THE SENTINEL.

HOME AFFAIRS.

COTTON MARKET.—Reported by Lynn Adams, Grocer and Commission Merchant, South Market Street:

RALEIGH, Nov. 16,

Price of cotton in our Market to-day:

12 m. - - 17 1-8 to 17 1-4 cts.
4 P. M. - - - 17 1-4 "
Sales, - - - - - 100 bales.
Receipts, - - - - - firm.
Tone of the Market, steady.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.—Our types made us say in our yesterday's issue that Messrs. Pullen, Hicks and Williams were enlarging and otherwise improving the Baptist school property. It should have been Messrs. Pullen, "Heck" and Williams.

LOCAL DOTS.

A slight sprinkle of snow yesterday.

John D. Cameron, the talented editor of the Hillsboro "Recorder," is in the city.

The Wilmington papers speak of a young man from this city having lost his watch in that place on Thursday night.

The assembling of the Legislature gives to our streets a more lively appearance than usual.

Almost the entire work of the paper devolving upon the "local," but little attention could be given to his department proper.

On Sunday the piety of this city came out strongly. All of the churches had full congregations.

WANTS.—It is every man's destiny still to be longing after something, and thus the gratification of one set of wishes but prepares the unsatisfied soul for the conception of another. The child of a year old wants little but food and sleep; and no sooner is he supplied with a sufficient allowance of either of these very excellent things, than he begins whimpering or yelling, it may be, for the other. At three the young urchin becomes enamored of sugar plums, apples, pies and confectionary. At six, his imagination runs on kites, marbles and tops, and abundance of play time. At ten the boy wants to leave school, and have nothing to do but go bird-nesting and blackberry hunting. At fifteen, he wants a beard and watch and a pair of boots. At twenty he wishes to cut a figure and ride horses; sometimes his thirst for display breaks out in dandyism, and sometimes in poetry; he wants sadly to be in love, and takes it for granted that all the ladies are dying for him. The young man of twenty-five wants a wife and at thirty he longs to be single again. From thirty to forty he wants to be rich, and thinks more of making money than spending it. About this time, also, he dabbles in politics, and wants office. At fifty he wants excellent dinners and capital wine, and considers a nap in the afternoon indispensable. The respectable old gentleman of sixty wants to retire from business with a snug independence of three or four hundred thousand, to marry his daughters, set up his sons, and live in the country; and then for the rest of his days he wants to be young again. These are facts according to somebody.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

The Senate yesterday, on its organization, consisted of forty-six members—four only of the entire number elect being absent. We think this prompt attendance is without a parallel in the history of Legislatures of this and most other States. Promptly at 12 m. the Senate met, and by 1 o'clock the election of officers was completed and an organization effected. The following are the officers elect:

James T. Morehead, of Guilford, President pro tem.

Wm. L. Saunders, of New Hanover, Principal Clerk.

W. H. H. Cowles, of Yadkin, Assistant Clerk.

James E. Morris, of Craven, Principal Doorkeeper.

Guilford Christmas, of Warren, Assistant Doorkeeper.

The election of Engrossing Clerk was postponed and will probably take place to-day (Tuesday.)

Nothing beyond the organization was effected, and the Senate, at 1:30 p. m., adjourned till 11 a. m. to-day.

As may be seen from the proceedings, published elsewhere, the House of Representatives organized yesterday by the election of James L. Robinson, Esq., Speaker, Col. S. D Pool, of Craven, Principal Clerk, and Col. W. M. Hardy, of Buncombe, Assistant or Reading Clerk. Of course no business was transacted beyond organization. We heartily congratulate the House upon its judicious selection of officers. It could not be better, and gives general satisfaction.

Mr. Robinson has been a member of the Legislature since 1868, and although comparatively a young man, has a large experience. United with a clear intellect and quick perception, he possesses that tact and courtesy of department which cannot fail to make him popular as a presiding officer. The other officers are gentlemen well and favorably known to the public, and will discharge the duties of their offices satisfactorily. Col. Pool was Chief Clerk of the House some twenty years ago. Col. Hardy was Reading Clerk of the same body for several years before the war. The other officers, also is Assistant Doorkeeper, Engrossing Clerk, &c., will be elected in a day or two.

North Carolina Legislature.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Nov. 18, 1872.

Pursuant to law, the Senate branch of the General Assembly met to-day at 12 m., and was called to order by the Principal Clerk, Col. W. L. Saunders.

