COMPLAINT.—An anonymous correspondent from Johnston county, complains that a certain railroad agent is not attentive to his duties, and is too often absent from his office. We will not give the name of the agent as the complainant does not give his.

LOCAL DOTS.

Hon. W. A. Smith was in the city yesterday.

The front windows of Fisher's Building consists of one pane of glass, 72x128 inches in size.

No cases came up for trial at Police Court yesterday morning.

Hickman Lodge, No. 1, Good Templars of this city, have just received their new regalias.

S. F. Phillips, Esq., left this city Wednesday for Washington. It is said that he will reside there permanently.

Rev. W. B. Wellons, of Suffolk, "Christian Sun," passed through this city Wednesday afternoon en route for his home.

There are a number of unmarried good looking men in the present House of Representatives, between the ages of 25 and 40.

HURRYGRAPHS:

We have to omit our State news to-day for want of space.

John Speiman, Esq., an excellent reporter, represents the SENTINEL in the Senate.

The Circuit Court of the United States will meet in this city on next Monday. Judge Brooks is now at the National.

Goodwyn, of Halifax, in discussing some point on yesterday, referred to one of his colleagues as "old coons." This is a specimen of Radical amenities.

The people around Henderson are getting up a petition for the formation of a new county out of a part of Granville, Warren and Franklin. A large number of names had been entered upon the petition up to last Monday.

Mr. Daniel Bond, of Enfield, N. C., we are glad to see, purposes to begin the publication of a paper at that place early in January.

We understand that the Presidential election returns from some sixty counties have been received. The vote of some of our neighboring counties is not known in Raleigh—Granville, for instance.

Mr. Syme, our local, is reporting for the House of Representatives. This will account for any deficiencies in these columns. What the Associate contributes is distinguished by a *. His time is necessarily so preoccupied by his regular editorial duties, including proof-reading, that he has no opportunity afforded him to hunt up locals.

The great question now agitating the public mind in Raleigh is, "Who, and how many wrote the Message of Smellfungus?" It is a regular missile, the stones of which are gathered from sundry mental quarries. We have heard it suggested that "Cousin John" furnished the ineffluous platitudes, Mr. Phillips, Grant's appointee, supplied the remarks on Federal relations and "Hawk" Rogers managed the statistical portions. Other "practice hands" worked up other parts.

As we were unable to procure the Governor's Message before it was read in the Legislature, we are content to publish it in instalments. It is better to take it in broken doses, or it might produce nausea. It is a happy illustration of the "forcible feeble," as every man of thought and culture must perceive. We will notice it more particularly hereafter.

Ex-Gov. Vance is in Raleigh, looking remarkably well. We do not mean specially handsome, but in "good keep," you know.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Nicholson introduced a bill to provide for a special court for the trial of misdemeanors in the town of Statesville.

Mr. Fleming introduced a bill to repeal the Code of Civil Procedure and to enact a code in lieu thereof.

Mr. Murphy introduced a bill to incorporate the North Carolina State Life Insurance Company.

These several bills were appropriately referred.

A proposition from the House to inquire into the expediency of heating the several departments of the Capitol building with the most approved apparatus, was concurred in by the Senate.

A lively little debate sprung up on the question of printing twenty copies of the Governor's Message for each member of Assembly.

The document was properly stigmatized as a "stump speech," and opposition was made to printing so large an edition of it, at the public cost. It was agreed, however, by the Senate, to print ten copies for each member.

The question of indulging delinquent sheriffs was pretty clearly settled yesterday in disposing of the resolution for the relief of the sheriff of Beaufort county. The resolution was tabled by a vote of some four to one. See Senate proceedings.

The proceedings of the House on yesterday were devoid of interest.

Mr. Badger introduced a resolution relieving W. W. Holden of the disqualifications of holding office, &c., which went over under the rules.

Committees on Privileges and Elections and Judiciary were announced.

Resolutions were offered in reference to the contested seats for Edgecombe and Martin counties.

For full particulars the reader is referred to the proceedings.

AID FOR BOSTON.

As the following may be of some interest to a portion of our readers we make room for it to-day:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
CITY HALL,
Boston, Nov. 15, 1872.

His HONOR,
W. WHITAKER, Mayor,
Raleigh, N. C.:

DEAR SIR:—I beg you will communicate to the citizens of Raleigh the hearty thanks of the City Government and citizens of Boston for their kind expressions of sympathy in our misfortune, and their generous offer of aid to those who have been made destitute. The first reports of the amount of destruction caused by the fire were somewhat exaggerated. But four dwelling houses have been destroyed, and not more than three hundred persons have been rendered homeless. The merchants and manufacturers have sustained great losses, which will cause some distress among the poor people as the cold season advances.

A committee composed of our principal citizens have organized a system of relief; and I enclose a copy of the resolution which they have adopted in regard to the proffers of aid from other communities.

I am, with great respect,
WM. GASTON.

CITIZENS' RELIEF COMMITTEE,
CITY HALL,
Boston, November 14, 1872.

