, formerly of Cuban steamer Pioneer, yesterday caused the arrest of Messrs. Ward and Shephard, ship brokers of this city, for alleged unjust libelling of that steamer at New Port. Norton claims that the libel, which was based on a mortgage claim against the vessel, was effected to more effectually enable the United States authorities to proceed against the Pioneer.

David Massey was to-day convicted of mailing indecent books, and fined $500 and one year's imprisonment.

ALBANY, Oct. 3.—The Straight-Out Democratic State Convention met here to-day at Martin Hall. Among those present were R. B. Miller, brother-in-law of Horatio Seymour, Hon. Levi S. Chatfield, C. P. Sykes, John J. Allen, Chairman of the State Committee, John A. Goodlet and Mr. Keyes, of New York. The Convention was called to order by John J. Allen.

FROM GEORGIA ELECTION.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—The election returns are coming in slowly. Partial returns from the following counties give Smith, Democrat, over fifteen thousand majority, viz: Barton, Bibb, Baldwin, Cobb, Catoosa, Clay, Clayton, Chatham, Dougherty, Floyd, Fulton, Gordon, Henry Lee, Lowndes, Monroe, Mitchell, Morgan, Muscogee, Murry, Pierce, Richmond, Spaulding, Sumpter, Troupe, Terrell, Talbot, Whitfield, Wilkes, Warren. The official count of Chatham gives Democrats twenty nine hundred and forty majority. Republicans carried Decatur county by three hundred. North Georgia has gone Democratic. It will be impossible to give anything more satisfactory to-night, but there appears to be no doubt that the democrats have carried the State by thirty thousand majority, as a full vote has been polled in every county.

ATLANTA, Oct. 3.—Thirty four counties have been heard from, and give Smith a majority of 19,631. But one county so far gives Walker, Radical, a majority of four hundred and fifty six. Some of the strongest Radical counties have been heard from.

The official majority as specially reported to the Atlanta Constitution are for Smith, democrat, as follows: Taliafero county, 309; Wilkes, 1,071; Muscogee, 700; Hancock, 200; Pulaski, 770; Richmond, 865; Whitefield, 176; Dougherty, 321; McDuffie, 530; DeKalb, 808; Morgan, 179; Wilkinson, 800; Setuley, 204; Sumter, 300; Troupe, 1,050; Coweta, 250; Brooks, 246; Randolph, 255; Laitman, 127; Campbell, 330; Floyd, 960; Jones, 800; Clark, 512; Newton, 173; Gordon, 980; Mitchell, 143; Terrell, 130; Talbot, 334; Murray, 308; Clayton, 420; Fulton, 3,350; Cobb, 800; Houston, 62; Bibb, 1,800; Lee, 175; Warren, 300; Monroe, 700; Barlow, 813; Clay, 50; Chatham, 2,940; Macon, 900; Baldwin, 900; Butts, 242; Burke, 600; Upton, 650; Henry, 134; Taylor, 100; Pike, 595; Stewart, 550. Forty-nine counties give Smith 2,827 majority. Walker, Randall, majority McIntosh, 453, Thomas 256, total 710. In fifty-one counties Smith, Democrat, majority 27,117.

LATER.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—The returns received from seventy counties in every portion of the State give the Democrats over twenty-five thousand majority. And 76 counties are yet to hear from, which will increase the majority to forty thousand. The following counties give the Democrats nine thousand majority: Schle, Randolph, Brooks, Quitman, Jones, Newton, Merriweather, Upson, Pike, Talisferra, Taylor, Stewart, Worth, Pulaski, Houston, Webster, Wilkinson, Putnam, Wasington, Burke, Columbia. Twiggs county gives a Republican majority of three hundred, and Greene county one hundred and eleven. Out of sixty counties heard from only four have gone Republican. Enthusiastic Democrats claim the State by fifty thousand majority.

SAVANNAH, Ga., October 3.—The money sent here from Washington to pay the poll taxes of the negroes was appropriated by white Radical managers, who gave the negroes bogus receipts. This swindling deprived a large number of negroes of their votes, which caused great indignation among them. They also collected money from the negroes to pay poll taxes and kept it, giving the same bogus re-

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT SOUTHERN remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scrofulous Taint, Rheumatism, White Swelling, Gout, Goitre, Consumption, Bronchitis, Nervous Debility and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the Blood.

The merits of this valuable preparation are so well known that a printing notice is not necessary to remind the readers of THE SENTINEL of the necessity of always having a bottle of it in the house among their stock of family necessities.

Orders can be presented from many leading Druggists, Minister's and Business Gentlemen throughout the South, according to the highest Merchants in Baltimore.

Dr. R. G. Watson, Corner of Baltimore and Eutaw streets, will tell you that he has been in the habit of using it in his practice for years, and that diseases with which he has had to contend, have yielded to its action.

Lt. T. C. Pegg of Baltimore, Md., commands it to all persons suffering from any disease arising from an impure condition of the blood, as he says he has used it in his own family for many years, and can say from experience that it is a good and reliable remedy.

Mary Dooley, Belt of the Baltimore M. E. Conference, says that she has been much benefited by its use, and that she cheerfully recommends it to all Ministers and acquaintances.

Parsons & Co., Druggists, Baltimore, say, they have sold it for years, and it gives satisfaction.

Burns & Co., Druggists, Memphis, Tennessee, says it cures after all other remedies fail, and is an excellent Blood Purifier. Dr. Watson says it cures after all other remedies fail, and is an excellent Blood Purifier. But our space would not permit us to mention every name in C. South who are known to recommend it, and call the matter personally to their attention.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.