The roll of Senators was called, and the following answered and were duly qualified:

Messrs. Allen, Avara, Barnhardt, Chamberlain, Cowles, Creamer, Cunningham, Davis, Dunham, Ellis of Columbus, Eppes, col., Fleming, Grandy, Gudger, Harris, col., Hill, Holloman, Horton, Humphrey, Hyman, col., King, Long, Love, Mabson, col., McCabe, McCotter, Merrimon, Miller, Morehead of Guilford, Morehead of Rockingham, Murphy, Murray, Nicholson, Norwood, Price, Respass, Scott, Seymour, Stafford, Stilley, Todd, Walker, Waring, Welch and Worth.

Mr. Allen moved that the Senate go into an election of President pro tem, and put in nomination Col. Jas. T. Morehead, of Guilford.

Mr. Seymour nominated C. W. Grandy, of Pasquotank.

The following Senators voted for Col. Morehead:

Messrs. Allen, Avers, Barnhardt, Cowles, Cunningham, Davis, Dunham, Ellis of Catawba, Ellis of Columbus, Fleming, Gudger, Horton, Humphrey, Love, Merrimon, Miller, Morehead of Rockingham, Murphy, Murray, Nicholson, Norwood, Price, Scott, Stafford, Todd, Waring, Welch and Worth—28.

The following voted for Mr. Grandy:

Messrs. Chamberlain, Creamer, Eppes, col., Harris, col., Hill, Holloway, Hyman, col., King, Long, Mabson, col., McCabe, McCotter, Respass, Seymour, Stilley and Walker—16.

Mr. Grandy voted for A. T. Stilley.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, voted for W. A. Allen.

Mr. Morehead was declared duly elected and, on being conducted to the chair, acknowleged the high compliment paid to him in eloquent terms.

The President then announced the next business in order—the election of Principal Clerk.

Mr. Murphy put in nomination Col. W. L. Saunders, of New Hanover (Principal Clerk of the last Senate).

Harris, col., nominated H. B. Howell, of Alexander.

The vote resulted: Saunders, 28; Howell, 16.

Mr. Humphrey nominated Col. W. H. H. Cowles, of Yadkin, for Assistant Clerk.

Mr. Stilly nominated for the same office W. K. Moore, of Beaufort.

The vote resulted—Cowles, 29; Moore, 17.

Mr. Scott nominated James E. Morris, of Craven, for Principal Doorkeeper.

Mabson, col., E. F. Martin, of New Hanover.

The vote resulted—Morris, 29; Martin, 17.

Mr. Cowles moved that the election of Assistant Doorkeeper be postponed till to-morrow at 12 m. Not agreed to, and the Senate proceeded to fill that office.

Mr. Love nominated Guilford Christmas, col., of Warren.

Mr. Respass. J. P. Ochletree, of Alamance.

The vote resulted in the election of Christmas.

The clerks were now duly qualified and entered upon their duties.

On motion of Mr. Norwood, a message was sent to the House of Representatives informing that body of the organization of the Senate.

Leave of absence was granted to Mr. Allen for five days to attend his courts.

Mr. Avera moved to adjourn till 7 p. m.

Mr. King called for the ayes and noes. The Senate refused to adjourn by a vote of 23 to 22.

Mr. King moved the Senate go into the election of Engrossing Clerk.

Mr. Love moved to lay the motion on the table.

Mr. King called the ayes and noes.

Mr. Love's motion prevailed—25 to 16.

On motion of Mr. Love the rules of the last Senate were adopted for the present.

On motion of Mr. Love, and at 1:30 p. m., the Senate adjourned till 11 o'clock to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NOVEMBER 18, 1872.

The House was called to order at 12 by W. W. Gaither, Esq., Principal Clerk of the last House. At his direction the following members, from various counties, came forward, showed their certificates and were qualified:

