Technic Hall. -The largest audience that has been present during the week was at Tucker Hall on Friday night on the occasion of Katle Putnam's benefit, it contained a good deal of the beauty, fashion and culture of the city, and as far as we know, all were highly delighted. The writer of this has expressed opinins concerning the playing of this Company that have collided with the views I ame others. This is not by any means his first experience in this way. He once wrote an elaborate critique on an English fiction that was regarded as extravaguat and, perhaps unfortunate, by some cultured ersons in the State. He was afterwards abundantly sustained by the critical dieta of the ablest writers connected with the British press and British periodical literament in regard to the merits of the Comcritical opinion upon a fine painting or a vices upwards of $60 per annum." piece of sculpture, or an oratorio, Many other such words of praise could cultivated in those fields of genius. LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY. In the Senate on Saturday the question his election, was introduced and reterred to the above mentioned committee.

THE VERDICT, -At 10 o'clock on Saturday, the jury in the case of Turner against Kirk and Bergen, returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,000. This was the result of one night and part of two days deliberation. We shall learn after court adjourns the history of the verdict, what was said, and how it was that the jury were so long coming to a verdict.
