REMARKS.

We regret exceedingly that so ugly a mistake occurs in our leading editorial in regard to Mr. Greeley's given name HORACE. The manuscript, proof and revise were all right. The error occurred in making up the form. We only detected the mistake at a late hour when the entire edition for the inside had been worked off.

REMARKS.

We learn that a gentleman, a member of the Legislature, was in search of Dr. Pritchard's study which is in the Baptist Church. He unfortunately took the wrong direction and opening a door that led into a dark passage, he advanced when suddenly he received an involuntary immersion in the baptistry—a new way to make Baptists.

REMARKS.

The weather is remarkably cold for November. The thermometer stood at 12 degrees above zero on Saturday morning. We do not remember to have felt before as cold a season as early in the winter.

REMARKS.

SACRED CANTATA.—We had the pleasure of receiving an invitation from Prof. Bauman to the "Sacred Cantata" at Prof. Bauman on Friday evening. The low temperature caused by the blasts of the angry god of approaching winter had almost deterred us from putting in an appearance, but happily for us we concluded to brave his wrath, and the musical feast served up to the large and appreciative audience would have fully repaid us had the weather been much more inclement.

REMARKS.

Where every one does so well, it is hard to distinguish any who were pre eminent but it would be passing by rare excellence not to mention the rendition of the solo and chorus of "Mordiel, Eather and the Jews;" also the solo and duet, "What wilt thou, Queen Esther," was rendered in a style that would have been creditable to singers upon any stage and before any audience. The solo in which "Haman proclaims Mordiel the favored one," was well received and appreciated. The closing "Choral and Chorus" was in full accord with the rest of the beautiful performance. It is but small praise to say that the whole was a perfect success and was greatly enjoyed by every lover of harmony; while those who had no music in their souls had ample wherewith to regale the eye in the beautiful faces of the four young ladies composing the school.

REMARKS.

A gentleman of superior musical taste and culture, James Pinson, Esq., furnishes us with the following comments: "The performance given last night at this elegant establishment was a decided success. Among the ladies and gentlemen who took part in it, there were some excellent voices and evident musical talent. The lady who took the part of the Queen, has a high and very melodious soprano voice, and a little more cultivation would make her a very fine vocalist. In short, without attempting to criticize any part of it, it was a most noteworthy and excellent performance, such as can rarely be heard from amateurs. The solos, duets and trios, were sung with great taste and feeling, and the choruses were very full and effective. Prof. Bauman, although there was nothing in his part to call forth his powers as a Pianist, gave evidence of his artistic skill and knowledge as a conductor and musician. Great credit is due to the proprietor for his excellent arrangements in securing the music, and to the manager for the elegant and elegant that ever assembled in Raleigh."

REMARKS.

For the benefit of the SENATORSHIP.

Mr. Enton.—It is apparent that efforts are being made to drive, prejudice and prejudice those gentlemen in the Legislature who support Judge Merrimon for U. S. Senator.

This course is wrong in itself, and will not accomplish the purpose intended. These gentlemen are men of intelligence and firmness; they will know what they are doing, and they have the courage to do what their judgment approves as right and wise. They are actuated by the purest principles and motives, and by no hostile feeling towards any one; they look only to what they conceive to be the highest and best interests of the Democratic-Conservative party and the people of the State.

They insist and are able to show that there is no party nominee for Senator, that a majority of the caucus which sought to nominate Governor Vance had pre-judged and pre-determined what the action of the caucus should be in the matter of the nomination, so that every gentleman except Governor Vance was virtually driven from the caucus—that the caucus as a nominating body, had lost its efficacy as such. The gentleman supporting Judge Merrimon made every reasonable effort to avoid these efforts, but he did not succeed, and as a result he was in no sense or way bound by its action. It is well known that gentlemen who remained with it and its action, and the vote in caucus shows that Governor Vance is the first after all that was done to that end, only received 43 votes.

The gentlemen supporting Judge Merrimon, are supporting principle rather than men or a man, as their action when fully and fairly made known to the public will show. At the proper time they fully intend to issue an address to the people of the State, stating the grounds of their action and vindicatory of themselves. They do not fear the verdict of judgment of the people, and to them alone are they responsible.

REMARKS.

THE PUBLIC PRINTING.—From information received, we suppose the public printing will be given to the office of the Raleigh News, and at prices somewhat higher than they stand by the last General Assembly. It appears to be controlled by persons of no particular ability, and the price paid for this work during the last two years is so low that the public printer loses money by getting the contract.—Saltwater Fisherman.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

In the Senate on Saturday the bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Bladen passed its final reading.

The bill to change the time of holding Wake Superior Courts was also finally disposed of.

Mr. Murphy introduced a bill to extend till the 30th day of December the time for the redemption of property sold for taxes. This bill was referred.

Mr. Davis a bill to amend section 60, chapter 113 of the laws of 1868-69, which was also referred.

See Senate proceedings.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

In the House on Saturday the usual routine of business was gone through with, and nothing of importance came up.

The Senatorial election continues to be the all absorbing excitement. Two ballots were had in joint session on Saturday and no result was reached. The details of the proceedings of the joint session are given in our regularly reported proceedings of the House.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

There was a meeting of this body on Thursday afternoon when the following Committee was appointed to solicit contributions for the relief of the sufferers of the poor, viz: Messrs. A. M. McPherson, W. G. Stronach, and John Armstrong. The citizens can hand their contributions to either the Committee or leave them at any City bank with their names. Lack of space compels us to omit comments to day, but we will recur to the subject in our next. This weather is serious and argument enough.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

A MOST HORRIBLE OUTLAGE.—We are pained to have to record one of the most fiendish deeds that have ever disgraced our State and age. A day or two ago a negro about 17 years of age perpetrated the most terrible outrage upon the body of a little daughter of a respectable gentleman (Mr. Aaron Strowd) living some eight miles South-west of Hillsboro. The villain secreted himself, but has been captured and confined in Hillsboro jail. He confessed he committed the act. The poor little sufferer, who is only four years of age, was on Friday, in an alarming condition. We cannot dwell upon such an enormity. In any other section of our land—in any part of the North such a fearful crime would be speedily atoned for without waiting the process of law. We are glad that the enraged neighbors and father allowed the villain to be quietly arrested and taken to jail to await his trial.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

THE CONING ENTERTAINMENT.—We hope that the excellent Company that is to play next week at Tucker Hall will be greeted nightly with large and appreciative audiences. We will not mislead our people intentionally. We know how much in our playing afflicts this community from time to time. It affords us pleasure to say that in the Company billed for next week there is every promise of a very rich entertainment. The papers of Richmond, Norfolk and other places have given this Comedy Company almost unmeasured praise. In a critical notice of the state of Nov. 16th the Richmond Enquirer, among other things said this:

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

The Putnam mania is rapidly spreading. It is epidemic of a more serious nature than the epidemic. We have rarely witnessed such a fever in Raleigh. The whole theatre-going public of the city is wild with delight over her performances, and the universal verdict is that she is the most charming and perfectly beautiful little lady that has ever graced our boards. She has passed through our town like a brilliant meteor, whose condescensions will not soon fade from memory.

Last night was her benefit, and she played "Punchon" in "Crickit on the Heath." The part was never so well rendered here before, and the entire performance was most admirable. Mr. Brown made a Landry every way worthy of the Panchon, and the whole support was so admirable keeping with the excellent rendition of the leading parts. The audience were in ecstasies, and rarely have we seen a better satisfied house.
