SENATE FRIDAY, Dec. 13, 1879.

The Senate met at 10 s. m., President Reports from standing committeesented by Messra Cunningham, presented by Messra. Cunningham Murray, Morrimon, Yowell and Cowies.

Mr. Chamberlain rose to a question of personal privilege and stated he had been misrepresented in the Deily News in be-ing reported as agreeing with Mr. Gran-dy in his speech of yesterday. BILLA INTRODUCED.

Mr. Resposs introduced a bill to author art, Respess introduced a full to authorize the commissioners of Beaufort county to key a special tax. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Murray, the tokes were suspended and the will to authorize the commissioners of Guillord county to key a special tax, not exceeding $30,000, for the crection of a new Court House, passed its second reading.

Mr. McCauley introduced a bill to be entitled. An act concerning the right of way to churches and other places of pubway to courcine and other places of pub-lic worship. Referred.

Mr. Love introduced a resolution in savor of H. Adams. Referred.

Mr. Norwood introduced a resolution proposing to amend the joint rules of order. Went over under the rules, UNPINISHED BUSINESS. The bill to charter the New York, Nor to k a d barleston Rairroad Company, the unfi asked business of yesterday, was resumed, the question being on the pas-sage of the bill on its third reading. Mr. Dunham said he had no objection to the road but he did se-riously object to the bill in the it gives the power of appointing commis-sions on the right of way to the Governor, arranged and presented a most attractive shoppearance.

sions on the right of way to the Governor, wholly ignoring the owner of the land in such selections; that it gives the company unlimited power to decrease or increase its capital stock : and that it authorizes the corporation to change its corporate name at any time. Without the cure of these efects he would yote against the bill. Mr. Morehead, of Rockingham, fully concurred with Mr. Dunham and offered a series of amendments to cover them-depriving the Governor of the proposed appointing power; prohibiting the compacy from reducing its capital stock and limiting the increase of the capital stock to 100,000 shares of $100 each; and orbidding a change of corporate name. He also moved to amend by fixing the maximum rates of freight at six cents per ton and of passenger rates at six cents pe

Mr. Chamberlain announced the wilingness of the friends of the bill to accept all these amendments. They were ac-cordingly incorporated in the bill. Thus amended, the bill passed its third reading by a vote of 48 to 1, and was trans-mitted to the House.

Mr. Love introduced a bill in relation the printing of the private laws. Re-PAYETTEVILLE & PLORENCE R. B. CO. On motion of Mr. Troy, the rules were aspended, and the bill to revive and continue in force the charter of the Pay-etteville and Piorence Railroad a ompany passed it second and third readings. PUBLIC PRINTING. Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, presented the report of the committee on printing givcrease of price for the public printing. The report is full and somewhat lengthy and includes estimates of experts, and its third reading.

Mr. Worth said it had always been the Mr. Worth said it had always been the custom of the dominant party in the Legislature to give the printing to its political friends. He was satisfied that there would be no objection to this course now, on his side of the house, were the republicans in the majority. The opposition of the republicans arose from the fact that it was understood Jo Turner was to have the pricting, and Jo Turner had not that it was understood Jo Turner was to have the prioting, and Jo Turner had not been, nor was he now much a favorite with that party. It was a notorious fact that all the clamor of last session and all the efforts at putting down the prices of the prioting were aimed at Jo Turner and were intended to break him down. Mr. Worth called upon the opposition to come them. The crimined condition of the Worth called upon the opposition to come up to the work like men, give a fair price

Mr. Love said there was no necessity for any farther waste of time in the consideration of this bill. The matter was fully understood. There could be no doubt that the present rates were too low. The people were willing that fair compensation should be allowed the public practer.

Mr. Resposs moved to strike out 80 cents and insert 75 as the price of piain work per 1,000 cms, and $1.00 and insert $1.50 for rule and figure work.

A division of the question was called for, and the question was taken on striking

The Louisiana question was argued at length before the Supreme Court to day. declaion expected Monday.

The Attorney General has, with the approval of the President, submitted a plant of compromise for the existing difficulties in the Alabama Legislature. It suggests a re-organization of the House, also that the votes of the members for Barbour county be counted in the House, with a view of seating whoever is found to be properly elected, the member to be seated during the contest, who has Boylan's contificate. It proposes that contests for Sarbour arisen to be settled in a similar manner, and makes further provision for compensation of officers and members during a tempyrary organization of the House while contests are pending.