Messrs. Gant, of Alamance, Bennett, of Anson, Trivett, of Ashe, Bryan, of Alleghany, Carson, of Alexander, Corson of Beaufort, Johnston and Blackwell, of Buncombe, Brooks of Brunswick, Warlick, of Burke, Shinn, of Cabarrus, Jones, of Camden, Jones of Caldwell, Webb, of Carteret, Foster and Brown, of Caswell, Houston, of Catawba, Morning and Hanna, of Chatham, Dickey, of Cherokee, Winslow, of Chowan, Anderson, of Clay, Gidney, of Cleaveland, Richardson of Columbus; Dudley and Abbott, of Craven, Bullard and Lutterloh, of Cumberland, Woodhouse of Currituck, Brown and Michael of Davidson, Anderson of Davie, Stamford and Outlaw, of Duplin, Gray of Dare, Mabson and Bunn of Edgecombe, Williamson of Franklin, Stow, of Gaston, Bunard, of Gates, Patrick, of Greene, Goodwin and Bryant of Halifax, Grady, of Harnett, Gilmer and Wiley, of Guilford, Blythe, of Henderson, Sharpe, of Hertford, Turner, of Iredell, Haynes, of Haywood, Bryson, of Jackson, Scott, of Jones, Davis, of Lenoir, Robinson, of Macon, Morrison, of Lincoln, Gudger, of Madison, Moore, of Martin, Freeman, of McDowell, Reid and Brown, of Mecklenburg, Sharpe, of Moore, Jordan, of Montgomery, Lindsay, of Nash, McLaurin and Loyd, of New Hanover, Jones, of Northampton, Shackelford, of Onslow, Watson and Jones of Orange, Godfrey, of Pasquotank; Durden, of Perquimans, Bryant, of Pitt, McGehee, of Person, Reid and Bean, of Randolph, Fletcher, of Richmond, McNeill and Norment, of Robeson, Settle and Johns, of Rockingham, Craig and Lackey, of Rowan, Whitsant, of Rutherford, Maxwell, of Sampson, Mitchell, of Stokes, Waugh, of Surry, Waddill, of Stanley, Bryson, of Swain, Whitaker, of Transylvania, Pressley, of Union, Badger, Perry, Gorman and Ellison, of Wake, King and Paschall of Warren, Guyther, of Washington, Todd, of Watauga, Copeland and Rhodes, of Wayne, Dalla and Bryant, of Wilkes, Marler, of Yadkin, and Byrd of Yancey.

When Mr. Moore, of Martin, presented his credentials, Mr. Badger objected, saying that Mr. Moore's opponent, Mr. Mizzel, held also a certificate of election from an alleged Sheriff of Martin county, and that he thought under the circumstances, both should be required to stand aside until the House could take action in the matter. He did not think the clerk now organizing the House could take upon himself the responsibility of deciding whose certificate should be accepted.

Mr. Moore replied that as proof that he held the regular certificate of election he would read a notice of contest, served upon him by his opponent, Mr. Mizzel, which he proceeded to read to the House. Thus it could be seen that his (Mr. Moore's) adversary admitted the legality of his certificate.

The clerk here announced that he had rejected Mr. Mizzel's certificate as it did not set forth to which branch of the General Assembly to which the holder claims to have been elected.

Mr. Badger. I appeal to this body in the matter.

Mr. Moore. To what body does the gentleman appeal? Certainly not to this House, for it is is not organized.

Mr. Badger. I believe you have got me.

Mr. Moore. I know I have.]

The clerk here announced the election of a presiding officer to be in order.

Mr. Stanford, of Duplin, nominated J. L. Robinson, of Macon.

Mr. Brown nominated R. C. Badger, of Wake.

The ballot resulted in Mr. Robinson receiving 63 votes and Mr. Badger 46.

[The roll is so inaccurate as to names, it is thought best to omit it.]

Messrs. Badger and Moore of Martin, conducted the Speaker elect to his seat.

Mr. Robinson on taking the chair made the following neat and graceful acknowledgement of the compliment:

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives of North Carolina:

I have no words to express my appreciation of the high compliment you have paid me by selecting me to preside over your deliberations. To the discharge of the important and complicated duties of the position, I must rely very much on your indulgence, and can only pledge an honest purpose to enforce fairly and impartially the rules of the House, and to know neither party nor friend in the government of your body.

We are here in this House to-day, gentlemen, as the chosen representatives of the people of every section of our good old Commonwealth. Her history from the dark days of 1776 to the present, the memory of her dead heroes and statesmen, are called up to mind by these surroundings, and constitute a legacy which every true North Carolinian should prize and cherish. To you who sit here to-day as the representatives of our whole people are confided a portion of the blank pages on which her future history is to be written. Will you not let it be your highest ambition to maintain and preserve the ancient honor and prosperity of the State, and to leave no blot or stain of dishonor for our historians to trace on these pages which are allotted to us?

Let party ambition and party strife be buried here, in the presence of the great interests of our people; let us strive to promote their prosperity and well being by a faithful application to our duties, and the enactment of such laws as the good of society and the business interests of the State may demand. Let us labor earnestly for the education of all our youth, for the restoration of our State credit, and by all means to invite and encourage the influx of laborers and capitalists, and encourage them to make their homes and investments among our people. North Carolina, is our mother, gentlemen, let us guard her every interest, let us who love her and glory in her past history, a history of prosperity and adversity, a while marching on in the sunshine of peace and happiness and again groping in the midnight darkness of civil strife and commotion. Let us, I say, strive to place her side by side with her sister States in this present confederation, in their onward march to prosperity, and show that we are no longer the Rip Van Winkle of the past—and while we "must foster" and stimulate a patriotism as broad as "our whole country," let us always feel and show that we are proud of her history and jealous of her honor. Let us transmit to posterity a commonwealth that is rich in all that is honorable, elevating and good.