Resolved, That this committee, in behalf of the citizens of Boston, return most sincere and hearty thanks to their fellow-citizens in all parts of the Union, for the warm expressions of sympathy they have tendered during our misfortune, and for the generous offers of pecuniary aid they have made, and that the aid thus offered be gratefully accepted.

FRANKLIN WILLIAMS,
Secretary.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—J. De Witter will speak at the court house at 8 o'clock to-night on the subject of the publication of a "Newspaper" at Raleigh in the special interest of the colored people.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF VIRGINIA.—By reference to the official returns of the recent election in this State, it is easy to explain why Virginia was lost to Greeley and the Conservatives. The people did not come out to the polls. The official vote sums up:

| | |
|---|---|
| For Grant | 93,413 |
| " Greeley | 92,440 |
| Grant's majority | 1,975 |

The whole vote given was about 36,000 less than that cast at the Walker and Wells election of 1869, and three fourths of this loss fell on the Conservative side, showing that a large number of white suffragians did not turn out at all.—Danville Register.

END OF THE FEWELL TRIAL.—The trial of young J. F. Diark, which has been in progress for over a week at Brentsville, charged with abducting and ruining his sister, and whom he shot dead while helpless and defenceless within the bars of a prison, resulted Wednesday evening in the rendition of a verdict of not guilty, the jury being out only a short while.

MASKS AND FACES.—Ladies who mask their faces and necks with enamels endanger their health to no purpose. The plaster work deceives nobody. There is but one article known which will restore a blemished complexion or create external brilliance and bloom where they have never heretofore existed, and that article is Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It performs this toilet miracle by infusing vitality into the skin. The floral and herbal juices of which it is composed gently stimulate the circulation in the minutest vessels and brace the network of nerves through which they pass. Thus quickened and strengthened the external covering soon acquires a fresh and healthful hue, and every trace of sallowness disappears. The palest cheek derive from the beautifying baptism of this delightful cosmetic a warmer hue, and the arms, hands and neck, a blonde lustre which the charlatans, who profess to make ladies "beautiful for ever" with their poisonous cement, can never hope to imitate.

North Carolina Legislature.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Nov. 21, 1872.

The Senate met at 11 a. m., President Morehead in the Chair.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Merrimon, by permission, recorded his vote in favor of W. J. Wilson for engrossing clerk, having been absent when the vote was taken on yesterday.

Mr. Morehead, of Rockingham, reported from the committee appointed to report rules of order for the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Troy the report was adopted and ordered to be printed with the joint rules when adopted.

Mr. Nicholson introduced a bill to amend the charter of the town of Statesville, and to establish therein a special court for the trial of misdemeanors. Referred to the judiciary committee.

Mr. Waring introduced a bill for the relief of the clerk of the Superior Court of the county of Franklin. [Proposes to relieve the clerk from the operation of the law requiring him to attend his office and probate business each Monday, and imposing a penalty resulting from a failure to observe its provisions.] Referred.

Mr. Fleming introduced a bill to repeal the Code of Civil Procedure, and to enact another code in lieu thereof. Referred.

Mr. Murphy, a bill to incorporate the North Carolina State Life Insurance Company. Referred.

A message was received from the House asking concurrence in a resolution for a joint select committee on heating the Capitol building. Concurred in.

Also proposing a joint committee on joint rules of order. Concurred in.

Also a message transmitting the Governor's message, with a proposition to print twenty copies for each member and fifty for the Executive Department.

The Clerk proceeded to read the message, when he was interrupted by a motion to suspend the further reading, a printed copy of the message having been placed on the desk of each member.

The proposition to print was amended by striking out twenty and inserting ten as the number of copies for each member, Senators having no wish to circulate a stump speech at the public expense.

A message was received from the House announcing the concurrence of that body in the proposition to print the report of the commission appointed last session to examine the affairs of the Treasurer's office.

On motion of Ellis, of Catawba, the Enrolling Clerk was sworn in.

Mr. Worth announced the absence of Mr. Powell from his seat yesterday on account of sickness.

The resolution, laid over yesterday under the rules, to raise a joint select committee of 6 on the part of the Senate and 9 on the part of the House on the State debt and liabilities, was taken up and adopted.

The resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Beaufort county was taken up. [Extends time of collecting and accounting for taxes.

Mr. Respess urged its passage. It was a meritorious case.

Mr. Murphy objected. He was for requiring prompt settlements from Sheriffs and tax collectors.

Mr. Stilley concurred in the main with Mr. Murphy, but the case was worthy some indulgence.

Mr. Fleming favored some general law.

Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, urged the passage of the resolution. Relief should be favored where good grounds exist.

Mr. Love deprecated the waste of the public money by the incessant legislation in favor of sheriffs. He favored a general bill but was opposed to this special legislation. He moved to lay the resolution on the table but withdrew his motion to admit of further debate.

Mr. Barnhardt concurred with Mr. Love.

Mr. Respess following in support of the resolution.

Mr. Dunham concurred also with Mr. Love. He represented a constituency similar to that of the Senator from Beaufort, and the sheriff of his county had settled with the Treasurer. He announced his determination to vote to relieve no sheriff unless prevented from collecting his taxes by the interposition of the courts or the hand of God.

