The bill to authorize the commissioners of Guilford to levy a special tax for the purpose of building a new court-house passed its third reading.

The House bill to regulate the salaries of the Governor and State Treasurer was amended by making the salary of the Governor $4,000 instead of $2,500 and the House subsequently concurred in the amendment. The salaries of these officers now stand—Governor $4,000, Treasurer $3,000.

The most important measure debated in the House on yesterday was the bill to amend the election law, passed by the last General Assembly, as to allow voting by certificate and to do away with the restrictions as to color of paper and device. The bill was very properly indefinitely postponed.

The band is composed of a number of young gentlemen of the city and though but comparatively a short time in practice acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner on this occasion. We heard an excellent musician say that considering their opportunity for practice that they played remarkably well, and that if they kept their organization up in a short time they could successfully compete with any band in the State. We congratulate the young men upon their success.

GRAND LODGE F. A. M. OF N. C. TUESDAY MORNING, Dec. 9, 1872. REG. J. F. LITTLEFIELD'S REPORT.

The Board of Directors of St. John's College report that they have failed to make any arrangements for establishing a school in this institution. After advertising for proposals to lease the property for a male or female school or college, they received but one application. The terms upon which the college was offered to the State, to wit: $500 per annum, were declined on the ground that the rent was too high. The Board has put the building in charge of a competent gentleman, who resides upon the premises and supervises the property, and says a school can be established in a good state of preservation.

The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That St. John's College shall be made an asylum for the protection, training, and education of indigent orphan children.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge will appropriate $500 annually for the support of the institution, but will not assume any additional pecuniary responsibility.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge elect a Superintendent who shall control the institution, and solicit contributions for its support from all classes of our people.

Resolved, That the orphan children in the said asylum shall be fed, clothed, and shall receive such preparatory training and education as will prepare them for useful occupations and for the usual business transactions of life.

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the said Orphan Asylum shall report to each annual communication an account of his official acts, receipts, disbursements, number of pupils, &c., together with such suggestions as he may see fit to offer. Copy from records.

D. W. BALS, Sec. Gen. An unexpected responsibility has suddenly been thrown upon me in the magnitude of the work looks up before me in appalling proportions. But there is an opportunity to benefit a neglected class of children. Other States have opened asylums for their indigent orphans, have found them, clothed them, and made them useful citizens. But we have been tardy. Let us now awake to a full appreciation of our great responsibilities.

As school houses are cheaper than jails, as churches are cheaper than asylums, as cheap as penitentiaries. How often do we look in upon a happy family of parents and children around a cheerful fire-side! But death takes the parents and leaves the orphans in the hands of a world lying in wickedness. At any hour, the happest children in our land may be reduced to orphanage and to poverty. If we wish others to be kind to the orphan we may leave no stone unturned to help them.

In Masonry, every member is a brother to the whole fraternity, and a reliable friend and protector of every man's family. In Christianity, every one's great life-work is to go about doing good, especially to the needy and to the kindred beauteous. The great Christian Exemplar is one who accepted poverty and death, to give riches and life to sinners when they were cut off from every other source of help.

One thing lightens the burden of the work for orphans; the cause carries its own appeal. Every heart beats with sympathy for helpless, but hopeful youth. My heart is already grateful for unnumbered assurances of cordial co-operation. The beginnings of the work, must be small, but the details of organization tedious. Appointments will be made very deliberately and very cautiously. The institution will be neutral in politics and religion. All political and religious or else will be treated with the greatest possible courtesy and kindness, at the same time a high standard of morality, and I hope of piety, will be kept prominently in view.

Five hundred dollars, in addition to the amount contributed by the Grand Lodge, will be needed at once. Col. W. E. Anderson, Treasurer of the Grand Lodge, and President of the Citizens' National Bank, will receive contributions. Other donors will be announced in due time. The amount needed will be acknowledged every week, to the papers circulating among the contributors.