Again thanking you for this manifestation of your kindness, I announce that the House is ready to proceed in its further organization

The election of a Principal Clerk was next declared in order, and Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, placed in nomination the name of S. D. Pool, of Craven, while Mr. Bean, of Randolph, that of M. V. B. Gilbert, of Wake. A ballot being taken Col. Pool received 62 votes and Mr. Gilbert 45. Col. Pool was declared duly elected, and entered at once upon the discharge of his duties.

An Assistant Clerk was next balloted for. W. M. Hardy, of Buncombe, and —— Mooring, of Rowan, were placed in nomination. The vote stood Hardy 62, Mooring 45.

Mr. Hardy was announced as duly elected and, after having qualified, entered at once upon the discharge of the duties of his office.

Messrs. John H. Hill and James Page, both of Randolph county, were placed in nomination for the position of Principal Doorkeeper. The ballot resulted in Mr. Hill receiving 62 votes and Mr. Page 45. Mr. Hill was announced as having been elected to the position.

On motion of Mr. Lackey, the House adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

MARKS AND FACES.—Ladies who mask their faces and necks with cosmetics endanger their health to no purpose. The plaster work deceives nobody. There is but one article known which will restore a blemished complexion or create external brilliance and bloom where they have never heretofore existed, and that article is Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It performs this beautiful miracle by infusing vitality into the skin. The floral and herbal juices of which it is composed gently stimulate the circulation in the minute blood vessels, and hence the net work of nerves through which they pass. Thus quickened and strengthened the external covering soon becomes a fresh and healthful hue, and every trace of sallowness disappears. The palest cheeks derive from the beautifying baptism of this delightful cosmetic a warmer hue, and the arms, hands and neck, a blonde lustre which the charlatans who profess to make ladies "beautiful forever" with their poisonous cement, can never hope to imitate.

The funeral of John Scales, deceased, will take place at his late residence at three o'clock this afternoon. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

CAUTION! LEA & PERRINS' Worcestershire Sauce.

Buyers are cautioned to avoid the numerous counterfeits and Imitations offered for sale.

MILLVILLE, FLA., Sept. 23, 1866.

Dr. Wm. H. Tutt:

BE ON THE SAFE SIDE.—We hold health and life by a frail tenure, and not to protect them to the best of our ability would seem to argue a deficiency of common sense. The searching winds and cold rains of spring, the tropic heat of summer, the malarious vapors of autumn, and the paralyzing temperature of winter, are all inimical to to those finely adjusted and sensitive pieces of mechanism we call our bodies. Each season has its peculiar perils, and the fall is perhaps as prolific of dangerous disorders as any of them; for at this season fevers and bowel complaints are very apt to take an epidemic form. As a preventive of this class of diseases, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters cannot be too warmly recommended. In it are combined five essential medical properties. It is a tonic at once powerful and wholesome—a stimulant, pure and undefiled an aperient, mild and painless—an anti-bilious agent of marvelous efficacy, and a general regulating medicine without an equal in the pharmacopia. These five distinct properties, operating together in perfect harmony, produce a condition of the system somewhat analogous to that brought about by a course of pugilistic training. In other words, as judicious physical training hardens the flesh and renders it comparatively first proof, so does this marvellous invigorant increase the capability of the organs of the body to resist the more indirect and insidious assaults of disease. It imparts new elasticity and strength to the vital machinery, and those who use it as a preventive of intermittent fever, dysentery, diarrhœa, dyspepsia, rheumatism, and other ailments common at the season, may walk fearless through an atmosphere impregnated with the morbid elements which give rise to those maladies.

This is strictly a

HOME LIFE COMPANY.

Its officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster home institutions.

SUBSTANTIAL BENEFIT

Another important fact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Life has thus far obtained a very much larger interest for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.

These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be borne in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should insure at home, this were more than sufficient.

THE WILMINGTON LIFE

has excellent special features

Its pieces no restriction on residence or travel; it makes no extra charge for female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.

Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with great caution. Its investments are made judiciously.

Its motto is:

ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS.

MEDICAL.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.

BALTIMORE, MD.

OFFICE—7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET

DR. JOHNSON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, discovered, when in the Great Hospitals of Europe, viz: England, France and elsewhere, the most certain speedy, secret and effectual remedy in the world for all diseases or abuses of the system.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Gravel, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Inveterate Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—these terrible Diseases arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible, and destroying both body and mind.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may rest with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Power (Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately Cured and full Vigor Restored.

This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands this subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Cons