Mr. Love followed in opposition to the bill.

Mr. Murphy disclaimed all partizan feeling in this matter.

The resolution was laid on the table.

The President announced Messrs. Murphy, Grandy and Davis as the Senate branch of the committee on joint rules.

On motion of Mr. Respess, at 1:30 p. m., the Senate adjourned till 11 o'clock to-morrow.

A discussion of some length arose in regard to the adoption of the rules which lasted for some time. At the end of the debate the report was adopted.

Mr. Houston offered a resolution ordering the printing of 150 copies of the rules.

On motion of Mr. Houston, the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Badger: A resolution removing the disqualifications of W. W. Holden from holding office; placed on calendar.

The chair announced the following gentlemen as the Judiciary Committee:

By Mr. Houston: A resolution raising a joint committee, three on the part of the Senate and five on the part of the House, to recommend joint rules of order.

On motion of Mr. Houston, the rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

On motion of Mr. Joyner, the rules were suspended and the resolution in favor of Simon Goodwin, tax collector of Johnston county, was taken up.

Mr. Goodwin moved to amend by adding the name of Jno. A. Reid, of Halifax county; adopted.

Mr. Anderson, of Clay, moved to amend by inserting the name of J. B. Cherry, of Clay county; adopted.

Mr. Johnston called attention to the fact that there was already a law in force covering these cases.

Mr. Joyner proceeded to state the reasons which induced him to offer the bill.

Mr. Perry, of Wake, moved to add the name of T. F. Lee, Sheriff of Wake county; adopted.

Mr. Blackwell moved to add the name of J. M. Young, of Buncombe county; adopted.

By Mr. Marler: A resolution to print 800 copies of the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction—500 for the House and 300 for the Superintendent; placed on calendar.

By Mr. Gorman: A resolution authorizing the Keeper of the Capitol to purchase three stands of National colors, and that when purchased the National colors be displayed daily from the flag staff of the Capitol while the General Assembly is in session; placed on the calendar.

On motion of Mr. Badger, the rules were suspended, and Mr. Marler's resolution in reference to the printing of the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction was taken up.

The Chair called attention to one of the rules of the joint rules of order which prescribes the number of copies of reports, &c., which should be presented (250.)

Mr. Marler then, by consent, withdrew his resolution.

Mr. Sharpe wanted a special committee to investigate the facts connected with the contested seat of Martin. He said the member holding the seat had been the legal adviser of the Board of Commissioners and had advised to throw out the returns of one precinct, &c.

Mr. Moore, of Martin, said he had but very little personal interest in the matter, and hoped he would not display over such zeal in his defence of his legal right to the seat, but he could not allow the gentleman from Hertford (Mr. Sharpe) to place him in a false position. He never advised the Commissioners in any way concerning the election returns, &c. He had no shadow of doubt as to his perfect right to the seat.

Mr. Sharpe offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to investigate the case and report on Saturday morning.

Mr. Sharpe moved to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution at once. The motion was put to a vote and failed. The resolution then went over under the rules.

By Mr. Morris: A resolution instructing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to inquire whether W. P. Mabson, of Edgecombe, was a bona fide citizen of the State at the time of the election and to report as soon as practible.

On motion of Mr. Morman the rules were suspended and the resolution was taken up.

Mr. Anderson moved to amend by giving power to send for "persons and papers." The amendment was accepted.

Mr. Heaton thought all the names of contestants should be included.

The resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Ellison, col.: A bill to incorporate Mount Hope Cemetery Association, Wake county; referred.

Mr. McGehee moved to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to suspend the rules to take up the resolution of Mr. Sharpe, of Hertford.

Mr. Goodwin hoped that no reconsideration would take place. He thought the committee should first discuss the matter.

Here a long discussion upon the motion to reconsider, which ended in the motion being voted down.

On motion the House adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

We are informed upon reliable authority that a man by the name of William Johnston was killed about ten miles from Wilkesboro', on Wednesday, by being kicked by a mule. Johnston had gone to the stable to change the mule from one stable to an other, and not returning, some one went in search of him and found him lying in the stable dead, with a bruise on his forehead. As the mule was very vicious, there is no doubt Johnston lost his life as above stated.—Statesville Intelligencer.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Thos. Furman has been appointed Postmaster at Philadelphia.

Our Minister to Mexico, Mr. Nelson, had a long interview with President Grant this afternoon relative to the condition of affairs in that country. He speaks in terms of praise of the new President of that Republic, and particularly of his intelligence and desire to preserve and strengthen the friendship now existing between his own country and the United States. There seems to be no obstacle in the way of concluding a new convention, extending the time for disposing of the remaining claims before the United States and the Mexican Mixed Commission, which by limitation will expire under the present convention in February next.

It is stated that the Mexican President is anxious for such an extension, and will appoint an agent in good faith to carry out the design of the Commission in place of Mr. Guzman, by whose action the proceedings were some weeks ago interrupted. Preliminary steps have already been taken for a new convention.
